THE MISSION OF OUR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

“The purpose of the Annual Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God” (The United Methodist Book of Discipline, ¶ 601).

THE VISION OF OUR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

“Making and supporting vital Christians in vital congregations that engage with their communities and the world for peace, justice, and mercy.”

CORE VALUES

In responding together to God’s call for our Annual Conference, we desire a culture that values:

- Focus on mission
- Evaluation, accountability, and support for growth
- Experimentation and risk-taking (with room for failure) for the purpose of learning
- Transparency
- Honesty and graciousness with each other
- Safe spaces for sharing
- Relationship-building
- Provision of resources/services closer to the local church
- Fostering and celebrating diversity (as a conference, in our community and in the world)

CORE 2019 ANNUAL CONFERENCE PRIORITIZED GOALS

Goal 1: To Grow and Reach New Disciples of Jesus Christ

Goal 2: To Live Out the Conviction that Racism is Incompatible with Christian Teaching

Goal 3: To Increase the Number of Highly Vital Congregations

The 2019 Journal reflects the official proceedings of the 180th annual session of the Northern Illinois Conference which met on Sunday, June 2 through Tuesday, June 4, 2019, in Clergy Session on Tuesday, May 21. A Supplemental Journal will be published after the November 16, 2019, Special Session to finalize issues related to Document 600 – The Budget. This journal is the work of many - lay, clergy, volunteer, and staff - who have labored faithfully to produce the Annual Conference proceedings and work with authority and integrity. We are human and therefore prone to error. For any errors you may find, we ask your forgiveness; for those you wish to be corrected, you can direct them to my attention.

As Annual Conference Secretary, I am so grateful for the assistance of Rev. Arlene Christopherson, Diane Strzelecki, Rev. Alka Lyall, Rev. Katie Voight, Marva Andrews, Jack Ryder, Anne Marie Gerhardt, Rev. Mark Harkness and the secretarial assistants who volunteer their time and their energy to this work, Rev. Cynthia Anderson, Nancy Pendergrass, all of the District Administrative Assistants, Lonnie Chafin and his staff, the Annual Conference Worship Committee, and everyone who shared information during the Annual Conference or were asked to hand over their notes, PowerPoint presentations, a list of all those who shared the dais with them, and we thank all those who were asked to write out their motions before presenting them for consideration, and did so.

CALL TO ORDER

1:48pm Bishop Dyck called the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference to order: "This time is a good opportunity to be together." The session began with musical centering by singing "And Are We Yet Alive."

SEATING OF DESIGNATED LAITY AND CLARIFICATION OF VOTING

Rev. Danita Anderson, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, made a motion that the standing rules be suspended to allow for the seating of designated laity (including lay members of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM), local pastors, and associate members with voting privileges). Rev. Anderson explained voting eligibility on issues of clergy membership. Motion carried.

Rev. Anderson set the Bar and requested that support staff be seated within the bar. Motion carried.

BISHOP'S REFLECTIONS

Bishop Dyck shared the outcomes of the recent Judicial Council rulings on the constitutionality of the actions passed by the 2019 Special Session of General Conference. Bishop states, "I believe in a future for us" and requests several things:

- To stop doing harm to one another and find ways to be together. Conflict clouds our own vision and energy; do not let our local churches or annual conference be weakened
- To refrain from complaints and the expense of trials. Do not provoke one another.
- Arrearages affect the mission of the church. Continue to support the work of the church and be careful to not withhold money from the general church only to find out that you've withheld support for what you value as United Methodists. "Don't deny your people the opportunity to be faithful givers."

Bishop Dyck noted that these are challenging times in our local churches, annual conference and denomination, and she still finds it a joy to serve us and Christ. This is a vital time when the world needs us and needs to see us living in a different way. She prays for all. She knows are struggles and joys. "It is a blessing to be at your service."

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY (BOOM) CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

Rev. Danita Anderson requested the candidates for commissioning and ordination to excuse themselves from the bar of the conference to meet in the designated place. She introduced herself and her role, noting that each year she has to inform the conference that there have been changes and challenges. She invited all the members of BOOM to stand. The conference showed its appreciation with applause. Rev. Anderson expressed gratitude to Rev. Fabiola Grandon-Mayer and Rev. Brian Gilbert as they assume positions as District Superintendents and thanked the members of BOOM for their work. BOOM exists to recruit candidates for ministry and for supporting their fruitfulness. This year the executive team has changed. Mary Gay McKinney will be assuming the role of Elders registrar and Cynthia Anderson has been helping her to make the transition. There are four teams:

- Recruitment Team (Rev. Caleb Hong) is responsible for Annual Day of Call, and the steps and requirements for ordination.
- Candidacy Team (Laura Dean Friedrich) includes Registrars and credentialing; it also works to prepare for the candidate's conference using software provided by the General Board to evaluate a candidate's written submissions.
- Fruitfulness Team (Rev. Adonna Reid-Davis) includes the EYA team (The Eight Year Assessment Team).
- Leadership Development Team (Rev. Mark Meyers) includes Summer Retreat and training for DCOMs.

Plagiarism has been a problem for the past five years. District committees have been requested to emphasize the citing of references and the candidate's use of ideas that are their own and not those of another.

This summer BOOM will gather in retreat with DCOMs to discuss and discern how to live into the work encouraged by the Shepherding Team. BOOM takes seriously the responsibility of credentialing persons for ministry and strives to ensure that all candidates are evaluated thoroughly and fairly, discerning the readiness and fruitfulness of those seeking to live out their call in this annual conference. BOOM has decided to ask only questions that are related directly to the practice of ministry in the Northern Illinois Conference. BOOM recognizes the bishop's authority to ordain all those presented by the annual conference.

The EYA Team (Rev. Richard Darr, Rev. Adonna Reid-Davis, and Rev. Jeffry Bross) came forward to discuss the Eight Year Assessment passed by 2016 General Conference. All clergy are to be assessed eight years after their election to the annual conference and every eight years following. The deadline for implementing the program is January 1, 2020. With the Bishop's assistance, the plan will be implemented in 2021. The EYA process will offer a chance to reflect on past ministry and to celebrate successes in a non-judgmental process. The spirit of the work is to enable us to reach people for Jesus Christ. The hope is that the process will allow us to do three things to achieve that mission. First, provide an assessment that focuses on strengths and growing edges in ministry to become more fruitful and productive. Second, reconnection our spirit through self-care. Third, renewal through adaptation to our current ministry setting or a new one, and adaptation to changing circumstances around us. More will be shared with the conference as more is available for review. The process for next year can be found on www.gbhem.org/clergy/em360. It will allow clergy, SPRC chair and others in the congregation to complete a survey. The report will be shared with the DS and the clergy using objective criteria concerning 12 areas of effectiveness. The tool is available to be reviewed by clergy. All clergy will be using this tool throughout the denomination. A specialist has volunteered her time for three sessions to work volunteers through the process of setting goals. It will begin with a retreat in January, testing in February, planning renewal plan in March, conversations with the DSs based on this assessment in June through August, and the plans will be developed and shared with SPRC in September. In subsequent years, this will provide a basis for ministerial reviews.

MORAL AND OFFICIAL CONDUCT OF ALL ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTORS

Rev. Jacques Conway, Dean of the Cabinet, reported there are no complaints or charges at this time against clergy in our conference.

Each candidate was presented along with a brief introduction.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS REPORT

Rev. Pam Rossmiller, Chairperson of the Conference Relations Committee, thanked the committee and presented the report. The Conference Relations Report was approved as presented. The retirees were invited to come forward as their names and years of service were announced. Bishop Dyck noted that there was a total of 275.5 years of service represented in the class of retirees, including deacons, elders, and local pastors. Bishop Dyck thanked Rev. Rossmiller for her report and work.

LOCAL PASTOR'S REPORT

Pastor Sharon Engert, Chairperson of Local Pastors Fellowship, presented the report. The report was accepted as presented. The list of newly approved licensed local pastors was read and the pastors invited forward. Rev. Danita Anderson presented the certificate of license. A voice vote approving the list of local pastors was taken and the vote approved. Bishop Dyck thanked them for their ministry. We have 2 Associate Members, 24 Full-time local Pastors (up by 3 from 2018), 41 Part-time Local Pastors (up by 3 from 2018). Total of 65 Local Pastors (up by 6 from 2018) with 24 District Superintendent Supply Pastors.

ORDER OF DEACONS REPORT

Rev. Adrienne Ann Stricker, Chair of the Order of Deacons, gave the report. She invited deacons present to stand. The conference showed its appreciation through applause. Rev. Beth Galbreath was recognized as the embodiment of servanthood in community.

ORDER OF ELDERS REPORT

Rev. Dennis Langdon, Chair of the Order of Elders, presented the report from the floor of the conference due to an injury. He noted the Order of Elders gathering at Barrington United Methodist Church in April: 180 Elders registered for the gathering but only 105 attended. The speaker Dr. Emerson, the provost of North Park University and a cultural anthropologist, noted that the church may not be experiencing a decline but a cultural shift in how people relate to the church. It is Rev. Langdon's perception that people are looking to clergy for guidance. Bishop thanked Dennis and offered prayers for the healing of his ankle.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Pastor Charles Straight asked for a moment of personal privilege. The bishop granted it. He recently attended the conference "Our Way Forward" in Minnesota. His concern is for the criminalization of LGTB people and he is concerned for the future. His question is how do we get to be the people that God calls us to be? The witness of The United Methodist Church is at stake.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated with Bishop Sally Dyck. The session was invited to sing, "As A Fire Is Meant for Burning," and Clergy Session was adjourned at 4:03pm.

2019 ORDINATION SERVICE SUNDAY, JUNE 2, 2019, 4:00 PM

The gathering of the community began with a procession of robed clergy with those to be ordained and commissioned passing through their midst to join their colleagues in the work of ministry.

Our ecumenical guest was Bishop Wayne Miller, bishop of the Metropolitan Chicago Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church Association. Bishop Miller gave greeting to the Annual Conference and the Candidates. He shared his experience of pain and grief when the Lutheran church separated over the ordination of LGTB clergy. He advised us to remember who we are and to continue to emphasize the fruits of the spirit. We must remember that we are not alone—they stand with us.

Bishop John Schol of the Greater New Jersey Area also participated in the service.

The sacrament of Holy Baptism was performed by Bishop Sally Dyck and Rev. Arlene Christopherson, and received by Brielle Somang Lee (parents: Rev. Esther and John Lee; sponsors – Pastor Dan and Stacey Lee), and Landen Scott Paul Garcea (parents: Rev. Tiffany and Rev. Joseph Garcea; sponsors: Rev. Mary and Andrew Bohall). The service of baptism was concluded by the recognition of our common ministry. Candidates for Commissioning, and Ordination as Deacons and Elders were presented. Bishop Dyck conducted the General Examination of those to be commissioned and ordained and asked the Historical Questions of the candidates. The ordination sermon "Take Off Your Coat... and Light A Fire" (based on Gen 8:1) was preached by Bishop Sally Dyck. Its focus was that we have a responsibility to share with others because God remembers us. Gifts were presented to those commissioned and the ordained. Bishop, ecumenical guests, and those who were commissioned and ordained celebrated Holy Communion. The Annual Conference was dismissed with a blessing to go and celebrate.

2019 REGULAR SESSION

MONDAY MORNING

OPENING PLENARY

June 3, 2019, 8:30 a.m.

CALL TO ORDER

Bishop Sally Dyck greeted the Annual Conference inviting members to go to their assigned tables to ensure that each table should have four voting devices. She then called the 180th Session of the Northern Illinois Conference to order at 8:31 am, June 3, 2019, at the Renaissance Schaumburg Convention Center Hotel in Schaumburg, Illinois. Our first prayer, Mildred Carter, asked God's presence and guidance through our worship, celebrations and work at hand.

The Annual Conference was greeted and welcomed by Rev. Alka Lyall, Chairperson of the Annual Conference Committee. She welcomed the members of the conference and thanked the host churches (Our Redeemer UMC, and Our Savior in UMC Schaumburg) for the conference. She hopes that this venue will be a good transition for the Annual Conference. Pictures are being taken for conference photo directory outside the doors of the plenary.

Displays for ministries and Cokesbury are in the adjoining "Discovery Room." There will be no distribution of campaign materials within the bar of the plenary session. Other housekeeping items were discussed, as well as a brief explanation of the Sankofa bird displayed on the wall of the conference room – it is a mythical bird from Ghana which embodies moving forward as you gaze backward.

ORGANIZING MOTIONS

Rev. Alka Lyall presented the organizational motions:

1. That the agenda printed in the booklet we received at registration, be the agenda for this 180th session of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference. Motion carried.
2. That the registration list be the roll call for the 180th session of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference. Motion carried.
3. That the Standing Rules as printed in the 2018 Northern Illinois Conference Journal be the Standing Rules for this session of the annual conference. Motion carried.
4. That the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA); the Conference Board of Trustees, who are not already members of the annual conference; the Conference staff; persons who are here in relationship to the documents before us; and all persons certified by the Credentials Committee who are not otherwise voting members, be seated within the voting bar of the conference and be given the right of voice for this session of the annual conference. Motion carried.
5. That the plenary floor for this session of Annual Conference be Adventure Hall including the platform on which we currently are, excluding the seating in this space that is designated for guests and visitors. Motion carried.
6. That the plenary floor as just defined, be the voting bar of the conference. Motion carried.

This concludes the organizational motions.

THE CONSENT CALENDAR

The Rev. Katie Voigt, Chairperson of Daily Proceedings, presented the consent calendar. She explained the categories of the consent calendar. She explained that a consent calendar vote is an affirmative vote. A question was raised about the removal of items from the consent calendar. Rev. Voigt explained that forms to remove items from consent calendar were available online when the calendar was posted online and were due by 3:00 p.m. on June 2. Rev. Berthold moved to suspend rules to take a hand count to remove items from the consent calendar. Bishop Dyck called for a hand vote to suspend the rules, requiring 2/3 vote. Motion failed.

Bishop Dyck called the vote to approve the consent calendar. Motion carried.

Because the consent calendar included the closing of four churches, Rev. Voigt asked for prayer. Bishop Dyck invited Elgin DS, Rev. Darneather Murph-Heath to offer prayer. Rev. Doug Asbury asked where the memberships of those in the closed churches was being transferred. Rev. Brittney Isaac noted that for the Chicago NW district the legislation left open transfer location.

HISTORICAL REPORTS

Rev. Voight moved to accept the Historical Reports, Document 400. Motion carried.

BELOVED COMMUNITY (MONITOR'S REPORT)

Rev. Katherine Paisley, Nadia Kanhai, Rev. Chris Coon, Lennox Eton, Rev. Pam Pirtle, and Rev. Marcus Tabb came to the dais to give the Building Beloved Community report. Rev. Paisley noted that we do not exist on an even playing field and that we need to use any position of privilege to lift up all. Nadia Kanhai then spoke about inclusiveness in delegate elections to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. She discouraged "us" and "them" pronoun usage during the annual conference.

TRAINING ON VOTING MACHINES

Instruction on voting was given. Rev. Jim Bell (Belvidere – First) moved that we table the voting of Delegates until documents 700.01(New Methodist Expression) and 700.06 (Suspend Payments to GA Fund) were voted upon. Bishop Dyck called for a voice vote. It was undetermined. Bishop Dyck then called for a hand vote. Motion failed.

Due to time constraints the plenary ended at 9:16am for the episcopal address without a vote.

THE EPISCOPAL ADDRESS: THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

The 1985 film "Back to the Future" fixes the past to make the future "perfect." Many of us sitting here wish we could do the same. But we can't. However, we can reclaim our future by knowing our history. The mythic Ghanaian bird – The Sankofa – is our 2019 symbol for we look back at who we have been in order to fly forward. This is a year of anniversaries: 200 years of mission, 50 years of black renewal, 150 years of women's mission, and the 180th anniversary of continuous ministry in the northern Illinois area. Bishop Dyck is joined on the dais by others (Rev. Adrienne Ann Stricker, Rev. Bonnie Beckonchrist, Gerald Hayes, Rev. Laura Underwood, Rev. Kimberly Lewis-Davis, Rev. Uziel Hernandez) who give brief histories of the Illinois Territory that became the Northern Illinois Conference beginning with Jessie Walker and the Rock River Conference moving forward to today - its challenges, struggles, successes, and failures as this fledgling body strove to deal with issues of race, gender, ethnicity, justice, discrimination, inclusivity, unification, and how to grow in discipleship while being faithful to the mission of Jesus Christ to the world.¹ “Leaders who know who they have been, help to look to the future. The NIC has rushed and blundered in inclusion efforts before. Lord have mercy on us. The question we must ask is “Who will we be?” Something significantly shifted when the Traditional Plan was passed. We must also ask ourselves, “How will we be with each other?” Let us do no harm. And let us follow Hebrews 10:24, to provoke to love and good deeds. Diversity and vitality in the church is critical to the life of the community and the church family worldwide. We must strengthen the local churches for this purpose. Bishop Dyck announces that she will retire in 2020 after 41 years of active service.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Rev. Norval Brown asked for a moment of personal privilege and was recognized by the Bishop. He asked to amend the history timeline printed in the program booklet with the addition of Bishop Edsel Ammons, the first African-American who was elected to the episcopacy in 1976 from the NIC.

MONDAY MORNING PLENARY SESSION 2 June 3, 2019, 10:15 A.M.

CALL TO ORDER

Bishop Dyck called the conference to order at 10:24am.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Rev. Dan Swinson asked for a moment of personal privilege and was recognized by the Bishop. He shared that Styberg Library at GETS has archives of manuscripts and handwritten documents of the Rock River Conference minutes from 1840-1852. 400 pages of typescript are available for free download and is available on archives page of UMCNIC and Styberg library.

PRAYER

Rev. Grandon-Mayer prayed in Spanish and in English.

Rev. Annie Gonzales asked for a moment of personal privilege and was recognized by the Bishop in order to celebrate Rev. Grandon-Mayer as the first Latina district superintendent in the annual conference.

DELEGATION VOTE

SHEPHERDING TEAM UPDATE

Liz Gracie and Rev. Myron McCoy, Co-Chairs of the Annual Conference Shepherding Team (ACST), were joined on the dais by Rev. Alka Lyall, Rev. Danita Anderson, Rev. Harry Nicol, Nancy Pendergrass, Mark Manzi, Laura Underwood, Rev. Luis Reyes, Rev. Jerrod Severing, Rev. Arlene Christopherson, Anne Marie Gerhardt, Rev. Brittany Isaac, Rev. Jacques Conway, Rev. Darneather Murph-Heath, Rev. Lisa Kruse-Stafford, Rev. Jeffry Bross, Rev. Martin Lee, and Rev. Harry Nichol.

In March 2018, the ACST was charged with discerning a 5-year vision plan for the Conference. Several times throughout the process, they were briefed by CCFA about the decline in membership, the decline in apportionment dollars, and the related decline in the number of churches making their apportionment payments, along with the arrearages of churches in payment of insurance and pensions. The budget of the NIC was reviewed in detail, and the District Superintendents were asked to become involved in the process and have been meeting together regularly with the ASCT. They developed 23 goal statements that coalesced into 15 goals under five broad headings. Ultimately, three goals were decided on that would have the greatest impact on the sustainability and future ministry of the NIC. The goals introduced to the six District Shepherding Teams are not thought to be exclusive but critical to our future. The goals identified as our highest priority are:

1 As is true of every report, some information was complete and some was omitted.

- Goal 1: To grow and reach new disciples of Jesus Christ. Mark Manzi gave an overview.
- Goal 2: To live out the conviction that racism is incompatible with Christian teaching. Rev. Brittany Isaac gave an overview.
- Goal 3: To increase the number of highly vital congregations. Rev. Luis Reyes gave an overview.

The report was closed by Rev. Myron McCoy, who reminded us of two things: “you can’t see the forest for the trees; and Albert Einstein had it right when he said ‘Insanity is doing the same thing over and over again while expecting different results.’” Doing the same thing over and over again has decreased our membership from 118,278 in 2002, to 93,961 in 2014 to 82,003 in 2018. “Our churches/districts will have to work together to make these three goals top priorities, and work in a unified way to build a church for all of our children and their children. Let’s indeed see the forest!” He closed by inviting members of the district teams along with the District Superintendents to stand so that we could pray for them.

DELEGATION VOTE RESULTS

Lay Vote results #1: 367 votes cast / 12 invalid. Elected Lonnie Chafin with 252 votes or 70.99%

BISHOP’S APPEAL

This year’s offering will be collected for the Outdoor and Retreat Ministries (ORM) by the District Superintendents as members leave the plenary. Charles Rea, Co-Chair and Jeff Casey, Executive Director, were joined on stage by board members Rev. Dennis Langdon, Rev. Lynn Pries, Rev. Cathy Caliendo, and Rev. Kimberly Lewis-Davis. “The purpose of the Bishop’s Appeal is to partner with you to reach children from all districts who would not otherwise be able to attend the camps. The money you donate will be designated for: new Family Camp at Reynoldswood, a new Rockford District Summer Camp, double the numbers of campers at Woodland Camp (which serves the Elgin District), Youth Winter Weekend Retreat, Chicago Metro Camp, and Joy Camp (which serves DeKalb District and Aurora District). Joy Camp is already at more than 100 campers and has been self-sustaining for years. In addition to the money, this appeal is to challenge each of your churches to find and send five un-churched youth to camp, and one of your own “churched” youth to camp as a chaperone. ORM will train your chaperones. Rev. Kimberly Lewis-Davis offered a prayer of blessing for the Bishop’s Appeal and upon the meals we are about to enjoy.

The Conference was recessed for lunch at 12:08pm.

RETIREMENT SERVICE FOR NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE
June 3, 2019, 1:40 pm

Bishop Dyck reminded those retiring that they were charged to love, serve and pray for all the people among whom they worked, and they have done these things. They were given authority to preach and teach, to equip the people of God, to make disciples, to celebrate and to order the life of the church. "Through the challenges have been hard, and the future at times uncertain, you have been guided by the grace and goodness of God."

Each of the Retirees were asked to select and respond to one of four questions in their transitional remarks:

1. What are the roots that grounded you during the turbulent times in ministry?
2. If you could go back in time to your first days as clergy, what advice would you give yourself?
3. If you could go forward in time, what would you like the United Methodist Church to look like in the future?
4. What do you bring with you from your years of service as you move into retirement?

The mantle was passed from Rev. Beth Galbreath to Rev. Ashish Emmanuel Singh. We celebrate nine pastors retiring with a combined 275.5 years of service.

Scott Nelson Field - 41yrs.
Beth L. Galbreath – 13 yrs.
Donald F. Guest – 37.5yrs.
Kye Il Hong – 33 yrs.
Mario S, Mayer – 16 yrs.
J. Stephen Mindrup – 49 yrs.
Soong-In Steve Moon – 33 yrs.

GENERAL / JURISDICTIONAL DELEGATION REPORT

Rev. Carol Hill, Jack Ryder, Rita L. Smith, Nancy Pendergrass, Rev. Chris Winker, and Rev. David Lagos Fonseca. Rev. Lyall reminds us that the NIC held listening sessions around the conference to debrief events of the 2019 Special Session and encourages that the NIC continues to be inclusive and welcoming all people. There are many conversations that are happening around the general church. People of this conference are committed to a just church - we just do not know what the future holds. Lonnie Chafin made an impassioned plea for us to continue our effort to be inclusive and welcoming, he acknowledges the love and passion and fear of the conservatives in NIC, and reminds us of the harm and punishment that the Traditional Plan will cause. Bishop Dyck thanked the delegation for their service.

LAITY ADDRESS

Jessie Cunningham, Co-Conference Lay Leader, gave the Laity Address: "Where Do We Go from Here?" based on Philippians 3:7-14. "We know what we can't do, that's the easy part. We can't go back. We must always look and go forward. Some say the church is dying, the church is disappearing. I don't believe that, I agree with Deborah Lee, author of Rescuing Jesus, who said 'I don't see the church disappearing, I see the church changing radically. Churches who are able to invite, include, and celebrate the diversity of humanity—those are the ones that are going to survive. The ones that can't do that, the ones that continue to make church about boundaries—who's in and who's out—those churches are going to become relics, on the fringes of our society.' So keep on keeping on, keep on making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." Ms. Cunningham announced that Rose Faulkner retires from the Laity Board the year.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Rev. Daniel Diss and Woody Bedell addressed the report of the Conference Board of Pensions and the changes in the health insurance program. Currently NIC is in arrears of $2 million as 24 churches have not paid health insurance or pension obligations. Unless churches who have fallen behind can begin to make payments, the monthly cost of health insurance for all will increase $100 to $1600 monthly. Retiree pensions are safe, and the health insurance will go to the private Wespath exchanges as of 2020. Wespath will not offer the plan we presently have in 2021, so we will have to change anyway. Please use the Employee Assistance Program as very good benefits are available. Rev. Dennis Landon requests a presentation of new health insurance plans. Mr. Bedell advised that the clergy will get six different medical plans to choose from along with options for dental and vision. The plans will be similar in that they all have deductibles and co-insurance, out-of-pocket maximums, and co-pays. He then displayed a slide of the six plans. The H1500 is the default plan. It will not cost any extra for the clergy. Communication will be in September and October. Benefit elections will be in November.

NIC UMW

Lois Moreland Dean, President of NIC UMW, shared that after 150 years of UMW, you can only honor a history of mission by doing more mission. She presented a video history of UMW that also covered current ministries and missionaries and ministries around the world. Current ministries affect four key areas; future—ministry with women, children and youth. Ms. Dean introduced our Bible teacher for the evening, Ms. Harriett Olson, General Secretary/CEO of the UMW.

BIBLE STUDY

Numbers 27:1-11 is the story of Zelophehad's daughter, who made a claim on the right of their father, who had no sons, to be remembered in the clan. "The names of the women are important. The needs of the women are important. Women are part of God's beloved community. But removing their names for the sake of convenience leads to a culture that forgets women's names and work. People who are not in power lose their identities as whole persons. So the work of the church is to affirm all persons as whole persons. 'Stay woke.' Not every decision is a final decision."

Attendees then broke into small groups to identify real life examples in which we needed to stay alert. "The work must be continually supported as women, children, and youth are still vulnerable. UMW has a long history of supporting women and challenging the institution. When women saw they weren't in control of their own ministry destiny, it galvanized them to change the system. UMW has been carved back several times in its history. The work has to be continually tended and have to keep alert and focused. One of great concerns of clergy as women began to organize is that they would preach—education was monitored to make sure weren't preaching. UMW decided they would focus on service and justice while Deaconesses declined women who had a calling to preach. UMW has worked for full clergy rights for women. This connects to Zelophehad's daughters—claim your identity as a beloved child of God; follow God's call whether the institution supports it or not."

Bishop recognized Rev. Anna Voinovich who moved: "We shall, at the Northern Illinois Conference of 2019, take a non-binding straw poll on the following question: If the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist church were offered the opportunity to choose a direction for its future, should that direction be: 1) a conference whose policies allow for clergy to officiate at same-gender weddings, allow for consideration of ordained ministry people of varying sexual orientation and gender identities, and in which appointments are made with consideration given to the full range of contextual realities, or 2) according to the Book of Discipline as amended in 2019."

This Kingdom is not a natural lineage, but it is based on the response to Jesus in the poor, the sick, the thirsty, and imprisoned through their actions. Women speak through their actions. CALL TO ORDER

Bishop called the plenary to order at 9:26am.

BLACK METHODIST FOR CHURCH RENEWAL ANNIVERSARY

Rev. Dennis Oglesby was joined on the dais by Darryl Harris, Rev. Danita Anderson, Rev. Adonna Reid-Davis, Rev. Francine Taylor-Thirus, Rev. Chris Pierson, Rev. Jacques Conway, Rev. Amos Olapido, and others to celebrate BMCR's 50th anniversary. In December 1969, NIC responded to a prophetic moment by establishing the Black Caucus as an agency, the hands and feet of Jesus in Chicago in the midst of white flight, burning city, tragedy, and a hurt and hurting environment. Today, 50 years later, BMCR is still called to be witnesses and workers, making difference for all people, standing on backs of those who went before. Over the years, it has exhibited an ability to advocate, agitate, get resources for the community, to raise up prophetic and spiritual leaders. They have done the work of resisting marginalization – there is still much work to be done. Celebratory video will be shown during the break. The group left the dais singing “This Little Light of Mine” and all joined in.

MEMORIAL SERVICE
JUNE 4, 2019, 10:30 AM

The Memorial Service celebrates and remembers 29 clergy, spouses of clergy, and lay members who have died over the past year, This year we also honor the memory of Rev. Bruce and Eugenia Johnson, who died 50 years ago in September 1969, and whose deaths are still being grieved as those who were responsible have not been brought to justice.

The conference was led in symbolic acts of remembrances as Worship was led by Gary Rand and The Many. Participants tied pieces of fabric together in remembrance of their loved one and in honor of their story. Taken together, these bits of fabric weave a message that can sustain us, challenge us, guide us and comfort us.

The Memorial Sermon, “She Wept,” was presented by Bishop John Schol of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference. Bishop Schol brought words of comfort for our grieving families as well as our grieving church. “God wants to make us whole again but it won’t be by fixing it... Our church needs to ... connect with people in our communities who are hungering for a word of hope and resurrection. So, let’s all work together, not to fix the UMC but to renew it.”

Today, we remember:

NORTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION ANNUAL MEETING

The Rev. Chris Walters, NIC UMF President, called the annual meeting of the NIC UMF into session at 1:53pm. Present on the dais with Rev. Walters were: George Gill, Chair of the NIC UMF; David Foster, Vice-Chair and Secretary; Rev. Kelli Beard; Rev. Robert Biekman; Brad Colby; Veronica Davenport; Rev. Kimberly Lewis-Davis; Sach Diwan, Treasurer; Rev. Jane Eesley; George Groves; Debbie Gruetzmacher; Denny Hackett; Rev. Violet Johnicker; Lynette Rice; Jim Stoddard; Larry Thomas; Arnie Uhlig; and Gene Williams. Highlights of the Annual Report are that UMF is serving 700 clients with assets of over 70.9 million dollars. Funds continue to be invested in three modes: Aggressive (14.45% return), Moderate (10.54% return), Conservative (6.33% return). During this time of possible change for the United Methodist Church, it is important to note:

- Assets invested with the Foundation belong exclusively to clients.
- Assets invested with the Foundation by a local church are owned by that church.
- The Foundation is bound by fiduciary laws.
- Regardless of possible General Conference changes, nothing will change the ownership of your funds, annuities, or trust funds managed by the Foundation.
- And, The Foundation is independently incorporated 501(c)(3), and committed to the healthy stewardship of your funds.

The Foundation also wants NIC to know that its investments have carbon footprints that are 11% below the benchmark; that 60% of its holdings have strong greenhouse gas reduction programs; that 16% of its holdings source greater than 25% of their energy from renewables. Rev. Walker displayed some of the grants given by the Foundation to local churches. He invited Rev. Calvin Culpepper from Court Street UMC to speak about the grant to “Love Rockford.” He then announced that the Foundation offers scholarships and introduced Gloria Feliciano Feldman (a certified candidate for deacon) who spoke to her experience as a recipient of the Excellence in Ministry scholarship for the past two years. Lastly, Rev. Walker then spoke about the new Financial Planning incentive for new clergy. The Foundation will celebrate its 70th Anniversary in October by offering $10,000 grants.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY (BOOM) REPORT

Rev. Danita Anderson was joined on the dais by Rev. Mark Meyers, Rev. Wesley Dickson, Rev. Hwa Young Chong, Rev. Richard Darr, Rev. Jeffrey Bross, and Rev. Adonna Reid-Davis. BOOM is living into a new structure: recruitment team (work with schools and call); candidacy team (developing a culture for readiness for ministry); fruitfulness team (develop culture of effectiveness in ministry); leadership development team (orientation of members, policies). The candidate conferences occur in February for those being commissioned, and in March for those being ordained. Candidates are interviewed by teams of three people focusing on theology, practice of ministry, and a home team. Therefore, there are about nine people who have read the paperwork and interviewed the candidate. Allows for clearer evaluation and gives more realistic assessment. Over the past five years some interviews have had to be cancelled due to plagiarism. BOOM uses software to explore every paper. BOOM has recommended the creation of a task force on how to interview candidates. They will continue to use questions in the sacred work of interviewing candidates. “We discern readiness and fruitfulness, and we welcome all people of all sexualities and gender identities, giving all candidates equal consideration. We recognize and support the bishop's power to ordain all appropriate candidates."

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
Chicago, Illinois

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2018, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Conference's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects the consolidated financial position of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church at December 31, 2018 and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 2 of the consolidated financial statements, the Conference adopted new accounting guidance as issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) under Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958) - Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2018

1. NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Northern Illinois Conference United Methodist Church Insurance Association, and the Red Door Fund, NFP (collectively, the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is an incorporated nonprofit organization, which represents United Methodist congregations located in the northern third of the State of Illinois. The Conference was organized for Christian, religious, church, benevolent, and charitable purposes. The Conference operates two camps, Reynoldswood and Wesley Woods that are open year round to host program retreats for churches and other youth groups. The financial aspects of the Conference are governed by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (the Council); a board elected by the Conference membership. The function of the Council is to develop, maintain, and administer the fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Conference.

The Northern Illinois Conference United Methodist Church Insurance Association (NICUM) is a related nonprofit organization brokering property insurance for the Conference's member churches. The NICUM Conference Council is elected by the Conference trustees.

The Red Door Fund, NFP was incorporated with a Conference Council selected by the Conference's Council and the Conference's Trustees. The Red Door Fund, NFP holds mortgage notes receivable from the Conference's local churches funded by a note to Wintrust Bank. The note is secured by mortgages on the Conference's property and pledges of the Conference investment accounts.

Numerous United Methodist and United Methodist related organizations which have some affiliation with the Conference are not reflected in these financial statements. These organizations are separate legal entities and are governed by their own boards of directors.

A summary of the Conference's program services are described below:

Cabinet Support - Consists of conference leadership in charge of providing support, setting rules and guidelines, and helping reach financial and membership goals for local churches throughout the Conference.

Martin Keagy Rural Ministry - Fund setup to support rural ministries throughout the Conference.

Outdoor and Retreat Ministries - Operates as both an NIC camp that provides summer camp for youth and young adults throughout northern Illinois and an area for various committees and groups to use to further the faith.

Ministerial Education Activities - Fund supporting the Board of Ordained Ministries.

Board of Pension Activities - Wespath is a not-for-profit corporation that provides administrative and investment services to benefit plans for plan sponsors controlled by or affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General Basis of Accounting

The consolidated financial statements of the Conference have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less when acquired. The Conference maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts at financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The amount of uninsured cash amounted to $2,307,395 as of December 31, 2018. The Conference has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable from churches are stated at the amount billed to member churches. Accounts receivable - other are primarily due from churches and are stated at the amount invoiced. The Conference provides an allowance for doubtful accounts, which is equal to all amounts over 365 days past due.

Notes Receivable

Notes receivable are carried at the outstanding principal balance plus accrued interest receivable. Interest income is recognized monthly and continues to accrue over the life of the loan. The allowance for credit losses is estimated based upon historical losses and existing economic conditions. Notes receivable are considered past due after three consecutive monthly principal payments are missed. Notes receivable are evaluated for impairment based upon payment history, economic conditions, and communications between management of the Conference and the debtors. Interest continues to accrue on impaired loans, with cash receipts being recorded first to interest, then to principal. Uncollectible notes receivable are charged off when management determines that all reasonable collection efforts have been exhausted.

Investments

Money market funds and certificates of deposit are stated at cost. Investments in mutual fund securities are reported at their fair values in the consolidated statement of financial position. Pooled investment funds are valued using an estimated net asset value (NAV). Investment return is reported net in the consolidated statement of activities and consists of interest and dividend income, realized and unrealized gains and losses, less external and direct internal investment expenses. Investment return is reflected in the consolidated statement of activities as income without donor restrictions, or income with donor restrictions based upon the existence and nature of any donor restrictions.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Beneficial Interest in Real Estate

The Conference received a beneficial interest in real estate, which is considered an other investment. The beneficial interest was initially valued at fair value on the date the real estate interest was contributed, and is subsequently valued at fair value. The donor is responsible for executory costs of the real estate during the donor's lifetime, and the residence cannot be sold during the donor's lifetime. No obligation has been recorded for the donor's use of the real estate during the donor's lifetime as the amount is immaterial.

Property and Equipment

Conference policy requires that all furniture and equipment over $1,500 be capitalized. Depreciation for equipment, furniture, and fixtures is computed using the straight-line method over five to seven years. Buildings and leasehold improvements are depreciated over 30 years using the straight-line method of depreciation. Motor vehicle are depreciated over five years using the straight-line method of depreciation. Property and equipment is recorded at cost, if purchased, or at fair value on the date of gift, if received as a contribution.

Net Assets

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor restrictions. The Church Council (the Council) has designated, from net assets without donor restrictions, net assets for a Council-designated endowment.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions - Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity.

Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision of state law. The Conference is not classified as a private foundation.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Fair Value Measurements

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (USGAAP) establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework uses a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. USGAAP requires the Conference to maximize the use of observable inputs when measuring fair value. The hierarchy describes three levels of inputs, which are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in inactive markets; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs.

In many cases, a valuation technique used to measure fair value includes inputs from more than one level of the fair value hierarchy. The lowest level of significant input determines the placement of the entire fair value measurement in the hierarchy. The categorization of an investment within the hierarchy reflects the relative ability to observe the fair value measure and does not necessarily correspond to the perceived risk of that investment.

If an investment that is measured using net asset value (NAV) has a readily determinable fair value (that is, it can be traded at the measurement date at its published NAV), it is included in Level 1 of the hierarchy. Otherwise, investments measured using NAVs are not included in Level 1, 2, or 3, but are separately reported.

Valuation Techniques

The following is a description of the valuation techniques used for assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis. There have been no changes to the techniques used during the year ended December 31, 2018.

Mutual funds: Valued at the closing quoted price in an active market.

Pooled investments: Valued at NAV, as reported by the fund managers. These funds do not trade in active markets. However, generally the unit price is based on quoted market prices of the underlying assets owned, divided by the number of outstanding units.

Interest rate swap: Pricing models utilize a series of market inputs to determine the present value of future cash flows, with adjustments, as required for credit and liquidity risk.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with USGAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Apportionments represent each member church's contributions to support ordained leaders, mission and evangelism, and reconnecting the connection. Apportionments revenue is recognized in the period the contributions are received.

Property insurance, health insurance, and pension revenue are recognized as revenue in the period the services are rendered.

Contributions

Gifts of cash and other assets received without donor stipulations are reported as unrestricted revenue and net assets. Gifts received with a donor stipulation that limits their use are reported as restricted revenue and net assets with donor restrictions. When a donor stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Gifts of land, buildings, equipment, and other long-lived assets are reported as revenue and net assets without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how such assets must be used, in which case the gifts are reported as restricted revenue and net assets with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations for the time long-lived assets must be held, expirations of restrictions resulting in reclassification of net assets with donor restrictions as net assets without donor restrictions are reported when the long-lived assets are placed in service.

Donated Property

Property from closed churches within the Northern Illinois Methodist Church Conference is donated to the Conference per their bylaws and reported at fair value.

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of supporting the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Indirect expenses related to rent, depreciation, and utilities have been allocated among the categories based on square footage used by each department. Other indirect expenses such as postage, printing and office supplies have been allocated 25% to the categories and 75% to administration.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14, Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958). ASU No. 2016-14 amends the current reporting model for nonprofit organizations and enhances their required disclosures. The major changes include: (a) requiring the presentation of only two classes of net assets now entitled net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions, (b) modifying the presentation of underwater endowment funds and related disclosures, (c) requiring the use of the place-in-service approach to recognize the expirations or restrictions on gifts used to acquire or construct long-lived assets absent explicit donor stipulations otherwise, (d) requiring that all nonprofits present an analysis of expenses by function and nature in either the statement of activities, a separate statement, or in the notes and disclose a summary of the allocation methods used to allocate costs, (e) requiring the disclosure of quantitative and qualitative information regarding liquidity and availability of resources, (f) presenting investment return net of external and direct internal investment expenses, and (g) modifying other financial statement reporting requirements and disclosures intended to increase the usefulness of nonprofit financial statements. The Conference has implemented this standard during the year ended December 31, 2018.

FASB has issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, as amended by ASU No. 2015-14, which supersedes or replaces nearly all USGAAP revenue recognition guidance. This standard establishes a new contract and control-based revenue recognition model, changes the basis for deciding when revenue is recognized over time or at a point in time, and will expand disclosures about revenue. ASU No. 2014-09, as amended, is effective for nonpublic companies for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within the annual period beginning after December 15, 2019. The Conference is currently assessing the impact of this new standard.

In February 2016, FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), to increase the transparency and comparability about leases among entities. The new guidance requires lessees to recognize a lease liability and a corresponding lease asset for virtually all lease contracts. It also requires additional disclosures about leasing arrangements. ASU No. 2016-02 is effective for nonpublic entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020.

ASU No. 2016-02 originally specified a modified retrospective transition method which requires the entity to initially apply the new leases standard at the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements. In July 2018, FASB issued ASU No. 2018-11, Leases (Topic 842): Targeted Improvements, providing a second, optional transition method which allows the entity to apply the new standard at the adoption date and recognize a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings in the period of adoption. The Conference is currently assessing the impact of this new standard, including the two optional transition methods.

FASB has issued ASU No. 2018-08, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. ASU No. 2018-08 is intended to assist entities in (1) evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as contributions (nonreciprocal transactions) within the scope of contribution accounting guidance, or as exchange (reciprocal) transactions subject to other guidance, and (2) determining whether a contribution is conditional. ASU No. 2018-08 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, for transactions in which the entity serves as a resource recipient, and for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, for transactions in which the entity serves as a resource provider. Early adoption is permitted. The Conference is currently assessing the impact of this new standard.

In August 2018, FASB ASU No. 2018-13, Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurements. This standard is intended to improve the effectiveness of disclosures in the notes to the financial statements and modify the disclosure requirements on fair value measurements in Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements. ASU No. 2018-13 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, with early adoption permitted. The Conference has chosen to early adopt this ASU as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018.

3. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference strives to maintain liquid financial assets sufficient to cover 90 days of general expenditures.

The following table reflects the Conference's financial assets as of December 31, 2018, reduced by amounts that are not available to meet general expenditures within one year of the consolidated statement of financial position date due to external donor restrictions and internal board designations. Amounts not available include board-designated endowments that have been set aside for various purposes. In the event the need arises to utilize the board-designated funds for liquidity purposes, the reserves could be drawn upon through board resolution, and these funds would become available for operational needs.

3. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY (Continued)

The Conference's financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the consolidated statement of financial position date, are as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 2,751,279
Accounts receivable, net	1,994,945
Notes receivable expected within one year	995,570
Investments	17,176,256
Beneficial interest	280,000
 Total financial assets	 23,198,050
 Less amounts not available to be used for general expenditures within one year
Required reserves under guarantees	(37,227)
Required reserves under mortgage payable	(12,000,000)
Donor-imposed restrictions	(1,431,601)
Board designations	(2,761,302)
 FINANCIAL ASSETS AND LIQUIDITY RESOURCES AVAILABLE WITHIN ONE YEAR	 $ 6,967,920

As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. Additionally, although the Conference does not intend to spend from its board-designated endowment other than amounts appropriated for general expenditure as part of its annual budget approval and appropriation process, amounts from its board-designated endowment could be made available if necessary. However, as discussed in Note 7, substantially all the Conference's financial assets are pledged as collateral under its mortgage payable.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference loans funds to churches over terms between 7 and 30 years with interest rates ranging from 4.6% to 6.0%. The purpose of these loans is to provide church mortgages on more favorable terms. Additionally, the Conference has two notes receivable to unrelated parties with a balance of $271,840 and $76,795.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE (Continued)

All of the notes receivable are unsecured and are due as follows:

The Conference's credit quality indicators are performing and nonperforming. Performing loans are those with one or more payments made during the fiscal year. Nonperforming loans are those with no payments made during the fiscal year. The Conference considers all notes receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. Each church is evaluated for impairment individually. All churches and unrelated party notes are considered performing and current as of December 31, 2018.

5. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

At December 31, 2018, management believes they are in compliance with these covenants.

Interest charged to operations for the year ended December 31, 2018 was $685,205.

8. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT - INTEREST RATE SWAP

Effective September 20, 2013, the Conference entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a financial institution, with a notional amount of $13,000,000. The purpose of the agreement was to minimize the variability of cash flows related to interest payments on the term loan above. The swap agreement had a maturity date of September 10, 2019, but was terminated on May 22, 2018, in connection with the issuance of two new interest rate swap agreements.

Effective May 18, 2018, the Conference entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a financial institution, with a notional amount of $7,000,000. The purpose of the agreement is to minimize the variability of cash flows related to interest payments on the term loan above. The agreement terminates on May 18, 2028. Under this agreement, the Conference receives interest from the counterparty at LIBOR plus 1.75% and pays interest at a fixed rate of 4.99%.

Effective May 18, 2018, the Conference entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a financial institution, with a notional amount of $8,000,000. The purpose of the agreement is to minimize the variability of cash flows related to interest payments on the term loan above. The agreement terminates on May 18, 2028. Under this agreement, the Conference receives interest from the counterparty at a floating rate of LIBOR plus 1.75%, with a cap strike rate of 5.25%, and pays a fixed transaction fee of $365,000.

Under the agreement, the Conference pays or receives the net interest amount monthly, with the settlements included in interest expense. The agreements are recorded at fair value with subsequent changes in fair value included in other revenues or expenses.

The fair value of the liability for the Conference's interest rate swap agreements is measured using Level 2 inputs, as described in Note 2, determined by pricing models maintained by the counterparty to the swap agreements. The pricing models utilize a series of market inputs to determine the present value of future cash flows, with adjustments, as required for credit and liquidity risk. The change in fair market value of the interest rate swap agreement was recorded as an unrealized gain of $22,166 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

9. GUARANTEED LOANS

The Conference is contingently liable for guarantees of two loans made by the United Methodist Development Corporation to member churches totaling $1,613,851 as of December 31, 2018. The loans have interest rates ranging from 4.75% to 6.49% and maturities ranging from April 1, 2030 to December 1, 2034. Under the terms of the guarantees, the Conference is required to have in reserve a minimum of three months of loan payments for each guaranteed loan. The amount of the required reserve at December 31, 2018 is $37,227.

Under the agreements with the member churches, the Conference is able to recover any losses from the assets of the member churches.

In relation to these guarantees, the following is summarized unaudited financial data for the three member churches as of December 31, 2018:

Total assets	$ 4,977,000

12. POSTRETIREMENT HEALTH PLAN

The Conference sponsors a postretirement health care plan for all Conference employees and participating clergy that meet eligibility requirements.

The Conference received actuarial valuations of postretirement medical benefits as of December 31, 2018. This report was prepared by MWM Consulting Group.

The Conference establishes Health Reimbursement Accounts (HRA) and tax free savings accounts for each clergy family (whether individual or couple). Retirees and spouses may draw funds from the accounts for health premiums, out-of-pocket expenses, and miscellaneous health care expenses. The HRAs are funded annually by the Conference at the rate of $100 per year of service (up to 40 years); an equal amount for the clergy person and the spouse. Retirees may select the Medicare supplement plan of their choice.

The payments per retiree are fixed amounts; therefore, changes in inflation assumptions do not change the valuation. The valuation is calculated at a 4.5% discount rate and assumes 100% of eligible retirees and spouses will participate.

The following sets forth the plan's funded status reconciled with the obligation recognized on the consolidated statement of financial position at December 31, 2018:

Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation as of December 31, 2018 was as follows:

Retired participants	$ 11,937,116
Fully eligible active participants	3,496,534
Not fully eligible active participants	4,324,882

Thereafter	6,893,722

The United Methodist Clergy Fund (the Clergy Fund) is a separately incorporated related organization charged to "monitor the investment portfolio of the Clergy Fund" which can be distributed to the clergy retirement programs of the Conference. The Clergy Fund's Board makes an annual decision on the amount of funds to distribute to the Conference's postretirement health plan, $1,300,000 was transferred in 2018. Current policy is to disburse the income or gain of the portfolio. The net present value of the amount available to distribute to the Conference is $19,758,532 at December 31, 2018. The postretirement health benefits paid by the Conference in 2018 were $1,583,779.

14. PENSION PLAN

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in the multi-employer defined benefit program of all U.S. annual conferences managed by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and controlled by plan documents enacted by the quadrennial General Conference of the UMC. Assets contributed by any conference may be used to provide benefits to clergy of any participating conference. Should an annual conference make contributions less than the total liability of their participants the underfunded obligations are borne by the surviving annual conferences. A decision to withdraw from the plans is in violation of The Discipline (by-laws of the church) and would cause an immediate suspension to the benefits of the Conference's clergy. Across all plans and all employees, the liabilities are funded at approximately 106%.

While there is a single fund for funding the defined benefits of retirees for all annual conferences, the method to calculate the value of benefits earned varies by year of service: before 1982, between 1982 and 2006, and after 2006. Each annual conference contributes according to the actuarial present value of benefits earned by clergy for service during those periods. The administrator of the plan, the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, annually calculates liabilities and expected contributions for each annual conference based upon demographic and market changes relative to previous year's reports.

The 2017 contribution for defined benefit plans is calculated from the demographics and assets on January 1, 2016. In the pre-82 plan, there are 625 beneficiaries, 74 are not yet retired. In the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) program there are 922 annuitants, 397 not yet in pay status. As of January 1, 2016, in the Clergy Retirement Security Program defined benefit component (CRSP-DB) there are 571 vested participants, 141 are in pay status.

The Conference's participation in these plans by EIN/Plan Number, if applicable, is:

Pension Fund	EIN/Plan Number	Pension Protection Act Zone Status 2016	Pension Protection Act Zone Status 2017	FIP/RP Status Pending/Implemented	Conference's Contributions	Surcharge Imposed
Pre-82	32-1899999	Green	Green	No	$ 1,188,875	No
CRSP-DB	52-5599999	Green	Green	No	1,670,379	No
MPP	92-3499999	Green	Green	No	-	No

Unless otherwise noted, the most recent pension protection act zone status available in 2018 is for the plans' year end at December 31, 2016. The zone status is based on information that the Conference received from the plans' and is certified by the plans' actuary. Among other factors, plans in the red zone are less than 65% funded, plans in the yellow zone are between 65%-80% funded, and plans in the green zone are more than 80% funded. The FIP/RP Status Pending/Implemented column indicates plans for which a financial improvement plan (FIP) or rehabilitation plan (RP) is either pending or has been implemented.

14. PENSION PLAN (Continued)

The funding status of the Conference's share in the multi-employer defined benefit plans for the 2018 funding year (January 1, 2016 results) was as follows:

Actuarial value of plan assets
Pre-82 plan	$ 45,277,258

MPP plan	(57,938,305)
Total actuarial value of plan liabilities	(127,375,387)
NET PLAN ASSETS	$ 1,828,251

15. ENDOWMENT

The Conference's endowment consists of an individual fund established by donors to provide annual funding to support country parishes. The endowment also includes certain net assets without donor restrictions that have been designated for endowment by the Conference Council. As required by USGAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Conference Council has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the historic dollar value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions and retains in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the endowment, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is classified as net assets with donor restrictions until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

15. ENDOWMENT (Continued)

The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. The endowment assets are invested in accordance with predetermined asset allocation and performance benchmarks. To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference's spending policy provides that only the income from endowments may be used according to donor-imposed restrictions.

Endowment net asset composition by type of fund as of December 31, 2018:

	Without Donor Restrictions	With Donor Restrictions	Total
Donor-restricted	$ -	$ 731,329	$ 731,329
Board-designated	2,669,627	-	2,669,627
TOTAL	$ 2,669,627	$ 731,329	$ 3,400,956

During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Conference had the following endowment related activities:

	Without Donor Restrictions	With Donor Restrictions	Total
Endowment net assets, beginning of year	$ 2,978,316	$ 804,429	$ 3,782,745

ADMINISTRATIVE ITEMS - DOCUMENT 650, 680

Document: 650.01 Approved on Consent Calendar 06/03/19
Name: Minimum Salaries for Full-Time Clergy
Author(s): CCFA Committee on Equitable Compensation
CCFA COMMENT:

ACTION:

Minimum salaries for full-time clergy appointed in the NIC will be as follows:

YEAR OF INITIAL APPOINTMENT
(minimum salary set at the beginning of a new appointment, typically July 1)
	2014 ($33,300)	2015 ($33,800)	2016 ($34,000)	2017 ($34,200)	2018 ($34,450)	2019 ($34,800)	2020 ($35,300)
Resolution passed in:
2014 for FY 2015	$34,461
2015 for FY 2016	$34,474	$34,138
2016 for FY 2017	$34,819	$34,479	$34,340
2017 for FY 2018	$35,167	$34,824	$34,684	$34,542
2018 for FY 2019	$35,519	$35,172	$35,031	$34,887	$34,795
Proposed in 2019 for FY 2020	$36,016	$35,664	$35,521	$35,375	$35,282	$35,287

Chart interpretation: Each year, a minimum salary is set for new appointments. This salary amount is listed in the first row, beneath the year the new appointment is made (which typically begins July 1.) A minimum salary is also set for appointments made in previous years. The number listed in the column beneath each year indicates the minimum salary for the pastor appointed to that charge each fiscal year (which typically begins January 1.) Bold, italicized numbers listed in the bottom row are the minimum salaries recommended to the Annual Conference in 2019.

- 2) Local churches are to provide a minimum of $5,000 for accountable reimbursements for their appointed pastor. This covers costs related to travel, continuing education, and other expenses incurred in the course of providing pastoral ministry. Information regarding accountable reimbursements can be downloaded at: https://www.umcnic.org/media/files/ordained%20ministry/AccountableReimbursementPoliciesQ_and_A.pdf

RATIONALE:

This minimum salary schedule continues a very modest increase of 1.4%, which is half of the federal cost of living increase (2.8%).

We recognize a long history of NIC minimum salaries lagging behind the denominational average minimum salary, which was $42,817 in 2019 for the North Central Jurisdiction. This means newly appointed, full-time NIC elders were paid an average of $8,017 (or 18.7%) less than other full-time elders in our jurisdiction appointed in 2019. This is not equitable.

Health insurance premiums will increase from $18,000 to $19,000 for FY 2020, which sets the total minimum compensation packages for full-time clergy at $66,000. This includes base pay ($35,300), accountable reimbursements ($5,000), pension contributions ($6,700), and health insurance ($19,000). These costs increase pressure on local church budgets.

We recognize that many local churches struggle to afford full-time clergy appointments.

We recognize the desire to maintain the number of full-time clergy positions to match the number of full-time appointments guaranteed to Commissioned and Ordained Elders. This is increasingly unsustainable when we are losing an average of 5 full-time appointments every year.

In 2020, the CCFA Committee on Equitable Compensation will recommend minimum salaries that move the NIC closer to our Jurisdictional average. This is to further the work of equitable compensation and to encourage the efforts of the Conference to adjust to the financial reality of local churches.

The Conference Board of Pensions will cover the full cost of those Elders appointed to disability status and covered by Medicare and Supplemental Social Security disability coverage.

B. Release from Mandatory Coverage

Based on the implementation of the Affordable Care Act and the ability for individuals to gain coverage on the public exchange, churches can elect to opt out of the Wespath/NIC mandated health programs (HealthFlex).

To elect this option the Churches agree to the following:

1. Agree to pay the monthly HealthCare premium established by the Conference Board of Pensions.
2. Each quarter the Churches will receive a rebate of one month’s premium of the HealthCare premium.
3. The maximum amount the Conference Board of Pensions will provide in cash is $900 per month to support clergy to engage a health carrier on the exchange plus and to pay for additional personal taxes. The amount provided by the Conference is considered as cash compensation only.
4. If Churches fail to make premium payments the Conference holds the right to discontinue the cash support provided to the Pastors.

The objective of allowing Churches to opt out of HealthFlex is to provide a means to help Churches lower the cost of medical insurance and be able to maintain the full services of United Methodist clergy.

The Conference Board of Pensions can also release a clergy person from mandatory participation in HealthFlex at its discretion when:

- a. The clergy person is eligible for health coverage through TRICARE, or Champus.
- b. The clergy is enrolled in coverage from a former employer or as a dependent on a spouse’s employer-provided coverage. The Conference will treat the participant as if they were enrolled in the pilot program and bill the church as explained above (Section B).

D. Retirement Health Administration

1. Clergy persons eligible for and enrolled in the health plan or participating in the pilot program, or waived under their spouses plan at Mandatory Retirement (Discipline paragraph 357.1), Early Retirement (Discipline paragraph 357.2b), Full Retirement (Discipline Paragraph 357.2c), or Involuntary Retirement (Discipline paragraph 357.3) are eligible for health benefits in retirement through the conference plan. No clergy member retiring under the "20 year rule" (Discipline paragraph 357.2a) is eligible for retiree health coverage.

2. A clergy spouse (or surviving spouse after death of an active member) enrolled in the health plan 5 consecutive years before retirement or enrolled when first eligible for coverage (and prior to participant's retirement) is eligible for coverage after retirement. The family status of the participant cannot change during retirement, except in cases of adoption, childbirth or death. Participants electing to not participate in retirement health plan at time of retirement may not elect to enroll at a later time.
3. Upon retirement the annual conference shall establish a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) for the household in the retiree's name. Participants and their spouses who meet the retiree eligibility rules under BOD 357.2 may use the funds in the HRA to pay for medical expenses including premiums, co-pays, deductibles, dental services, medical services, coinsurance, etc. Like a savings account, the funds do not need to be expended by the end of the calendar year and balances roll forward when unused.
4. Annually, the annual conference will provide a benefit equal to $100 per year of ministerial service. This benefit also extends to the Pastor's spouse for the duration of their lifetime.
5. This benefit is limited to maximum of 40 years of service is applied to this calculation.
6. Ministerial service years are determined by the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. Only years served in the Northern Illinois Conference are considered in the HRA calculation. Special exceptions may be made based on approval by NIC Board of Pensions.
7. The Conference at the discretion of their Board of Pension has the right to change or modify the retiree benefit and or contributions at any time.
8. Full Time Lay Conference employees of the annual conference with 5 continuous years of coverage before retirement will have a contribution equal to $100 per year of service to the annual conference deposited in their HRA annually. Eligibility for the HRA is contingent on a participant's enrollment in Medicare B and engagement with Via Benefits (formally One Exchange).
9. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits engages Via Benefits to aid clergy retirees aged 65 and above in selection of suitable Medicare supplement coverage and to act as a patient advocate when necessary. To receive the HRA benefit eligible participants must enroll through the Via Benefits program and enrolled in Medicare B. Clergy who retire prior to 65 and meet the eligibility rules to retire under BOD 357.2 will have the HRA equivalent deducted from the cost of their medical coverage until they reach Medicare eligibility, enroll in Medicare B and enroll in Supplemental programs through Via Benefits.

E. Active Health Administration

1. Monthly premiums are billed to each charge or salary-paying unit at rates established by the Conference Board of Pensions. Premiums are due the first of each month. Accounts 90 days in arrears are subject to termination as explained in the arrearage policy approved by the Board and the NIC Cabinet. This policy describes the efforts that will be made by the Conference office and the Cabinet to work with Churches that are more than 90 days in arrears. If all efforts to receive payment or develop a payment plan have been exhausted then termination of coverage may be the final option. Notification of accounts in arrears will be provided to the District Superintendent, the pastor, the local church PPRC chair, and the local church treasurer prior to termination.

Active participants seeking to enroll in the Flexible Spending Account Benefit provided by the plan must enroll in November of the year preceding the year of the agreement. Inquiries on billings and enrollment should be directed to the Conference Benefits Administrator, LaMeise Turner, at (312) 346-9766, ext. 720. Problem resolution and inquiries regarding coverage should be directed to the HealthFlex Team at Wespah 1-800-851-2201.

II. Pension Programs

- A. Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). The General Conference established the CRSP as the primary pension program for United Methodist clergy in 2007. Mandatory participation is required when both 1 and 2 are met:
1. The clergy member relationship to the conference is as a:
 - a. Commissioned Members (Deacon or Elder)
 - b. Elders in Full Connection
 - c. Members of Other Conferences appointed in the Northern Illinois Conference (paragraph 346.1 appointments)
 - d. Full Time Local Pastors
 - e. Deacons in Full Connection
 - f. Members of other denomination, appointed to service in an NIC local church if no other pension is provided by their denomination.
 2. The clergy member is under Episcopal appointment half-time or more to the following service types:
 - a. to local churches in the Northern Illinois Conference
 - b. to the Conference (staff or Cabinet)
 - c. to a Conference controlled entity (such as a campus ministry or ORM)
 - d. to Incapacity leave with CPP benefits
 3. In order to waive participation, a half-time or more appointed clergy member must sign a waiver form at time of appointment. Please note that persons assigned, but not appointed are not eligible in the program.
 4. Local churches are encouraged to enroll as a plan sponsor of UMPIP and to make employer contributions into the accounts of clergy appointed quarter-time.
- B. Clergy Retirement Security Program Billing Schedule. Local Churches shall be billed by the Annual Conference at the following rates (“plan compensation” means compensation as defined by the pension plan documents and includes both cash salary plus consideration for housing):
1. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The Comprehensive Protection Plan is the primary death and disability benefit for enrolled clergy. The billing rate for CPP will be 3% of plan compensation, up to 200% of Denominational Average Compensation. Appointments with compensation less than full time and those that were considered under special arrangements will be covered and billed based on rates established by UMLifeOptions.
 2. CRSP – Defined Contribution
 - a. The CRSP pension program includes a defined contribution component. Each clergy member will have 2% of plan compensation deposited in an individual account at the Wespath. All contributions into the account are invested and the enrolled clergy member receives the appreciated value of the account upon retirement.

- b. 3% of the plan compensation shall be required from each charge for the defined contribution component of the CRSP.
- c. Clergy persons are encouraged to contribute 1% of their plan compensation into their UMPIP account as a salary deduction. The annual conference will match the first 1% of UMPIP contributions paid into the participants CRSP-DC account.

3. CRSP – Defined Benefit program. With the defined benefit component each enrolled clergy member will receive a monthly cash benefit from the plan upon retirement. The amount of the benefit is determined by the number of full-time-equivalent years in the program and the denominational average compensation at the time of retirement multiplied by 1.0%. Annual contributions made by the conference will be invested by Wespath so that the NIC obligation can be met. 10% of plan compensation is billed to each appointment for the defined benefit component of CRSP. A portion of defined benefit funding accrues to a reserve fund for funding future variation in market results and other benefits to retirees and future retirees.

C. Billing Methods. The Annual Conference will invoice local churches monthly 16% (3% + 3% + 10%) of clergy plan compensation required for support of the CRSP and CPP programs.

D. Pre-82 Defined Benefit Past Service Rate for 2020

1. The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that the annual pension rate for service prior to 1982, effective January 1, 2020, be $605 per service year, an increase of 0% from 2019. Surviving spouses shall be supported at the rate of 85% of participant pension benefit amounts. Special grants will be provided as identified in Section F.

E. Excludable Housing allowance for retired clergy. In accordance with the Private Ruling Letter from the Internal Revenue Service, the Northern Illinois Conference Annual Conference Session reaffirms the limits to housing allowance exclusion for retired and disabled clergy found in the Standing Rules, at Section IV. C. 1, which states: Disabled clergy have the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as do the retired clergy and, thus, this Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for disabled ordained or local pastors who are members of this Conference. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired clergy, or 100% of the disability payments received by a disabled clergy, is designated as rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or local pastor of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Northern Illinois Conference at the time of retirement or disability.

F. Special Grants

1. For the 2015 Northern Illinois Conference Session the Board of Pensions approved grants for participants meeting the following eligibility criteria:
 - a. Members of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference who retired from an appointment in the conference;
 - b. Who have at least 15 years of service prior to 1982 compensated at the Past Service Rate (excludes those at the DBSM rate); and,

- c. Who have less than 10 years of service to Northern Illinois Conference appointments served while enrolled in the MPP program.
2. For those eligible participants the Board of Pensions approved a benefit equal to a 2% annual increase to the established Past Service Rate of $605 to commence as of 1/1/2016. For 1/1/2020 the amount provided to eligible participants will be $655 times their pre-82 years of service.
3. The Conference Board of Pensions also recommends the special grant previously given to Vernon L. Bell be continued for his widow, Enid. Mr. Bell died March 17, 1995. He served 11 years as a full member of the Northern Illinois Conference from June 13, 1954, to August 15, 1965. He took voluntary Leave of Absence from 1965 and Honorable Location in 1966. The service rate at the time of his voluntary location was $77. Thus, we recommend for the year commencing July 1, 2018, to June 30 2019, a grant be paid to Mrs. Bell of $847, actuarially reduced in the same manner as if this grant was paid under the Methodist Ministers Reserve Pension Fund for payments commencing after early retirement date and prior to normal retirement date. Payments shall be paid monthly.
4. The Conference Board of Pensions also recommends that a special grant be made to James W. French for his 3.5 years of service with this Annual Conference from June 1, 1978 through December 31, 1981. We recommend for the year commencing July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019, a grant of $140.95 monthly be paid based on the present pension rate, but actuarially reduced since payments are starting prior to full retirement age.

III. Group Life Insurance

The Conference Board of Pensions enrolls in the UMLifeOptions program. Every eligible retired clergy person will be enrolled in the plan with a benefit of $5,000 at no cost to the participant. Active clergy persons have $10,000 in coverage at the NIC expense when an application is filed during the open enrollment period. Coverage beyond this amount is at the cost of the participant and will be billed directly from UMLifeOptions.

Name: Task Force to Explore a New Methodist Expression

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

- (1) The Northern Illinois Conference hereby joins our voice and witness, along with an increasing number of other United Methodist Annual Conferences and congregations in expressing our disappointment that the “Traditional Plan” that many find hurtful and punitive was adopted by the 2019 Special Session of General Conference;
- (2) We are grieved by the prohibitions that remain in the “Traditional Plan” against marriage and ordination for our LGBTQ siblings, and we implore our Bishop and Cabinet to refrain from enforcing such prohibitions and pursuing related complaints, investigations, and trials;
- (3) We reaffirm our 1986 decision to be a reconciling conference and our commitment to be a church for all people, including traditionally-minded persons; and
- (4) We authorize the Bishop to form a task force to explore a way forward for the Northern Illinois Conference including the possibility of new Methodist expression. The task force is directed to receive input from churches within our Conference and to work with other jurisdictions, conferences, and churches who are also exploring new options and opportunities. The task force shall include at least 3 persons of color, laity or clergy, at least 3 LGBTQ laity or clergy, 3 persons from the 2020 General Conference delegation from Northern Illinois, and others as determined necessary by the Bishop. The task force shall report on its initial conversations at the special session of the Northern Illinois Conference in November 2019.

RATIONALE:

The Northern Illinois Conference is a diverse conference with a tradition of promoting the gospel of Jesus Christ for all people, striving for racial justice, equality for women, and advocacy for immigrants, as well as affirming the sacred worth of LGBTQ persons.

However, the “Traditional Plan” requires agreement on marriage and ordination where many Christians of good conscience do not agree, and it sets mandatory penalties for those who see themselves following the teaching and example of Christ. The “Traditional Plan” creates an untenable situation for many in the Northern Illinois Conference and beyond who aspire to be a church with “open hearts, open minds, and open doors.”

Moreover, the “Traditional Plan” substantially hinders the ability of the Northern Illinois Conference to carry out the mission of The United Methodist Church in our mission field, and it prevents the Northern Illinois Conference from deploying some of our best ordained leadership.

Finally, the “Traditional Plan” urges Annual Conferences to disaffiliate if they are unwilling to abide by the prohibitions against LGBTQ marriage and ordination.

Name: Exclude Sovereign Debt (also known as Government Debt) of Countries Involved in Prolonged Military Occupations in Violation of International Law

Authors: NIC Church and Society

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

- (1) Northern Illinois Conference urges its own investment managers, as well as the boards and agencies throughout the connection, to add to their human rights guidelines the same language concerning “sovereign debt” (government bonds) as that of the Human Rights Investment Guideline of Wespath Benefits and Investments (formerly named the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits) (“Wespath”), an administrative agency of the United Methodist Church, and therefore to exclude the purchase of bonds from three governments that maintain a prolonged military occupation and that have been the subject of United Nations Security Council resolutions and/or International Court of Justice rulings until the time when each government ends their occupation and ceases their human rights violations.

RATIONALE:

“Sovereign debt” (also called “government debt”) is a term used to describe bonds that are issued by a nation’s government as a means of borrowing money from organizations or persons who purchase the bonds. Because money raised from the sale of such bonds can be used at the discretion of the government that issues the bonds, holders (buyers) of government bonds are therefore on record as supporting, through their purchase, whatever activities the country that issues (sells) the bonds may choose to do.

Wespath’s the Human Rights Investment Guideline states: “Wespath also may exclude from investment the sovereign debt of any country demonstrating a prolonged and systematic pattern of human rights abuses...”¹ In addition, the United Methodist Church, through its general agencies and annual conferences, strives to be accountable to our Social Principles through screening against investment in military occupations.²

The UMC’s Social Principles state: “...we endorse the United Nations, its related bodies, the International Court of Justice and the International Criminal Court as the best instruments now in existence to achieve a world of justice and law...”³

Three nations have held subject populations under prolonged military occupation: Morocco has occupied Western Sahara since 1976; Turkey has occupied Northern Cyprus since 1974; Israel has occupied the Palestinian territories since 1967, thus

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the appropriate officers of The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church are authorized and directed to execute on behalf of the said Conference any and all such additional documents as legal counsel shall recommend to effectuate the above.

RATIONALE:

After many faithful years of service, ministry and mission in the name of Jesus Christ, Pilgrim Protestant Church has come to a place of transition and closure as membership and attendance have declined. Name: Suspend Payments to General Administration Fund

Author(s): Conference Council on Finance & Administration

CCFA Action:

ACTION:

The NIC will not pay the General Administration Fund until changes are made to the structure and practices of the General Conference. The Conference Treasurer shall communicate this decision and rationale to the Presidents and General Secretaries of the General Council on Finance & Administration and the Connectional Table.

This will be reviewed at the November 2019 NIC Special Session to determine whether to continue in 2020.

RATIONALE:

The purpose of the General Administration Fund is to pay for General Conference. In 2019, we are apportioned $117,559 for this fund.

Currently, General Conference is composed of 864 delegates, from 58 countries. Written materials are translated into 4 official languages and voice interpretation is provided simultaneously in at least 8 different languages. The vast number of delegates, wide range of cultural contexts, and multiplicity of languages, make the General Conference's decision-making process extremely difficult to navigate. Decisions of the General Conference are not universally binding. Central Conferences are permitted to adapt the Book of Discipline to their ministry contexts¹, but the U.S. cannot. Ministry in the U.S. is bound to the decisions of General Conference, but Central Conferences have the liberty to change General Conference decisions based upon its relevancy to their particular ministry and cultural contexts. This is highly problematic, especially when 42% of General Conference delegates are from Central Conferences, but vote on rules that apply only to the U.S. We agree that the Book of Discipline ought to be lived out in relevant, culturally appropriate contexts. Therefore, just as Central Conferences are afforded autonomy in their unique ministry contexts, so should the U.S. be able to address ministry needs in a U.S. context.

There is a long history concerning the integrity of General Conference. Financial incentives offered in exchange for votes are familiar and questioned every quadrennium. Delegates have reported being antagonized or physically threatened to impel votes on certain petitions. In Central Conferences, where clergy appointments are not guaranteed, some clergy delegates have lost appointments as sanction for their vote.

Presiding Bishops need to continually remind delegates that votes are anonymous, because rumors are falsely and intentionally spread to delegates that votes are recorded by name, as a means of coercion.

Concerns regarding the integrity of the decision making process reached the pages of the New York Times.² They conducted their own investigation into General Conference and exposed multiple fraudulent votes and several irregularities. As a result, a task force is now investigating voter credentials and allegations of improper voting.

Homophobia is routinely leveraged to incentivize voter fraud. For example, a bishop's son was an unauthorized delegate seated on the floor as a voter of General Conference, even though he lived on another continent. The unauthorized delegate reported to the New York Times, "I came here because my dad asked me to come vote against the lesbians."²

This climate of corruption, fear, intimidation, coercion, and fraud has led to deep distrust of the General Conference process itself. Our current system of governance is profoundly broken and has strayed far from the principles of Christian Conferencing and the General Rules of the United Methodist Church to do no harm, to do good, and stay in love with God.

Name: Affirming Dignity

Author(s): David Aslesen and Krista Paradiso

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference celebrates the beloved community we create in the midst of our diversity and therefore,

1. We affirm the inherent beauty and dignity of every lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and straight (lgbtq+) person, and the evolving diversity in which God creates us as persons of sacred worth.
2. We affirm the process and hope for an authentic life born of grace and established by faith in God in all persons of every sexual orientation or gender identity.
3. We honor the work of God's Spirit in the lives of individuals and families in the coming out process. It is a courageous and spiritual act. We believe that God rejoices when we reveal to the world our full selves.
4. We support each person's journey of integrating spirituality and sexuality which leads to wholeness.
5. We honor the relationships of love and commitment made by lgbtq+ couples that serve to model God's love and give expression to the diversity of families in our world.

6. We take responsibility and encourage local congregations and spiritual leaders to lead, protect, and affirm lgbtq+ people of all ages and their families. We believe God inspires and calls us as leaders to do this work.
7. We celebrate the resiliency, faithfulness, and determination of lgbtq+ laity and clergy who are part of our United Methodist past, present, and future. The body of Christ is blessed by their commitment to God, service within the church and ministry among God's people in the world.

RATIONALE:

The adoption of the Traditional Plan by the recent Special Session of The General Conference of The United Methodist Church reinforces and strengthens Discipline-sanctioned discrimination and harm of lgbtq+ persons. This is contrary to the gospel of Jesus Christ and harms both lgbtq+ Christians and our United Methodist witness to the world. We reject continued exclusion by the church and the misappropriation of Christian theology that may lead lgbtq persons to feel as if God and the church only condemns and rather than honoring the discovery of personhood, identity and expressions of healthy sexuality as found in the life of lgbtq+ persons.

God's Spirit has created each of us as God's children, made in the image of God, beloved by God, and called us all to serve in the wholeness of mind, body, soul and expressions thereof to build the kingdom of God on earth. The church of Jesus Christ is best served by the full participation and inclusion of all God's people. The United Methodist Church, its congregations and leadership are most faithful when all can serve as they are called in all areas of church life.

Name: Affirming Our Theological Task

Author(s): David Aslesen

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference affirms the following portion of The Book of Discipline, Par. 105, Section 4 – Our Theological Task, as found on page 80, which states:

1. Theology is our effort to reflect upon God's gracious action in our lives. In response to the love of Christ, we desire to be drawn into a deeper relationship with "faith's pioneer and perfecter." Our theological explorations seek to give expression to the mysterious reality of God's presence, peace, and power in the world. By so doing, we attempt to articulate more clearly our understanding of the divine-human encounter and are thereby more fully prepared to participate in God's work in the world.
2. The theological task, though related to the Church's doctrinal expressions, serves a different function. Our doctrinal affirmations assist us in the discernment of Christian truth in ever-changing contexts. Our theological task includes the testing, renewal, elaboration, and application of our doctrinal perspective in carrying out our calling "to spread scriptural holiness over these lands."

3. While the Church considers its doctrinal affirmations a central feature of its identity and restricts official changes to a constitutional process, the Church encourages serious reflection across the theological spectrum.
4. As United Methodists, we are called to identify the needs both of individuals and of society and to address those needs out of the resources of Christian faith in a way that is clear, convincing, and effective. Theology serves the Church by interpreting the world's needs and challenges to the Church and by interpreting the gospel to the world.

Therefore, all local churches and faith communities are urged to study this section in whatever ways fit the context and culture of the church or faith community.

RATIONALE:

The Northern Illinois Conference stands as a leader in cross-cultural and multi-contextual ministry in the denomination with a spectrum of Christian thought, perspective and practice. Undergirding our life together is the work of our theological traditions and doctrinal affirmations which enable us to do our theology as a critical and constructive task, as an individual and communal task, as a contextual and incarnational task and an essentially practical task.

Whatever the future may hold for The United Methodist Church, the work of theology should continue to be a prayerful, graceful, intellectual, faithful, contextual, mindful and practical endeavor for each member, every congregation and this annual conference.

In all expressions of Methodism, past, present and future, the wise use of scripture, tradition, experience and reason will provide us with steps to engaging the present challenges of our church and world.

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

As the Northern Illinois Conference, we affirm our commitment to do no harm and stand with our LGBTQia family, as we call upon:

- Our conference to condemn the decision of the 2019 General Conference to pass the Traditional Plan and apologizes for the harm that it has caused LGBTQ+ persons, their families, their friends, and the body of Christ. "We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God," but we also assert and affirm that no human being is incompatible with Christian teaching.
- Our conference to allow no NIC funds or monies (either directly through payments or indirectly through the time of employees of the conference) to be expended for the purpose of background investigations, complaints, just resolutions, or clergy trials pertaining LGBTQ+ ordination and officiating same sex marriages or unions.

- Our Bishop in Residence to limit complaints and trials against clergy persons (unless they specifically request such) for the accusations of being a self-avowed practicing homosexual or officiating same sex marriages or unions.
- The clergy and lay persons of the Northern Illinois Conference to refrain from bringing complaints upon those in our connection for the accusations of being a self-avowed practicing homosexual or officiating same sex marriages or unions.

RATIONALE:

In our baptismal vows, we promise to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves. Our founder, John Wesley, suggested the first general rule for the people called Methodist was to “do not harm”. The language affirmed by the General Conference in the 2019 Special Session is evil, homophobic, and an attack on the Body of Christ. By passing the Traditional Plan, the denomination has done great, and perhaps irreparable harm to our LGBTQ+ siblings and members. Despite the fact that much of the Traditional Plan had already been ruled unconstitutional before it was voted upon. As an act of resistance, the Northern Illinois Conference has stood as a Reconciling Conference, in spite of being ruled out of order by the Judicial Council. We have many LGBTQia clergy and lay persons who are gifted and qualified for ministry, sacrificially serving our congregations, our Conference, and our world from the Northern Illinois Conference, and they should be able to do so unhindered by fear. If clergy feel called to officiate same sex weddings and unions, they should be able to faithfully minister without being fearful of a complaint or trial.

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference reaffirms its commitment to inclusion as a Reconciling Conference. We dissent with the vote of General Conference that imposes the Traditional Plan on the denomination, and we encourage the NIC Bishop to only pursue trial for clergy that perform same sex weddings or self avowal at the request of the clergy person.

RATIONALE:

In light of the recent vote by the General Conference at the Special Session, this conference is standing with our lesbian, gay, transgender, bisexual, and queer siblings. We believe that all persons are beloved children of God, worthy of full inclusion in the United Methodist Church.

In 1985(?), this annual conference voted to become a Reconciling Conference. Currently, fifty-three congregations and communities in Northern Illinois Conference are reconciling, as well as hundreds (?) of individuals. We dissent with the decision made by General Conference and continue to support churches, pastors, and laypersons who welcome all into full relationship and membership with UMC congregations.

As a Reconciling Conference, we have and we will continue to address the intersections of oppression, such as: speaking out for immigration reform and an end to deportations; speaking out for a fair wage; divesting from unfair trade; standing with displaced Palestinians and all native persons; engaging in national conversations on racism; and empowering other marginalized people or others who experience injustice. We are in ministry with young people who suffer violence, physical or verbal, who are led to believe that they are not beloved by God because of their sexual orientation or gender identity. We celebrate with loving couples and value the ministry of LGBTQ persons. We believe in people before doctrine and love before rules.

- Northern Illinois Conference notify the Council of Bishops that the stipulations of the Traditional Plan are not acceptable for our Conference.
- We encourage the Board of Ordained Ministry and other structures and individuals not to follow the chosen way of controlling people in their disposition and imposing stricter penalties.
- Northern Illinois Conference shall call on the 2020 General Conference to adopt a structural realignment of the United Methodist Church that creates an expression of Wesleyan Methodism that allows for both traditional and progressive understandings of LGBTQ Clergy and same-gender weddings to co-exist within the Church

RATIONALE:

In light of the 2019 General Conference, it is time to restructure the UMC.

- The Council of Bishops, The Commission on a Way Forward, and the 2019 General Conference were unable to find a satisfactory resolution to the Impasse in the United Methodist Church around LGBTQ Clergy and same-gender weddings in our churches.
- Enormous cultural and theological gaps remain in our global church that require structural separation to allow all Annual Conferences and Local Churches to effectively Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World.
- The Traditional Plan passed at the 2019 General Conference serves as a rejection of compromise and a theologically big-tent denomination.

Document: 700.16Approved in plenary 06/03/19*Name: Strategic Goals for the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church*Author: Annual Conference Shepherding Team*CCFA Comment:*ACTION:

Affirm the prioritization and focus of resources of the Northern Illinois Conference on the implementation of three inter-related strategic goals:

Goal 1: To Grow and Reach New Disciples of Jesus Christ

- By encouraging individuals in the life-long practice of developing and strengthening a personal relationship with God;
- By supporting congregations in fostering discipleship in all of their ministries; and
- By sharing the Good News with people who do not know Jesus.

Goal 2: To Live Out the Conviction that Racism is Incompatible with Christian Teaching

- By encouraging individuals to engage in ongoing self-reflection, cross-cultural sharing, and growth;
- By challenging the structures, practices and policies of the NIC and instituting necessary changes to ensure equity; and
- By educating and equipping congregations, districts and the NIC to be prophetic leaders pursuing equity in society.

Goal 3: To Increase the Number of Highly Vital Congregations

- By actively and intentionally practicing stewardship of the NIC's ministry resources;
- By conducting a comprehensive assessment of ministry resources and the future potential of every congregation; and
- By creating and executing a plan with each congregation, in collaboration with the district, for its future.

RATIONALE:

Years before the recent Special Session of General Conference, the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church ("NIC") began a process that has led to a strategic plan focused on three primary goals. Such a plan is more important now than ever.

By way of background, the NIC created the Annual Conference Shepherding Team ("ACST") and charged it with the following key responsibilities:

- Providing coordination of the ministry, mission and vision of the NIC.
- Discerning a 5-year vision plan; presenting it for approval by NIC; communicating it throughout the NIC, monitoring and adapting it on an annual basis.
- Focusing NIC resources to equip local churches and ministry settings to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
- Advocating, monitoring and celebrating diversity at every level of leadership throughout the NIC.

To fulfill its charge, the ACST embarked on a strategic planning initiative from March through November 2018. Strategic planning is an organizational development activity that is used to set a clear vision and establish priorities, focus energy and resources, strengthen operations, ensure that employees and other stakeholders are working toward common goals, establish agreement around intended outcomes/results, and assess and adjust the organization's direction in response to a changing environment. As a result, the NIC will prioritize and focus its resources on the implementation of three goals. By focusing on discipleship, we will strengthen our faith as individuals, and we will nurture and grow our faith communities in love of God and love for our neighbor. By pursuing anti-racism, we will build upon our history of diversity and inclusion, hold ourselves to a higher standard of equity and challenge ourselves to prophetic witness in our communities. By exercising stewardship over our ministry resources, we will position ourselves to move forward into a new expression of United Methodism.

Pursuit of these goals will be challenging and will require discipline, self-evaluation and self-sacrifice, mutual support and strengthened connection. This pursuit will be transformational for individuals, congregations and our Annual Conference.

GENERAL CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS - DOCUMENT 900Document: 900.01*Approved on Consent Calendar 06/03/19*Name: Petition to General Conference 2020 to Amend Sustainable and Socially Responsible Investments, Discipline Paragraph: Discipline ¶ 717*Author: NIC Church and Society*ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference encourages submission of this petition to General Conference 2020 to amend Discipline Paragraph 717 to add language to include restriction on purchase or acquisition of sovereign or government debt from countries that are engaged in prolonged military occupations, in violation of international law. Proposed language is underlined:

Amend ¶ 717: In the investment of money, it shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all general boards and agencies, including the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and all administrative agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, educational institutions, annual conferences, foundations, and local churches, make a conscious effort to invest in institutions, companies, corporations, governments, or funds with policies and practices that are socially responsible, consistent with the goals outlined in the Social Principles. All United Methodist institutions shall endeavor to seek investments in institutions, companies, corporations, governments, or funds that promote racial and gender justice, protect human rights, prevent the use of sweatshop or forced labor, avoid human suffering, and preserve the natural world, including mitigating the effects of climate change. In addition, United Methodist institutions shall endeavor to avoid investments in companies engaged in core business activities that are not aligned with the Social Principles through their direct or indirect involvement with the production of anti-personnel weapons and armaments (both nuclear and conventional weapons), alcoholic beverages or tobacco; or that are involved in privately operated correctional facilities, gambling, pornography or other forms of exploitative adult entertainment. United Methodist institutions should similarly not hold sovereign or government debt in states conducting prolonged military occupations as they violate international law and human rights standards. The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to environmental, social, and governance factors when making investment decisions and actively exercise their responsibility as owners of the companies in which they invest. This includes engaging with companies to create positive change and hold them accountable for their actions, while also considering exclusion if companies fail to act responsibly.

RATIONALE:

When we buy sovereign debt (government bonds) we are lending our funds to governments without any formal mechanism for advocacy. Governments conducting prolonged military occupations are violating international law and human rights standards. Such investments are morally wrong and financially risky.

We deplore all forms of the commercialization, abuse, and exploitation of sex. We call for strict global enforcement of laws prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children and for adequate protection, guidance, and counseling for abused children. All persons, regardless of age, gender, marital status, or sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured and to be protected against violence. The Church should support the family in providing age-appropriate education regarding sexuality, to children, youth, and adults.

We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ We affirm that God's grace is available to all. We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving, and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons.

Amend footnote 3 of ¶310.2(d) as follows:

In adopting the statements in ¶¶ 304.2 and 310.2d on the moral and social responsibility of ordained ministers, the General Conference seeks to elevate the standards by calling for a more thoroughgoing moral commitment by the candidate and for a more careful and thorough examination of candidates by district committees and boards of the ministry. The legislation in no way implies that the use of tobacco is a morally indifferent question. In the light of the developing evidence against the use of tobacco, the burden of proof would be upon all users to show that their use of it is consistent with the highest ideals of the Christian life.

Similarly, regarding beverage alcohol, the burden of proof would be upon users to show that their action is consistent with the ideals of excellence of mind, purity of body, and responsible social behavior.

Therefore, the changes here do not relax the traditional view concerning the use of tobacco and beverage alcohol by ordained ministers in The United Methodist Church. Rather they call for higher standards of self-discipline and habit formation in all personal and social relationships. They call for dimensions of moral commitment that go far beyond any specific practices which might be listed. (See Judicial Council Decision 318.)

The General Conference, in response to expressions throughout the Church regarding homosexuality and ordination, reaffirms the present language of the Discipline regarding the character and commitment of persons seeking ordination and affirms its high standards:

For more than 200 years candidates for ordination have been asked Wesley's Questions, including ". . . Have they a clear, sound understanding; a right judgment in the things of God; a just conception of salvation by faith? . . ." (§ 310). All candidates agree to make a complete dedication of themselves to the highest ideals of the Christian life and to this end agree "to exercise responsible self-control, by personal habits conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, integrity in all personal relationships, fidelity in marriage and celibacy in singleness, social responsibility, and growth in grace and the knowledge and love of God" (§ 304.2).

The character and commitment of candidates for the ordained ministry is described or examined in six places in the Book of Discipline (§§ 304, 310.2, 324, 330, 333, and 335). These say in part: "Only those shall be elected to full membership who are of unquestionable moral character and genuine piety, sound in the fundamental doctrines of Christianity, and faithful in the discharge of their duties" (§ 333).

The statement on ordination (§ 304.2) states: "The Church expects those who seek ordination to make a complete dedication of themselves to the highest ideals of the Christian life . . . [and to] agree to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits. . . ."

There are eight crucial steps in the examination of candidates. They are:

- (1) The self-examination of the individual seeking ordination as he or she responds to God's call in personal commitment to Christ and his church.
- (2) The decision of the committee on pastor-parish relations, which makes the first recommendation to the charge conference when a member seeks to become a candidate for ordained ministry.
- (3) The decision of the charge conference, which must recommend the candidate.
- (4) The decision of the district committee on ordained ministry, which must recommend the candidate to the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and, where applicable, the decision of the district conference.
- (5) The decision of the Board of Ordained Ministry, which must recommend deacon's ordination and provisional membership. See Judicial Council Decisions 513, 536, 542.
- (6) The decision of the clergy members of the annual conference, who must elect candidates to provisional membership.
- (7) The recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry for deacon's or elder's ordination and full membership.

(8) The election to deacon's or elder's ordination and full membership by the clergy members of the annual conference.

All clergy members of the annual conference are accountable as to character and effectiveness to the annual conference throughout their entire ministry.

The General Conference has made it clear in the "Doctrinal Standards and Our Theological Task" (Part III of the Discipline) that Scripture, tradition, experience, and reason are our guidelines. "United Methodists share with other Christians the conviction that Scripture is the primary source and criterion for Christian doctrine."

In the Social Principles, the General Conference has said that we ~~"do not condone the practice of homosexuality and consider this practice incompatible with Christian teaching."~~ Furthermore, the Principles state that "we affirm the sanctity of the marriage covenant that is expressed in love, mutual support, personal commitment, and shared fidelity ~~between a man and a woman.~~ We believe that God's blessing rests upon such marriage, whether or not there are children of the union. We reject social norms that assume different standards for women than for men in marriage." Also, "we affirm the integrity of single persons, and we reject all social practices that discriminate or social attitudes that are prejudicial against persons because they are single."

The General Conference affirms the wisdom of our heritage expressed in the disciplinary provisions relating to the character and commitment of ordained ministers. The United Methodist Church has moved away from prohibitions of specific acts, for such prohibitions can be endless. We affirm our trust in the covenant community and the process by which we ordain ministers.

In our covenant we are called to trust one another as we recommend, examine, and elect candidates for the ordained ministry and conference membership. See Judicial Council Decision 480.

703-01 SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND ABUSE

(Passed in Plenary on June 10, 1997)

WHEREAS, the 1996 Annual Conference charged the Bishop's Task Force on Sexual Harassment to bring a policy statement to the 1997 Annual Conference, which would incorporate the actions of the 1996 General Conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the policy of the Northern Illinois Conference:

The United Methodist Church of the Northern Illinois Conference stands in opposition to the sins of sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct and will not tolerate or condone these behaviors. The Northern Illinois Conference bears affirmative covenant responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, which is free of harassment and encourages mutual respect, equality with one another and kinship in Christ. Affiliation with The United Methodist Church (whether in positions of licensed, commissioned, certified, consecrated, ordained or diaconal ministry, volunteer leadership, lay ministry, or lay employment) not only implies, but also requires a high standard of behavior consistent with the gospel. Every complaint of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct shall be diligently pursued according to the 1996 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

In this context the primary concern of the Northern Illinois Conference is the protection of and care for all persons, as well as the achievement of justice and reconciliation of all parties whenever possible. The Body of Christ is best healed when protection, justice, remedial action and reconciliation can occur.

The United Methodist Church has found sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship to be incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing, and took action at the 1996 General Conference to continue the church's efforts to eliminate sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct in the denomination and its institutions.

"All human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. From the beginning, God intended us to live out our equality in relation with one another. Yet, in our human brokenness, we have given greater value and power to men than to women. Jesus was sent into this world that we might experience whole relationships with one another and with God. 'There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.'" (Galatians 3:28 RSV; The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, TN: The United Methodist Publishing House, 1996, p. 481).

Sexual Harassment, sexual abuse, and sexual misconduct are violations of an individual's integrity and of the covenant relationship intended by God. In the creation stories and in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, we affirm that we are created in the image and likeness of God. To harass or abuse another person sexually is to deny that value. Sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Any expression of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct is a sin against God and other persons.

There is no simple, all-inclusive definition of sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct. Often the definitions may overlap and a particular form of behavior may fall within two or more of the prohibitions. Further, the following definitions are illustrative guidelines and do not attempt to serve as definitive legal conclusions, to cover all possible situations or to limit or preempt any subject matter ultimately governed by The Book of Discipline or within the purview of the General Conference and the Judicial Council.

Sexual misconduct occurs when a person in a ministerial role of leadership engages in a broad variety of sexual contacts or sexualized behaviors with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, etc. (adult, teenager, or child) within the ministerial relationship. Sexual misconduct includes sexual harassment, sexual abuse, and any form of criminal sexual misconduct.

Sexual harassment may be defined, according to the 1996 Book of Resolutions, as an “unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical that is perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.” Particularly where there exists a differential in power and authority between the participants or special vulnerability of the victim, sexual harassment may include the development or attempted development of a sexual or romantic relationship between a person in a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) and a person with whom he or she has a ministerial relationship, whether or not there is apparent consent from the individual. The Book of Resolutions goes on to state that “sexual harassment also includes the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” (The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, TN: The United Methodist Publishing House, 1996, p. 482.)

Sexual abuse may be defined as a sexual invasion of the body and/or mind by force or other coercive means. Sexual abuse may be rape, sexual assault, incest, indecent exposure, statutory rape, involuntary or ostensibly voluntary sexual intercourse with a child, promotion of prostitution, pornography with children, fondling, indecent assault, and aggravated indecent assault. Sexual abuse is also an internal assault, a deliberate violation of emotional integrity, a hostile, degrading act of violence. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person in a ministerial role of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer. It is an abuse of power through sexual harassment, sexual contact or sexual activity in which the person violates the free choice or abuses the vulnerability of another person for whom he or she is responsible (adult, teen or child), or allows or causes that person to engage in sexual behavior.

703-02 HOUSING COVENANT

(Passed as amended in Plenary on June 7, 1999)

WHEREAS, the Clergy Compensation Task Force has been charged with the responsibility of addressing issues related to equity in clergy compensation, and

WHEREAS, a study done by the Task Force revealed a great inconsistency in clergy housing provisions and conditions, and

WHEREAS, the study also disclosed a lack of understanding of minimum housing standards, as well as responsibilities for upkeep and maintenance,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the following housing covenant be approved as a document to be used annually by each church of the Northern Illinois Conference:

HOUSING COVENANT BETWEEN PASTOR _____ AND _____ UNITED METHODIST CHURCH IN NORTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

A parsonage is a dwelling place provided by the church for the use and occupancy of the pastors of the United Methodist Church who may be entitled to occupy the same by appointment every year. The justification of this option is that it is the backbone of our denomination's appointment system. The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the ministerial family as the property of the church and by the congregation as the private home of the ministerial family. The property is on loan. The pastor and family are entrusted with the care of the home for the duration of the pastoral appointment. To be less than Christian stewards of this "trust" decreases the effectiveness of the Christian ministry. The Staff/Parish Relations Committee is the advocate for the parsonage family, and it is their responsibility to see that this covenant is followed. The Board of Trustees has the responsibility for the upkeep and general maintenance of the property, and it is responsible for its renovations and good maintenance.

A housing allowance is another option for the pastor and the church if both parties and the cabinet are in agreement. If a housing allowance is the option both parties choose, the amount shall be in a reasonable arrangement reflecting the average housing in the community and within an easy commute of the charge.

In this option, the pastor is the one who should take care of his/her property.

If a parsonage is provided, the parsonage family shall care for and maintain the property and be financially responsible for damage done by pets, personal equipment or tools, and/or family life-style except for the reasonable wear and tear. In addition, the following points are made as means of clarification:

Any damage done by pets is considered more than normal wear and tear.

If any life-style choices such as smoking, pets, etc. affect the condition or health environment of the parsonage, the pastor must pay for thorough professional cleaning prior to the new pastor's arrival.

Good housekeeping is the responsibility of the pastor.

It is the responsibility of the Trustees to keep a record of the parsonage and its equipment. It should include such things as a history of the parsonage, decorating and renovation dates, electrical circuits, guarantees, date and place of purchases, repairs, upgrading, and whom to call for service. It is the responsibility of both the pastor and the trustees to keep these records updated.

At the parsonage it is desirable to have a phone list for emergency service and maintenance/operation manuals for parsonage appliances and equipment. Again, it is the responsibility of both the pastor and the Trustees to keep these records updated. Before emergencies occur, it is essential that the Staff/Parish Relations Committee, the Trustees, and the pastor agree on who is to act when major problems happen. When authority is granted, the responsible party can act. Therefore, the following guidelines are to be used:

Emergencies that need to be dealt with on an immediate basis should be handled according to the repair service list already approved by the Trustees.

Non-emergency items of concern and repair should be brought for consideration or action to the Trustees at a regular or special meeting.

If unclear situations arise, the Book of Discipline and the latest Journal and Year Book of Northern Illinois Conference will be referenced.

The parsonage is to be inspected at least annually and at a time of each change of pastors to ascertain what items of routine maintenance and decorating need attention. The parsonage committee or trustees should plan and work to see that reasonable amounts are included in each annual budget to attend to these matters. An Annual Local Church Parsonage Report is to be made every year at the charge conference and submitted to the district superintendent.

The Trustees are responsible for insuring the basic parsonage structure and church owned contents for fire, earthquake, accident, weather conditions, flood and other external causes. The pastor shall maintain a renter’s insurance policy for personal liability, property liability, personal property, theft and other actions consistent with the form of insurance. To the extent possible these policies should be coordinated through the individual broker and/or insurance company.

The following chart shows the standard parsonage equipment which churches are expected to furnish (Standing Rule IV-B-3 of Journal and Year Book.) Pastor may waive items to be furnished by initialing those. In addition, a time schedule will be agreed upon as to when the initialed items will be completed.

This agreement is expected to be renewed every year.

703-03 LOCAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH BASIC POLICY STATEMENT ON SEXUAL AND GENDER HARASSMENT AND MISCONDUCT OF A SEXUAL NATURE

(Passed in Plenary, Second Consent Calendar, on Friday evening, June 7, 2002)

WHEREAS, it is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the individual church to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in matters of sexual misconduct by both laity and/or clergy,

WHEREAS, misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing,

WHEREAS, the Church needs to be a place where one is respected and free from any misconduct of sexual nature,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Sample local United Methodist Church Policy on Misconduct of a Sexual nature.

The _____ United Methodist Church affirms The 2000 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing. The 2000 Book of Discipline, 161F, all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual misconduct, including sexual abuse and sexual harassment, occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership or authority, including pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, lay member or other position of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, pastor, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (Book of Discipline 1611). It also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. This may also be the case with laity having leadership roles invested with authority or influence. Similarly, sexual and gender harassment are usually understood as exploitation of power relationships rather than as exclusively sexual or gender issues.

Sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission.

_____ United Methodist Church prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong, and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the _____ United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of these sins and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated mediation. In all other instances, the conduct must be reported immediately to at least one of these people: the chair or another member of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, the pastor, another UMC pastor, a district superintendent, or the Bishop. If the conduct involves a clergy person, it must be reported to the clergy person's supervisor, district superintendent or the Bishop. Furthermore, the provisions of Paragraph 359, 413 and Paragraphs 2701-2706 of the Book of Discipline (2000) shall determine the procedure. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Book of Discipline and this Policy, the former shall govern.

The _____ United Methodist Church will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to anyone of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations will be subject to discipline.

While the United Methodist Church cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information about the complaint only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Anyone who has any questions or concerns about this policy or the issues addressed is encouraged to air those questions or concerns to the PPRC or _____.

703-04 NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST BASIC POLICY STATEMENT ON SEXUAL AND GENDER HARASSMENT AND MISCONDUCT OF SEXUAL NATURE

(Passed in Plenary on Saturday afternoon, June 8, 2002)

WHEREAS, it is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in matters of sexual misconduct by both laity and/or clergy,

WHEREAS, Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church is incompatible with Biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing,

WHEREAS, the Church needs to be a place where one is respected and free from any misconduct of sexual nature,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Basic Policy of the Northern Illinois Conference on Misconduct of a Sexual Nature.

The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist denomination affirms The 2000 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing. The 2000 Book of Discipline, Par. 2702.3, also recognizes that sexual misconduct and sexual harassment may constitute chargeable offenses by lay person as well. In accordance with The 2000 Book of Discipline, 161F, all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual misconduct, including sexual abuse and sexual harassment, occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership or authority, including pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, lay member or other position of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, pastor, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (Book of Discipline 1611). It also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. This may also be the case with laity having leadership roles invested with authority or influence. Similarly, sexual and gender harassment are usually understood as exploitation of power relationships rather than as exclusively sexual or gender issues.

Sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission. Northern Illinois Annual Conference prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong, and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with The Book of Discipline. Further, the Northern Illinois Annual Conference bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of these sins and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated mediation. In all other instances, the conduct must be reported immediately to at least one of these people: the chair or another member of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, the pastor, another UMC pastor, a district superintendent, or the Bishop. If the conduct involves a clergy person, it must be reported to the clergy person's supervisor, district superintendent or the Bishop.

Furthermore, the provisions of Paragraph 359, 413 and Paragraphs 2701-2706 of the Book of Discipline (2000) shall determine the procedure. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Book of Discipline and this Policy, the former shall govern.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to anyone of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations will be subject to discipline.

While the Northern Illinois Annual Conference cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information about the complaint only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Anyone who has any questions or concerns about this policy or the issues addressed is encouraged to air those questions or concerns to Commission on Status and Role of Women.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference commits itself to:

- Seek justice in all cases of sexual misconduct;
- Emphasize reconciliation and resolution as the continuing goal of this process;

703-05 RACIAL HARASSMENT

(Passed as amended in Plenary on Saturday, November 15, 2003)

WHEREAS, harassment (for example race, color, national, cultural or ethnic origin) results in loss of self-esteem for the victim, and is a violation and breakdown in the sense of community within the church; and

WHEREAS, racial harassment is both a moral and ethical concern and illegal under state and federal law; and

WHEREAS, under our United Methodist Discipline, racial harassment is also a chargeable offense for both clergy and laity; and

WHEREAS, the policy and the procedures which follow are intended to insure that the churches and other agencies of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church have a clear understanding of the definition of racial harassment and of the fact that racial harassment, as well as other forms of harassment, are not permitted among us;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Basic Policy of the Northern Illinois Conference on Racial Harassment, including the additional advisory procedures designed to improve our ability to respond effectively to complaints of this nature.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to laity, clergy, and lay employees of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference for the prevention and remediation of racial harassment. The existence of a policy, including procedures for complaints, will act as a deterrent to inappropriate behavior.

THEOLOGICAL BASIS

“The first two chapters of the Book of Genesis describe the ‘creative genius of God.’ Psalm 24 ‘reaffirms the relationship between God and all of God’s creatures and the divinity of God.’ Yet, in spite of humanity’s common legacy as God’s descendants, we have consistently established differences among God’s children because of race... [engaging] in verbal exchanges and behavioral demonstrations which have rejected the sacredness of all persons. When [a] prejudicial and/or racist attitude is expressed in a behavior that is focused specifically in the abuse, humiliations and defamation of persons because of their race or ethnicity, it has become racial harassment.” (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: 2000, #157, “Racial Harassment,” p. 393)

As we seek to dismantle the racism and cultural biases in our structure, policies, and practices, we will also continue to work to create an environment in which all people are respected and welcomed. “For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.” (I Corinthians 12:12) “If one member suffers, all suffer together with it, if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.” (I Corinthians 12:26)

DEFINITION

The General Conference of 1992 defines the following conditions as racial harassment:

1. Abusive and/or derogatory language that in a subtle or overt manner belittles, humiliates, impugns, or defames a person or a group of persons based on racial and ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics;
2. A behavior (individual, group, or institutional) which abuses, belittles, humiliates, defames, or demeans a person or a group of persons based on racial or ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics;
3. Documentation, printed or visual, which abuses, belittles, humiliates, defames, or demeans a person or a group of persons based on racial or ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics.

(The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: 2000, #157, "Racial Harassment," p. 393)

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will not tolerate any acts or communications that belittle, humiliate, impugn or defame an individual or group on the basis of his/her/their racial or ethnic traits, heritage, or characteristics. We prohibit behaviors that contribute to the creation of a racially hostile and offensive church or work environment marked by one or more characteristics of the definition quoted above. This environment is manifested when words or actions directed toward a group, or an individual of a particular race or ethnic origin, are unwelcome and seriously and pervasively abusive, belittling, humiliating, defamatory or demeaning to the victims.

These prohibitions against racial harassment apply to any person within the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, whether laity, clergy, or staff. The offended person may be another individual in the church, a recipient of the church's services, a staff member, or a community member. The prohibitions may apply at any place or time.

While all persons are expected to take part in maintaining an environment safe and free from racial harassment, each supervisor, pastor, and congregational leader is responsible for taking steps to create such an environment. This responsibility is also intended to cover any racial harassment complaints lodged against third-party providers of services to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference or individuals involved in business relationships with the Conference. Those who have knowledge of incidents involving substantiated racial harassment and fail to respond appropriately also are in violation of this policy.

PROCEDURES

- I. In any event, the procedures outlined in 359 and 2702, number 1 (clergy) and 2703, number 3 (laity) of the 2000 Book of Discipline, and other relevant sections, may be pursued by either of the parties. The following procedures are supplementary in nature and do not, in any way, supercede the tenets of the Book of Discipline. In the event of any inconsistency, the Book of Discipline shall govern.]
- II. If you are racially harassed:
 - a. State firmly and clearly to the harasser that this behavior is unwelcome and you want it to stop. It may be helpful to take

- another person with you for support. This action, in some cases will resolve the issue.
- b. Keep a journal which documents all incidents of suspected racial harassment including dates, times, and descriptions of the incidents. Record the names of any witnesses to the harassment. Keep copies of all written materials you complete in reference to the harassment. If you receive any written letters, cards, or memos of a harassing nature, keep them and note the date and how the material was received (mailed to your home, left on your desk, etc.)
 - c. If the issue cannot be resolved through personal confrontation, you may: (1) inform your Staff-Parish Relations Committee, your pastor, the District Superintendent, your immediate supervisor, or other such person or group as may be appropriate in the particular case at hand. Keep copies of all correspondence. Remember that the church supports an environment free from racial antagonism and that the above named persons are committed to helping you; (2) present your situation to the Chairperson of the Committee on religion and Race of the Northern Illinois Conference.
- III. If you are accused of racial harassment:
- a. Try talking with the individual who is making the complaint against you with the permission of him or her directly or through a third party. Try to reach a solution. Document the agreement and actions taken.
 - b. If the issue cannot be resolved through personal dialogue, you may: (1) inform one of the above named persons or groups depending on which is appropriate; (2) present the situation to the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race.
- IV. If racial harassment is reported to you:
- a. Listen objectively and take it seriously.
 - b. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.
- V. Any incident of racial harassment experienced, perpetrated, or observed is to be reported to the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race. This policy is designed to be correctional rather than punitive.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the annual conference adopt the policy set forth above.
2. That a Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team be formed. (Some ideas/possibilities for the Team's purpose are: conduct anti-racism training events, disseminate the conference policy, and provide intervention.)
3. That the current members of the Commission on Religion and Race serve as the Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team.
4. That the Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team shall be the leadership entity under this policy, but its role is consultative and facilitative rather than judicial. Any matter involving a formal complaint or a chargeable offense shall be exclusively the province of responsible church authorities under the Judicial Administration and fair process provisions of the Book of Discipline.
5. That the Bishop appoint additional members to the Team in consultation with groups in the conference which deal with issues of racial justice.

6. That the Cabinet of Northern Illinois Conference plans, develops, and implements a program designed to address issues of race and racism in local congregations where cross-racial appointments are situated; this program should assist clergy, lay leadership, and congregations as they create supportive and healthy settings in which ministry can thrive.
7. That this policy be made available in the Korean and Spanish and other significant language groups represented in the Conference.

703-06 CHILD AND YOUTH ABUSE AND PREVENTION POLICY

(Passed on Second Consent Calendar in Plenary on June 9, 2005)

Introduction

WHEREAS, the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. In April, 1996, adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of child sexual abuse in the church. The adopted resolution includes the following statement:

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child... welcomes me." (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matthew 18:6). Our Christian faith calls us to offer both hospitality and protection to the little ones, the children. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that "...children must be protected from economic, physical, and sexual exploitation, and abuse."

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children. Child sexual abuse, exploitation and ritual abuse (ritual abuse refers to abusive acts committed as part of ceremonies or rites; ritual abusers are often related to cults, or pretend to be) occur in churches, both large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing. Most annual conferences can cite specific incidents of child sexual abuse and exploitation in their churches. Virtually every congregation has among its members adult survivors of early sexual trauma.

Such incidents are devastating to all who are involved: the children, the family, the local church and its leaders. Increasingly, churches are torn apart by legal, emotional, and monetary consequences of litigation following allegations of abuse.

God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong.

Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church 1996, pages 384-386

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church adopts this policy for the prevention of child abuse in our conference ministries:

Purpose

Our Conference's purpose for establishing this Child and Youth Protection Policy is to demonstrate our absolute and unwavering commitment to the physical safety and spiritual growth of all our children and youth, and to reduce the risk of abuse occurring in our conference ministries.

Statement of Covenant

As a Christian community of faith, and an Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all our children and youth, as well as the safety and spiritual growth of those person who work with children and youth.

- We follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers.
- We implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events.
- We educate our workers with children and youth regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods, including first aid and methods of discipline.
- We have clearly defined procedures for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of the laws of the State of Illinois. Our volunteers and paid staff are instructed to report all suspected incidents of abuse.
- We prepare to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.
- We inform parents of our policies, provide training for our workers with children and youth, and provide forums for learning concerning these issues for our congregations, our clergy, our conference level staff, our local church staffs, and the public.

Conclusion

In all our ministries with children and youth, the Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ through the provision of safe and sacred places where children and youth may learn and grow in faith.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Children's Ministry Council and the Conference Safe Sanctuaries Task Force develop appropriate procedures concerning the following areas:

- Response of teachers, leaders, or other child and/or youth workers who witness or suspect an incident of child abuse
- Primary response to an allegation of child abuse
- Confidentiality
- Safety procedures
- Interim amending of the policy

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Children's Ministry Council and the Conference Safe sanctuaries Task Force submit the procedures to the 2006 session of the Annual Conference for the purpose of perfecting and adopting the procedures.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all conference level events offering child care between this session of the Annual Conference and the 2006 session of the Annual Conference work in consultation with the Conference session of the Annual Conference work in consultation with the Conference Children's Ministry Council and the Conference Safe Sanctuaries Task Force in providing appropriate care for the safety of children and youth entrusted to their supervision in child care settings.

THEREFORE, BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that all conference level events working with children and youth (beyond the provision of child care) meet the requirement for child and youth workers and the safety procedures presently in place and used by the Northern Illinois Conference Office of Outdoor and Retreat Ministries.

Conference Safe Sanctuaries Task Force,

Article II Members

Section 1. Class of Members: The corporation shall have one class of members consisting of those persons designated as Clergy Members (as defined by the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church) who are on appointment to Charges within the boundaries of Northern Illinois Annual Conference or who are serving elsewhere by appointment of the presiding Bishop and those persons designated as Lay Members who, from time to time, are elected to Northern Illinois Conference by the Charges of the conference and those additional Lay Members as provided by Paragraph 32, Article I of the Constitution of The United Methodist Church by virtue of office or for purposes of equalizing lay and clergy membership as shall from time to time be provided for by the Standing Rules of the Conference. The qualifications and rights of members shall be as, from time to time, designated in the Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

Trustees shall be elected in classes at the annual session of the conference for a term of four (4) years (or until their successors are elected).

Section 3. Ex-Officio Members: The secretary and the treasurer/director of Administrative services of the Annual Conference shall serve ex officio, without a right to vote, as secretary and treasurer of the Board of Trustees; provided, however, nothing herein shall preclude the election of these officers as voting members of the Board of Trustees, pursuant to Section 2 of this Article. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall likewise serve ex officio on the Board of Trustees without the right to vote.

Section 4. Regular Meetings: Within four weeks of the close of each Annual Conference, the Board shall hold its regular annual meeting to elect officers. The District Superintendent assigned to the Board of Trustees shall convene the meeting.

If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope as addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any trustee may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a trustee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a trustee attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or duly called special meeting of the board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specifically required by law or by these by-laws.

Section 7. Quorum: The members of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference Board of Trustees present and voting at any duly announced meeting shall constitute a quorum, providing that at least 5 trustees be present as a quorum at a trustee meeting.

Section 9. Vacancies: Vacancies occurring between sessions of an annual conference shall be filled as follows: Upon nomination by the conference committee on nominations, the district superintendents shall, by majority vote, elect a trustee to serve until the next annual meeting of the trustees. Section 3. The Annual Conference Board of Trustees, or the Board of Trustees of any agency, organization or local church which voluntarily wishes to cooperate with a governmental body in having any property landmarked which said Board of Trustees holds in trust for The United Methodist Church, must do the following:

- (a) Comply with the provisions of The Discipline in regard to the encumbrance of church property; and either
- (1) Obtain the consent of the Conference Board of Trustees, the presiding bishop and of a majority of the cabinet; or
 - (2) Obtain the consent of the Annual Conference.

Article VII Discontinued or Abandoned Church Re-Incorporation

Section 1. When in accordance with the then current Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), a local church is discontinued or abandoned and the property of said local church becomes the property of the Annual Conference, such local church shall be incorporated under the provisions of Sections 46a to 46k of the Illinois Religious Corporation Act [805 ILCS 110/46a-46k] with the Annual Conference Board of Trustees as the Trustees of the newly formed corporation.

Section 2. Said newly formed corporation shall exist for the sole purposes of being the legal entity to dispose of its existing property, and any other property to which its predecessor religious corporation may become entitled, as the rightful successor to any gift and/or bequest or other transfer made to such discontinued church.

Section 3. All proceeds of property sales and all gifts and/or bequests received by a corporation established under the provisions of this Article shall remain the property of the Annual Conference in accordance with the Discipline.

Article VIII Contracts, Checks, Deposits and Funds

Section 1. Contracts: The Board of Trustees may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these by-laws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts, etc.: All checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Annual Conference in session or acting through its Council on Finance and Administration.

Section 3. Deposits: All funds of the corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Annual Conference in session or its Council on Finance and Administration may select.

Section 4. Gifts: The Board of Trustees may accept on behalf of the corporation any contribution, gift, bequest, trust or devise for the general purposes or for any special purpose of the corporation.

Article IX Books and Records

The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its meetings, those of the Board of Trustees and agencies having any of the authority of the Board of Trustees and shall keep at the registered or principal office a record giving the names and addresses of the members entitled to vote. All books and records of the corporation may be inspected by any member or the member's agent or attorney for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

Article X Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December in each year.

Article XI Seal

The Conference shall provide a corporate seal, which shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation and the words "Corporate Seal."

Article XII Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Illinois General Not-for-Profit Corporation Act or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Article XIII Amendments to By-Laws

These by-laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted by a majority of the members present at any regular or duly called special session of the Annual Conference.

Article XIV Compliance with Constitution and Discipline

Section 1. Corporate Term: The term "Annual Conference" as used in these by-laws and in the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the term "corporation" as used in these by-laws shall be synonymous and understood to refer to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, a general not-for-profit corporation of the State of Illinois.

Section 2. Limitation on By-Laws: In the event any provision of these by-laws shall not be in compliance with the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the provisions of the Discipline shall prevail, to the extent consistent with the law of Illinois, and this document shall be considered as amended from time to time where necessary for compliance with the Discipline.

Article XV Corporate Limitations

This corporation shall be responsible for the authorized acts of the corporate officers and agents and the authorized activities of conference agencies shall be deemed to be the acts of the corporation. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any local Charge, or any board, committee, council or agency affiliated with a local Charge, or any separate related religious or non-profit institution, or any trustee, officer or agent thereof, to contract for or in any way bind the corporation or render it liable for any act or omission of such Charge, board, committee, council, agency or institution

Article XVI Incorporated Conference-Related and Affiliated Institutions

A number of religious, educational and non-profit incorporated institutions participate directly or indirectly in the work and service of The United Methodist Church within the boundaries of the Annual Conference and are related in varying degrees to the Annual Conference, some being under the control thereof and others being autonomous while in close consultative and connectional relation. Their respective relationships to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference shall be as set forth in their articles of incorporation, by-laws and applicable provisions of the Discipline. All such incorporated institutions shall be solely responsible for their own acts, omissions, contracts and undertakings. The nomination and election of the directors or trustees of said incorporated related and affiliated institutions shall be as provided in their respective articles of incorporation and by-laws as well as by the Discipline.

Article XVII Standing Rules

The Standing Rules of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, as from time to time amended, shall have the status and constitute a part of the by-laws of the conference; provided, however, such Standing Rules shall be consistent with the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the laws of Illinois.

Article XVIII Indemnification of Officers, Directors, Trustees and Key Staff

The corporation shall indemnify any and all persons who may serve or who have served at any time as officers, directors, trustees or staff (excluding general office, clerical or stenographic employees) of (1) the Corporation, Northern Illinois Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church; (2) the District Superintendents of said Conference; (3) The Methodist Ministers' Pension Fund; (4) the United Methodist Foundation; (5) Church Properties Reimagined; (6) the Board of Global Ministries; (7) the Council on Finance and Administration; and the respective heirs, executors and administrators of such indemnified persons against any and all expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by them in connection with the defense or settlement of any action, suit or proceeding in which they, or any of them, are made parties, or a party, by reason of being or having been directors, officers, trustees or staff members of the corporation or the other associated entities described above. The corporation also shall indemnify any of the foregoing for damages, fines, judgments, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, and appeals therefrom, except in relation to matters as to which any such officer, director, trustee or key staff member shall be adjudged in any action, suit or proceeding to be liable for willful misconduct in the performance of duties, such officer, director, trustee or staff member shall reimburse the corporation for all attorney's fees and costs expended by it, or which it has been obligated to spend, as a part of the defense of such officer, director, trustee, or key staff member.

Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the person has met the applicable standard of conduct and that indemnification is otherwise lawful and proper. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Trustees of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference (hereinafter called "the Board") by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of members not parties to such claim, action, suit or proceedings, or, if such a quorum cannot be convened, or even if convened, cannot or does not act for any reason, by special independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

The Board may authorize and direct that insurance be purchased and maintained on behalf of any person who is, was, or may be entitled to be indemnified hereunder against any liability asserted against and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of status as such, whether or not the institution would provide indemnity against such liability under the provisions hereof.

Evans Edgar Crawford, Jr.July 2, 1923 – February 16, 2019

Dr. Evans Edgar Crawford, Jr. leaves a legacy of outstanding and unparalleled service in theology and ministry as a preacher, lecturer, mentor, and spiritual leader throughout the United States and the world. His career as a theologian and educator spanned more than 70 years.

Dr. Crawford's life journey began in Temple, Texas, where he was born on July 2, 1923. His father, the Reverend Evans Edgar Crawford, Sr., was a Methodist minister, and his mother, Mary Enge, died when Evans was three years old. He was raised by his beloved paternal grandmother, Rosie Crawford.

Dr. Crawford received his secondary education in Temple, graduating from Dunbar High School in 1939. He earned an undergraduate degree with honors from Samuel Huston College (now Huston-Tillotson University) in Austin, Texas. It was at this point that he accepted a call to preach. Dr. Crawford attended the Boston University School of Theology, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Sacred Theology in 1946. He later received the Doctor of Philosophy degree in Theological Studies and Social Ethics in 1957 from Boston University's Graduate School. Boston University honored Dean Crawford with the Louis Ornsberg Award for character as well as the Man of the Year Award, and in 1961, he was presented an Alumni Achievement Award from the university.

While attending Boston University in 1946, Dr. Crawford met Elizabeth Pinder Bailey, a student in the university's school of music, where she was singing in a female glee club and he was in an all-male glee club. The couple married on June 4, 1949, in her hometown of Providence, Rhode Island.

A world-renowned preacher, Dr. Crawford began honing his homiletical, ministerial skills and work in theology at churches in Boston and Rhode Island. He was on the ministerial staff of the Morgan memorial Church of All Nations in Boston, Massachusetts. From 1950 to 1954, he served as a minister of the Pond Street Baptist Church in Providence, Rhode Island.

During his doctoral studies, Dr. Crawford was field director in Chicago for the study of the Negro Baptist Church (1955-56) and later coordinator of student activities for the School of Theology at Boston University (1956-58).

Dr. Crawford's 48-year tenure at Howard University in Washington, D.C., began in July 1958 when he became Instructor in Practical Theology at the School of Religion and the Acting Dean of the Chapel. By 1960, Howard University president Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson had appointed Dr. Crawford as the third Dean of the Chapel. He served in this position until 1993 when Dr. Crawford was named Dean Emeritus. Continuing to teach throughout his time at Howard, Dr. Crawford was not only a professor but served as the Acting Associate Dean of the School of Divinity in 1994, and Interim Vice President for University Advancement for the 1995 academic year.

In his capacity as Dean of the Chapel, he pastored not only the campus of Howard University but also the global community. His spiritual fingerprints are on the lives of so many. He served five University presidents: Dr. Mordecai Wyatt Johnson, Dr. James Nabrit, Dr. James Cheek, Dr. Franklyn Jenifer, and Dr. H. Patrick Swygert.

Dean Crawford had a tremendous impact and influence on students in all disciplines of the university. In 2015, President Wayne A.I. Frederick, M.D., MBA bestowed Dr. Crawford with the Howard University Capstone Distinguished Service Award.

Dean Crawford was a present figure in the backdrop of the historical times of campus life. During the tumultuous days of civil rights activism and student-led movements of the 1960s and 1970s, where religious affiliations were often tested, Dean Crawford was a stabilizing and supportive force. He advised Stokely Carmichael (Kwame Toure) as a student. He once negotiated a rock out of the hands of an angry student who was determined to throw a stone at the Chapel window depicting the Pilgrims. He navigated the cultural shifts and transitions that questioned the role of religion in our society. Through the visiting preachers' program, he maintained his personal relationships and brought to the pulpit of Rankin Chapel Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., with whom he attended Boston University, and others, including Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, Dr. Ralph Abernathy, Dr. Dorothy Height, Dr. Vernon Johns, Dr. Gardner Taylor, Bishop John Hurst, and Dr. James Massey.

Dr. Crawford served as vice president and then president in 1996, of the Academy of Homiletics, an international organization of teachers of preaching. He served as president of the National Association of College and University Chaplains, a Danforth Associate, and was a member of the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Dr. Crawford was a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, initiated in 1941, and becoming a member of the Alpha Gamma Chapter at Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. He transferred to the Delta Chapter at Huston-Tillotson in 1943.

Dean Crawford lectured and preached around the world, and wrote extensively on homiletics, religion, the church, and social ethics. Dean Crawford also was a visiting lecturer at the Princeton Theological Seminar during the spring semester of 1999. He authored the classic book The Hum: Call and Response in African–American Preaching and published reviews on E. Franklin Frazier’s The Negro Church in America, as well as the book Faith and Prejudice: Intergroup Problems of the Protestant Church by Bernard Olson. Dr. Crawford also penned articles for professional journals, including “A Critical Evaluation of Passive Insistence” in The Chapel and College, a publication of the National Association of College and University Chaplains and Directors of Religious Life; and “Some Sociological Perspectives of Social Change in the Negro Religious Community and its Leadership” and “Benjamin E. Mays, A Resonant Rebel,” both in Howard University’s highly regarded Journal of Religious Thought.

Dr. and Mrs. Crawford joined Asbury United Methodist Church in 1959, where he was a faithful member for 60 years.

Over his life, Dean Crawford taught, counseled, and mentored hundreds of theologians and church leaders. His life of selfless service and sound theology will long be remembered and taught at divinity schools and places of religious studies.

He personifies the promise of everlasting life of Matthew 25:23 (ESV): His master said to him, “Well done good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter in to the joy of your master.”

His memory will be forever cherished by his wife of 69 years, Elizabeth (Betty) Crawford; a cousin, Beverly Bruce of Kansas City, Kansas; nieces Nadine Rucker of Providence, Rhode Island and Carlette Bailey of Richmond, Virginia; and a host of great nieces and nephews and many devoted friends and colleagues.
