THE VISION OF OUR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- Transparency
- Honesty and graciousness with each other
- Safe spaces for sharing
- Relationship-building
- Provision of resources/services closer to the local church
- Fostering and celebrating diversity (as a conference, in our community and in the world)

OUR PRIORITIES

1-Equip both Leaders and Churches:

- To reach new members using new strategies
- To help members grow as disciples
- To be more effective in community outreach

CLERGY SESSION

CALL TO ORDER

The clergy session was called to order by Bishop Sally Dyck at 2:30pm. Worship began with a singing of "A Place at the Table."

SEATING OF DESIGNATED LAITY AND CLARIFICATION OF VOTING

Rev. Danita Anderson, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, asked that the Standing Rules be suspended to allow the laity on BOM to attend the clergy session. Bar was set. Motion carried.

BISHOP'S REFLECTIONS

Bishop Dyck began by asking clergy in attendance to reflect on the times when their call was appreciated by the people to whom they ministered to, but also the days in which it wasn't appreciated, noting that clergy keep making the effort to serve" God's people and the world. Why? Because it is a "call" not a "telling" and "we are not a people without hope even in the midst of confusion, your faithful response is to serve. She thanked clergy for their commitment and dedication "for we live in desperate times." She goes on to say, "Now is not the time to do harm but to do good."

In the midst of our disagreements we are called to respond with a sense of care and consideration in how we treat one another. We are called to build each other up and to not tear each other down. We have made a conscious decision to be a part of the church. Bishop says the difficulties we find ourselves facing as a church are more like "a lover's quarrel." Even through the rough times, the church has continued to feed us. She goes on to say, Now "is not the time to do harm but to do good." "Our unity is not based on our agreement." "The world of agreement has passed away, as expressed in the "spiral dynamic." She "believes in a big tent church because Jesus calls us to be as one". There will be a special General Conference in February 2019. The Commission on the Way Forward will give a report. Its vision is to explore ways for the church to work together. The commission will define a way of being church that allows the church to be the church.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT – Rev Danita Anderson

Rev. Anderson acknowledged the members of the BOM, thanking those who have served as well as those who will be serving in the new quadrennium. BOM's new structure of dividing its work among five teams improves efficiency and allows it to complete more tasks. BOM continues to send meeting materials and hold Executive Team meetings and others electronically, to hold regular meetings with the chairs of the District Committees on Ministry, to extend psychological exam results to 5 years, and to meet annually with the Cabinet. At the Candidates' Conferences in February, 12 of the 20 candidates for provisional membership were forwarded for commissioning and in March, 8 of the 15 candidates for full membership were recommended for ordination. The purchase of a new program called ITHENTICATE through the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) will require all submitted material to be reviewed for authenticity, a team will be trained to use the software. In response to Judicial Council, decision No. 1344, a task force will be formed to review procedures and policies to insure the appropriate examination of candidates. BOM will continue to follow the procedure as laid out in the Book of Discipline (BOD), with background and credit checks, Bible study outlines and sermons, fruitfulness projects, interviews, medical reports, references, psychological exams, and transcripts, giving all candidates equal consideration in our process of discerning those who can live up to the high standards for fitness, readiness and effectiveness in ministry that the Northern Illinois Conference demands. GBHEM and the Lilly Foundation begins a new grant program called Excellence in Clergy Leadership to help offset seminary education debt. The Northern Illinois Conference has been approved to support 5 students through MEF and other matching funds in 2017 and 2018. Garrett has agreed to match the funds equipping 5 students with up to $25,000.00 each over the next 2 years. NIC will participate in a new program of assessment every 8 Years to create and provide support such as renewal and sabbatical leaves and other opportunities for our clergy. The focus of BOM remains clear: to assist in the recruitment of candidates for ministry; credential them for deployment by the Bishop; and support their fruitful service to God and humanity. Rev. Anderson asked the clergy session to hold the BOM in prayer.

MORAL AND OFFICIAL CONDUCT OF ALL ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTOR

Rev Young-Mee Park, Dean of the Cabinet, stated that at present all clergy of the Northern Illinois Conference are found to be of good character and conduct.

They are also members of the Northern Illinois Conference and The United Methodist Church. They have together and separately led many national and conference level workshops. Today's topic is Good Bible Study Matters - Text without context is pretext because history matters, translations matter, community matters, and faith matters. Using two approaches to Bible study – 1. Theology in daily living, and 2. The way of Jesus; using Exodus 13:17-22 – determine what God is calling you to do.

THE EPISCOPAL ADDRESS: THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

Dan Holmes, soloist, from Belvidere UMC, sang "Dance Me to the End of Love," Leonard Cohen (Various Positions, 1984))

Bishop Dyck's Scriptural emphasis was 2 Corinthians 4:6-9. She cites the lyrics from Canadian poet and songwriter – Leonard Cohen's poem "Anthem" from his album, The Future – "Ring the bells that still can ring. Forget your perfect offering. There is a crack, a crack in everything. That's how the light gets in, that's how the light gets in." This hour calls for hope, and as Christians, we are a people of hope. Despite doors closing, financial challenges and a rapidly changing religious landscape, Bishop Dyck encouraged local churches to look for the cracks of hope that let the light in. "Let's save cynicism, despair and dystopia for better times and live in the reality of our world with the faith and hope of Jesus' followers. The good news is that we're not alone – God and a connection of United Methodists – are with us!"

THE ORGANIZATIONAL TASK FORCE

Elizabeth L. Gracie, Chair of the Task Force, was joined on the dais by Bishop Sally Dyck, Rev. Robert Biekman, Rev. Mary Bohall, Re. Elizabeth Bowes, Lonnie Chafin, Rev. Scott Christy, Eliza Gatz, Rev. Brian Gilbert, Rev. Carol Hill, Rev. Brittany Isaac, Rev Sejoon Jang, Rev. Hannah Kardon, Rev. Terry Dorman, Rev Katherine Paisley, Rev. Young Mee Park, Rev. James Preston, Rev. Cerna Rand, Rev. Adonna Reid, Rev. Luis Reyes, Stephanie Uhl, Rev. Laura Wilson. Rev. Thomas Yang, Rev. Mary Zajac.

A skit was presented to address the issue of the importance of a central leadership team for the church.

The Organizational Task Force included 27 people, chosen to represent all aspects of the diversity of our Annual Conference. It created an enhanced structure for centralized leadership, enhanced the connections between local churches, the district, and the annual conference. The presentation answered seven questions: How do we access resources that are close and relevant to our local church ministry? What happens to the committees? Will this just be another committee-creating bureaucracy? How will our committees be represented on the Annual Conference Shepherding Team? Who casts our vision and strategy as an Annual Conference? What is the role of the Cabinet? How will our budget work, especially in the transition? Where do I fit in?

At the beginning of the Landscape process, we were asked to imagine us all holding hands and taking a leap of faith. Now is that time to leap holding to the faith that: we have constructed an adequate jumping off point; that those selected to serve on shepherding teams will fully embrace their responsibility; we all will have opportunities for input; we will continue to learn, evaluate and adapt. We must have faith that God is at work in the Northern Illinois Conference and that the proposed structure is never intended to be an end in itself. It is intended to be the best possible means to equip and connect ourselves for the ministry to which God has called each and every one of us. (Please see the Historical Reports for more detail.)

12:00 noon - dismissed for lunch.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION
(CCF&A) REPORT –

Rev. Rob Hamilton, President of CCF&A, was joined on the dais by: The Rev. Kelli Beard, The Rev. John Meyers, The Rev. Luis Reyes, Joyce Frankfother, Stephanie Uhl, The Rev. Tammy Scott, The Rev. Amos Oladipo, The Rev. Scott Christy, The Rev. Andrea Davidson, and Lonnie Chafin.

Rev. Hamilton reflected on Luke 8:25-35 (the man possessed by “legion”) to illuminate the difficulties of ministry today, the legion of burdens borne by fewer church members, and the decline in the funding of ministry. Rev. Kelli Beard spoke of changing the apportionment formula from 16% of pastoral compensation, down to 14% percent. She updated the Red Door Fund noting that all churches are current in their payments, the $350,000 reserve fund is secure, and $1,100,000 in additional principal payments have been made. Rev. Luis Reyes presented the Budget (Doc. 600.01). CCF&A recommends the process for budgeting to continue in the same manner as currently planned for 2018 through the transition to the new Organizational Model. The Conference Staff has been reducing by one and a half persons.

Lonnie Chafin, Conference Treasurer, advised that Apportionment statements will be e-mailed. Each church will be given a login account to view the status of apportionments, advance special giving, and to allow for on-line apportionment payments. Online payments are free to the local church, but they will be limited to two transactions a month. The conference property insurance staff will be providing property and risk assessments in order to reduce claims and lower premiums for participating churches. Local church audits will be available for churches with annual budgets under $300,000, to be done by interns at a cost of about $200.

Stephanie Uhl, Vice Chair of CCFA, discussed how CCF&A will work with the Shepherding teams to assess programs and provide accountability to ensure we are being good stewards of our resources, both money and time. Together they will make decisions about budget allocations and potential future contractions (and expansions) receiving input from representatives that reflect the diverse views, interests, and ideas of the conference. As of the time of AC, over 90% of churches have given to apportionments with only 30 churches outstanding.

ONE MATTERS AWARD

Mark Manzi, Conference Co-Lay Leader, presented the One Matters discipleship award. He was joined on the dais by: Rev. Sun Hyung Jo, Charlie Hong, Rev. Jonathan Crail, Marty Linderborg, Rev. Ryan Sutton, Rev. Poly Klimson, Arlyn Thomson, Jonni Thomson, Harold Danger, Mae Kingzette, Rev. Jason Turner, Sandra Ward, and Rev. Caleb Hong. This award recognizes churches that have moved from no baptisms or professions of faith to growing in membership. Rev. Dr. Berner Agtarap, Assoc. General Secretary of Discipleship Ministries reflected that to build the church to grow disciples rarely works, whereas making disciples grows the church. Mark Manzi noted due to the diversity of our Annual Conference, the decision was made to recognize one church in each district for their growth in discipleship.

The One Matters Award was given to:

Orland Park United Methodist Church – Aurora District

Jesus Loves Korean United Methodist Church, Skokie – Chicago Northwestern District

Oak Lawn United Methodist Church – Chicago Southwestern District

Morrison United Methodist Church – DeKalb District

PROGRAM COUNCIL REPORT

Rev. Chris Winkler was joined on the dais by Rev. Elizabeth Bowles, Mark Manzi, Deborah Dangerfield, Rev. Robert Biekman, Rev. Arlene Christopherson, Rev. Mary Bohall, Leah Oswalt, Linda Lowery, Kristina Goughan, Rev. Carol Hill, Dr. William Randolph, and Rev. Javier Pong.

A short video was shared regarding the ministry being done in northern Illinois.

Dr. William Randolph, Director of Aging Adult Ministries from Discipleship Ministries reiterated the Church's commitment to older adult ministries and encouraged us to aspire to growing old in our ministry. He pointed out that we need to aspire to bring in Baby Boomers as a demographic that is missing from the congregation.

Program Committee members reported on various ministries which fall under its jurisdiction. Kristina Gaughan introduced Leah Ostwald, Chair – NIC Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries. Leah shared several stories about the use of peer counselors in campus ministry. Kristina Gaughan introduced Rev. Mary Bohall, from NIC Town and Country ministries who reported they awarded $32,000 in grants to thirty congregations in rural settings, many of which deal with a variety of social issues. The Town and Rural grant committee recently merged with the Keagy Grant ministry. Rev. Robert Biekman, Coordinator of NIC Urban Ministry, informed the AC that in the Urban setting, its primary focus concerns issues of food security; safety; restorative justice. He spoke about the “Fair Cops” resolution passed at Annual Conference 2016, which became law in Chicago.

Rev. Arlene Christopherson, presented information on the Equipping Survey. At the 2016 annual conference three broad but key equipping priorities were named: to reach new members, to help members grow as disciples and to be more effective in community outreach. Since more information was needed to understand how best to train and resource these priorities. The Program Council implemented a survey to define focus, methods and modes for this work. The Alford Group helped with design and provided analysis of the survey. Over 1,000 people participated. Respondents were well balanced between clergy and lay, throughout all districts and church sizes. “Thank you to everyone here who took time to fill out the on-line survey and share their thoughtful responses with us.”

Key findings include desires for: in person, on-site and regional trainings; on-demand electronic trainings, webinars, videos and downloadable resources; customized contextualized opportunities; understanding the needs of the community and how to best meet those needs; learning ways to extend the invitation to church without “being obnoxious”; fostering conversations and idea exchanges with other churches to forge stronger partnerships and enhance outreach efforts. The conference e-news and website were the highest rated tools for communication. Additionally, there is a desire for more face-to-face time with conference leaders and the use of social media. The data obtained will be a base for future work, to help focus the Annual Conference and frame the future.

Rev. Carol Hill, Secretary – NIC Program Council reported on the program staffing task force whose responsibility was to develop a plan to best staff the conference for ministry. The Program Council passed a resolution to unanimously support the new Organizational model for the annual conference and will cease to exist when the new Organization is complete. The Program Council has awarded Creative Ministry grants of $27,750 to eleven different projects throughout all six districts in the conference in 2016, and will award $19,000 to six different projects in 2017. Rev. Chris Winkler introduced the members of the Program Council.

LEGISLATION

Rev. Katie Voigt presented Doc. 700.14 –Organizational Structure, for consideration.

Bishop Dyck explained that before debate on the legislation the Organizational Task Force would take time to answer the earlier submitted questions. Liz Gracie, committee chair, announced there were 42 questions and two thank you notes. The general themes of the questions involved authority, cost, and representation.

Authority: There is a five-year plan for evaluation to be approved by the annual conference; the legislation provides for the shepherding team to work with CCF&A towards a budget; the shepherding teams report to the annual conference.

Cost: unknown whether the new model will save money.

Representation: Not every work group or committee will be represented but all the needs of the conference will be taken into account. Beginning in 2019, in 2020, and then every four years, the process will be evaluated to determine future needs and effective function toward objectives. Other questions are addressed by the legislation.

Bishop Dyck advised the conference that due to its size, the legislation will be discussed one page at a time.

pp. 22-24. – No questions.

p. 25 - Is there was a mechanism to account for the diversity of different districts? How will those in extension ministries be included? Why is only one person selecting the representatives from different groups? Why can't the groups select their own representatives?

pp. 26-27 - No questions.

p. 28 - An editorial question - typo

The Purpose of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ - disciples who, empowered by the Holy Spirit, will make a difference in the world - by equipping its local faith communities for a ministry of witness, justice, hope and love, and by providing a connection for the mission beyond the congregation; all to the glory of God.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Conference Council on Finance and Administration Robert Hamilton, Chair of Finance and Administration Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church Chicago, Illinois. We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2016, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Conference's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

1. NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Northern Illinois Conference United Methodist Church Insurance Association, and the Red Door Fund, NFP (collectively, the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is an incorporated nonprofit organization, which represents United Methodist congregations located in the northern third of the State of Illinois. The Conference was organized for Christian, religious, church, benevolent, and charitable purposes. The Conference operates two camps, Reynoldswood and Wesley Woods that are open year round to host program retreats for churches and other youth groups. The financial aspects of the Conference are governed by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (the Council); a board elected by the Conference membership. The function of the Council is to develop, maintain, and administer the fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Conference.

The Northern Illinois Conference United Methodist Church Insurance Association (NICUM) is a related nonprofit organization brokering property insurance for the Conference's member churches. The NICUM Board of Directors is elected by the Conference trustees. The Red Door Fund, NFP was incorporated with a Board of Directors selected by the Conference's Council and the Conference's Trustees. The Red Door Fund, NFP holds mortgage notes receivable from the Conference's local churches funded by a note to Wintrust Bank. The note is guaranteed by the Conference and secured by mortgages on the Conference's property and pledges of the Conference investment accounts.

Numerous United Methodist and United Methodist related organizations which have some affiliation with the Conference are not reflected in these financial statements. These organizations are separate legal entities and are governed by their own boards of directors.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General Basis of Accounting

The consolidated financial statements of the Conference have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less when acquired. The Conference maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts at financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The amount of uninsured cash amounted to $1,182,727 as of December 31, 2016. The Conference has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

Accounts Receivable from Churches

Accounts receivable from churches are stated at the amount billed to member churches. The Conference provides an allowance for doubtful accounts, which is equal to all amounts over 365 days past due.

Investments

Money market funds and certificates of deposit are stated at cost. Investments in mutual fund securities are reported at their fair values in the consolidated statement of financial position. Pooled investment funds are valued using an estimated net asset value (NAV). Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying consolidated statement of activities.

Property and Equipment

Conference policy requires that all furniture and equipment over $1,500 be capitalized. Depreciation for furniture and equipment is computed using the straight-line method over seven and five years, respectively. Buildings and improvements are depreciated over 30 years using the straight-line method of depreciation. Property and equipment is recorded at cost, if purchased, or at fair value on the date of gift, if received as a contribution.

Net Assets

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified as follows:

Unrestricted net assets include general and board-designated net assets of the Conference and are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Unrestricted net assets may be designated for specific purposes by actions of the Board of Trustees or may otherwise be limited by contractual agreements with outside parties. The unrestricted net assets of the Conference may be used at the discretion of management to support the Conference's purposes and operations.

Temporarily restricted net assets are subject to donor-imposed restrictions that will be met either by actions of the Conference or the passage of time. Unconditional promises to give that are due in future periods and are not permanently restricted are classified as temporarily restricted net assets.

Permanently restricted net assets are subject to donor-imposed restrictions that the contribution be maintained in perpetuity. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on these assets for general or specific purposes. Donor-imposed restrictions limiting the use of the assets or their economic benefit neither expire with the passage of time nor can be removed by satisfying a specific purpose. Such assets include primarily the Conference's permanent endowment.

Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision of state law. The Conference is not classified as a private foundation.

Fair Value Measurements

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework uses a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. GAAP requires the Conference to maximize the use of observable inputs when measuring fair value. The hierarchy describes three levels of inputs, which are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in inactive markets; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs. In many cases, a valuation technique used to measure fair value includes inputs from more than one level of the fair value hierarchy. The lowest level of significant input determines the placement of the entire fair value measurement in the hierarchy. The categorization of an investment within the hierarchy reflects the relative ability to observe the fair value measure and does not necessarily correspond to the perceived risk of that investment.

Fair Value Measurements (Continued)

If an investment that is measured using net asset value (NAV) has a readily determinable fair value (that is, it can be traded at the measurement date at its published NAV), it is included in Level 1 of the hierarchy. Otherwise, investments measured using NAVs are not included in Level 1, 2, or 3, but are separately reported.

Valuation Techniques

The following is a description of the valuation techniques used for assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis. There have been no changes to the techniques used during the year ended December 31, 2016.

Mutual funds: Valued at the closing quoted price in an active market.

Interest rate swap: Pricing models utilize a series of market inputs to determine the present value of future cash flows, with adjustments, as required for credit and liquidity risk.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Apportionment Revenue

Apportionment revenue is each member church's contributions to support ordained leaders, mission and evangelism, and reconnecting the connection. Apportionments revenue is recognized in the period the contributions are received.

Contributions

Gifts of cash and other assets received without donor stipulations are reported as unrestricted revenue and net assets. Gifts received with a donor stipulation that limits their use are reported as temporarily or permanently restricted revenue and net assets. When a donor stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the consolidated statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Gifts of land, buildings, equipment, and other long-lived assets are reported as unrestricted revenue and net assets unless explicit donor stipulations specify how such assets must be used, in which case the gifts are reported as temporarily or permanently restricted revenue and net assets. Absent explicit donor stipulations for the time long-lived assets must be held, expirations of restrictions resulting in reclassification of temporarily restricted net assets as unrestricted net assets are reported when the long-lived assets are placed in service.

Donated Property

Property from closed churches within the Northern Illinois Methodist Church Conference is donated to the Conference per their bylaws and reported at fair value.

3. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference loans funds to churches over terms between 7 and 30 years with interest rates ranging from 4.6% to 6.0%. The purpose of these loans is to provide church mortgages on more favorable terms. Additionally, the Conference has two notes receivable to unrelated parties with a balance of $794,720 and $103,241. All of the notes receivable are unsecured and are due as follows:

The Conference's credit quality indicators are performing and nonperforming. Performing loans are those with one or more payments made during the fiscal year. Nonperforming loans are those with no payments made during the fiscal year. The Conference considers all notes receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. Each church is evaluated for impairment individually. The monthly principal payments range from $57,500 to $72,500 with a floating interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.95% and a balloon payment in 2020. Interest on $13,000,000 of the note is fixed at 4.06% with an interest rate swap. Interest charged to operations for the year ended December 31, 2016 was $92,232.

8. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT – INTEREST RATE SWAP

Effective September 20, 2013, Red Door Fund, NFP entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a financial institution, with notional amounts of $13,000,000. The purpose of these agreements is to minimize the variability of cash flows related to interest payments on the term loan above. Terms of these swap agreements run from September 20, 2013 through September 10, 2019. Under this agreement, Red Door Fund, NFP receives interest from the counterparty at LIBOR plus 1.95% and pays interest at a fixed rate of 4.06%.

Under the agreements, the Red Door Fund, NFP pays or receives the net interest amount monthly, with the settlements included in interest expense. The agreement is recorded at fair value with subsequent changes in fair value included in other revenues or expenses.

The interest rate swap agreement was contracted at market terms and had no fair value at inception. The carrying amount of the contract has been adjusted to fair value at the end of the year, which because of changes in forecasted interest rates resulted in reporting a liability for the fair value of the future net payments forecasted under the contract. The fair value of the liability for Red Door Fund, NFP's interest rate swap agreement was $252,690 at December 31, 2016, and was measured using Level 2 inputs, as described in Note 2, determined by pricing models maintained by the counterparty to the swap agreements. The pricing models utilize a series of market inputs to determine the present value of future cash flows, with adjustments, as required for credit and liquidity risk. The change in fair market value of the interest rate swap agreement was recorded as an unrealized gain of $128,689 for the year ended December 31, 2016.

9. GUARANTEED LOANS

The Conference is contingently liable for guarantees of three loans made by the United Methodist Development Corporation to member churches totaling $1,983,863 as of December 31, 2016. The loans have interest rates ranging from 4.75% to 6.49% and maturities ranging from April 1, 2030 to December 1, 2034. Under the agreements with the member churches, the Conference is able to recover any losses from the assets of the member churches.

In relation to these guarantees, the following is summarized unaudited financial data for the three member churches as of December 31, 2016

Total assets	$ 6,494,400
Total liabilities	2,018,760

As of December 31, 2016, the Conference had permanently restricted net assets of $477,533. All income from these assets is restricted to the support of rural ministries.

11. POSTRETIREMENT HEALTH PLAN

The Conference sponsors a postretirement health care plan for all Conference employees and participating clergy that meet eligibility requirements.

The Conference received actuarial valuations of postretirement medical benefits as of December 31, 2016. This report was prepared by MWM Consulting Group.

The Conference establishes Health Reimbursement Accounts (HRA) and tax free savings accounts for each clergy family (whether individual or couple). Retirees and spouses may draw funds from the accounts for health premiums, out-of-pocket expenses, and miscellaneous health care expenses. The HRAs are funded annually by the Conference at the rate of $100 per year of service (up to 40 years); an equal amount for the clergy person and the spouse. Retirees may select the Medicare supplement plan of their choice.

The payments per retiree are fixed amounts; therefore, changes in inflation assumptions do not change the valuation. The valuation is calculated at a 4.5% discount rate and assumes 100% of eligible retirees and spouses will participate. The following sets forth the plan's funded status reconciled with the obligation recognized on the consolidated statement of financial position at December 31, 2016:

Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation as of December 31, 2016 was as follows:

Retired participants	$ 12,371,551
Fully eligible active participants	4,648,294
Not fully eligible active participants	5,193,033
TOTAL	$ 22,212,878

Funded status at December 31, 2016 was as follows:

Benefit obligation	$ 22,212,878
Fair value of plan assets	-
FUNDED STATUS	$ 22,212,878

The projected future postretirement benefit payments at December 31, 2016 are as follows:

Years Ending	Amount
December 31, 2017	$ 1,578,542
2018	1,593,422
2019	1,583,645
2020	1,568,961
2021	1,547,292
2022 to 2026	7,562,153

The United Methodist Clergy Fund (the Clergy Fund) is a separately incorporated related organization charged to "monitor the investment portfolio of the Clergy Fund" which can be distributed to the clergy retirement programs of the Conference. The Clergy Fund's Board makes an annual decision on the amount of funds to distribute to the Conference's postretirement health plan, $1,200,000 was transferred in 2016. Current policy is to disburse the income or gain of the portfolio. The net present value of the amount available to distribute to the Conference is $25,268,517 at December 31, 2016. The postretirement health benefits paid by the Conference in 2016 were $1,466,269.

12. OPERATING LEASES

13. PENSION PLAN

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in the multi-employer defined benefit program of all U.S. annual conferences managed by The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and controlled by plan documents enacted by the quadrennial General Conference of the UMC. Assets contributed by any conference may be used to provide benefits to clergy of any participating conference. Should an annual conference make contributions less than the total liability of their participants the underfunded obligations are borne by the surviving annual conferences. A decision to withdraw from the plans is in violation of The Discipline (by-laws of the church) and would cause an immediate suspension to the benefits of the Conference's clergy. Across all plans and all employees, the liabilities are funded at 106%.

While there is a single fund for funding the defined benefits of retirees for all annual conferences, the method to calculate the value of benefits earned varies by year of service: before 1982, between 1982 and 2006, and after 2006. Each annual conference contributes according to the actuarial present value of benefits earned by clergy for service during those periods. The administrator of the plan, the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, annually calculates liabilities and expected contributions for each annual conference based upon demographic and market changes relative to previous year's reports. The 2016 contribution for defined benefit plans is calculated from the demographics and assets on January 1, 2014. In the pre-82 plan, there are 661 beneficiaries, 97 are not yet retired. In the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) program there are 970 annuitants, 494 not yet in pay status. As of January 1, 2015, in the Clergy Retirement Security Program defined benefit component (CRSP-DB) there are 534 vested participants, 96 are in pay status.

The Conference's participation in these plans by EIN/Plan Number, if applicable, is:

Pension Fund	EIN/Plan Number	Pension Protection Act Zone Status 2014	Pension Protection Act Zone Status 2015	FIP/RP Status Pending/Implemented	Conference's Contributions	Surcharge Imposed
Pre-82	32-1899999	Green	Green	No	$725,375	No
CRSP-DB	52-5599999	Green	Green	No	1,693,071	No
MPP	92-3499999	Green	Green	No	-	No

Unless otherwise noted, the most recent pension protection act zone status available in 2016 is for the plans' year end at December 31, 2014. The zone status is based on information that the Conference received from the plans' and is certified by the plans' actuary. Among other factors, plans in the red zone are less than 65% funded, plans in the yellow zone are between 65%-80% funded, and plans in the green zone are more than 80% funded. The FIP/RP Status Pending/Implemented column indicates plans for which a financial improvement plan (FIP) or rehabilitation plan (RP) is either pending or has been implemented.

14. ENDOWMENT

The Conference's endowment consists of donor-restricted and unrestricted - designated endowment funds. As required by accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Conference Council has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the historic dollar value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA.

The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. The endowment assets are invested in accordance with predetermined asset allocation and performance benchmarks. To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference's spending policy provides that only the income from endowments may be used according to donor-imposed restrictions.

Endowment net asset composition by type of fund as of December 31, 2016:

	Unrestricted	Temporarily Unrestricted	Permanently Restricted	Total
Donor restricted	$ -	$231,100	$477,533	$708,633

TOTAL	$2,689,395	$231,100	$477,533	$3,398,028

During the year ended December 31, 2016, the Conference had the following endowment related activities:

	Unrestricted	Temporarily Restricted	Permanently Restricted	Total
Endowment net assets, beginning of year	$ 2,580,094	$ 193,426	$ 477,533	$ 3,251,053

Name: Equitable Compensation – Minimum Salary
Author(s): Committee on Equitable Compensation- CCFA
CCFA COMMENT: N/A

ACTION:

The Committee on Equitable Compensation for the Northern Illinois Conference offers the following two- 8 part motion:

A) That the minimum salary schedule* for full-time clergy for the NIC for FY 2017 be as follows:

YEAR OF INITIAL APPOINTMENT

(& recommended minimum salary at the beginning of an appointment -typically in July)

Passed in...	2013 ($32,800)	2014 ($33,300)	2015 ($33,800)	2016 ($34,000)	2017 ($34,200*)	2018 $34,450
2013 for FY 2014	$33,620
2014 for FY 2015	$34,461	$34,133

2015 for FY 2016	$34,806	$34,474	$34,138
For FY 2017	$35,154*	$34,819*	$34,479*	$34,340*

Anticipated proposed in 2017 for FY 2018	$35,506	$35,167	$34,824	$34,683	$34,542	$34,450

This schedule continues a more modest compensation proposal. The reason for this takes several things into consideration: a) for FY 2016, the health insurance premium continues at $16,200;

b) the total minimum compensation package which includes the base pay, accountable reimbursement, pension, and health insurance is at least $60,000 (this does not include housing costs); c) the NIC has lost on the average, 5 full-time appointment positions every year for the last few years which indicates that the minimum full-time compensation package is difficult to maintain for many of our churches.

B) The Committee recommends that local churches provide in their general budget a minimum of $5,000 for an accountable reimbursement fund for the pastor. This covers costs related to travel, continuing education, and other expenses incurred in the course of providing pastoral ministry. The details of what can and cannot be covered by accountable reimbursement can be found at:

**These are the recommended minimum salary amounts being proposed. The $34,450 amount under 2018 is the salary 45 at time of initial appointment in 2018. The other asterisked numbers are minimum recommended salaries for the 2018 46 fiscal year for appointments which began in previous years.*

Name: Benefit Programs

Author(s): Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, partnering with Wespath recommends the following policies for clergy and other eligible participants enrolled in welfare, health and pension benefits.

I. Health Insurance

The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that the Annual Conference establish the following policies and procedures for administration of the Conference Health Care Program, effective January 1, 2018.

A. Mandatory Coverage

1. The following categories of employees are mandated to participate in the Annual Conference health insurance program. In all cases, the spouses, and dependents (such as children) of eligible employees may enroll in the health plan at the election of the participant.

Category	Discipline 2016
Elder in full connection (including those from another Methodist denomination and those from another conference) appointed to full-time or service to a conference local church or campus ministry	338.1, 346.1, .2, &.3
Associate member appointed to full-time service	321
Provisional Members on elder track appointed to full-time local church service	326.2
A full-time local pastor who is under Episcopal appointment to a charge located in the conference	318.1
Ordained Elder appointed to extension ministries within the connectional structure to a unit of the conference other than a General Agency	344.1, & 346.1

2. Elders appointed to disability status will be covered under the conference plan until they are eligible for Medicare or for Social Security disability at the cost of the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. The Conference Board of Pensions will cover the full cost of those Elders appointed to disability status and covered by Medicare and Supplemental Social Security disability coverage.

B. Release from Mandatory Coverage

Based on the implementation of the Affordable Care Act and the ability for individuals to gain coverage on the public exchange, churches can elect to opt out of the Wespath/NIC mandated health programs (HealthFlex).

To elect this option the Churches agree to the following:

1. Agree to pay the monthly HealthCare premium established by the Conference Board of Pensions.
2. Each quarter the Churches will receive a rebate of one month's premium of the HealthCare premium.
3. The maximum amount the Conference Board of Pensions will provide in cash is $900 per month to support clergy to engage a health carrier on the exchange plus and to pay for additional personal taxes. The amount provided by the Conference is considered as cash compensation only.

The objective of allowing Churches to opt out of HealthFlex is to provide a means to help Churches lower the cost of medical insurance and be able to maintain the full services of United Methodist clergy.

The Conference Board of Pensions can also release a clergy person from mandatory participation in HealthFlex at its discretion when:

- a. The clergy person is eligible for health coverage through TRICARE, or Champus.
- b. The clergy is enrolled in coverage from a former employer or as a dependent on a spouse's employer-provided coverage. The Conference will treat the participant as if they were enrolled in the pilot program and bill the church as explained in Section B.

C. Local Church and Extension Ministry Coverage Options

1. A local church or extension ministry may elect health insurance in the conference plan available to participants in the following categories:

- 3. The option to offer coverage is made by the salary paying unit. The choice to accept the coverage shall be made by the participant. The salary paying unit may elect to offer health insurance to one or all categories of persons listed above in Section C. 1. The salary paying unit must make health insurance available to and will be billed for all persons within any specific category employed with the agency or local church.

4. Each salary paying unit must execute annually a sub-adoption agreement with the annual conference, should they desire to offer health coverage to persons in these categories.
5. These categories of persons are also eligible for coverage :

D. Retirement Health Administration –

Category	Billed for Active's Premium
75% of the Lay Employees of the Annual Conference (and Districts) who normally work 30 hours per week or more	Salary Paying Unit and/or participant
Surviving spouse or dependent children enrolled in the health plan at time of a participant's death	Participant pay 25%, Salary Paying Unit (or Board of Pensions) 75%
Divorced spouse enrolled in the plan at time of divorce for 2 years or in accordance with State and Federal law or court order	Divorced Spouse

1. Clergy persons eligible for and enrolled in the health plan or participating in the pilot program, or waived under their spouses plan at Mandatory Retirement (Discipline paragraph 358.1), Early Retirement (Discipline paragraph 358.2b), Full Retirement (Discipline Paragraph 358.2c), or Involuntary Retirement (Discipline paragraph 358.3) are eligible for health benefits in retirement through the conference plan. No clergy member retiring under the "20 year rule" (Discipline paragraph 358.2a) is eligible for retiree health coverage.
2. A clergy spouse (or surviving spouse after death of an active member) enrolled in the health plan 5 consecutive years before retirement or enrolled when first eligible for coverage (and prior to participant's retirement) is eligible for coverage after retirement. The family status of the participant cannot change during retirement, except in cases of adoption, childbirth or death. Participants electing to not participate in retirement health plan at time of retirement may not elect to enroll at a later time.
3. Upon retirement the annual conference shall establish a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) for the household in the retiree's name. Participants and their spouses who meet the retiree eligibility rules under BOB 358.2 may use the funds in the HRA to pay for medical expenses including premiums, co-pays, deductibles, dental services, medical services, coinsurance, etc. Like a savings account, the funds do not need to be expended by the end of the calendar year and balances roll forward when unused.
4. Annually, the annual conference shall deposit into each retiree's HRA an amount equal to $100 per year of ministerial service. An additional amount of $100 per year of service shall be deposited into the HRA account during the retired participant's spouse's lifetime. A maximum of 40 years of service is applied to this calculation.
5. Ministerial service years are determined by the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. Only years served in the Northern Illinois Conference are considered in the HRA calculation.
6. Full Time Lay Conference employees of the annual conference with 5 continuous years of coverage before retirement will have a contribution equal to $100 per year of service to the annual conference deposited in their HRA annually. Eligibility for the HRA is contingent on a participant's enrollment in Medicare B and engagement with One Exchange. Enrollment and contribution schedules are established each year by the Annual Conference. The Northern Illinois Conference makes no promise of future contributions. This resolution establishes rates for 2018 only. Retirees and active members of the plan shall not rely on prior or present benefit offerings as a commitment for the future. The annual conference, at its discretion, may eliminate funding of health insurance to retired persons.

7. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits engages One Exchange to aid clergy retirees aged 65 and above in selection of suitable Medicare supplement coverage and to act as patient advocate when necessary. To receive the HRA benefit eligible participants must enroll through the One Exchange program and be enrolled in Medicare B. Clergy who retire prior to 65 and meet the eligibility rules to retire under BOD 358.2 will have the HRA equivalent deducted from the cost of their medical coverage until they reach Medicare eligibility, enroll in Medicare B and enroll through One Exchange.

E. Active Health Administration

1. Monthly premiums are billed to each charge or salary-paying unit at rates established by the Conference Board of Pensions. Premiums are due the first of each month. Accounts 90 days in arrears are subject to termination as explained in the arrearage policy approved by the Board and the NIC Cabinet. This policy describes the efforts that will be made by the Conference office and the Cabinet to work with Churches that are more than 90 days in arrears. If all efforts to receive payment or develop a payment plan have been exhausted then termination of coverage may be the final option. Notification of accounts in arrears will be provided to the District Superintendent, the pastor, the local church PPRC chair, and the local church treasurer prior to termination.

Active participants seeking to enroll in the Flexible Spending Account Benefit provided by the plan must enroll in November of the year preceding the year of the agreement. Inquiries on billings and enrollment should be directed to the Conference Benefits Administrator, LaMeise Turner, at (312) 346-9766, ext. 720.

Problem resolution and inquiries regarding coverage should be directed to the HealthFlex Team of the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits at 1-800-851-2201.

II. Pension Programs

- A. Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). The General Conference established the CRSP as the primary pension program for United Methodist clergy in 2004. Mandatory participation is required when both 1 and 2 are met:

1. The clergy member relationship to the conference is as a:
  - a. Commissioned Members (Deacon or Elder)
  - b. Elders in Full Connection
  - c. Members of Other Conferences appointed in the Northern Illinois Conference (paragraph 346.1 appointments)
  - d. Full Time Local Pastors

- e. Deacons in Full Connection
  - f. Members of other denomination, appointed to service in an NIC local church if no other pension is provided by their denomination.
2. The clergy member is under Episcopal appointment half-time or more to the following service types:
    - a. to local churches in the Northern Illinois Conference
    - b. to the Conference (staff or Cabinet)
    - c. to a Conference controlled entity (such as a campus ministry or ORM)
    - d. to Incapacity leave with CPP benefits
  3. In order to waive participation, a half-time or more appointed clergy member must sign a waiver form at time of appointment. Please note that persons assigned, but not appointed are not eligible in the program.
  4. Local churches are encouraged to enroll as a plan sponsor of UMPIP and to make employer contributions into the accounts of clergy appointed quarter-time.

B. Clergy Retirement Security Program Billing Schedule. Local Churches shall be billed by the Annual Conference at the following rates (“plan compensation” means compensation as defined by the pension plan documents and includes both cash salary plus consideration for housing):

1. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The Comprehensive Protection Plan is the primary death and disability benefit for enrolled clergy. The billing rate for CPP will be 3% of plan compensation, up to 200% of Denominational Average Compensation. Appointments with compensation at less than 60% of DAC or CAC and those that were considered under special arrangements will be covered and billed based on rates established by UMLifeOptions.
2. CRSP – Defined Contribution
  - a. The CRSP pension program includes a defined contribution component. Each clergy member will have 2% of plan compensation deposited in an individual account at the Wespath. All contributions into the account are invested and the enrolled clergy member receives the appreciated value of the account upon retirement.
  - b. 3% of the plan compensation shall be required from each charge for the defined contribution component of the CRSP.
  - c. Clergy persons are encouraged to contribute 1% of their plan compensation into their UMPIP account as a salary deduction. The annual conference will match the first 1% of UMPIP contributions paid into the participants CRSP-DC account.
3. CRSP – Defined Benefit program. With the defined benefit component each enrolled clergy member will receive a monthly cash benefit from the plan upon retirement. The amount of the benefit is determined by the number of full-time-equivalent years in the program and the denominational average compensation at the time of retirement. Annual contributions made by the conference will be invested by the Wespath so that the NIC obligation can be met. 10% of plan compensation is billed to each appointment for the defined benefit component of CRSP. A portion of defined benefit funding accrues to a reserve fund for funding future variation in market results and other benefits to retirees and future retirees.

C. Billing Methods. The Annual Conference will invoice local churches monthly the 16% (3% + 3% + 10%) of clergy plan compensation required for support of the CRSP and CPP programs.

D.Pre-82 Defined Benefit Past Service Rate for 2018

1. The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that the annual pension rate for service prior to 1982, effective January 1, 2018, be $605 per service year, an increase of 0% from 2017. Surviving spouses shall be supported at the rate of 85% of participant pension benefit amounts. Special grants will be provided as identified in Section F.

E. Excludable Housing allowance for retired clergy. In accordance with the Private Ruling Letter from the Internal Revenue Service, the Northern Illinois Conference Annual Conference Session reaffirms the limits to housing allowance exclusion for retired and disabled clergy found in the Standing Rules, at Section IV. C. 1, which states: Disabled clergy have the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as do the retired clergy and, thus, this Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for disabled ordained or local pastors who are members of this Conference.

An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired clergy, or 100% of the disability payments received by a disabled clergy, is designated as rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or local pastor of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Northern Illinois Conference at the time of retirement or disability.

F. Special Grants

1. For 2018, the conference extends Special Grants of $13 per year of pre-82 service to clergy persons and surviving spouses who are:
  - a. Members of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference who retired from an appointment in the conference;
  - b. Who have at least 15 years of service prior to 1982 compensated at the Past Service Rate (excludes those at the DBSM rate); and,
  - c. Who have less than 10 years of service to Northern Illinois Conference appointments served while enrolled in the MPP program.
2. The Conference Board of Pensions also recommends that a special grant be made to Vidal Cordova, for his three (3) years of service with this Annual Conference. We recommend for the year commencing July 1, 2017, to June 30, 2018, a grant of $237 per year payable monthly at $19.75.
3. The Conference Board of Pensions also recommends the special grant previously given to Vernon L. Bell be continued for his widow, Enid. Mr. Bell died March 17, 1995. He served 11 years as a full member of the Northern Illinois Conference from June 13, 1954, to August 15, 1965. He took voluntary Leave of Absence from 1965 and Honorable Location in 1966. The service rate at the time of his voluntary location was $77. Thus, we recommend for the year commencing July 1, 2017, to June 30 2018, a grant be paid to Mrs. Bell of $847, actuarially reduced in the same manner as if this grant was paid under the Methodist Ministers Reserve Pension Fund for payments commencing after early retirement date and prior to normal retirement date. Payments shall be paid monthly.

- 4 The Conference Board of Pensions also recommends that a special grant be made to James W. French for his 3.5 years of service with this Annual Conference from June 1, 1978 through December 31, 1981. We recommend for the year commencing July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018, a grant of $140.95 monthly be paid based on the present pension rate, but actuarially reduced since payments are starting prior to full retirement age.

III. Group Life Insurance

The Conference Board of Pensions enrolls in the UMLifeOptions program. Every eligible retired clergy person will be enrolled in the plan with a benefit of $5,000 at no cost to the participant. Active clergy persons have $10,000 in coverage at the NIC expense when an application is filed during the open enrollment period. Coverage beyond this amount is at the cost of the participant and will be billed directly from UMLifeOptions.

CCFA Comment: *CCFA Comment will be coming – it will be an additional download available on the Conference website no later than May 9.

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall not knowingly make investments in any company or entity whose core business activity involves the production of petroleum, natural gas, or coal by January 1, 2018. Core business activity refers to a company's primary, or central focus of activity and is an essential element in the company's economic success. A "core business" is one that accounts for 10% or more of a company's revenue derived from the objectionable products and/or services. In addition, the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall require that the United Methodist Foundation of the Northern Illinois Conference add a similar investment screen to its holdings and investments, also by January 1, 2018.

RATIONALE:

The United Methodist Church has acknowledged the risks of fossil fuel dependence for the last 35 years through its Energy Policy Statement in the Book of Resolutions para. 1001. These risks include contributing to catastrophic climate change and endangering human health. The United States ratified The Paris Agreement, whose central aim is to strengthen the global response to the threat of climate change by keeping a global temperature rise this century well below 2 degrees Celsius above pre-industrial levels and to pursue efforts to limit the temperature increase even further to 1.5 degrees Celsius. The extraction and burning of petroleum, coal and natural gas contribute to the temperature rise, thus requiring that the vast majority of the world's fossil fuels be left in the ground to avoid the worst impacts of climate change. The United Methodists live and serve on the front lines of extreme weather events that will increase in frequency and severity with climate change. Limiting climate change requires that most fossil fuel reserves stay underground. The world urgently needs a just transition to sustainable energy.

In regards to human health, the processes and byproducts related to the extraction of petroleum, coal and natural gas are damaging to the health of people who work in these industries as well as those who live on or near extraction sites (i.e. increased instances of asthma and cancer). Continued investment in fossil fuels undermines The United Methodist Church's ministries with young people and vulnerable people.

The investment policy goals of The United Methodist Church as outlined in the Book of Resolutions para. 4071 include investing in corporations, companies, institutions or funds making a positive contribution to the realization of the goals outlined in the Social Principles and the Book of Resolutions, and exclude investing in companies that violate church values. The Social Principles state that climate change will bring "severe environmental, economic, and social implications," which will "disproportionately affect individuals and nations least responsible for the emissions." Fossil fuel free indices are becoming more readily available to meet demand brought forth through the $5.4 trillion dollar fossil fuel divestment movement. The New York and Pacific Northwest Conferences have already committed to divestment and the Northern Illinois Conference should contribute to the demand for a fossil free future.

Name: Election of Delegates for General Conference 2020

Authors: NIC General/Jurisdictional Conference Delegation 2016, Reconciling Ministry Network, Methodist Federation for Social Action

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The election of the Northern Illinois Conference lay and clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference 2020 shall take place during the 2019 session of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference.

RATIONALE:

Since a special session of General Conference has been proposed for the Spring of 2019, it would be appropriate to wait for the outcome of that Conference to elect the next delegation, who would then meet and prepare for the upcoming 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The needs of the Northern Illinois Conference might shift, individuals' own sense of calling to participate might change, and the preparatory work might unfold differently based on the outcome of a Special Session. It seems to be prudent to wait to elect a new delegation until after the 2016 delegation has completed their quadrennium's work.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the said Church shall be transferred to the Prince of Peace United Methodist Church in Elk Grove Village, Illinois, unless any such members shall inform the pastor of the transferee church otherwise; and

Name: Advocating for the Rights of Children Living Under Israeli Military Occupation

Author(s): Paula Roderick, Member, Broadway UMC; Reconciling Ministries Network; Northern Illinois Conference Chapter of Methodist Federation for Social Action.

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church calls upon President Donald Trump, Vice President Mike Pence, and Secretary of State Rex Tillerson to adhere to our own established law, the U.S. Foreign Assistance Act, by withholding military assistance from Israel due to its practices of arrest and detention of Palestinian children. NIC further calls upon the U.S. to join with 194 other nations in ratifying the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. A letter to this effect will be sent to the President, Vice President, and Secretary of State and will be made available for all NIC United Methodists to affirm singly or by congregations. NIC further urges clergy and lay leaders to write their members of Congress to express concerns regarding the treatment of Palestinian children arrested by Israeli forces in Occupied Palestine and to support efforts demanding immediate protections for Palestinian children held in military detention.

RATIONALE:

Israel is the only country in the world that systematically prosecutes children in military courts. Each year approximately 700 children enter the Israeli military detention system. In a landmark study of this system, the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) reported that ill treatment in the Israeli military detention system remains "widespread, systematic, and institutionalized throughout the process." The U.S. Foreign Assistance Act specifies that no military assistance be given to any country that "engages in a consistent pattern of gross violation of internationally recognized human rights." On at least eleven previous occasions the U.S. has withheld assistance from countries based on human rights violations. Violations against Palestinian children in the Israeli military detention system have been well documented for years, not only by the U.S. State Department but also by numerous highly respected Israeli, Palestinian and international human rights organizations. See, e.g., Defence for Children International – Palestine, No Way To Treat A Child, <http://nwtac.dci-palestine.org>. This vast assemblage of data confirming ongoing widespread ill treatment of children in Israeli military detention gives ample justification to withhold military assistance, as specified in the U.S. Foreign Assistance Act.

Further, the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child has been ratified by every single member of the United Nations except the United States. Israel has signed and ratified this convention, and is thus required to adhere to its provisions regarding treatment of detained children. Ratification of the Convention by the United States would bring stronger international pressure on Israel to comply with the Convention's provisions, including for the treatment of children held in detention. Ratification by the U. S. also would underscore our nation's responsibility for humane treatment of all children, including the disproportionate number of black and brown children held in U.S. prisons.

Discipleship requires solidarity with the vulnerable and the oppressed. Children are deserving of special protections from injustice and violence.

Name: Consider Investing in WESPATH Equity Social Values Plus Fund (ESVPF)

Author(s): Paula Roderick, Member, Broadway UMC; Reconciling Ministries Network, Northern Illinois Conference Chapter of Methodist Federation for Social Action    CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference encourages clergy and lay employee participants in Wespath funds as well as the annual conference to consider ESVPF for the portion of their accounts invested in equities.

RATIONALE:

The Equity Social Values Plus Fund (ESVPF) is available for participant defined contribution accounts and conference deposit accounts with Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath). Wespath has developed a policy that may remove companies named by seven to ten annual conferences in divestment resolutions from its ESVPF (http://www.wespath.org/assets/1/7/investment\_policy.pdf).

Caterpillar, Motorola Solutions, and Hewlett Packard are the subject of such resolutions and have been removed from the ESVPF per Wespath's policy.

While Wespath as a financial institution does not take a stand on the reasons conferences have voted to divest from these three companies, they have responded to serve those clients by providing the ESVPF.

In 2010 and 2012, the Northern Illinois Annual Conference adopted resolutions calling for divestment from companies complicit in the Israeli occupation, and the 2012 legislation specifically petitioned the United Methodist General Conference of 2012 to approve divestment from Caterpillar, Motorola Solutions and Hewlett Packard.

Caterpillar Inc. provides military bulldozers and earth-moving equipment which are used to uproot olive groves, demolish Palestinian homes, construct illegal settlements and build segregated roads and the separation barrier on occupied land; Motorola Solutions provides surveillance systems for illegal settlements, military bases and the separation wall as well as communication devices for the Israeli military; and Hewlett Packard provides data storage for settlements, manages information technology for the Israeli Navy, and provides biometric monitoring of checkpoints inside the West Bank, and

For up to ten years many religious investors and ecumenical groups have asked these companies to stop selling their products to the Israeli government for use in sustaining and maintaining the military occupation and settlement building and they have refused (https://www.kairosresponse.org/corporate\_engagement\_04-11.html).

The Palestinian Christian community, through the "Kairos Palestine Document," has requested the support of the wider Church in their struggle and has named divestment and boycott as actions that would help them. (Kairos Palestine. "A Moment of Truth: A Word of Faith, Hope and Love from the Heart of Palestinian Suffering" December 2009 <http://www.kairopalestine.ps/index.php/about-us/kairos-palestine-document>).

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference strongly urges that clergy, laity, and seminary students of the NIC who are planning individual or group tours to Israel/Palestine consult with the Methodist Liaison Office (MLO) in Jerusalem (admin@methodist-jer.org and encounter@methodist-jer.org) to seek opportunities to meet with United Methodist missionaries living and working in the region, visit United Methodist supported mission sites, worship with indigenous Christian congregations and include in their tours at least one overnight stay in Bethlehem in accordance with the 2016 Resolution #6031. Travelers are further urged to read the Kairos Palestine Document: "A Moment of Truth: A word of faith, hope and love," and study the United Methodist Book of Resolutions with particular attention to Resolution #6111 and other resolutions dealing with Palestine, settlements in the West Bank, boycotting settlement products, interfaith relations, indigenous peoples, anti-Semitism, racism and human rights.

RATIONALE:

Indigenous Palestinian Christians have asked their fellow Christians around the world to meet with them when visiting the Holy Land, stating: “We intend to fulfill our role to make known to you the truth of our reality, receiving you as pilgrims coming to us to pray, carrying a message of peace, love and reconciliation. You will know the facts and the people of this land, Palestinians and Israelis alike.” (Kairos Palestine Document: <http://kairospalestine.ps/index.php/about-us/kairos-palestine-document> ); and United Methodist mission personnel past and present have for many years invited United Methodists to “come and see” what they have seen during their time in the Holy Land (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rKb8SYVB8KQ>) and likewise have asked that those planning individual or group tours to Israel/Palestine both “consult with the United Methodist Liaison Office in Jerusalem to seek opportunities to worship with indigenous Christian congregations” and “visit United Methodist supported mission sites;” (2016 United Methodist Book of Resolutions #6031; and,

The conflict in the Holy Land has been raised repeatedly in General Conference resolutions, and understanding of the issue is critical to informed discussion among United Methodist laity and clergy (2016 United Methodist Book of Resolutions #6111).

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference calls upon Governor Rauner, President of the Senate John Cullerton, and Speaker of the House Michael Madigan to end the stalemate and pass a fair and balanced budget for the State of Illinois. A letter to this effect will be sent to Governor Rauner, Senator Cullerton and Speaker Madigan and will be made available for all Northern Illinois United Methodists to affirm by sending as individuals or congregations.

RATIONALE:

Illinois has been without a budget since June, 2015. This has put social service organizations, the homeless, and college students in an especially difficult position. Cuts to care for seniors, after-school programs, counseling for assault victims, drug and alcohol rehab programs threaten too many vulnerable Illinoisans. Mathew 25 calls upon us to care for those less fortunate, and yet in this budget stalemate, it is those very people that are the most affected. We must hold our Illinois Administration accountable to the people of Illinois and end the stalemate, agree on a budget, and fund the programs that care for the people of Illinois.

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church calls upon President Donald Trump and Scott Pruitt, Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency to take steps to ensure that actions taken in the past to protect our clean air and water and to reduce the harmful effects of climate change be safe-guarded in future legislation or executive actions. A letter to this effect will be sent to President Trump and Scott Pruitt, and will be made available for all Northern Illinois United Methodists to affirm by sending as individuals or congregations.

RATIONALE:

The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change as said "Scientific evidence for warming of the climate system is unequivocal. Ninety-seven percent of scientists believe climate change is very likely human caused, and it is proceeding at a rate that is unprecedented in the past 1300 years. According to NASA, evidence for rapid climate change is compelling: sea levels have risen, global temperatures have risen, oceans are warming, ice sheets are shrinking, there is less Arctic sea ice, glaciers are retreating, there are more extreme weather events, ocean waters are becoming more acidic,, and there is less snow cover. By rolling back climate change regulations, we are placing the future of our planet in even greater peril. We owe it to future generations to turn back the effects of climate change.

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church calls upon President Donald Trump and Speaker of the House Paul Ryan to work in a bipartisan manner to expand the Affordable Care Act and continue to aggressively work to make healthcare affordable for all. A letter to this effect will be sent to President Trump and Speaker Ryan and will be made available for all Northern Illinois United Methodists to affirm by sending as individuals or congregations.

RATIONALE:

The Affordable Care Act decreased the number of uninsured by 24 million. Thirty two states (including Washington DC) have adopted the Medicaid extension, and had fewer uninsured than those who had not adopted it (7.3% to 14.1%). A study by the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality estimates that the ACA is responsible for preventing nearly 50,000 deaths. It is not a perfect healthcare law, but working in a bipartisan manner, it can be improved. The effort in the US House of Representatives to repeal and replace earlier this year would have leave many without healthcare options, and it would increase costs for those in healthcare plans. Efforts should be made to expand the provisions to cover even more people and work toward keeping overall costs low.

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference declares solidarity with all individuals and families regardless of their refugee or immigration status or documentation, and with those who come to their aid, and takes the following actions:

1. The Northern Illinois Conference encourages all of its congregations, boards, and other bodies to engage, before the next Annual Conference Session, in intentional education and relationship-building regarding welcome, ministry, and advocacy with persons regardless of their refugee or immigration status or documentation.
2. The Northern Illinois Conference encourages all of its congregations, boards, and other bodies to prayerfully discern actions they can take in their particular ministry context and connectionally to extend greater hospitality, greater ministries of justice and compassion, and/or increased advocacy for and with all people regardless of their refugee or immigration status or documentation, and when and where feasible to take those actions.
3. The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church affirms that a sanctuary is not only a space for worship, but is primarily a place of refuge and safety; the NIC therefore recognizes that when a congregation or other body of the Conference discerns and declares itself a “Sanctuary” or in “Solidarity,” this definition applies to all properties owned or held in trust by and/or all ministry programs offered by that member congregation or group.

RATIONALE:

There is a strong Biblical mandate to care for persons who become displaced or have the status of immigrant or refugee, rooted in the experiences of the Hebrew people enduring and escaping from oppression in Egypt, and in Jesus’ family fleeing the violence of Herod (see Genesis 12:10 – Abram flees famine, Exodus 1 – the people face oppression in Egypt and will later escape, Leviticus 19:33-34 – the people are commanded to treat “aliens” with fairness because they were once aliens themselves, Matthew 2:13-15 – Jesus’ parents flee Herod, Hebrews 13:1-2 – the people are encouraged to show hospitality to strangers).

The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state: “We recognize, embrace, and affirm all persons, regardless of country of origin, as members of the family of God. We affirm the right of all persons to equal opportunities for employment, access to housing, health care, education, and freedom from social discrimination. We urge the Church and society to recognize the gifts, contributions, and struggles of those who are immigrants and to advocate for justice for all. We oppose immigration policies that separate family members from each other or that include detention of families with children, and we call on local churches to be in ministry with immigrant families” (Book of Discipline 2016, ¶162 H).

The Northern Illinois Conference has a strong history of advocating for and with all persons, regardless of their country of origin and regardless of their immigration status or documentation, through the work of Justice For Our Neighbors (JFON) and recent training events, and regardless of their class, race, sexual orientation or gender identity, origin. NIL has strongly spoken against any injustice and created a safe place for all who find themselves in a minority.

The Sanctuary Movement in the United States, past and present, calls upon churches to be public and intentional in offering hospitality, shelter, resources, and logistical and legal assistance to individuals and families regardless of their refugee or immigration status or documentation.

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference will establish the elimination of gun violence as a priority. In establishing the elimination of handgun violence as a priority, the Northern Illinois Conference (NIC) will work in collaboration with organizations like the Illinois Council Against Handgun Violence, Heeding God’s Call, Community Renewal Society and Live Free Chicago. This collaborative work will include:

Equipping & Educating Congregations and Communities by:

- Making a visible witness to the sin of gun violence and the hope of healing our communities
- Equipping local churches to include gun violence prevention in sermons, Bible studies, prayers and conversations.
- Remembering victims by sponsoring events like “A Concert Across America to End Gun Violence”<sup>1</sup> or host a Gun Violence Prevention Sabbath.”<sup>2</sup>
- Convening a conference-wide and district-wide “teach-ins” to include faith communities, law enforcement, mental health and public health professionals from areas where gun violence has had a significant impact to develop action plans and identify ways that the NIC can effectively respond to the growing tragedy.

- Educating congregations and communities on the public health crisis of gun violence, gun violence prevention, gun safety, using the United Methodist General Board of Church and Society’s “Kingdom Dreams, Violent Realities: Reflections on Gun Violence from Micah 4:1-4” and the United Methodist Resolutions on Gun Violence.

Advocating for Greater Regulation by:

- Developing advocacy groups in local churches and districts that will work toward impacting public policy around gun violence, with particular emphasis on handguns, handgun ammunition, assault weapons, automatic weapon conversion kits and guns that cannot be detected by traditionally used metal-detection devices.
- Advocating for local, statewide and federal legislation that will regulate the manufacture, sale and registration of guns. This legislation should include provisions for:
  - Universal background checks
  - Ensuring guns are sold through licensed retailers
  - Prohibiting all individuals convicted of violent crimes from purchasing a gun for a fixed time period
  - Prohibiting all individuals under restraining order due to threat of violence from purchasing a gun
  - Prohibiting persons with serious mental illness, who pose a danger to themselves and their communities, from purchasing a gun
  - Ensuring greater access to services for those suffering from mental illness
  - Establishing a minimum age of 21 years for a gun purchase or possession
  - Banning large-capacity ammunition magazines and weapons designed to fire multiple rounds each time the trigger is pulled
  - Promoting new technologies to aid law-enforcement agencies to trace crime guns and promote public safety.
  - Calling on federal and state governments to provide significant assistance to victims of gun violence.
  - Calling on state legislature to address the lack of economic opportunity fueling gun violence, and to avoid just focusing on legislation that increases sentences for gun possession without also addressing economic development (jobs) and penalties for those who illegally sell guns. Thusly, call our representatives to avoid further disproportionately imprisoning persons from racial minority communities without working to remediate the underlying causes.
  - Encouraging congregations to partner with local law-enforcement agencies and community based organizations to identify gun retailers that engage in retail practices designed to circumvent laws on gun sales and ownership and to organize campaigns to encourage gun retailers to gain full legal compliance with appropriate standards and laws.

Developing Programs to:

- Create or support safe places for children and youth when out of school, such as “Safe Havens,” Camps, After School/Out of School time programs.
- Create restorative justice peace hubs in communities most impacted by gun violence.
- Offer services including but not limited to: job training, resume workshops, job fairs, social workers, job developers, entrepreneurship funding, and budgeting workshops, to address the need for economic opportunity in communities impacted by gun violence.

RATIONALE:

The 2016 General Conference of the United Methodist Church passed a resolution based on Matthew 5:9 and Micah 4:1-4, stating the following:

“In days to come, / the mountain of the LORD’s house / shall be established as the highest of the mountains, / and shall be raised up above the hills. / Peoples shall stream to it, / and many nations shall come and say: / ‘Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, / to the house of the God of Jacob; / that he may teach us his ways / and that we may walk in his paths.’ / For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, / and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. / He shall judge between many peoples, / and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away; / they shall beat their swords into plowshares, / and their spears into pruning hooks; / nation shall not lift up sword against nation, / neither shall they learn war any more; / but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig trees, / and no one shall make them afraid; / for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken”<sup>NRSV</sup>

Micah’s prophetic dream points to a time when all peoples will journey to God’s presence so God “may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths” (4:2). Micah describes God as the final judge and the nations will travel to God’s presence out of their desire to live in peace without violence and bloodshed.

Therefore, “we call upon United Methodists to address gun violence in their local context”.<sup>3</sup>

We, as United Methodists in the Northern Illinois Conference affirm this call and seek to clarify the ways we are called to live out this resolution within our conference.

Each year in America, on average over 100,000 people are shot in murders, assaults, suicides & suicide attempts, unintentional shootings, or by police intervention.<sup>4</sup> Of that number, 30,000 people (including children) die each year from gun violence.<sup>5</sup>

On June 21, 2016, Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle alongside Cook County Hospital executives and other elected officials endorsed a statement made by the American Medical Association classifying gun violence as a, “public health crisis.”

In Chicago alone, in 2017 over 700 people lost their lives to gun violence.<sup>6</sup> This statistic only increases when we look at our conference as a whole, beyond city and county limits. One fact remains for every single church and every single United Methodist in the Northern Illinois Conference; we are living in an epidemic of violence, and remain silent about it when considering its social/economic costs and the lives of Christ’s beloved people are at risk.

RATIONALE:

According to the Book of Discipline, the “annual conference is responsible for structuring its ministries and administrative procedures in order to accomplish its purpose.” It is “permitted the flexibility to design conference and district structures in ways that best support the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ . . .” ¶610

Currently, the Northern Illinois Conference (“NIC”) has 10 administrative committees, 30 program areas and dozens of task forces and special interest groups. To the extent that they are unified, it is within the Program Council. However, the Program Council accounts for only approximately 20% of the budget of the NIC. There is no central body coordinating all the ministries of the NIC.

The Cabinet provides valuable leadership on resourcing, equipping, and strategizing the ministries of NIC. However, its primary responsibilities are clergy deployment and supervision, with the District Superintendents functioning as “an extension of the superintending role of the Bishop.” (BOD 403.2)

The need for a central body became apparent in the financial crisis in 2014. At that time, the Conference Council on Finance and Administration needed advice on cutting the budget but had nowhere to turn. Subsequently, the Landscape Survey in 2015 and the listening sessions in 2016 revealed a broader desire for a central body devoted to planning strategically, aligning resources with mission, coordinating and communicating the ministry of the NIC.

At the Annual Conference in 2016, the NIC adopted a resolution (Resolution 700.01) directing the formation of an Organizational Task Force (“OTF”) to create a proposal for an alternative organizational structure. The resolution provides that,

The restructure could include, but would not be limited to:

- An organizational structure that can
  - Plan strategically,
  - Align resources and mission,
  - Create an intersection between administrative, program and superintending functions,
  - Streamline the work of the conference committees,
  - Respond with flexibility,
  - Be accountable to conference membership, and
  - Act with coordinated efficiency.
- Such a structure would enhance the focus on purpose, mission and core values, while providing a forum for communication and coordination. Resolution 700.01

The proposed organizational structure is designed to accomplish all the above goals with the exception that it does not streamline the work of conference committees. That task has been left for the future. Pending future reorganization, the existing committees have been aligned with the proposed organizational structure. Future streamlining of the underlying committees may also result in adaptation of the overarching organizational structure.

In creating the proposed structure, the OTF followed the process described in its Historical Report. It was particularly mindful of the following concepts and objectives.

Shepherding. The fundamental image for the organizational structure is that of a shepherd. It evokes the assurances of Psalm 23 and the role of the shepherd in leading the flock to green pastures, attending to the entire flock without losing sight of individual sheep, confronting times challenge and fear as well as maximizing times of ease and abundance.

The Annual Conference Shepherding Team (“ACST”) will be an adaptive learning organization that will focus on coordinating and communicating the ministry of the NIC. Each District Shepherding Team (“DST”) will focus on coordinating the equipping of local churches and enhancing the connection between them, the districts and the NIC.

Efficiency and Flexibility. The ACST is not intended to be a connectional table or a committee of chairs including representatives of all the discrete committees (currently, in excess of 40). It is intended to be a small, nimble team in which all members are charged with focusing on all aspects of ministry and creating a unified strategy for the NIC. Particular members will be selected to inform that strategy with the perspectives and priorities of broad areas of ministry. Further, at least one meeting of the ACST per year will be devoted to seeking input from the discrete committees.

Equipping, Coordinating and Communicating. The role of the ACST and DSTs will be to equip, coordinate and communicate the ministry of the NIC. The committees of the NIC and districts and the local churches will continue to perform the ministry. In the process, they will inform the DSTs and ACST and contribute to shaping the ministry of the NIC for the future.

Learning. The ACST is intended to be a learning organization that encourages and facilitates the learning, critical thinking and experimentation of its members, communicates new knowledge throughout the NIC for incorporation in ministries of the districts and local churches, and continuously transforms itself to adapt to the challenges and opportunities for ministry in the NIC.

Diversity and Advocacy. Diversity and advocacy for the role and priorities of groups who are often underrepresented are important means to the end of pursuing the ministry of the NIC which includes, nurtures and seeks justice for all in the name of Jesus Christ.

With respect to racial and cultural diversity, the ACST will have three membership positions for representatives of ethnic caucuses. Currently, the NIC recognizes The Fellowship of Asian-Americans, Black Methodists for Church Renewal and El Concilio.

With respect to all aspects of diversity, the structure will rely heavily on the Committee on Nominations to create a pipeline of leaders from all of the diverse communities in the NIC to feed into leadership roles across the conference, including the DSTs and the ACST.

Together, the structure itself and the intentional, prayerful nomination and leadership selection process for all membership positions in the structure are meant to ensure diversity and advocacy. Beginning in 2019, the entire structure and its implementation will be subject to formal evaluation. The structure's effectiveness in achieving diversity and advocacy goals will be expressly subject to such evaluation.

Adaptation. The proposed organizational structure represents a step on the journey that began with the Landscape Survey in 2015. The structure is expected to adapt over time.

Further Organizational Tasks. The proposed organizational structure is an overarching structure for the equipping, coordinating and communicating functions essential to the NIC. The underlying committee structure remains disjointed and duplicative. The Organizational Task Force will be reformulated and will evaluate the existing committees and propose a streamlined committee structure, as well as appropriate adaptations to the ACST and DSTs, to the Annual Conference in 2018.

Title: Set the Prisoner and the Oppressed Free!

Author(s): Janice Gintzler, member of Hazel Crest Community UMC.

CCFA Comment:

ACTION:

Close to the heart of Jesus was what is recorded in Luke 4:18:

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free.” Luke 4:18

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church is urged to address the preponderance of people of color in the Cook County Jail that is situated on Clark Street at Van Buren in Chicago. The Conference will add its name to the list of co-endorsers of The Principles of Bail Reform in Cook County:

Principles of Bail Reform in Cook County

The pretrial detention system in Cook County needs reform. Cook County Jail incarcerates approximately 7,500 people per day. An additional 2,000 people are under the Sheriff's supervision through electronic monitoring. More than 90% of the people detained are pretrial and thus presumed innocent—a considerably higher rate than the national rate of 67%. Approximately two thirds of unconvicted people incarcerated or on electronic monitoring in Cook County would be free if they could afford to pay a monetary bond.

The overuse of pretrial incarceration and monitoring comes at tremendous personal cost to impacted individuals and entire communities. Pretrial detention leads to lost jobs, lost housing, and even lost custody of children. In addition, people detained pretrial are more likely to be convicted. They also receive longer sentences compared to people released pretrial with similar backgrounds and charges. African Americans receive disproportionately high monetary bonds and are disproportionately unable to pay these bonds. Seventy-three percent of the people incarcerated in the Cook County Jail are African American despite the fact that African Americans make up only 25% of Cook County's population. The twenty-seven percent who are non-African Americans are also low income working people who suffer from detentions.

Recent history has shown that the population of Cook County Jail can be decreased substantially with no impact on public safety or court appearance rates. The following six principles provide guidance for reform efforts designed to reduce the number of people incarcerated pretrial in Cook County Jail.

1. Pretrial detention and other restrictions on liberty should be used only as a last resort to ensure community safety and the defendant's appearance in court due to previous failure to appear.
2. Access to money should not determine whether or not an accused person is detained in jail or subject to other conditions pending trial.
3. Pretrial services programs should be used to promote court attendance and provide needed services and not place unnecessary conditions on the accused person.
4. Conditions of bail should not prevent an accused person from performing basic personal responsibilities, impose direct or indirect economic costs, or unduly expose the accused person to new criminal charges.
5. Data on detention and release outcomes should be collected and made available for public review and system assessment purposes. Risk assessments, if used, must be validated, transparent, and their impact must be tracked.
6. Administrative reforms should be made to ensure court practices conform to the law. Judges should receive education and training consistent with existing law and these principles.

The prison ministry at the Unitarian Church of Hyde Park, led by Evan Freund and with the help of The People's Lobby and the Community Renewal Society had HB3421 introduced on March 31, 2017 into the Illinois General Assembly.

Some of the organizations already endorsing the Principles are A Just Harvest
Chicago Appleseed Fund for Justice
Chicago Community Bond Fund
Chicago Council of Lawyers
The Sargent Shriver National Center of Poverty Law

RATIONALE:

The current bail system in Illinois is broken. In the overcrowded Cook County Jail alone, there are more than 7,000 inmates on an average day. 95% of those admitted to the jail are pretrial detainees, mostly there because they cannot afford bail. Over 4,400 people in Cook County Jail at any given time are there because they are poor.

Let us live our faith and endorse the Principles.

703-01 SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND ABUSE

(Passed in Plenary on June 10, 1997)

WHEREAS, the 1996 Annual Conference charged the Bishop's Task Force on Sexual Harassment to bring a policy statement to the 1997 Annual Conference, which would incorporate the actions of the 1996 General Conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the policy of the Northern Illinois Conference:

The United Methodist Church of the Northern Illinois Conference stands in opposition to the sins of sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct and will not tolerate or condone these behaviors. The Northern Illinois Conference bears affirmative covenant responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, which is free of harassment and encourages mutual respect, equality with one another and kinship in Christ. Affiliation with The United Methodist Church (whether in positions of licensed, commissioned, certified, consecrated, ordained or diaconal ministry, volunteer leadership, lay ministry, or lay employment) not only implies, but also requires a high standard of behavior consistent with the gospel. Every complaint of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct shall be diligently pursued according to the 1996 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

In this context the primary concern of the Northern Illinois Conference is the protection of and care for all persons, as well as the achievement of justice and reconciliation of all parties whenever possible. The Body of Christ is best healed when protection, justice, remedial action and reconciliation can occur.

The United Methodist Church has found sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship to be incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing, and took action at the 1996 General Conference to continue the church's efforts to eliminate sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct in the denomination and its institutions.

“All human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. From the beginning, God intended us to live out our equality in relation with one another. Yet, in our human brokenness, we have given greater value and power to men than to women. Jesus was sent into this world that we might experience whole relationships with one another and with God. ‘There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.’” (Galatians 3:28 RSV; The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, TN: The United Methodist Publishing House, 1996, p. 481).

Sexual Harassment, sexual abuse, and sexual misconduct are violations of an individual's integrity and of the covenant relationship intended by God. In the creation stories and in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, we affirm that we are created in the image and likeness of God. To harass or abuse another person sexually is to deny that value. Sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Any expression of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct is a sin against God and other persons.

There is no simple, all-inclusive definition of sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct. Often the definitions may overlap and a particular form of behavior may fall within two or more of the prohibitions. Further, the following definitions are illustrative guidelines and do not attempt to serve as definitive legal conclusions, to cover all possible situations or to limit or preempt any subject matter ultimately governed by The Book of Discipline or within the purview of the General Conference and the Judicial Council.

Sexual misconduct occurs when a person in a ministerial role of leadership engages in a broad variety of sexual contacts or sexualized behaviors with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, etc. (adult, teenager, or child) within the ministerial relationship. Sexual misconduct includes sexual harassment, sexual abuse, and any form of criminal sexual misconduct.

Sexual harassment may be defined, according to the 1996 Book of Resolutions, as an “unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical that is perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.” Particularly where there exists a differential in power and authority between the participants or special vulnerability of the victim, sexual harassment may include the development or attempted development of a sexual or romantic relationship between a person in a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) and a person with whom he or she has a ministerial relationship, whether or not there is apparent consent from the individual. The Book of Resolutions goes on to state that “sexual harassment also includes the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” (The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, TN: The United Methodist Publishing House, 1996, p. 482.)

Sexual abuse may be defined as a sexual invasion of the body and/or mind by force or other coercive means. Sexual abuse may be rape, sexual assault, incest, indecent exposure, statutory rape, involuntary or ostensibly voluntary sexual intercourse with a child, promotion of prostitution, pornography with children, fondling, indecent assault, and aggravated indecent assault. Sexual abuse is also an internal assault, a deliberate violation of emotional integrity, a hostile, degrading act of violence. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person in a ministerial role of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer. It is an abuse of power through sexual harassment, sexual contact or sexual activity in which the person violates the free choice or abuses the vulnerability of another person for whom he or she is responsible (adult, teen or child), or allows or causes that person to engage in sexual behavior.

703-02 HOUSING COVENANT

(Passed as amended in Plenary on June 7, 1999)

WHEREAS, the Clergy Compensation Task Force has been charged with the responsibility of addressing issues related to equity in clergy compensation, and

WHEREAS, a study done by the Task Force revealed a great inconsistency in clergy housing provisions and conditions, and

WHEREAS, the study also disclosed a lack of understanding of minimum housing standards, as well as responsibilities for upkeep and maintenance,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the following housing covenant be approved as a document to be used annually by each church of the Northern Illinois Conference:

HOUSING COVENANT BETWEEN PASTOR
_____ AND _____ UNITED METHODIST CHURCH IN NORTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

A parsonage is a dwelling place provided by the church for the use and occupancy of the pastors of the United Methodist Church who may be entitled to occupy the same by appointment every year. The justification of this option is that it is the backbone of our denomination's appointment system. The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the ministerial family as the property of the church and by the congregation as the private home of the ministerial family. The property is on loan. The pastor and family are entrusted with the care of the home for the duration of the pastoral appointment. To be less than Christian stewards of this "trust" decreases the effectiveness of the Christian ministry. The Staff/Parish Relations Committee is the advocate for the parsonage family, and it is their responsibility to see that this covenant is followed. The Board of Trustees has the responsibility for the upkeep and general maintenance of the property, and it is responsible for its renovations and good maintenance.

A housing allowance is another option for the pastor and the church if both parties and the cabinet are in agreement. If a housing allowance is the option both parties choose, the amount shall be in a reasonable arrangement reflecting the average housing in the community and within an easy commute of the charge.

In this option, the pastor is the one who should take care of his/her property.

If a parsonage is provided, the parsonage family shall care for and maintain the property and be financially responsible for damage done by pets, personal equipment or tools, and/or family life-style except for the reasonable wear and tear. In addition, the following points are made as means of clarification:

Any damage done by pets is considered more than normal wear and tear.

If any life-style choices such as smoking, pets, etc. affect the condition or health environment of the parsonage, the pastor must pay for thorough professional cleaning prior to the new pastor's arrival.

Good housekeeping is the responsibility of the pastor.

It is the responsibility of the Trustees to keep a record of the parsonage and its equipment. It should include such things as a history of the parsonage, decorating and renovation dates, electrical circuits, guarantees, date and place of purchases, repairs, upgrading, and whom to call for service. It is the responsibility of both the pastor and the trustees to keep these records updated.

At the parsonage it is desirable to have a phone list for emergency service and maintenance/operation manuals for parsonage appliances and equipment. Again, it is the responsibility of both the pastor and the Trustees to keep these records updated. Before emergencies occur, it is essential that the Staff/Parish Relations Committee, the Trustees, and the pastor agree on who is to act when major problems happen. When authority is granted, the responsible party can act. Therefore, the following guidelines are to be used:

Emergencies that need to be dealt with on an immediate basis should be handled according to the repair service list already approved by the Trustees.

Non-emergency items of concern and repair should be brought for consideration or action to the Trustees at a regular or special meeting.

If unclear situations arise, the Book of Discipline and the latest Journal and Year Book of Northern Illinois Conference will be referenced.

The parsonage is to be inspected at least annually and at a time of each change of pastors to ascertain what items of routine maintenance and decorating need attention. The parsonage committee or trustees should plan and work to see that reasonable amounts are included in each annual budget to attend to these matters. An Annual Local Church Parsonage Report is to be made every year at the charge conference and submitted to the district superintendent.

The Trustees are responsible for insuring the basic parsonage structure and church owned contents for fire, earthquake, accident, weather conditions, flood and other external causes. The pastor shall maintain a renter's insurance policy for personal liability, property liability, personal property, theft and other actions consistent with the form of insurance. To the extent possible these policies should be coordinated through the individual broker and/or insurance company.

The following chart shows the standard parsonage equipment which churches are expected to furnish (Standing Rule IV-B-3 of Journal and Year Book.) Pastor may waive items to be furnished by initialing those. In addition, a time schedule will be agreed upon as to when the initialed items will be completed. This agreement is expected to be renewed every year.

703-03 LOCAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH BASIC POLICY STATEMENT ON SEXUAL AND GENDER HARASSMENT AND MISCONDUCT OF A SEXUAL NATURE

(Passed in Plenary, Second Consent Calendar, on Friday evening, June 7, 2002)

WHEREAS, it is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the individual church to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in matters of sexual misconduct by both laity and/or clergy,

WHEREAS, misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing,

WHEREAS, the Church needs to be a place where one is respected and free from any misconduct of sexual nature,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Sample local United Methodist Church Policy on Misconduct of a Sexual nature.

The _____ United Methodist Church affirms The 2000 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing. The 2000 Book of Discipline, 161F, all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual misconduct, including sexual abuse and sexual harassment, occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership or authority, including pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, lay member or other position of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, pastor, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (Book of Discipline 1611). It also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. This may also be the case with laity having leadership roles invested with authority or influence. Similarly, sexual and gender harassment are usually understood as exploitation of power relationships rather than as exclusively sexual or gender issues.

Sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission.

_____ United Methodist Church prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong, and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the _____ United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of these sins and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated mediation. In all other instances, the conduct must be reported immediately to at least one of these people: the chair or another member of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, the pastor, another UMC pastor, a district superintendent, or the Bishop. If the conduct involves a clergy person, it must be reported to the clergy person's supervisor, district superintendent or the Bishop. Furthermore, the provisions of Paragraph 359, 413 and Paragraphs 2701-2706 of the Book of Discipline (2000) shall determine the procedure. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Book of Discipline and this Policy, the former shall govern.

The _____ United Methodist Church will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to anyone of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations will be subject to discipline.

While the United Methodist Church cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information about the complaint only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Anyone who has any questions or concerns about this policy or the issues addressed is encouraged to air those questions or concerns to the PPRC or _____.

703-04 NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST BASIC POLICY STATEMENT ON SEXUAL AND GENDER HARASSMENT AND MISCONDUCT OF SEXUAL NATURE

(Passed in Plenary on Saturday afternoon, June 8, 2002)

WHEREAS, it is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in matters of sexual misconduct by both laity and/or clergy,

WHEREAS, Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church is incompatible with Biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing,

WHEREAS, the Church needs to be a place where one is respected and free from any misconduct of sexual nature,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Basic Policy of the Northern Illinois Conference on Misconduct of a Sexual Nature.

The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist denomination affirms The 2000 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing. The 2000 Book of Discipline, Par. 2702.3, also recognizes that sexual misconduct and sexual harassment may constitute chargeable offenses by lay person as well. In accordance with The 2000 Book of Discipline, 161F, all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual misconduct, including sexual abuse and sexual harassment, occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership or authority, including pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, lay member or other position of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, pastor, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (Book of Discipline 1611). It also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. This may also be the case with laity having leadership roles invested with authority or influence. Similarly, sexual and gender harassment are usually understood as exploitation of power relationship rather than as exclusively sexual or gender issues.

Sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission. Northern Illinois Annual Conference prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong, and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with The Book of Discipline. Further, the Northern Illinois Annual Conference bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of these sins and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated mediation. In all other instances, the conduct must be reported immediately to at least one of these people: the chair or another member of PPRC, the pastor, another UMC pastor, a district superintendent, or the Bishop. If the conduct involves a clergy person, it must be reported to the clergy person's supervisor, district superintendent, or the Bishop.

Furthermore, the provisions of Paragraph 359, 413 and Paragraphs 2701-2706 of the Book of Discipline (2000) shall determine the procedure. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Book of Discipline and this Policy the former shall govern.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to anyone of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations will be subject to discipline.

While the Northern Illinois Annual Conference cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information about the complaint only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Anyone who has any questions or concerns about this policy or the issues addressed is encouraged to air those questions or concerns to the Commission on Status and Role of Women.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference commits itself to:

- Seek justice in all cases of sexual misconduct;
- Emphasize reconciliation and resolution as the continuing goal of this process;
- Provide trained individuals to serve as advocates and/or support persons for all aggrieved parties including the complainant, respondent and congregation involved;
- Provide a program of ongoing education and training for local congregations on the nature and scope of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct;
- Provide series of ongoing training sessions for clergy, conference staff and volunteers which will promote proactive measures designed to lower the risk of sexual misconduct on the part of these individuals;
- The wide dissemination of this policy along with additional materials, which will aid in the understanding of the roles and process outlined in the Book of Discipline.

703-05 RACIAL HARASSMENT

(Passed as amended in Plenary on Saturday, November 15, 2003)

WHEREAS, harassment (for example race, color, national, cultural or ethnic origin) results in loss of self-esteem for the victim, and is a violation and breakdown in the sense of community within the church; and

WHEREAS, racial harassment is both a moral and ethical concern and illegal under state and federal law; and

WHEREAS, under our United Methodist Discipline, racial harassment is also a chargeable offense for both clergy and laity; and

WHEREAS, the policy and the procedures which follow are intended to insure that the churches and other agencies of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church have a clear understanding of the definition of racial harassment and of the fact that racial harassment, as well as other forms of harassment, are not permitted among us;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Basic Policy of the Northern Illinois Conference on Racial Harassment, including the additional advisory procedures designed to improve our ability to respond effectively to complaints of this nature.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to laity, clergy, and lay employees of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference for the prevention and remediation of racial harassment. The existence of a policy, including procedures for complaints, will act as a deterrent to inappropriate behavior.

THEOLOGICAL BASIS

"The first two chapters of the Book of Genesis describe the 'creative genius of God.' Psalm 24 'reaffirms the relationship between God and all of God's creatures and the divinity of God.' Yet, in spite of humanity's common legacy as God's descendants, we have consistently established differences among God's children because of race... [engaging] in verbal exchanges and behavioral demonstrations which have rejected the sacredness of all persons. When [a] prejudicial and/or racist attitude is expressed in a behavior that is focused specifically in the abuse, humiliations and defamation of persons because of their race or ethnicity, it has become racial harassment." (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: 2000, #157, "Racial Harassment," p. 393)

As we seek to dismantle the racism and cultural biases in our structure, policies, and practices, we will also continue to work to create an environment in which all people are respected and welcomed. "For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ." (I Corinthians 12:12) "If one member suffers, all suffer together with it, if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it." (I Corinthians 12:26)

DEFINITION

The General Conference of 1992 defines the following conditions as racial harassment:

1. Abusive and/or derogatory language that in a subtle or overt manner belittles, humiliates, impugns, or defames a person or a group of persons based on racial and ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics;
2. A behavior (individual, group, or institutional) which abuses, belittles, humiliates, defames, or demeans a person or a group of persons based on racial or ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics;
3. Documentation, printed or visual, which abuses, belittles, humiliates, defames, or demeans a person or a group of persons based on racial or ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics.

(The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: 2000, #157, "Racial Harassment," p. 393)

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will not tolerate any acts or communications that belittle, humiliate, impugn or defame an individual or group on the basis of his/her/their racial or ethnic traits, heritage, or characteristics. We prohibit behaviors that contribute to the creation of a racially hostile and offensive church or work environment marked by one or more characteristics of the definition quoted above. This environment is manifested when words or actions directed toward a group, or an individual of a particular race or ethnic origin, are unwelcome and seriously and pervasively abusive, belittling, humiliating, defamatory or demeaning to the victims.

These prohibitions against racial harassment apply to any person within the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, whether laity, clergy, or staff. The offended person may be another individual in the church, a recipient of the church's services, a staff member, or a community member. The prohibitions may apply at any place or time.

While all persons are expected to take part in maintaining an environment safe and free from racial harassment, each supervisor, pastor, and congregational leader is responsible for taking steps to create such an environment. This responsibility is also intended to cover any racial harassment complaints lodged against third-party providers of services to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference or individuals involved in business relationships with the Conference. Those who have knowledge of incidents involving substantiated racial harassment and fail to respond appropriately also are in violation of this policy.

PROCEDURES

- I. In any event, the procedures outlined in 359 and 2702, number 1 (clergy) and 2703, number 3 (laity) of the 2000 Book of Discipline, and other relevant sections, may be pursued by either of the parties. The following procedures are supplementary in nature and do not, in any way, supercede the tenets of the Book of Discipline. In the event of any inconsistency, the Book of Discipline shall govern.]
- II. If you are racially harassed:
  - a. State firmly and clearly to the harasser that this behavior is unwelcome and you want it to stop. It may be helpful to take another person with you for support. This action, in some cases will resolve the issue.
  - b. Keep a journal which documents all incidents of suspected racial harassment including dates, times, and descriptions of the incidents. Record the names of any witnesses to the harassment. Keep copies of all written materials you complete in reference to the harassment. If you receive any written letters, cards, or memos of a harassing nature, keep them and note the date and how the material was received (mailed to your home, left on your desk, etc.)
  - c. If the issue cannot be resolved through personal confrontation, you may: (1) inform your Staff-Parish Relations Committee, your pastor, the District Superintendent, your immediate supervisor, or other such person or group as may be appropriate in the particular case at hand. Keep copies of all correspondence. Remember that the church supports an environment free from racial antagonism and that the above named persons are committed to helping you; (2) present your situation to the Chairperson of the Committee on Religion and Race of the Northern Illinois Conference.

- III. If you are accused of racial harassment:
  - a. Try talking with the individual who is making the complaint against you with the permission of him or her directly or through a third party. Try to reach a solution. Document the agreement and actions taken.
  - b. If the issue cannot be resolved through personal dialogue, you may: (1) inform one of the above named persons or groups depending on which is appropriate; (2) present the situation to the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race.
- IV. If racial harassment is reported to you:
  - a. Listen objectively and take it seriously.
  - b. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.
- V. Any incident of racial harassment experienced, perpetrated, or observed is to be reported to the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race. This policy is designed to be correctional rather than punitive.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the annual conference adopt the policy set forth above.
2. That a Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team be formed. (Some ideas/possibilities for the Team's purpose are: conduct anti-racism training events, disseminate the conference policy, and provide intervention.)
3. That the current members of the Commission on Religion and Race serve as the Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team.
4. That the Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team shall be the leadership entity under this policy, but its role is consultative and facilitative rather than judicial. Any matter involving a formal complaint or a chargeable offense shall be exclusively the province of responsible church authorities under the Judicial Administration and fair process provisions of the Book of Discipline.
5. That the Bishop appoint additional members to the Team in consultation with groups in the conference which deal with issues of racial justice.
6. That the Cabinet of Northern Illinois Conference plans, develops, and implements a program designed to address issues of race and racism in local congregations where cross-racial appointments are situated; this program should assist clergy, lay leadership, and congregations as they create supportive and healthy settings in which ministry can thrive.
7. That this policy be made available in the Korean and Spanish and other significant language groups represented in the Conference.

703-06 CHILD AND YOUTH ABUSE AND PREVENTION POLICY

(Passed on Second Consent Calendar in Plenary on June 9, 2005)

Introduction

WHEREAS, the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. In April, 1996, adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of child sexual abuse in the church. The adopted resolution includes the following statement:

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child... welcomes me." (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matthew 18:6). Our Christian faith calls us to offer both hospitality and protection to the little ones, the children. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that "...children must be protected from economic, physical, and sexual exploitation, and abuse."

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children. Child sexual abuse, exploitation and ritual abuse (ritual abuse refers to abusive acts committed as part of ceremonies or rites; ritual abusers are often related to cults, or pretend to be) occur in churches, both large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing. Most annual conferences can cite specific incidents of child sexual abuse and exploitation in their churches. Virtually every congregation has among its members adult survivors of early sexual trauma.

Such incidents are devastating to all who are involved: the children, the family, the local church and its leaders. Increasingly, churches are torn apart by legal, emotional, and monetary consequences of litigation following allegations of abuse.

God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong.

Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church 1996, pages 384-386

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church adopts this policy for the prevention of child abuse in our conference ministries:

Purpose

Our Conference's purpose for establishing this Child and Youth Protection Policy is to demonstrate our absolute and unwavering commitment to the physical safety and spiritual growth of all our children and youth, and to reduce the risk of abuse occurring in our conference ministries.

Statement of Covenant

As a Christian community of faith, and an Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all our children and youth, as well as the safety and spiritual growth of those person who work with children and youth.

- We follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers.
- We implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events.
- We educate our workers with children and youth regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods, including first aid and methods of discipline.
- We have clearly defined procedures for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of the laws of the State of Illinois. Our volunteers and paid staff are instructed to report all suspected incidents of abuse.
- We prepare to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.
- We inform parents of our policies, provide training for our workers with children and youth, and provide forums for learning concerning these issues for our congregations, our clergy, our conference level staff, our local church staffs, and the public.

Conclusion

In all our ministries with children and youth, the Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ through the provision of safe and sacred places where children and youth may learn and grow in faith.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Children's Ministry Council and the Conference Safe Sanctuaries Task Force develop appropriate procedures concerning the following areas:

- Response of teachers, leaders, or other child and/or youth workers who witness or suspect an incident of child abuse
- Primary response to an allegation of child abuse
- Confidentiality
- Safety procedures
- Interim amending of the policy

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Children's Ministry Council and the Conference Safe sanctuaries Task Force submit the procedures to the 2006 session of the Annual Conference for the purpose of perfecting and adopting the procedures.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all conference level events offering child care between this session of the Annual Conference and the 2006 session of the Annual Conference work in consultation with the Conference

Children's Ministry Council and the Conference Safe Sanctuaries Task Force in providing appropriate care for the safety of children and youth entrusted to their supervision in child care settings.

THEREFORE, BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that all conference level events working with children and youth (beyond the provision of child care) meet the requirement for child and youth workers and the safety procedures presently in place and used by the Northern Illinois Conference Office of Outdoor and Retreat Ministries.

When in accordance with the then current Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), a local church is discontinued or abandoned and the property of said local church becomes the property of the Annual Conference, such local church shall be incorporated under the provisions of Sections 46a to 46k of the Illinois Religious Corporation Act [805 ILCS 110/46a-46k] with the Annual Conference Board of Trustees as the trustees of the newly formed corporation.

Section 2. Said newly formed corporation shall exist for the sole purposes of being the legal entity to dispose of its existing property, and any other property to which its predecessor religious corporation may become entitled, as the rightful successor to any gift and/or bequest or other transfer made to such discontinued church.

Section 3. All proceeds of property sales and all gifts and/or bequests received by a corporation established under the provisions of this Article shall remain the property of the Annual Conference in accordance with the Discipline.

Article VIII Contracts, Checks, Deposits and Fund

Contracts: The Board of Trustees may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these by-laws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts, etc.: All checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Annual Conference in session or acting through its Council on Finance and Administration.

Section 3. Deposits: All funds of the corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Annual Conference in session or its Council on Finance and Administration may select.

Section 4. Gifts: The Board of Trustees may accept on behalf of the corporation any contribution, gift, bequest, trust or devise for the general purposes or for any special purpose of the corporation.

Article IX Books and Records

The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its meetings, those of the Board of Trustees and agencies having any of the authority of the Board of Trustees and shall keep at the registered or principal office a record giving the names and addresses of the members entitled to vote. All books and records of the corporation may be inspected by any member or the member's agent or attorney for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

Article X Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December in each year.

Article XI Seal

The Conference shall provide a corporate seal, which shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation and the words "Corporate Seal."

Article XII Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Illinois General Not-for-Profit Corporation Act or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Article XIII Amendments to By-Laws

These by-laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted by a majority of the members present at any regular or duly called special session of the Annual Conference.

Article XIV Compliance with Constitution and Discipline

Section 1. Corporate Term: The term "Annual Conference" as used in these by-laws and in the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the term "corporation" as used in these by-laws shall be synonymous and understood to refer to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, a general not-for-profit corporation of the State of Illinois.

Section 2. Limitation on By-Laws: In the event any provision of these by-laws shall not be in compliance with the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the provisions of the Discipline shall prevail, to the extent consistent with the law of Illinois, and this document shall be considered as amended from time to time where necessary for compliance with the Discipline.

Article XV Corporate Limitations

This corporation shall be responsible for the authorized acts of the corporate officers and agents and the authorized activities of conference agencies shall be deemed to be the acts of the corporation. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any local Charge, or any board, committee, council or agency affiliated with a local Charge, or any separate related religious or non-profit institution, or any trustee, officer or agent thereof, to contract for or in any way bind the corporation or render it liable for any act or omission of such Charge, board, committee, council, agency or institution

Article XVI Incorporated Conference-Related and Affiliated Institutions

A number of religious, educational and non-profit incorporated institutions participate directly or indirectly in the work and service of The United Methodist Church within the boundaries of the Annual Conference and are related in varying degrees to the Annual Conference, some being under the control thereof and others being autonomous while in close consultative and connectional relation. Their respective relationships to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference shall be as set forth in their articles of incorporation, by-laws and applicable provisions of the Discipline. All such incorporated institutions shall be solely responsible for their own acts, omissions, contracts and undertakings.

The nomination and election of the directors or trustees of said incorporated related and affiliated institutions shall be as provided in their respective articles of incorporation and by-laws as well as by the Discipline.

Article XVII Standing Rules

The Standing Rules of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, as from time to time amended, shall have the status and constitute a part of the by-laws of the conference; provided, however, such Standing Rules shall be consistent with the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the laws of Illinois.

Article XVIII Indemnification of Officers, Directors, Trustees and Key Staff

The corporation shall indemnify any and all persons who may serve or who have served at any time as officers, directors, trustees or staff (excluding general office, clerical or stenographic employees) of (1) the Corporation, Northern Illinois Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church; (2) the District Superintendents of said Conference; (3) The Methodist Ministers' Pension Fund; (4) the United Methodist Foundation; (5) the Chicago Home Missionary and Church Extension Society; (6) the Board of Global Ministries; (7) the Council on Finance and Administration; and the respective heirs, executors and administrators of such indemnified persons against any and all expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by them in connection with the defense or settlement of any action, suit or proceeding in which they, or any of them, are made parties, or a party, by reason of being or having been directors, officers, trustees or staff members of the corporation or the other associated entities described above. The corporation also shall indemnify any of the foregoing for damages, fines, judgments, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, and appeals therefrom, except in relation to matters as to which any such officer, director, trustee or key staff member shall be adjudged in any action, suit or proceeding to be liable for willful misconduct in the performance of duties, such officer, director, trustee or staff member shall reimburse the corporation for all attorney's fees and costs expended by it, or which it has been obligated to spend, as a part of the defense of such officer, director, trustee, or key staff member. Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the person has met the applicable standard of conduct and that indemnification is otherwise lawful and proper. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Trustees of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference (hereinafter called "the Board") by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of members not parties to such claim, action, suit or proceedings, or, if such a quorum cannot be convened, or even if convened, cannot or does not act for any reason, by special independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

The Board may authorize and direct that insurance be purchased and maintained on behalf of any person who is, was, or may be entitled to be indemnified hereunder against any liability asserted against and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of status as such, whether or not the institution would provide indemnity against such liability under the provisions hereof.

William Bailey
1931-January 12, 2016

William (Bill) Bailey completed his life peacefully on Thursday morning, January 12, 2017 in the darkness that comes just before dawn at Deerfield Retirement Community in Asheville, NC. His childhood sweetheart and wife of nearly 68 years, Marianna Hines Bailey, and his youngest daughter, Nan Parker Bailey sat watch by his side. Gazing out the window at a still bright and shining full moon, Marianna whispered to Bill that it was ok for him to go home and he gave her a slight smile. Marianna and Nan played 'Won't you come home Bill Bailey?' on his iPod, gently singing along. And it was then that he took his last breath.

Growing up, Bill was well covered on religion. After he was six years old, Bill went with his grandpa Bailey to Catholic Church on Wednesday night, and then to Baptist Church with his grandpa Monday. With his grandma Bailey, he attended the Episcopal church on Sunday. He went to the Methodist church to meet girls; Marianna was a Methodist and at the Methodist church he met his love for life.

Bill and Marianna were high school sweethearts. They were married April 30, 1949. Memorable because Marianna was 16 and Bill was 17 – both underage to marry in North Carolina, so they eloped to Spartanburg, SC under the cover of attending a football game, with forged birth certificates. When a telegram came through post-nuptials questioning their birthdates, a loyal friend who received the telegram confirmed the forged dates and held the secret of their marriage. Bill and Marianna kept their secret for months.

During high school in 1949, Bill was an NC 1st All-State football star, won two MVP awards, and received a scholarship to Duke University. As a couple, they stayed in the family duplexes and Marianna cared for their first child, Thomas William Bailey born April 26, 1951. After a significant hip injury, a physician sidelined Bill, ending his college football career, forcing Bill to focus on being a full-time student. While at Duke, his second child and first daughter, Lynn Hines Bailey (now Brailsford) was born August 17, 1953. Bill decided to major in religion and it was here that he met Dr. Edmund Perry, Professor of Religion at Duke University and eventually Chair of the Religious Studies Department at Northwestern University in Evanston, IL. Dr. Perry became a very important mentor and guide, playing a pivotal role throughout the rest of Bill and Marianna's lives as they sought purpose and direction.

In 1993, Bill received an appointment to Crete UMC, in Crete, IL where he continued to bring his community building passion and was there when the congregation broke ground for a new sanctuary.

In 1997, Bill retired from the United Methodist Church in Crete, IL and Bill and Marianna moved to Asheville, NC. They worked as a missional team throughout their lives and continued to do so in Asheville. Through their words and actions, they inspired and taught people throughout the Western North Carolina region how to honor others, build consensus, and collaborate more effectively, even during disagreements. Most notable was their leadership in multiple community and neighborhood visioning, planning and organizing efforts that, despite early contention and conflicts, remain viable and sustainable many years later.

We will remember him for his spirit of giving, helping and lifting others up. His bright and shining light will live on through our memories of him. We love you and will miss you. You are in our hearts forever.

received a Bachelor Degree from Dakota Wesleyan University and a Master's Degree from Garrett Theological Seminary; and for 26 years, he served as a United Methodist Church minister. His ministry led them to make many communities in southeastern South Dakota and northern Illinois home. Roger and Lorraine lived in rural Galena prior to coming to Mt. Morris 18 years ago.

All who knew him will remember he was a true "Jack of All Trades". He was passionate about cars and engines all of his life. He rebuilt countless cars, trucks, engines, and many, many pieces of equipment of all shapes and sizes. He loved camping and fishing and loved the outdoors. Gregory Robert Dell
December 28, 1945- October 30, 2016

Gregory Robert Dell was born in Blue Island, Illinois, a southwest suburb of Chicago on December 28, 1945, to Anthony Dell, a railroad worker and police officer and Jeannette Bingham Dell, a church secretary.

Greg was a Boy Scout and spent many summers as a counselor, swimming coach and sailing teacher at a Boy Scout camp in Benton Harbor, Michigan. He achieved the highest rank of Eagle Scout, and always said that he would either be a professional Scout or a Pastor. The Dell family attended the Midlothian United Methodist Church beginning in the early 1960s, where the Pastor Donnell Jenkins preached about racism and the importance of fighting for social justice. Greg was an active member of Midlothian UMC. Against his parents' wishes, Greg and his best friend from high school marched with Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King in Berwyn, Illinois. King was fighting for housing equality in the North. Greg remembered being spit upon and screamed at by angry white mobs along the street.

In 1963, Greg left home to attend Illinois Wesleyan University on a theological scholarship, becoming the first person in his extended family to attend college. He met spouse, Jade Luerksen, on the very first day of classes. Greg graduated in 1967, cum laude with a BA in Religion-Philosophy and moved to Durham, North Carolina to attend the Divinity School at Duke University. During his graduate studies, Greg was nearly kicked out for organizing a service in the Duke Chapel following Dr. King's assassination in 1968. Greg graduated, magna cum laude, with an MDiv in 1970.

Greg returned to Illinois to serve the Community United Methodist Church in Naperville, Illinois. He was ordained elder in 1970 and became a member of the Northern Illinois Conference. In 1971, Jade and Greg's son Jason was born in Hinsdale, Illinois at the closest hospital that would allow fathers to be present in the delivery room.

In 1973, Greg was appointed to the Minooka United Methodist Church, a very active, small rural congregation. On Tuesday mornings, he could be found sitting with the older women who met to weave rag rugs for missions. They always fed him pie. In 1977, Greg traveled to Cuba and learned about the challenges and successes of the Castro government first-hand. When he returned, he developed a slideshow program that painted a very different picture of Cuban life from what American newspapers were reporting.

In 1978, Greg was appointed to Wheadon United Methodist Church in Evanston. In 1980, Greg was invited to travel to Iran with a diverse delegation of 50 Americans during the Hostage Crisis. He was included in the group of 12 who met directly with the hostages, and he brought home letters and delivered them to families who lived in Illinois. Ed Bradley from "60 Minutes" came to the Evanston parsonage living room to do an interview with Greg the day after he got back.

In 1983, the Wheadon congregation voted to become a Public Sanctuary Church for refugees from Central America. The church illegally harbored 3 men from El Salvador and Guatemala who had fled repressive regimes supported by the U.S. government. Later, Wheadon became one of the first Nuclear Weapon Free Zones, and eventually also voted to become a Reconciling Congregation, welcoming gay and lesbian people into the full life and ministry of the church. Greg conducted his first Holy Union service at Wheadon.

In 1985, Greg was appointed to Euclid Avenue United Methodist Church in Oak Park, Illinois. During Greg's pastoral appointment, Euclid adopted an Inclusive Language Policy, became a Reconciling Congregation, and was one of the initiating congregations in the area's first homeless shelter program (Tri-Village PADS, now called "Housing Forward"). In 1987, Greg, Jade, and Jason traveled to Nicaragua during the U.S.-funded Contra war. They made presentations all over Northern Illinois, sharing with local churches and communities what they had witnessed of the Revolution in Nicaragua.

Greg made other international fact finding trips to China, Israel, the West Bank, Lebanon and Jordan. He was also arrested multiple times for acts of civil disobedience, protesting wars in Central America, the Apartheid Regime in South Africa, and the anti-LGBTQ policies of the United Methodist Church.

In 1995, Greg was called to Broadway United Methodist Church in Chicago, a lively congregation in Lakeview, also known then as “Boys’ Town,” where about 30% of the congregation was gay or lesbian. In 1999, Greg faced an ecclesiastical trial for violating the United Methodist prohibition against conducting services of Holy Union for same sex couples. He was found guilty of “Disobedience to the Order and Discipline of the United Methodist Church” and suspended indefinitely from Pastoral Office. He was told that the suspension would end when he promised not to perform any more such services. Greg, in conversation with Jade, steadfastly refused to do so. On appeal, the suspension was amended to one year, and he returned to Broadway UMC for six more years.
