THE MISSION OF OUR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

“The purpose of the Annual Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God”
(The United Methodist Book of Discipline, ¶ 601).

THE VISION OF OUR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

CORE VALUES

In responding together to God’s call for our Annual Conference, we desire a culture that values:

- Focus on mission
- Evaluation, accountability, and support for growth
- Experimentation and risk-taking (with room for failure) for the purpose of learning
- Transparency
- Honesty and graciousness with each other
- Safe spaces for sharing
- Relationship-building
- Provision of resources/services closer to the local church
- Fostering and celebrating diversity (as a conference, in our community and in the world)

2020 ANNUAL CONFERENCE PRIORITIZED GOALS

Goal 1: To Grow and Reach New Disciples of Jesus Christ

Goal 2: To Live Out the Conviction that Racism is Incompatible with Christian Teaching

Goal 3: To Increase the Number of Highly Vital Congregations

Approved at 2019 Annual Conference

Note from the Annual Conference Secretary:

'I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord.' Psalm 122:1 KJV

It was indeed a glad and glorious event, after the years of Covid-19 with Zoom meetings and computer-conferences, to be gathered together as the living, representative body of Christ for the 183rd Annual Conference of the Northern Illinois United Methodist Church. We gathered together, laity and clergy, masked and unmasked, to hear the preaching of the Word and the inspiring special music, to sing together in raised voices the songs of His Kingdom, to pray together for the works of healing, reconciliation, and Kingdom Building, all to do the work of the Annual Conference. It seems that our inability to meet together in person because of the pandemic, made this, our first post-pandemic Annual Conference, all the more special and blessed as we were able to put living presence to the faces we had only been able to see as tiny squares on a computer screen. The Holy Spirit was surely quickened by our joy in meeting together again in person.

A special thanks goes to all the many people who labored in their individual churches and committees to complete the various reports contained in this journal. We as a denomination are dependent upon them so that we have accurate information on which we make informed decisions. Additional thanks goes to all those who worked arranging and organizing all the events associated with the annual conference. And a special work of thanks goes to the assistant Conference Secretaries: Rev. Megan Smick, Rev. Paul Lee, Rev. Tammy Scott; Rev. Marcia Petticord, and Debra Rogers who took daily minutes to make this journal complete. Finally, the most special thanks to Lisa Smith who makes all the reports, comments, photographs, graphs and tables into the form before your eyes to make this journal possible.

Please note, that while the production of the journal attempts to accurately represent the Annual Conference proceedings, there is always the possibility of human error. If in perusing these pages errors are encountered, please forgive them. If anything needs to be corrected, please call the error(s) to my attention,

NORTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE OF
ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-THIRD SESSION
BEGINNING WITH CLERGY SESSION
TUESDAY, MAY 24, 2022
THROUGH ORDINATION
FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 2022

In light of the COVID-19 Pandemic, the Annual Conference Committee made the safety and well-being of the members, staff, volunteers, and visitors the single most important priority. Vaccinations were required for attendees and visitors. A masked section was in place for those who requested it (about 1/2 the group). In addition, there was no on-site registration, more spacing between tables and attendees, shorter plenary sessions, longer breaks, minimal on-site meals/food provided and no childcare offered. The mantra followed was "Do No Harm."

CLERGY SESSION
Tuesday, May 24, 2022, 1:30 pm
NEW LENOX UMC, New Lenox, Ill.

Note Taker: Randy Hayes, Conference Secretary

CALL TO ORDER

At 1:30 pm, May 24, 2022, Bishop John L. Hopkins called the 2022 Northern Illinois Conference Clergy Session to order. Rev. Mark Meyers, pastor of the New Lenox United Methodist Church, New Lenox, Illinois, the Annual Conference Clergy Session site, brought words of welcome to all in attendance.

SEATING OF DESIGNATED LAITY & CLARIFICATION OF VOTING.

Rev. Mark Meyers made the following motion: Bishop, I move that the laypersons, local Pastors, and associate members of the annual conference who are members of the Northern Illinois Conference Board of Ordained Ministry be seated within the Clergy Session with voting privileges. And that the following Annual Conference staff persons be allowed to be present during the 2022 Clergy Session:

Marva Andrews – Bishop's Administrative Assistant
 Anne Marie Gerhardt - Director of Communications
 Lisa Smith – Communications Specialist
 Randy Hayes – Conference Secretary

Bishop Hopkins called for the question, and the motion was approved by hand vote at 1:32 pm.

Rev. Meyers then gave the following reminder to all persons gathered: You can vote at Clergy Session "on matters of ordination, character and conference relations of other clergy" if:

- You are a clergy member in full connection;
- Or you are a member of the Board of Ordained Ministry

You cannot vote at Clergy Session if you are a:

- Provisional Member
- Associate and Affiliate Clergy Member
- Full-time and Part-time Local Pastor
- Clergy Members of another annual conference or other Methodist denominations (346.1)
- Clergy from other denominations (346.2)
- Laity

Following this reminder, Bishop Hopkins introduced Annual Conference Secretary, Randy Hayes, to the gathered body.

BISHOP'S REFLECTIONS

Bishop Hopkins' reflections for the clergy session were centered on the symbolism of the passing of the mantle, as the Apostle Paul had passed the mantle on to Timothy. He suggested that perhaps retiring clergy should write a similar letter to the new clergy being Ordained. He reminded the retiring clergy that their ministry was not over, they would simply be meeting new people who didn't know that they were a pastor (or a Bishop). Welcoming the new clergy to be ordained to the covenant community, Bishop Hopkins pointed out that the church was not a voluntary association, reminding them that they must be voted out to leave. Expanding on this, he explained that when a clergy person receives a license, that license does not belong to them, it is bestowed upon them adding that "It is a yoke you wear between the church and you." Bishop Hopkins then urged all the gathered Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors to continue to mentor the new persons in their work and to encourage one another.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT

At 1:40 pm, Bishop Hopkins thanked the Rev. Arlene Christopherson and the NIC staff for their work in bringing the Clergy Session together and then called upon the Rev. Mark Meyers to bring the Board of Ordained Ministry report.

Rev. Meyers talked about the responsibility of clergy to help bring justice and peace, healing, and reconciliation to our society. He shared that to help with the Conference Goal stating that "Racism is incompatible with Christian teaching", the Anti-Racism Task Force (ARFT) created several learning paths to help local churches become aware of racism in our lives and work, in order to dismantle systemic racism. In response to legislation passed in 2021, the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM) will offer training options and resources to clergy to meet the quadrennial requirement for training. The options are:

- Clergy Peer Reflection and Engagement Series (CPRES)
- Crossroads Antiracism Organizing and Training (CROAR)
- Becoming the Beloved Community: What the Lord Requires of Us
- The General Commission on Religion and Racism (GCORR) opportunities
- The Black Healing Collective (BHC)

MORAL AND OFFICIAL CONDUCT OF ALL ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTORS

At 1:47 pm, Bishop Hopkins introduced and called upon Dean of the NIC Cabinet, Rev. Jeffrey Bross, to bring the report on the Moral and Official Conduct of All Ordained Clergy and Ordained Pastors. Rev. Bross reported that there were no active charges against any NIC clergy. He emphasized the need for ongoing training for clergy and volunteers to protect vulnerable persons and to keep our insurance rates within reasonable limits. He added that as covenanting clergy persons, it is important to do this work so that “we do no harm.” Rev. Bross thanked all for going through the clergy training. He encouraged the body to continue to hold each other accountable so that we are not only healthier persons but that we are a healthier connection.

Bishop Hopkins called upon Rev. Christopherson to escort the candidates outside to allow for discussion. He reflected that as he talked to these candidates the previous day, he had told them that one of the most important questions that they need to consider is “Under whose authority are you going to be a minister?” He said that they all know the answer: “In the United Methodist Church, it is through the Holy Spirit of God through His love in Jesus Christ and certified by the Board of Ordained Ministry in a Clergy Session and appointed by the Bishop.” There being no further discussion, the vote was called.

By hand vote, all candidates were approved and then brought back before the assembled body.

PLENARY SESSION 1 June 8, 2022 3:30 pm

CALL TO ORDER

Bishop John L. Hopkins called the meeting to order at 3:30 pm.

He expressed appreciation to the people who participated and led the Memorial Service which had preceded the opening of the Annual Conference. There were introductions. The Bishop noted that historically the Annual Conference was a time to hear and discuss what had been occurring with the pastors and in the local churches, not just a time to hear from agencies, and discuss Conference budget and programs. He advised people to talk to others about what is going on in their local church.

ORGANIZING MOTIONS:

Bishop Hopkins introduced the chair of the Annual Conference Committee, Deborah Dangerfield to present the organizing Motions.

Motion One: Bishop Hopkins, I move that the agenda for this session be the agenda printed in the booklet we received at registration, and the registration list be the roll call for the Northern Illinois Annual Conference session, and that The Standing Rules as printed in the 2021 Northern Illinois Annual Conference Journal be the Standing rules for this session of the Annual Conference.

This motion, coming from a committee, did not require a second. Bishop Hopkins asked for questions and hearing none called for a voice vote. The motion was approved with 100% yes votes and 0% no votes.

Motion Two: Bishop Hopkins, I move that members of The Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA), The Conference Board of Trustees, who are not already members of the Annual Conference, the Conference staff, persons who are present in relationship to the documents before us and all other persons, certified by the Credentials Committee who are not otherwise voting members, be given the right of voice for this session of Annual Conference.

This motion, coming from a committee, did not require a second. Bishop Hopkins asked for questions and hearing none called for a voice vote. The motion was approved with 100% yes votes and 0% no votes.

Motion Three VOTING BAR: Bishop Hopkins, I move that: The plenty floor for the session of Annual Conference be Adventure Hall, including the platform on which we currently stand, excluding the seats at the back of the hall designated for guests and visitors, and that the plenary floor as just defined, be the voting bar for the conference.

This motion, coming from a committee, did not require a second. Bishop Hopkins asked for questions and hearing none called for a voice vote. The motion was approved with 100% yes votes and 0% no votes.

Bishop Hopkins introduced Joanne Ray, vice chair of the Annual Conference Committee and Chair of Daily Proceedings to offer motions concerning the historic reports and the consent calendar.

Joanne Ray invited the members of Annual Conference to turn to the historical reports (numbered 400) which represent much of the work done in and through the conference in the 2021-2022 church year. She then moved acceptance of the Historical Reports.

This motion, coming from a committee, did not require a second. Bishop Hopkins asked for questions and hearing none called for a voice vote. The motion was approved with 100% yes votes and 0% no votes.

It should be noted that there were no late documents received.

MONITORING PROCESS

At 3:40 pm, Bishop Hopkins called upon the Conference Commission on Race and Religion co-chairs, Nadia Kanhai and Lennox Iton to discuss the Monitoring process, pointing out that the goal is for everyone to feel welcome and empowered to participate fully in each session. They were joined on the dias by Rev. Pamela Pirtle, who is on staff with the General Commission on Status and Role of Women.

TABLE TALK

At 3:54 pm, following the monitoring instructions, Bishop Hopkins called upon Elizabeth Gracie and Rev. Myron McCoy, co-chairs of the Shepherding Team, to lead the conference members in our first segment of "Table Talk," designed to assist participants to get to know each other and to share their faith stories, also billed as "less reporting and more conferencing." The Table Talk for this session centered around these questions: "Who are you and what brought you into the UMC? What experiences in your faith journey bring you joy."

Following the Table Talk session, Bishop Hopkins expressed his appreciation to the Shepherding Team Co-chairs and called upon Joanne Ray to bring some final instructions for the Legislative Sessions. Ms. Ray shared the logistics of the sections, the time frame, and the process of building a consent calendar. She also explained the process for lifting documents from the consent calendar including the requirement for 25 signatures to lift. She explained that a list of legislation voted to be included in the Consent Calendar would be on the tables by 8:30 am Thursday morning. Ms. Ray also gave the room assignments for each of the five Legislative Sections.

Bishop Hopkins then recognized the Rev. Jim Bell who put forth a question of law inquiring as to the power of the Annual Conference Committee to require the submission of proof of COVID-19 vaccinations for Annual Conference attendance and excluding people who did not have this proof, citing The Book of Discipline paragraph 608. Bishop Hopkins thanked Rev. Bell for his question and indicated it was more properly a question of parliamentary procedure indicating the Annual Conference Committee had decided that the best thing for this Conference to do was to have some provisions by which everybody could be represented, adding that this is why we had both masked and unmasked sections and asked people to have vaccination cards. Bishop Hopkins indicated that the concern would be recorded. (No written request for a Ruling of Law was submitted by the end of the annual conference session therefore the bishop was unable to provide a formal ruling.)

At 4:25 pm, Bishop Hopkins called upon Erica McIntosh to offer the prayer for dinner and our evening activities. Randy Hayes gave the announcements.

This session was adjourned following the prayer at 4:39 pm.

Bishop Hopkins called the session to order at 8:37 am.

CONSENT CALENDAR

Joanne Ray presented the Consent Calendar. She explained that copies of the calendar are on each table, projected onto the screens within the meeting site, and posted on the conference web site. She explained that, per the Standing Rules, this report must be in front of the assembled body for no less than two hours. She also explained that all but two of the pieces of legislation had been approved for concurrence, with the remaining two pieces being non-concurrence. She then explained the process for lifting from the Consent Calendar, indicating that the forms were to be found at table 51. Lifting requires 25 signatures.

There was a question from the floor regarding 700.08 (Name: Identifying and Opposing Apartheid in the Holy Land), questioning whether this should have been placed on the consent calendar since it did not receive 80% of the votes. It was clarified that this is correct, that it should not have been on the consent calendar. It was also clarified, following a point of order called by Joe Johnson, that abstentions should not count as a no vote.

It should be noted that because this piece of legislation (700.08) failed to receive 80%, it would have become the work of the body but before discussion occurred the author of the resolution moved to withdraw it (See Plenary Session 4.)

Bishop Hopkins thanked Ms. Ray and her team for their work in preparing for annual conference and adjourned the session at 8:42 am for the Retirement Service.

RETIREMENT SERVICE June 9, 2022 8:45 am

The Retirement Service for the 2022 Northern Illinois Annual Conference opened with the Annual conference song, “Come to the Water”.

3. How have you connected with Christ during your ministry particularly during the pandemic?
4. Give an example of how you have included the connection of water to Christ in your ministry?

Bishop Hopkins then brought the Episcopal Address, asking if we are ready for a “spiritual awakening.” Following the Episcopal Address the members of the Annual Conference sang “Shine Jesus Shine”

BOARD OF PENSIONS

At 11:30 am, Rev. Katherine Paisley presented a video on the work of the Board of Pensions. She also reported on a new initiative, “You Make A Difference.” The purpose of this initiative is to gather stories of who was ‘a difference maker’ for you. She urged the group to honor someone with a story and to honor someone with a donation.

At 11:40 am, Bishop Hopkins recessed the Annual Conference and reconvened the assembled group for the Annual Meeting of the United Methodist Foundation.

THE UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION 2022 ANNUAL MEETING

CEO Rev. Chris Walters and Board Chair George Gill presented information regarding the Foundation. Mr. Gill discussed the mission of the UMF Board: To encourage lifelong generosity with God’s abundance to multiply resources for ministry in the name of Jesus Christ. He also discussed the Annual Conference’s responsibility to approve nominees to serve on UM Foundation. Lisa Butler was placed before the body, for the class of 2030. At 11:46 am, a vote was put to the floor of the conference to elect Lisa Butler to serve until 2030 on the Board of Directors of the NIC UM Foundation. Conference approved the motion with applause.

At 11:47 am, the UM Foundation Board members present were introduced. This was followed with information about investment services through UM Foundation. Current assets under management as of 4/3/2022 are $88.5M. A chart was shared showing long term investment performance for: Aggressive, Moderate, and Conservative Funds. Investments are the same, but proportions of stocks and bonds vary depending on risk level.

At 11:52 am, Rev. Chris Walters reviewed some of the programs which the foundation makes possible, including: Notes for Rest, Julian Davis Reid; Bonnie Marden – Cultivating the Craft of Asking; and Rebecca Simon-Peter – Surviving to Thriving. Rev. Walters also explained that there is a Grant Ministry through the foundation. In 2021 grants totaling $41,000 were awarded to 21 churches and organizations. He emphasized that the application process for 2022 begins next week and are due September 15, 2022. Rev. Walters discussed the following: Four scholarships of $2,500 given to Uplifting Young Methodists “UYMS”; Supporting Field Education for students placed outside of the local church; and Mildred’s Stories: stories that can be used in the local church to help churches begin conversation about what it means to “be church” from a personal perspective.

At 11:58 am, Bishop Hopkins reconvened the Annual Conference Session. It was announced that the offering for the Bishop’s Appeal for Ukraine would be taken after the afternoon break.

Rev. Jacques Conway asked that we recognize Caroline Cook for 42 years of service on the UM Foundation. Randy Hayes gave the announcements. Rev. Brittany Isaac closed Session Three with prayer.

PLENARY SESSION 4 June 9, 2022 1:35 pm

Bishop Hopkins called the fourth plenary session to order at 1:35 pm and asked the Rev. Luis Reyes-Rosario to open the session with prayer.

BIBLE STUDY WITH REV. JANE EESLEY

Following the prayer, Bishop Hopkins introduced the Rev. Jane Eesley to bring the 1st session of a Bible Study entitled “The Spirit Pushes Boundaries: Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch in Acts 8:26-40.” Rev. Eesley brought up four questions in the text - Do you understand what you are reading? Without someone to guide me, how could I? About whom does the prophet say this? and What would keep me from being baptized? She focused on the first two questions during this study. There was also an overview of the characters in the story, and a bit of backstory on what happened before this interaction. The presentation included bit of table talk time to discuss the question - "Who has helped you understand the scriptures and the good news of Jesus?". Rev. Eesley ended by reminding us that the Holy Spirit invites humility and openness.

Following the Bible Study, at 2:10 pm, Bishop Hopkins invited Joanne Ray to come and to present a motion for approval of the consent calendar.

Bishop recognized Paula Roderick who identified herself as the author of resolution 700.08, 'Identifying and Opposing Apartheid in the Holy Land' which which did not make the consent calendar failing to receive 80% of the vote. She moved to withdraw her resolution, indicating that there were resources that were left out of the printed resolution which helped explained the resolution. The motion was seconded. Joanne Ray indicated that the motion should be to remove the petition from before the whole house, given this. Bishop Hopkins called for the vote to remove the petition from before the house. The vote was taken and Bishop Hopkins declared that the motion to withdraw was passed.

Joanne Ray then continued with the Consent Calendar indicating that she had received a petition to lift from the Consent Calendar: 700.12 (Elections for General Conference.) This leaves 16 concurrence documents and one non concurrence document.

Ms. Ray then moved to vote on the Consent Calendar as follows.

Chong came forward to greet the Annual Conference.

At 2:34 pm, Bishop Hopkins introduced a video report from the ACST - Discipleship Task Force in which the co-chair Karen Bonnell discussed the work of the task force. This was followed at 2:39 pm by a video report from the ACST-Anti-Racism Task Force in which Rev. Jarrod Severing and Nadia Kanhai presented the work of this task force. The Bishop thanked both the presenters and staff person Ann Marie Gerhardt for her work in preparing the videos.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION (CCFA)

At 2:45 pm, Bishop Hopkins called upon the Conference Committee on Finance and Administration (CCFA) to present their report. The following committee members participated in the presentation: Lonnie Chafin, Rev. Tammy Scott (chair), Rev. Lisa Kruse-Safford, Rev. Pamela Pirtle, and Rev. David Lagos-Fonseca.

Rev. Lisa Kruse-Safford discussed how apportionments make a difference in the world. She stated that they help to share a message that changes lives and that they help to raise up the next generation for the gospel. She added that there are some things we do better together and that apportionments are one of those things. She called upon the gathered body to make Christ known in transformative ways that reach all over the world.

Lonnie Chafin, Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, reported on apportionments. Displaying an Apportionment's Receipt History chart going back to 2012, he showed how we had achieved a great faithfulness. In 2021, we were able to pay 100 % of our apportionments, both locally and globally.

Committee member, Rev. Pamela Pirtle discussed specifically where our apportionments go (see 600.01 for details).

Rev. David Lagos-Fonseca invited us to celebrate that 100% of the NIC Apportionments in 2021 were received. Together we continue to offer Christ and ministry to the world. A list of the Local Churches who gave 100% of their apportionments in 2021 scrolled across the screen.

Rev. Lagos-Fonseca then introduced a GCFA video about the General Church Apportionments which featured Moses Kumar, General Secretary General Council on Finance and Administration.

CCFA Chair, Rev Tammy Scott then presented the 2023 budget (doc 600.01) for voting on Friday. She indicated that questions should be submitted to an online form and would be answered at tomorrow's presentation of the budget.

She indicated that $98,174.34 have been received to date and highlighting Peotone UMC which had given $20,000. She told the group that 1000 UM pastors have chosen to stay to serve those displaced and in need in Ukraine and that border countries are giving support to refugees. She announced that the District Superintendents would be taking up the collection on the way out of the convention center.

There being no announcements the Bishop recessed the session at 3:15 pm for 30 minutes.

PLENARY SESSION 5
June 9, 2022 3:45 pm

Bishop Hopkins called the 5th Session of the 2022 Annual Conference to order at 3:45 pm. He called upon Kathy Brock to bring the opening prayer.

GENERAL COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN (GCSRW)

Bishop Hopkins noted that this year marks the 50th Anniversary of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women. Their mission is to challenge the United Methodist Church for the full and equal participation of women in the total life of the church. As a connexional denomination we can do more together than we could ever do alone.

A video giving some of the history of the GCSRW was shown. Following this, Dawn Wiggins Hare, the General Secretary of GCSRW was introduced and brought greetings and thanks to the NIC Annual Conference. She pointed out that it was from a group of United Methodist women who met in 1971 in Evanston that the GCSRW was born out of the efforts of members of the NIC. Out of this Annual Conference the first office for GCSRW was established at Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary. Out of this Annual Conference was the first intern who became a Bishop, Bishop Sharon Raider. Out of this Annual Conference came the President of our agency, Bishop Tracy Smith Malone. Out of the nurturing of this conference came an incredible board member who serves with us now, who you ordained last year, Rev. Juyeon Jeon. And out of this conference, came one who is going to be ordained tomorrow, her colleague, the Senior Director of Leadership Development, the Rev. Pamela Pirtle. She challenged the body to look at their home church to be sure that there is full inclusion of women and equal pay for equal work.

LAITY ADDRESS

At 4:00 pm, Bishop Hopkins called upon Eugene Williams to bring the Laity address. Eugene introduced the other two conference co-lay leaders, Connie Augsburg and Mark Manzi, the District Lay Leaders and members by virtue of their office. Following this introduction, Mr. Williams delivered a moving Laity Address and called on us to re-dedicate ourselves to the work of Christ. He received a standing ovation following his address.

The Laity Address was followed by a video from United Voices for Children. Bishop Hopkins invited the Board members of UVC to stand to be recognized

At 4:30 pm, the second table talk was introduced by Rev. Myron McCoy and Elizabeth Gracie, co-chairs of the Annual Conference Shepherding Team. They gave the following instructions: Sit at your assigned table; visit the #BeUMC video booth; Share information with a new person at your table and commit to staying connected over the year; and return to your local church to create conversations and introduce others to #BeUMC.

The last table talk set of questions was to discuss Wesleyan personal and social holiness using one of the following questions: How do you cultivate personal holiness/ What do you do to tend to your social holiness? How do we grow our personal faith? How do we live out our faith/ How do we work on ourselves? How do we engage the world? How do we cultivate growth in our relationship with God and our neighbor?

HISTORIC QUESTIONS

Following the table talk, the ordination class was called forth for the Bishop to ask the Historic Questions. The class of Deacons and Elders was presented by Rev. Lynn Mikels, registrar for the Deacons and Rev. Mark Meyers, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Bishop Hopkins asked the assembled group the "Historic Questions." The class answered all the questions and Bishop Hopkins asked the assembled body to affirm them with applause.

Following announcements, Mark Manzi dismissed the group at 5:10 pm with prayer.

PLENARY SESSION 6 June 9, 2022, 7:00 pm

Bishop Hopkins called the evening session to order at 7:00 pm. He expressed appreciation to Rev. Addison Shields Jr. for the rousing rendition of "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" as we gathered. Rev. Tennille Power brought the evening prayer.

LEGISLATIVE WORK

Bishop Hopkins called upon Joanne Ray for the evening's schedule of legislative work.

Ms. Ray instructed the gathered group that there was one piece of lifted legislation: 700.12 Elections for General Conference. The legislation was projected on the Screen.

Ms. Ray moved 700.12 for approval. Bishop Hopkins recognized the Rev. Luis Reyes-Rosario who moved to amend the motion by inserting "if the Judicial Council rules in favor of the elections." This was seconded by Elisa Gatz. Rev. Brain Gilbert then moved to amend the amendment by adding the following "unless the Judicial Council required the 2020 delegation to be seated." This was seconded by Rev. Danether Murph-Heath. Following discussion, the amended motion was displayed on the screen as follows: "The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will hold elections at the 2023 Annual Conference for delegates to the next General Conference in 2024, unless Judicial Council requires the 2020 elected delegates to be seated in 2024." Following three speeches against the amendment to the amendment there were then three speeches for the amendment to the amendment. Bishop Hopkins called for the vote for the amendment to the amendment by show of hands. The amendment to the amendment passed. This brought the original amendment to the floor. Bishop Hopkins asked Rev. Luis Reyes-Rosario if he accepted the amendment as a substitute to the original motion. Rev. Reyes-Rosario agreed. The motion before the floor was projected on the screens:

700.12 "The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will hold elections at the 2023 Annual Conference for delegates at the next General Conference in 2024, unless the Judicial Council requires the 2020 delegation to be seated in 2024."

Bishop Hopkins declared that the projected version of 700.12 was the motion before the floor. Asking for further comments and hearing none, he called for hand vote. Bishop Hopkins indicated that the motion was adopted by hand vote.

Bishop Hopkins turned the microphone back to Joanne Ray who indicated that this concludes the Daily Proceedings Business. Bishop Hopkins expressed appreciation to Joanne Ray and her group.

The Bishop then invited Rev. Fabiola Grandon-Mayer, Eugene Williams and Rev. Matthew Mariani to the stage. The three shared reflections on working with Intirum Bishop John L. Hopkins during the early days of the COVID-19 Pandemic. Rev. Grandon-Mayer celebrated Bishop Hopkins getting to know the conference and his passion and dedication and leadership. Rev. Mariani celebrated the Bishop's compassion in supporting him after his father's death. Mr. Williams thanked "Bishop Elaine" and called Bishop Hopkins a "Godly and accountable man" in all his dealings with the Cabinet and the Conference as a whole.

Bishop Hopkins thanked the group and reminded the conference body that he would continue to be our Bishop through the remainder of 2022. When he came here, he indicated, he felt "There must be a reason." He said that he is driven by a pastoral heart. "Those of us who have received God's grace, want to extend it at every chance." Telling the story of Dr. Bob's house, the Bishop reminded us that we are in a pastoral care network and we need to be gentle with people. When he called Matthew about losing his father, he remembered Bishop Armstrong having called him, when he had lost his father.

Bishop Hopkins indicated that he was looking forward to his remaining six or seven months and was hoping to drive around the conference in the summer months.

Bishop Hopkins closed with prayer.

A reception for the Bishop followed in the Nirvana Room.

PLENARY SESSION 7 June 10, 2022 8:30 am

Bishop Hopkins called session seven to order at 8:34 am thanking both Rev. Addison Shields Jr. and the pianist for another rousing opening number. He called upon the Rev. Sharon Engert to offer the morning prayer.

NOMINATIONS

At 8:40 am, Bishop Hopkins called for Nancy Pendergrass, chair of Nominations regarding the slate for 2023. Nancy presented the slate of nominations. Bishop Hopkins called for a voice vote. The slate was approved unanimously.

CABINET REPORT

At 8:45 am, Bishop Hopkins introduced Rev. Jeffrey Bross, Dean of the Cabinet for the Cabinet report.

Rev. Bross discussed the joy he had felt in being a part of the Cabinet, having been able to meet people he might not have otherwise met. He indicated that he is proud of the work of the cabinet. He said that the members of the cabinet are all prime examples of what it means to be disciples of Jesus Christ. He asked members of each district to stand as he called upon the District Superintendents. He also introduced the people who keep the Cabinet going, including Rev. Arlene Christopherson and Rev. Martin Lee. Rev. Bross thanked on behalf of the Cabinet, everyone for their flexibility and creativity in overcoming the hardships and difficulties caused by the Pandemic.

He indicated that the Cabinet is just coming out of the season of appointment making. He thanked the churches and pastors and SPRC's in the transitioning times. He asked that the people keep the cabinet in our prayers as they head into the Fall planning sessions. Thank you to how you have adapted to the redistricting. Thank you to those church doing the Safe Sanctuaries training. Thank you to the laity who go in early to unlock the doors. Thank you on behalf of the cabinet.

Rev. Bross presented gifts from the Cabinet for Bishop Hopkins and Elaine.

The appointment Book can be found online on the Conference Website. The District Superintendents then read the new appointments in their Districts. Rev. Arlene Christopherson announced those Appointed to Extension Ministries.

Bishop Hopkins discussed the appointment system and asked pastors who were changing appointments and representatives from those churches to stand and were acknowledged with applause. The Bishop thanked the Staff Parish Relationship Committee people for their work. He also thanked the pastors and District Superintendents. He then explained that we also have a supervised ministry. We do not do this alone. We get in trouble when the church or the pastor thinks that the authority is their own. We are a shared, connectional system.

“And so at this moment (9:11 am) I fix all the appointments, effective July 1, 2022, not only those who have been read, but all those remaining. I do that with a sense of humility and with prayer that you will build on relationships that will make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the World.” Bishop Hopkins then led the body in prayer for the passing of the baton between churches and pastors, ‘to work together for the glory of God, that people will know your love, that lives will be changed, and that justice and peace and mercy will flow.’

ONE MATTERS AWARDS

Rev. Martin Lee, Director of Congregational Development and ReDevelopment, was re-introduced to present the One Matters Awards. “The One Matters Discipleship Award was created by the Discipleship Ministries (GBOD) in 2015 with the purpose of lifting up churches who have in recent years moved from zero baptisms and zero professions of faith into positive numbers as they redirected their focus toward intentional discipleship. In addition to the One Matters Discipleship plaque, each church receives $1,000 to encourage the continuation of their work in discipleship. (from the NIC web site).”

Rev. Lee presented awards to the following churches:

- Lake North: Chicago West Ridge UMC
- Lake South: Grace UMC, Blue Island
- Prairie Central: Our Saviour's UMC, Schaumburg
- Prairie North: Cedarville UMC
- Prairie South: East Jordan UMC

Rev. Lee concluded with one more celebration, announcing that on November 14, 2021, following a 10 year journey, the Jesus Love Korean Church received its charter to become a United Methodist Church. This congregation was planted in 2008. A short video about the church was shared with the assembled body.

At 9:42 am, the Bishop called a two minute ‘standing stretch break’ before the scheduled Bible Study.

BIBLE STUDY WITH REV. JANE EESLEY

Following the break, Rev. Jane Eesley lead the second part of the Bible Study entitled “The Spirit Pushes Boundaries: Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch in Acts 8:26-40.” Rev. Eesley focused on the last two questions of four questions in the text. There was also discussion on the suffering servant and the enduring lesson of the eunuch. Rev. Eesley ended by reminding us that the Holy Spirit encourages us to come to the water.

Bishop Hopkins thanked Rev. Eesley and encouraged the body to give her a standing ovation and then recessed at 10:10 am for a 25 minute break.

PLENARY SESSION 8

June 10, 2022 10:40 am

Bishop Hopkins called the 8th Plenary Session to order at 10:40 am. Rev. Jeffrey Bross was recognized and he expressed his gratitude for Elaine Hopkins being present at the Annual Conference and gave her, on behalf of the cabinet, a gift of appreciation.

Bishop Hopkins then recognized the Rev. Caleb Hong to bring the session prayer. Rev. Hong lead the gathered group in the Wesleyan Covenant Prayer.

Bishop Hopkins recognized Rev Luis Reyes-Rosario. Rev Reyes-Rosario informed the conference body that the Florida Annual Conference Clergy Session had rejected a slate of 16 candidates approved by their Board of Ordained Ministry over the LGBTQ+ issue, with opponents being focused on two of the BOOM approved candidates. The vote had fallen short by seven votes to reach the 75% threshold. Rev. Reyes-Rosario called upon those who support the class of candidates to stand in solidarity with them and closed the moment of privilege with prayer.

Rev. Reyes-Rosario then invited all those of Puerto Rican descent to stand with him as he indicated that the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico had elected the first female Bishop of PR, Rev. Dr. Lisette Gabriel Montavo. He moved to send the newly elected Bishop and the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico a letter of congratulations. Bishop Hopkins called for all approving this motion to indicate by applause. The motion was approved.

Rev. Christian Coon moved the following: "To direct the Conference Secretary on behalf of the Northern Annual Conference, to send letters to the 16 individuals denied ordination in the Florida Conference, to express our prayers, support and encouragement of this injustice and be reminded of their holy calls to follow Jesus and serve his Church." This motion was approved by voice vote.

At 10:55 am, Bishop Hopkins recognized Christina Crusius, Lay Member at Arlington Heights: First. Ms. Crusius identified herself as speaking for young persons in the Annual Conference. She encouraged local churches to give young people a chance to be part of the process of shaping the future of the United Methodist Church. She expressed her gratitude to two members of her local church, Nancy Dual and Gene Wood who chose to step aside to allow her and another younger member of their congregation to be members of the Annual Conference.

GENERAL CONFERENCE DELEGATION

Bishop Hopkins presented a video from the delegates to the 2020 General Conference, which had been delayed due to COVID-19. They described their meeting processes and how they had prepared for their legislative work at the 2020 General Conference. They reported on the Jurisdictional Conference work which was held virtually, and indicated that they continue to work and prepare for the 2024 General Conference. The Lay delegates elected for the 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences are: Lonnie Chafin, Nadia Kanhai, Adrian Hill, Rita L. Smith, Jessie Cunningham, Ronnie Lyall, Nancy Pendergrass, and Mark Manzi. The Clergy delegates were Rev. Alka Lyall, Rev. Luis Reyes-Rosario, Rev. Gregory Gross, Rev. Hwa Young Chong, Rev. Jacques Conway, Rev. Brain Gilbert, Rev. Britt Cox, and Rev. Rachel Birkhahn-Rommelfanger.

BUDGET

At 11:00 am, Bishop Hopkins called for the legislation for the budget, inviting the Rev. Tammy Scott, chair of CCFA and Lonnie Chafin, Conference Treasurer to return to complete the budget report and answer submitted questions.

The first question was about the settlement regarding the Boy Scouts. Lonnie Chafin indicated that there was a new Boy Scout Charter that was being written and that there would be a webinar to explain the process. He further explained that the BSA had filed for bankruptcy protection and that any one who had a claim against the BSA to submit a request through the court system. Everyone was shocked and saddened to learn that there had been 82,000 claims and that there were 63 claims that had been sponsored by Northern Illinois Conference local churches and that there were an additional 18 claims that had happened not at a local church but at a wider Boy Scout event. The reports of abuse have left us with a moral imperative to strive for the healing of those victims and to strive to protect children more fully and more faithfully. The denomination has been working with the victims and the bankruptcy process and have come up with an agreement that is multifaceted. Three points: 1) We have to come up with practices that protect children and vulnerable adults in all of our ministries. We are using this moment to recommit to being Safe Sanctuaries. 2) We have committed to listen to the victims, to be a pastoral heart to all the victims and listen and respond pastorally. 3) As a denomination, we have committed $30 million to the victim's trust fund. The Northern Illinois share of this amount is $754,000. The pledge sits there until the court rules on the settlement. So we have to wait on the court ruling, which could come late in 2022. All churches with Boy Scout troops will be asked to raise their share of this amount. Other non-troop churches, individuals, etc. will also be asked to share in raising the monies. This amount will not be seen in the apportionments.

Lonnie pointed out that while this is not the ministry we would have sought out, it is the ministry that has been given to us, and the opportunity for us to be the Christ for folks who suffer and which protects children going forward.

Rev. Scott thanked Lonnie for the hard work that he has done in participating in the plans for this settlement. We will have three years to pay our portion of the final settlement.

Rev. Scott indicated that the budget explanatory material is now located on the Conference Web site as the third item under Legislation and Documents – Budget Explanatory Materials. Rev. Scott then answered a question to clarify the difference between the Annual Conference Budget and the General Conference Budget. She did another explanation of the difference between the two budgets. All monies received for the General Conference are sent to the General Conference. Monies left over from the Annual Conference after that budget has been met will also be sent to the General Conference.

Rev. Scott then moved the 2023 budget as it is before the Annual Conference in Document 600.01. Bishop Hopkins indicates that this did not require a second since it came from a committee. He called for questions, comments or debate. Hearing none, he called for a voice vote for those in favor. There were no voice votes heard against. The motion to approve the budget as printed was accepted by 100%.

At 11:25 am, the Northern Illinois Justice for Our Neighbors video was shown detailing the United Methodist Immigration Ministry. The video was introduced by Claudia Marchan, NIJFON Executive Director. NIJFON provides free high quality immigration legal services to low income immigrants.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

At 11:30 am, Bishop Hopkins called upon the Conference Board of Global Ministries to report. Rev. Arlene Christopherson introduced one of our Northern Illinois Missionaries, the Rev. Young Seon Kim, who has been a missionary to Tanzania since 2018. She showed a short video which displayed a view of the school. Rev. Kim explained that during the pandemic, the song "Waymaker" became her light while she was in Tanzania with everything closed down by the pandemic. She closed her brief presentation with a verse of "Great is Thy Faithfulness."

Rev. Shirley Pulgar-Hughes acknowledged the 2020 Rainbow Covenant Churches. The 2020 John Wesley Award for highest giving per member: Hanover UMC which gave a per capita of 47%. The 2020 Phillip Otterbein Award given to the highest giver to mission: United Methodist Church of Libertyville which gave $22,000.

The following churches were recognized for becoming 2021 Mission Link Churches The 2021 John Wesley Award for Highest Total Mission Link Giving: Triumph UMC which gave a per capita of 55%. The 2021 Philip Otterbein Award for Highest Giver to Missions: United Methodist Church of Libertyville which gave $34,000.

The final account of the Bishop's Appeal for the Ukraine was $275,000. Rev. Pulgar-Hughes noted that this was the highest offering for the Bishops Appeal ever received.

Rev. Larry Dunlap-Berg was called upon to tell about the Mission truck collection. He reported that the collection totaled about 5,000 pounds of items with a total count of 54 churches. He asked all the churches which had brought things to check the laptop at the desk to make sure they had been listed. He also asked the churches that had been collection points to stand to be acknowledged. He indicated that they were looking for additional collection sites.

Rev. Jacques Conway was recognized for a personal privilege. He asked that members to take time in their daily lives to recognize those men and women who are risking their lives and dying in record numbers to protect us, because of gun violence. Please lift them up in your prayers.

This was followed by a video report from the United Women in Faith at 11:50 am.

MONITORING REPORT

Following the video report, the monitoring report was given by Nadia Kanhai and Lennox Iton. Lennox congratulated the group for general good will in which the business was conducted. He noted that we did not hear enough of Latino and Asian voices. Nadia noted that there were no Latinx persons on the Conference Committee on Religion and Race and encouraged people who can represent the diversity found in the conference to self-nominate. Rev. Pamela Pirtle included the observations for the Board on the Status and Role of Women. Rev. Pirtle celebrated the diversity of voices heard and the intentional efforts to ensure that every voice was heard. She noted that we heard from persons of every persuasion without regard to gender during each presentation. Rev. Pirtle noted the distinct absence of voices from youth and young adults. She encouraged the inclusion of young people in some of the presentations.

CLOSING

Bishop Hopkins called upon Deborah Dangerfield, AC Committee Chair. Ms Dangerfield pointed out that there were videos that we did not have time to show, that would be available on the conference website. She encouraged people to look at page 43 to see the names of the Annual Conference committee. She thanked all of the people who worked hard to make the conference a success. She also thanked all of the members for their patience and understanding and thanked all who worked tirelessly behind the scenes and thanked all the volunteers. Deborah called for everyone to quickly clear the room and to remove all the papers from the tables to accommodate the Ordination Service which follows. She asked that all mark their calendar for June 6, 7 and 8, 2023 for next year's annual conference. She moved that we adjourn the 183rd Annual Conference following the ordination service.

Bishop Hopkins recognized a speaker from the floor: Darrell Harris President for Black Church Renewal and the Pembroke Institute. Darrell indicated that the Pembroke Institute was celebrating 50 years and had developed bishops, clergy and lay people. He thanked Bishop Hopkins for supporting the Pembroke Institute.

The vote was taken to adjourn following the Ordination and it was passed. Announcements were made. Bishop Hopkins closed with prayer.

HISTORICAL REPORTS

400.01 - The Anti-Racism Task Force Historical Report

The Anti-racism Task Force's (ARTF) has a committed and engaged leadership team. Led by Nadia Kanhai, the members include Rev. Jarrod Severing, who stepped down from the Co-Chair roll but continues as a member; Yvette Harris-Black; Rev. Hong-kien Jeremiah Lee; Rev. Matthew Krings; Rev. Violet Johnicker; and Rev. Luther Mason. Rev. Jeremiah Thompson served with us in 2020-21. We continue to pray for Latinx/Hispanic representation. Project Manager Amania Drane is instrumental in our work. In January, ARTF welcomed consultant, Dr. Richard Guzman, to help ARTF be more intentional, strategic and sustainable in our work. Dr. Guzman first served as an active member of the ARTF Champion Team.

ARTF continues to focus on youth, adults and clergy goals. Our October visioning session centered on enhancing and expanding programs with proven success in informing, engaging and action toward addressing systemic racism. Our all-volunteer Champion Team has stepped up to help lead these programs and initiatives, which simultaneously provide opportunities for collaborating with local congregations, agencies, and committees. We cannot list all 80 members, but their engagement is beyond anything we expected and we're most grateful.

The Clergy Peer Reflection & Engagement Series (CPRES) rolled out its first in-person retreat in September 2021 with 5 weeks of post-retreat virtual session with 35 attendees. The next retreat will tentatively be held Fall 2022. The Becoming Beloved Community educational initiative held its pilot in September with 25 attendees; followed by its first official session in March with about 25 attendees. An additional five sessions are scheduled for the remainder of the year. These two premier training and engagement experiences are geared toward adult learning for clergy and lay, along with post-event continued engagement. We solicit feedback from our pilot programs and subsequent sessions and try to improve these programs each time. For instance, we plan to add trained facilitators for CPRES sessions.

The other significant training opportunity we worked on centered around the mandatory clergy training requirement passed at the 2020 Annual Conference session. We met with other annual conferences who have rolled out similar training, as well as our ethnic caucuses and Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) leaders. In November, ARTF presented a menu of 4 training options to BOM. This menu considers that one size does not fit all when it comes to clergy training and allows clergy to pick the best option for them individually. The decision on how to roll out training is in the capable hands of BOM.

A pilot of the South Side Cultural Tour brought together 25 people for a full-day tour to learn, discuss, and see important historical sites and work being done on the south side of Chicago. Based on feedback, the committee plans to host a 2-day/1-night tour in the fall.

ARTF kicked off its first 2022 Speaker Series (four sessions), co-sponsored by General Board of Church & Society, the Indiana and North Georgia Conferences, and the NIC Committee on Native American Ministries. The first session in March 2022 had 125 registrants (88 attendees). This project has been in the planning stages in various forms for nearly 2 years, but postponed and re-worked due to the pandemic and duplication.

Although not as visible, the Ephesus Project (expanded pulpit / congregational exchange) two pilot congregations have worked together for more than 1 year, forming strong bonds that still bring them together weekly via Zoom. Other churches have expressed an interest but expanding beyond our successful pilot program is more complicated as it requires a high level of dedication and cooperation for those congregations and their pastors.

After a year of relative success and deeply meaningful work, the ARTF decided not to continue its youth pilot program, Justice Generation, or its Summer Camp. Instead, the Anti-Racism and Discipleship Task Forces are collaborating on a youth initiative focused on research and supporting local Youth Leaders in sustaining and strengthening their work. This team is consistently learning, supporting, and engaging the local church to assist by being a thought partner of useful information, resources, and support.

As we develop and refine new and existing initiatives, we do so with an eye for who will take on this work after the ARTF ceases. In many cases, the logical successor is the Conference Commission on Religion & Race. In other cases, this may involve other existing committees or new ones. Our hope is that these groups be empowered in the way ARTF has been and that one day, each entity be anti-racism in nature.

400.02 - Discipleship Task Force Historical Report

The Discipleship Task Force has experienced joy this year in breaking new ground and reviving annual activities. We are grateful for the prayers and support of our Annual Conference in Discipleship ministries throughout the year. In October (2021,) our Task Force sponsored the Day of Prayer and Fasting, leading up to the Ordination Service. Thanks to our planning team, which included: Amania Drane, Nadia Kanhai, Brittany Isaac, and Karen Bonnell. With the support of Amania Drane and Anne Marie Gerhardt, many people took turns hosting 1 hour ZOOM sessions throughout the day – Jarrod Severing, G Morris Jarkloh, Karen Bonnell, Seamus Enright, Jeremiah Thompson, Matthew Krings, Scott Christie, Rich Rubietta, Jeremiah Lee, Audrena Nanabray, and Sharon Rice. In addition, in-person prayer times were hosted by First UMC in Arlington Heights, St Mark in Chicago, First UMC in Elgin, Grace UMC in Rockford, and Paw Paw UMC. This was a powerful day of prayer and connection for our local churches, annual conference, and wider world.

On November 13th and 14th, our Task Force organized the NIC "Tending to the Harvest" weekend. On Saturday, we hosted a Youth Leader symposium, "Growing Together," based on Ephesians 4:15, " But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ." Rev. Kyungsu Park offered a presentation on "Youth Discipleship and Relationship." This presentation was followed by breakout sessions introducing Intentional Discipleship Systems. On Sunday, we hosted an (in-person and virtual) All-Conference Worship service at Our Saviour's UMC in Schaumburg. Music was led by Rev. Rich Rubietta. Preaching was led by Rev. Olu Brown.

In January (2022,) we met with author Gary Neal Hansen to inaugurate the NIC Book Club with his book, Kneeling with Giants. During Lent, each District had at least one study group participating in this online study. Special thanks to leaders: Anne Coffman and Joy Thor-Bjornsen Coates (Lake North,) Tenille Power (Lake South,) Kris Aves (Prairie North,) Steven Novy and Elaine Meldrum (Prairie Central,) and Buzz Wheeler and Karen Bonnell (Prairie South.) Pastors throughout the conference also led their own studies. Videos of Gary Neal Hansen's presentations are on the Discipleship web page at umcnic.org/discipleship/NICBookClub for a limited time. We look forward to our next featured book, which is Soul Reset by the late Junius Dotson.

We continue our focus on Intentional Discipleship Systems. 3 Districts (Lake South, Prairie Central, and Prairie South) offered IDS training in their annual District Trainings. Trainers continue to meet during quarterly and monthly sessions. The NIC Prayer Network continues to post monthly devotion and prayer focus on the NIC website. We have an NIC Prayer Team that continues to meet monthly on Zoom to pray systematically for clergy and churches, as well as conference leaders, and Advance Specials in "Living the Beatitudes: A Call to Action and Connection." Thank you to all who share our passion for nurturing disciples of Jesus Christ across the NIC.

400.03 - Vital Congregations Task Force 2022 Historic Report

The Vital Congregations Task Force has been challenged by the pandemic as our congregations necessarily focused on basic functions in a time of uncertainty. The taskforce members themselves were also distracted by these needs. Even with these barriers, as we move into 2022 there is renewed energy and planning underway.

During the past year a pilot project was launched with Epicenter under the leadership of Paul Nixon and Beth Estcok. While a good number of churches were identified for the effort, several found it difficult to move forward, while others revealed hidden strengths. A team from each congregation that included clergy and laity went through a Readiness 360 survey and received coaching and on-site visits while setting goals for the future. Eleven churches across the conference have been part of this pilot.

Through this work the taskforce continues to look for tools to assist congregations in defining their futures. One of these tools is a discernment process lead by Beth Estcok. The taskforce will assess this tool as a way of helping our congregations move in new directions.

A grassroots interest in the Simplified Administrative Structure for church governance (SAS) has also surfaced and Rev. Martin Lee, Director of Congregational Development and Redevelopment is pulling together a team to train interested churches in this model. The goal is to free up membership in local churches for vital ministry rather than being bogged down in endless meetings.

Congregational Development also offered a Vital Congregations workshop in March giving laity and clergy tools for discerning their futures. In addition, Bishop Hopkins is leading the NIC cabinet through intentional long-range strategic mapping for congregations. These activities have led to a focus on solidifying more uniform structures in each district for strategic planning.

Coaching remains another strong tool in the work of creating vitality, and a new cohort of churches will be working with Paul Nickerson on taking the church to the community.

A Statistical analysis of the spiritual and financial strengths of our churches will be a focus as we come out of the pandemic over the next several years.

None of this work would be possible without the leadership of Rev. Martin Lee (DCD). There are many entities all working on the same goals. During the 2022-2023 conference year – Code Red (Congregational Development and Redevelopment), district teams, cabinet members and members of the Vital Congregations Task Force will come together to align their work and goals.

400.04 - Annual Conference Shepherding Team

The Annual Conference Shepherding Team and its counterpart organizations at the district level were formed by legislation in 2017 in response to the need for a conference wide central leadership body. The ACST brings the administrative and programmatic bodies of Northern Illinois Conference together for the purposes of strategic planning and overall coordination of the conference's life. The team further connects the work of the conference through the leadership at the district level.

The ACST continues to serve in coordination of the NIC strategic goals of (1) making disciples, (2) working against racism and (3) creating vital congregations. These strategic goals were adopted by the annual conference in the summer of 2019. The work of these three task forces is shared in their own historic reports. We celebrate the dedicated members of our task forces who have offered education, resources, inspiration and information to local congregations as they live out their ministry and mission throughout the season of pandemic. Their energy, creativity and commitment has helped the NIC live out its mission.

In addition to furthering the work of the strategic goals, in 2021 the ACST prepared and successfully passed legislation to realign program areas to better reflect the work of the annual conference.

As a learning organization, each area represented around the table has been given time to share their focus and work with all our leadership. This sharing has created a better understanding of the roles and responsibilities each area addresses while also highlighting the interconnectedness of all that we do.

During 2021-2022 the ACST has prioritized the following responsibilities from its organizing legislation:

- 1) Guiding the NIC in the event of a significant shift in the denomination or jurisdictional realignment of conferences.
- 2) Facilitating communication and healthy relationships between districts, NIC leadership, staff, committees, and ministries.
- 3) Focusing NIC resources to equip local churches and ministry settings to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
- 4) Advocating, monitoring, and celebrating diversity at every level of leadership throughout the NIC.

In consultation with the Interim Bishop, John L. Hopkins, the ACST has monitored the impact of a thrice delayed General Conference on the life of the Northern Illinois Conference. Reports are regularly shared at ACST meetings so leadership around the conference is informed concerning the impact of the delayed General Conference. The ACST leadership partners with Bishop Hopkins in communications strategies.

During the 2022 annual conference session the ACST will coordinate small group conversations to further build healthy relationships between our conference members as we continue to grow together in our mission and ministry.

We look forward to leading Northern Illinois Conference into a healthy and witness-filled future.

400.05 - Chicago Black Methodists for Church Renewal

Continuing under the takeover of the COVID-19 pandemic, Chicago BMCR transitioned forward with newly-elected leadership.

Highlights of 2021 Programs and Events

January-March

- Celebrated the installation of newly-elected officers virtually, highlighting the president and recognizing continuing officers, new LIFE and Founders' Legacy LIFE members.
- Six (6) local churches were identified to participate in SBC21 Congregational Development training in partnership with the Northern IL Conference. Negotiated and finalized the SBC 21 contract, implementation of which was delayed until the new SBC 21 national director took charge. Subsequently, teams of the participating congregations were paired with their SBC21 facilitators and met virtually. All of the congregations participated in the orientation. Two (2) churches received technical equipment and training to enable their communication virtually.
- Commemorated Annual National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day, providing a speaker for the Hartzell Memorial UMC annual worship service.
- Organized and conducted Pembroke Institute Second Annual Black Teens Matter Holiday Hook-Up on Presidents' Day. Panel members discussed the impact of COVID-19 educationally, socially, emotionally, and spiritually. High school and college students provided leadership, resulting in calling for greater church support, outreach and concern for students' mental health challenges.
- Promoted Annual National Week of Prayer for the Healing of AIDS.
- Participated in National BMCR's 54th Annual Virtual General Meeting, which focused on "Racism: The Unfinished Agenda of the United Methodist Church."

April-June

- Held 1st Quarterly Membership Meeting stressing the importance of participating in conversations around pandemic issues, i.e., testing and vaccination concerns.
- Accepted and responded to invitations from various City agencies and organizations to appeal to the faith community to lead in promoting testing and vaccination efforts. Local churches began to provide opportunities and assistance for members to get tested and vaccinated. This was also encouraged by the Northern Illinois Conference
- During National Nurses Month in May, BMCR partnered with local churches to celebrate and honor nurses who actively serve as COVID-19 Lifesavers. 17 nurses received unique trophies, engraved BMCR Bibles, and masks. Each church determined how and when presentations would be made; some shared videos and photographs.
- Celebrated Juneteenth at Wesley UMC with a forum and panel of first responders, which included a tribute to Rev. Dr. Calvin Morris. New BMCR LIFE and Honorary Founders' Legacy LIFE members were honored, in addition to retirees Rev. Darneather Murph-Heath and Rev. Dwight Stewart. An outdoor festival followed, including vendors, music, games, food and family entertainment. COVID-19 testing and vaccinations were also provided.
- Registered 10 Pembroke Institute Black Teens Matter youth to participate in the Southeast Jurisdiction BMCR's 24th Annual (2-day Virtual) Youth Harambee.

July-September

- Supported and promoted local church sites for COVID-19 vaccinations. Each month saw an increase in congregations providing this service in their local communities. Our United Methodist Churches were visible and present in partnership with City, County, State, and community health care agencies.
- Joined with the NIC in encouraging local churches to contribute to the Anti-Racism Task Force and Justice initiatives.
- Shared with Resurrection UMC in its Youth Night Revival Service by providing the preacher (youth mentor, motivator, trainer, and author) Minister Jonathan Banks. Youth and leaders from Maple Park and Greenstone attended. Tee-Shirts, BMCR masks and “Raise Your GPA (God Point Average)” book by Minister Banks were given to each youth in attendance.
- Continued support of local church and community food pantry programs funded last year by Global Ministries through the NIC. Post-Grant evaluations, required by the funding body, were collected from each recipient and submitted before the deadline.

October-December

- Recognized pastors in gratitude for their tireless, selfless servant leadership and challenges throughout the pandemic. BMCR offered encouragement and inspiration with tokens of appreciation to those in close proximity and thoughtful messages to those in outlying areas.
- Completed evaluation and review of 16-month participation in national CoVPN (COVID-19 Prevention Network) Faith Initiative led by the Health Matters component of the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. During virtual meetings, we reported on the work of local churches carrying out various ministries despite the impact of COVID and HIV/AIDS in Black and faith communities.
- Participated in the Virtual North Central Jurisdiction BMCR 49th Annual Meeting, led by Rev. Dennis M. Oglesby, Jr., Chairperson. The theme was RACISM: THE UNFINISHED AGENDA.
- Supported Hartzell Memorial by getting an M.D./HIV/AIDS advocate to speak for their annual WORLD AIDS DAY commemoration worship service. Referral obtained through our partnership with CHAMPS (Creative Health and Medical Pathways for Scholars).
- Completed planning, in partnership with McCormick Theological Seminary, to implement WORLD AIDS DAY, 17th Annual Clergy and Lay Leadership Summit for HIV/AIDS Community Outreach, founded by Sylvia Jo Oglesby, BMCR Keeping Hope Alive HIV/AIDS Ministry and Program Coordinator. The virtual event drew local and national participation.
- Partnered with newly-formed Black-led community-based partner organizations in their first commemorative WORLD AIDS AWARENESS DAY SUMMIT ON RACIAL INEQUITY IN HIV/AIDS PUBLIC HEALTH FUNDING.
- Celebrated the IN-PERSON 53rd BMCR Annual Meeting and Founders’ Day event, honoring 17 local church COVID-19 awardees for rising above and beyond the call of duty in sustaining and maintaining their local church during 2021. Each honoree received an Igniting Flame Trophy, BMCR Bible with engraved name, BMCR beverage bottle and mask. CHAMPS Medical students provided temperature checks and volunteers monitored proof of vaccination requirements. Rev. Innis Miller was preacher and Rev. Norval Brown conducted the Libation honoring the legacy of our ancestors, BMCR Founders and those whose memories we cherish. We lifted up names of the following BMCR Members who departed in 2021: Violette Yvonne Brooks, Jessie Lyles Lucas, Rev. Flora G. Robinson, Fonzena McLin, Clarice Dean, Pearl E. Day and Charlie Alexander.

In conclusion, the year 2021 was filled with many unexpected challenges but, by “Holding on to God’s Unchanging Hand,” we were able to persevere and carry out the mission and ministry opportunities at hand. We are grateful for our partnership with the Northern IL Conference and the support that enables us to continue in pursuit of the goal “To Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World. 400.06 - Church and Society Historical Report

After a hiatus due to COVID, The NIC Committee on Church and Society began meeting again in January 2021. With some returning members and some new, at first we met to get to know each other and to dream what we wanted this committee to be and to accomplish. It seemed important that we continue the grants that had been given out before. After discussing what we hoped to target with the grants and what kind of follow-up we wished to see, we developed our grant application. We found out after considerable time and energy writing our application procedure that there was already one in place that would be used.

We awarded three grants in 2021: The Black Covenant Group at United Church of Rogers Park, Youth Empowerment Program through Elgin First UMC, and Pan-African Rural Health. We also supported Chicago Religious Leaders Network on Latin America. It is a goal of this committee to increase information about this grant in order to get more applications and further help those working in social reform.

Committee on Episcopacy Historical Report 2021-2022

The Northern Illinois Conference Committee on Episcopacy serves as liaison and wise counsel to the Bishop. We are charged with providing the Bishop with constructive, honest feedback; the voice and sentiment of the UMC body; while offering guidance and direction. While much of the last two years has led committees into uncharted ways of doing their work, this committee has also changed its focus in significant ways. The delay in General Conference also meant a delay in Jurisdictional Conference, which also meant a delay in Episcopal Elections. Since Bishop Sally Dyck took another position as GC Ecumenical Officer, Northern Illinois was left without a bishop. The College of Bishops appointed retired Bishop John Hopkins as interim for the NIC in 2020 for one year. Continued delays in General and Jurisdictional Conferences extended the time that the NIC needed episcopal coverage, and Bishop Hopkin’s interim appointment was continued for an additional year. Typically, at this time in the quadrennium, the Committee on Episcopacy would be conducting a mid-quadrennium evaluation. This group is waiting on guidance on a possible 2022 Jurisdictional Conference before going forward with writing any evaluations or conference profiles. In addition, the North Central Jurisdiction voted last year to decrease one episcopal leader position. If Jurisdictional Conference meets this year, one of the items that will likely be decided is which conferences will be yoked under one bishop. There is a NCJ committee meeting, on which NIC’s Gregory Gross is a member, to discuss the possible options for episcopal area boundaries.

By the time NIC Annual Conference 2022 meets, we hope to have decisions on a possible Jurisdictional Conference, Episcopal Elections, and realigned conferences. Our future work depends in a large part on the answers to those questions.

400.07 - Board of Global Ministries

The Itineration and Missionary Support team reports that all missionaries scheduled to itenerate in 2022 will continue to do so virtually. We encourage supporting churches and missionaries to connect in smaller virtual meetings following their Global Ministries hosted #stillinmission episodes. Rather than traveling to the U.S. and making rounds to supporting churches for several months, missionaries will make time available to meet with individual churches for a period of 3 months following their #stillinmission episode.

Each year, the church with the highest per-capita contributions receives the John Wesley Award, which this year goes to Triumph United Methodist Church. The church with the highest total amount of financial support receives the Phillip Otterbein Award, which goes to the United Methodist Church of Libertyville.

The new version of our conference mission giving, Mission Links, Living the Beatitudes is providing an easier access to mission sites, expediting the navigation process for local churches. Each mission site and missionary is given an icon/s indicating how they link back and are responding to Christ's message in the Beatitudes. Churches must still be faithful and honor 100% of apportionment giving to be recognized as a Mission Covenant Church like a Rainbow Covenant Church in past years.

The Annual Conference "Fill the Truck Mission Challenge" has come back after a halt due to the Pandemic. This year we are focusing on Midwest Mission's most needed items. We have designed a form that provides flexibility for church members to provide financial support, donate MMDC kits, make bulk purchases, minimize the need for in-store shopping or choose other options that are safe and convenient for them to support this year's challenge, even if we face additional Covid-19 challenges.

In the fall, a collection drive was organized to support recovery efforts from the 2021 Hurricanes and the devastating earthquake in Haiti. Also, new permanent collection sites in each district were set up around the conference to drop off donations.

Mission scholarship from the Northern Illinois United Methodist Volunteers were set in place for Mission Journey Team Members requesting scholarship funds. The scholarships are given to people participating in a mission journey at an approved mission site with an UMVIM trained leader.

We are grateful for staff member, Lisa Smith, who came on board this year, and is helping us with link and booklet updates.

We extend our gratitude to Rev. Arlene Christopherson who provides us with much support and guidance in this sacred work.

400.08 - Board of Laity

2020 found most district and conference training events cancelled due to the Covid pandemic. 2021 found us pivoting and working to bring this training back via ZOOM. Members of the Board of Laity in their roles as District Lay Leaders, UMM and UMW presidents, and Director of Lay Servant Ministries helped provide these leadership events. As a Board, we also convened a Laity Session of Annual Conference via ZOOM. Five local church ministries were highlighted. Conference Lay Leaders with Anne Marie Gerhardt, NIC Director of Communications, discussed the multitude of ways local churches can receive help from our conference. Finally, there was a breakout session that provided an opportunity for lay members to Annual Conference to meet with their new District Superintendents and District Lay Leaders. While a technical glitch caused some problems, those that were able to connect to the breakout rooms had a productive time.

The Board of Laity was excited to welcome over 200 people to this year's virtual Laity Convocation - HOLD FAST TO THE MAST, Strengthening Our Spiritual Formation. Bishop John Hopkins led off the morning with an encouraging message of support for the laity of our conference and of the importance of continuing to develop our spiritual formation.

Headliners were Kara Lassen Oliver; Dr. Regina Davis-Bridges; and George Groves. (Ms. Oliver, Associate Publisher of The Upper Room, brought ideas of spiritual formation in community along with John Wesley's focus on spiritual formation.) She also talked about the importance of lay persons and what we bring to the spiritual formation of our churches, districts, and conferences. Rev. Dr. Regina Davis-Bridges, an NIC Deacon, focused her presentation on the power of Rauch - the Divine Gift of Breath. We learned the spiritual practice of sacred breathwork for mind, body, and spiritual healing and restoration. Finally, our own George Groves, UMM Conference President, discussed the importance of small groups for spiritual formation. He also provided practical ways to establish a small group in a local church. We also heard of exciting ministries at four NIC churches - Chicago: Greenstone UMC, "A Legacy of Church and Community Revitalization, Mount Morris: Disciples UMC "Lot 12 Kids Club," River Forest UMC: A New Twist on Traditional Ministry," and Roselle UMC: "NitWits."

Your Conference Co-Lay Leaders continue to represent laity on a wide range of conference committees and boards. Connie Augsburger represents the laity on the Conference Board of "Trustees," NICUM Insurance Board, and the Episcopacy Committee along with co-chairing the Board of Laity. Mark Manzi represents the laity on the Annual Conference Shepherding Team, the Annual Conference Committee, the Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders, along with co-chairing the Board of Laity. He also is a member of the Anti-Racism Task Force's Champions Team. Eugene Williams represents laity on the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Episcopacy Committee, the Nominations Committee, the Board of Church and Society, the United Methodist Foundation Board, and chairs the CSD Committee of Ordained Ministry, is Treasurer of the Conference UMM, along with co-chairing the Board of Laity. All three of us are also members of the AACLL - Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders. We are honored to serve the laity of our conference.

400.10a - Cabinet Report

The people of the Northern Illinois Conference have had to adapt, change, grow and dig deep into the pool of resiliency to overcome the past few years of intense challenges brought about by many external and some internal challenges. The Cabinet is no exception. The biggest challenge for the Cabinet this year was to navigate the changing structure of the conference and deal with the realities of a changing church. The reduction of the number of districts, the changes in district leadership and the geographical changes due to redistricting meant we had to adapt and adapt quickly to continue to serve as we have been called to do. One of the most challenging aspects of this was the change of churches and lay leadership in our districts. We had to quickly learn the history and dynamics of churches and build strong relationships with pastors and lay leaders who we may not have had much interaction in the past. In addition, we had to adjust and learn the leadership style, mission and even humor of a new Bishop who was only supposed to serve a year as interim but accepted the call to continue the God-given work in our conference for one more year. As a Cabinet, we would like to express our deep gratitude and love for Bishop John Hopkins, who did not miss a beat stepping in to serve and has led with gentleness and yet determination, kindness and yet strength, joy and yet willingness to sit in the pain of life. We are blessed to have him. As the Dean of the Cabinet, I also want to express my gratitude for the work of the Cabinet. There is a bond, a care, and a commitment to the work of the team that is unprecedented. Rarely have I known a more cohesive and united group that is not only supportive of one another, but deeply committed to the whole and not to their own district silos. Their professionalism is amazing. Thank you to the members of the Cabinet which includes, Rev. Jacques A. Conway (Lake South), Rev. Brittany Isaac (Lake North), Rev. Fabiola Grandon Mayer (Prairie North), Rev. Brian Gilbert (Prairie South), Rev. Arlene Christopherson (Assistant to the Bishop/Director of Connectional Ministries), and Rev. Martin Lee (Director of Congregational Development and Redevelopment), and, of course, Bishop John Hopkins.

While the Cabinet is officially made up of seven members and the Bishop, we work very closely with an extension of the Cabinet and other conference staff. Over the past year we have been intentional and excited about strengthening the working ministry with Conference Treasurer, Lonnie Chafin, Director of Communications, Anne Marie Gerhardt and all conference staff. We have experienced the fruits of their hard work and celebrate all of their ministries as we strive to live out, in our working ministry together, the teaching of 1 Corinthians 12, that we are one body but many parts. Thank you to all that they have done, are doing and will do.

The work of the Cabinet is often broken down into seasons:

- January – May Appointment Season
- June – September Clergy summer conversations and learning
- September – December Church/Charge Conference

Though the seasons help us to focus on our work and ministry, there are many other things that take place throughout the year. There are district training events held each year and this year we saw a large growth in excitement and participation in these training events. There are pastoral care issues of clergy and laity alike. Sometimes there are the difficult conversations and supervision that must take place with clergy or with churches. There have been the very difficult decisions that need to be made about merging churches or even closing them. This is just a small sample of the variety of things we do as a Cabinet. Yet, throughout all of this weaves the absolute joy of serving Christ and being in relationship with such hard working and dedicated disciples of Jesus Christ. We are so grateful for every lay person, every pastor and every church in our conference. Thank you for making our ministry appointment so joyful and full.

As the Cabinet, we lift up the following joys in our conference. We celebrate that almost all of our churches are now regularly using the internet to share, broadcast and communicate online. We rejoice that we realized an increase in apportionment giving in our churches. We are excited that even with the challenges of Covid-19, many churches brought in new members, baptized people, started and completed capital projects and adapted to the challenges. One of the biggest thrills is listening to how churches have moved from looking inward and caring mostly about having people sit in pews to looking outward and discovering how they can reach new people and share the Gospel beyond their walls. This is, we believe, why many churches are seeing an increase in new members and those participating in giving. We are grateful that with all of this, pastors, lay person and churches allow the members of the Cabinet to walk the journey with you and we covenant this day to do, to the best of our ability, that which God calls us to support, nurture and guide the Northern Illinois Conference.

As a final thought, every time we gather as a Cabinet, we sit in hope, joy, peace and love. We are so hopeful because God is leading us and we are following. We are joyful that we are experiencing a church ready to adapt and grow and respond to God's call. We live in the peace of Christ because we see the church and its people moving toward revitalization and new opportunities. We love this church, we love this conference, we love our districts and we love the people of the Northern Illinois Conference. We are so excited about our future together.

400.10b - NIC Pension Appointment Categories and Guidelines

Under the guidelines of the 2008 United Methodist Pension Program Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), pension credit is accrued based on years of service in quarter increments. In order to determine the appropriate category for all persons serving in an appointment less than full time three factors will be utilized: e m p l o y m e n t definition, salary and performance expectations.

Employment Definition:

Persons who have employment in addition to their appointment or/and full-time students cannot be considered full-time in their appointment. Employment that is considered an extension of the ministry (i.e. teaching a class at college, university or seminary) will not be considered outside employment.

Performance Expectations:

For all appointments:

400.11 - United Methodist Clergy Fund Historical Report 2021

The United Methodist Clergy Fund is an independent, Illinois, not-for-profit, corporation. It is organized to “procure, invest, and manage money and property, the income from which shall go toward the support of superannuated ministers, and the widows and dependent children of deceased members.” The fund is related to the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church because its bylaws limit its contributions to this conference.

Founded on October 27, 1885, it was one of the first funds established to provide income for retired pastors and their dependents. In fact, it was one of the first funds in the United States to provide such assistance, and was a forerunner to the concept of pension funds. In existence for 130 years, The Clergy Fund intends to continue providing significant levels of support for retirees of the Northern Illinois Conference.

On December 31, 2021 the fund totaled $37,802,935. As with many other entities with investments in the stock market, the Fund’s portfolio value fluctuates. In spite of those fluctuations, through the stewardship of its Board of Directors, and the investment management team at Wespath, the Fund honored its commitment to the Northern Illinois Conference for the benefit of its retirees.

The Clergy Fund contribution significantly funds the health benefits that the retirees receive from the conference. Because of this contribution, the Northern Illinois Conference, is able to be one of the few conferences, if not the only conference, to continue providing health benefits to its retirees, and is among the last of the conferences to continue this practice.

The Clergy Fund Board of Directors is comprised of five lay members and two clergy members. These persons are nominated and elected by the current board of directors. They serve for terms of four years. Five retired honorary Directors, the Chair of the Conference Board of Pensions, and the Conference Treasurer and the Conference Benefits Manager are regularly invited to attend the quarterly meetings of the Board.

The Clergy Fund has made annual gifts of approximately $1 million toward retiree health insurance and retiree benefits of the Conference for more than 20 years. A policy of using a percentage of the three-year rolling average of the year-end fund value, guides the Board’s annual contribution to the Board of Pensions. The Board contributed $1,400,000 from the fund for 2021.

The Fund is a 501(c) (3) registered charitable organization, and welcomes contributions and bequests. The Conference office or I can provide information as to the process of making a contribution to the Fund and joining in our mission.

400.12 - CodeRed - Congregational Development and Redevelopment Committee

New Church Planting

One of the highlights of 2021 is the celebration of the chartering of Chicago Jesus Love on November 14th. Bishop Hopkins and DS Brittany officiated the chartering service. Chicago Jesus Love chartered with 145 chartering members and an annual budget of $320,000. A majority are young people under 40 years old and 65% of members are tithing online. They are space sharing with Central UMC in Skokie. They started a tradition where 100% of every Anniversary Sunday offering goes to supporting another new congregation. Each year they are donating between $6000-7000 in addition to fully participating in the Conference Apportionment System and supporting missionaries overseas. They are also heavily involved with the Sanctuary Movement for Undocumented People in Chicagoland.

In addition, on January 1, we launched Wellspring New Faith Community in Oswego, IL. We also started three Hispanic New Faith Communities. There is now a Living Waters in Franklin Park, in the O’Hare area, and in the Elston Ave area utilizing the former Elston church parsonage as a base. We are learning that there is a population of over 500 Swahili-only speaking people in Rockford. We are dreaming of starting a New Faith Community to reach out to them through space sharing at Brooke Road UMC. We are so grateful for Pastor Violet Johnicker and the congregation’s hospitality towards this NFC. They are also hosting Emerge NFC which is a second site of Emerge UMC in Belvidere.

Congregational Redevelopment Process with Coaching

Five congregations are having on-going coaching with Rev. Paul Nickerson. Chicago Edison Park UMC is a Filipino congregation that we are encouraging to reach out to their neighbors. Brookfield: Compassion NFC faced trouble when they were unable to secure a permanent location for worship and had to move around 13 times over the years. Finally, they purchased a dry cleaner and renovated the space as an art gallery and received permission from the village to use it for two hours on Sundays for worship. They too have been involved in the community with the local rotary club chapter and are involved in many local services to provide food and free bike tunings in the summer. Through the coaching, Oregon UMC was able to engage with the community, and the pastor received an Excellence in Leadership award from the Village. During the pandemic, Dekalb: First UMC was able to raise over $3 million to build a new facility on 15 acres in a new location. They are continuing to plan and dream about how to reach out to new people when they relocate. They are in the process of church building currently. Wilmington First UMC is trying to discern how they can reach out to new people in the midst of the pandemic in their small rural town.

The coaching is an intense learning process, and the congregations are holding each other accountable. The pastors meet monthly, and they also meet with their leadership teams monthly as well. We are utilizing Zoom, which has been a gift during the pandemic.

NIC Clergy Coaching Process

After the last coaching session with Jim Griffith, we recruited 7 clergy who are willing to receive further learning on how to coach/support other clergy as a cohort. Again, this pandemic has given us challenges but also learning opportunities. Among the many trainings provided to clergy and laity, we would like to highlight two. The Both/And worship training by Jason Moore (Midnight Oil Productions) and the Stewardship Training by Carla Maxwell had some of the highest attendances among the many events offered. For next year, I am looking forward to hosting Vital Mergers, Cooperative Ministry events, and a Post-Covid-19 Resource For Leaders training event by Olu Brown.

CodeRed Church Trail

After nearly six years on hiatus, representatives from each district of the Northern Illinois Conference returned to the CodeRed Church Trail, visiting potential new church sites and redevelopment areas across the conference over two days in November. The itinerary included churches that housed several ministries and empty farm fields that held potential.

The group listened to the church's story at each site, prayed with the pastor, and witnessed ministries in action.

The group visited St. Mark UMC and Trinity UMC in the Lake South District. In Prairie Central District, the group visited Crossroads UMC in Bolingbrook. The group also prayed over a farm field in Shorewood that organizers are developing into a worship and community space. In Prairie North, visits focused on meeting with Pastor Heewon Kim at the former Hilltop Ministry Center. Pastor Kim is in a discernment process with Harlem UMC, Evans UMC and New Life UMC. Next, the group visited Brooke Road UMC in Rockford. The church hosts both a Hispanic congregation and an African Swahili community.

Lake North church visits included St. Matthew UMC in Chicago and Franklin Park UMC. The trip ended in the Prairie South District at 15 acres of farmland purchased by DeKalb First United Methodist Church to build a new building. What a blessing to be able to see the Holy Spirit in action all across the Conference as faithful clergy and lay ministers follow along with innovative ministry!

Vital Mergers Workshop

40 people registered from 30 congregations for the Vital Merger/Cooperative Ministry event on Saturday, March 19th in Freeport.

Perhaps this will give us a good opportunity to help each and every congregation reposition for the mission and ministry instead of doing the "same old" ministry and expecting a different result.

These are just some of the highlights of the past year. We thank God for the new Chairperson of the CodeRed (Congregational Development and Redevelopment) Committee, Rev. Jonathan Crail and team members: Rev. Victor Melad (Lake North), Attorney Walton Davis Jr. (Lake South), Rev. Jarrod Severing (Prairie Central), Rev. Keri Rainsberger (Prairie North), Rev. Jonathan Crail (Prairie South), David Lagos-Fonseca (At-Large), Rev. Robert Butler (Church Planter). We are so grateful to interim Bishop John Hopkins who encourages to abide in Christ Jesus so that we can bear much fruit and to work closely with the Cabinet for Congregational Development and Redevelopment for the mission and ministry of the conference to reach more new people, more diverse people and more younger people for the glory of God.

400.13 - Commission on Archives and History 2022

The conference Commission on Archives and History has not had a formal meeting in the last Conference year, due to the pandemic. Our usual meeting place in Styberg Library at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary was unavailable much of the year due to the pandemic. However, members have been in touch with each other via telephone and email.

The Northern Illinois Conference Archives, also housed in Styberg Library, have been closed since March of 2020: first because of the pandemic, then a mold abatement issue, and now because of a remodeling project. Despite these setbacks, we have done our best to respond to research requests and questions about archival holdings and additions.

We have tried to keep exact records of these requests, both those we were able to answer and those that will have to wait until we once again have access to the collections. We had thirteen requests for our services this Conference year; of these, two pertained to general church records, three were requests for someone's baptismal certificate, four were genealogy-related, and four were other. The requests, and our responses, were as follows:

- 3/21/22 Bob Bristol asked if we could locate a copy of his baptismal certificate dated 1960 or 1961 from Richards Street UMC in Joliet. Carol responded that we will check the Richards Street file once the archives re-open, but the most we can hope for is a record of baptisms, not an actual certificate (which would have been given to the family at the time of the baptism).
- 3/18/22 (conclusion) Bruce Greene, historian at Epworth UMC, Chicago, wanted to donate Epworth's records, since the church has closed. Carol responded and said the archives cannot receive any materials at this time because they are closed and will be moved. She suggested storing them temporarily at First UMC of Evanston, which already has an archives room. Greene said he will try that, but in the meantime they are in his apartment in Rogers Park.

- 3/18/22 Bo Rasmussen, a visiting scholar from Southern Denmark University, asked about access to Christelige Talsmand, a newspaper of the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Church, from 1878-1885. The inventory does not list issues from that period, but it is possible there are some issues in the general boxes of materials from Norwegian-Danish Methodism. Carol said she will check once the archives re-open, and in the meantime he might try GCAH.
- 3/3/22 David Murray of Blue Earth, Minnesota asked for a portrait (not group) photo of the Rev. Mary Willis Mayes, a pastor who came to them from Illinois. Marilyn referred him to the “dead pastors’ roll” at GCAH and to the IGRConf CAH/Archivist.
- 3/1/22 Scott Faust of Wisconsin inquired about baptismal records prior to 1891 for a German M.E.C. in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. Manitowoc may have been in the Chicago district of the German Methodist Conference. Carol checked the inventory and responded that we do not have records that old. She suggested getting in touch with GCAH, and also neighboring UMCs in the area, which may have received records if the German church merged into one of them. (He should also check the Wisconsin Conference archives.)
- 2/16/22 David Nuetzmann requested any records pertaining to his family from Richard Street UMC in Joliet. I told him we would be happy to search that file when the archives re-open.
- 1/11/21 (cannot find the original email) Someone wrote with a question about an ancestor who left Sweden in 1868 and settled in a small town in northern Wisconsin. He wondered if we had church records that would show whether he became a Methodist in Sweden or in America. Carol responded that it would have to be in America, since there was not a Methodist church in his hometown in Sweden, but there had been a Methodist church in the Wisconsin town for ten years by the time he arrived. Nice to know we could supply an answer even without access to the archives!
- 10/3/21 DS Jeffrey Bross asked for help sorting through documents belonging to Lisle Faith UMC, recently closed. Marilyn gave him the pertinent directions from the BOD and went to Lisle and helped with the processing for 3.5 hours.
- 9/14/21 Stan Lindaas, a professional genealogist in Salt Lake City requested information about marriage records of First Norwegian-Danish M.E.C. of Chicago. He’s trying to track down a particular person. Carol responded and told him 1) NIC archives are closed at the moment, 2) he should check with the Cook County Department of Vital Records, 3) he should check Arlow Andersen’s book.
- 8/30/21 Beth Wackerlin, nee Strock, requested her baptismal certificate from First UMC of Aurora, which has closed. Marilyn suggested she get in touch with First Nueva Vida UMC, which may have received the church’s records. Then Beth’s mother found a copy of the certificate among her own possessions.
- 8/3/21 Daniel Smith reported they had received the materials from the Bal-fours. I have no idea what that is about...
- 7/7/21 Rito Balducci asked for his baptismal certificate for Rito Pence at South Deering UMC, which has closed. Lynn Berg searched in the archives and determined it was not there. Debra Rogers and Dan Swinson also hunted for possible records, but nothing was resolved.
- 4/26-6/7/21 Carol Slattum in Norway requested information about a number of ancestors who served in the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Church. Daniel Smith found links to some resources and sent them, and Carol referred her to Arlow Andersen’s book.

400.14 - 2022 Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships Historical Report

The 2022 Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships is chaired by Rev. Lynn Pries with the support of Ecumenical Officers, Rev. Edgar Hiestand and Rev. Catiana McKay. Members are John George, Rev. Dennis Oglesby, Rev. Uziel Hernandez, Jessie Cunningham, Rev. Eunbae Doh, Rev. Tura Foster Gillespie, Rev. David Poust, Vicky Power Bass, and Rev. Hwa Young Chong.

CCUIR is a commission that is mandated by The Book of Discipline par. 642. It is the work of CCUIR to provide representation of NIC and the Bishop in ecumenical, interfaith, and interreligious spaces including councils and dialogues; to foster ecumenical interfaith, and interreligious relationships; to equip and encourage the building and strengthening of ecumenical, interfaith, and interreligious relationships between congregations and their neighbors. This work is in cooperation with the Bishop and the Council of Bishops. Our work is discipleship strengthening, rooted in humanizing and understanding the “other” and encourages active engagement in our local churches and communities, often creating new opportunities that strengthen vitality.

Our work encourages cooperation, bringing together people and groups in facing similar humanizing concerns with people and churches within and beyond the connection, within and beyond Christianity. At times, we closely partner with other conference and UMC groups (WMC), likewise, with ecumenical, (WCC, NCCC) interfaith, and interreligious bodies on community, city, state, national, and global levels. We partner with other conference commissions and committees through supporting joint efforts where there is overlap, and cross promotion of events and initiatives.

We share training opportunities, resources, and other official information from COB and the ecumenical, interfaith, and interreligious world. As we continue to invite others to begin this work in their churches and communities, we have been able to offer scholarships to Methodists (and Methodist affiliated persons) in our conference with opportunities to join in ecumenical, interfaith, and interreligious dialogue, mission, and activism.

Our goals for 2022 are to strengthen and expand the outreach of our conference CCUIR Team and our engagement in Ecumenism Metro Chicago’s Christians United for the Care of Creation Team; Illinois Conference of Churches; UMEIT (United Methodist Ecumenical and Interreligious Training) through the Council of Bishops (monthly zoom trainings for CCUIR Team and rotation for participation with the National Workshop on Christian Unity).

The results are peace, justice, and mercy work that strengthens vitality of our conference, congregations, and communities. Since, late March of 2020, information and training had to occur through zooms, webinars, and various online venues.

Changes during the last two years will continue to transform our work together. In-person gatherings will increase in 2022 as well as continuation of an added online presence. For 2022, as safe in-person gatherings occur, we will offer Seed Grant money to encourage the start of more intentional dialogue throughout the conference. Work with our partners also brings many changes as we work together on things like public policy, legislation, events, bilateral agreements, trilateral agreements, and social justice needs.

400.15 - Conference Commission on Religion and Race - CCORR

We have endured another year of operating under the strictures of an ongoing pandemic, and the limbo of a repeatedly postponed General Conference in which our denomination is expected to fracture.

Much of the effort of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CCORR) leadership has been directed in support of the Northern Illinois Conference (NIC) goal, adopted in the Annual Conference of June 2019, “to live out the conviction that racism is incompatible with Christian teaching.” The interfacing of the CCORR with the NIC Anti-Racism Task Force (ARTF) is still a work in progress, with ARTF taking the lead. We have begun quarterly joint meetings between the two entities to build community, facilitate interaction and develop an effective partnership. Nadia Kanhai, Co-chair of CCORR, also serves as chair of the ARTF while Lennox, CCORR Co-chair, is active in the ARTF Champion Team Curriculum and Training Committee, as well as participating in an independent Black Healing Collective. Four CCORR members participate in the Black Healing Collective. A fall retreat, A Journey from Racial Trauma to Spiritual Healing & Renewal, served as a pilot, and the Collective also serves to ventilate concerns pertinent to racial issues in the NIC. Other CCORR members have been active as well, participating in Becoming Beloved Community, Clergy Peer Reflection Series (CPRES), the South Side Cultural Tour, research on mandatory clergy training, Speakers Series and more.

CCORR’s new initiative for 2022 is a racial ethnicity audit of the NIC. CCORR leaders participated in the North Central Jurisdiction (NCJ) Special Session in November 2021, either as a delegate (Nadia Kanhai) or as a facilitator (Lennox Iton) in the “Dismantling Racism” anti-racism program. NCJ delegates endorsed a “Covenant to Build Beloved Community” (<http://www.ncjumc.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/NCJ-Covenant-to-Build-Beloved-Community-2.pdf>) at this Special Session. Among other stipulations, it called for “a racial analysis of local church’s total budgets, clergy salaries, new church starts/revitalizations, church closures, Conference staff, board, task force and committee members, and delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.” In part in response to this urging, CCORR has begun to undertake a racial audit of the NIC to be conducted by Elaine Moy of the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR) using a GCORR protocol. A contract has been negotiated, and data aggregation will begin following the NIC Annual Conference in June.

Other collaborative efforts include keeping lines of communication open with GCORR. For the past couple years, key leaders from CCORR, ARTF and NIC staff have met with GCORR leaders quarterly to discuss initiatives. In a separate initiative, GCORR staff also holds quarterly meetings with a cohort of CCORR leaders from various Annual Conferences, including NIC.

In the area of learning and development, consideration was originally given to having GCORR develop an anti-racism training program to be implemented throughout the NIC beginning in 2022. GCORR now offers training resources online. However, the NIC Anti-Racism Curriculum and Training Committee developed an in-person training workshop that can be taken by either clergy or laity and ideal for local congregations. This training, the Becoming the Beloved Community workshop, launched with a pilot in September 2021, and has now been conducted in the first local church in March 2022. Five more of these training workshops will be offered in local churches in 2022.

400.16 - Committee on Accessibility Historical Report 2022

The NIC Committee on Accessibility Ministries supports local churches in making their buildings and congregations more welcoming to people of all abilities. We do this by awarding annual grants to churches working on accessibility projects; consulting with congregations exploring improvements and connecting them with resources; hosting workshops on accessibility topics; focusing on neurodiversity and authentic welcome and inclusion of people living with mental illness; coordinating information about accessible churches and parsonages; and advocating for fully physically accessible buildings.

When churches request our services, committee members visit a church and meet with the pastor, trustees chair, and/or other interested people. We complete an assessment for them of accessibility issues and work to recommend possibilities for improvement based on the national UMC Committee on Disability Ministries audit. The majority of our budget each year goes to grants for specific projects we have endorsed, such as making areas accessible for people in wheelchairs or with limited mobility, adding equipment for people with visual or hearing impairments to assist them in fully participating in worship, or purchasing products such as large print hymnals. Our grants only ever fund a portion of the project – the local church and other funding entities cover the rest.

In 2021 we worked with Lemont United Methodist Church as they welcomed their new pastor. Neither the parsonage nor the church were accessible for wheelchair users, so we visited the site and wrote a report of recommendations. We also voted to allocate our entire 2021 budget for the renovation project, giving a $3500 grant to Lemont UMC for installation of ramps. In addition, we met with and wrote reports for several other churches and continue to be available for consultation or discussion with any churches interested in doing accessibility projects.

400.17 - Conference Committee on Native American Ministries

During the year our Native American Ministry of Presence on the north side of Chicago served the community through Bill Buchholtz who continues to coordinate this ministry. He provided ministry through his music and presence with the Kateri Center, the American Indian Center, the Indian Health Service, the American Indian Association of Illinois and for funeral services of those who died.

We collaborated and co-sponsored with the NIC Racism task force, and the Indiana Conference Anti-Racism Task Force Race, American and the Church: Unafraid and Unashamed to Tackle it! A speaker series on the History, Causes and effects of Racism and the Role of the church in America. The first presentation was entitled: Unsilenced: Our stories, our voices with speakers: Tim Alexander, Rev. Sandy Harlan, Dr. Betty Hart and Rev. Dr. Michelle Oberwise Lacock -our chair of CONAM. Three more sessions will occur this year on June 23, “Unafraid: Stand Up for Social Justice”; with five speakers; Sept 22 “Undenied: No Longer Willing to be unheard” with Rev. Chebon Kernell Director of the Native American Comprehensive plan speaking and Dec 1, “Called: Doing God’s Work for the Beloved Community” with Dr. Drew Hart.

We worked with Midwest SOARRING and assisted as one of their sponsors for the Native American Fall Gathering in Lockport, Illinois. We also worked with Wesley UMC in Aurora and helped to sponsor The Kairos Blanket Exercise in November.

Over 50 people were in attendance from the church, community, a few friends from the Anti-Racism Task Force and Joseph Standing Bear and Annette McNeilly. Joseph and Annette spoke for an hour during the exercise. Many of the committee members also attended the training from KARIOS regarding the blanket exercise with the hope to be trained as facilitators for the event so we might host more events in the future.

The members of CONAM have celebrated with churches on Native American Ministries Sunday, provided pastoral care with Native Americans, supported Native American cultural events in Illinois and offered learning opportunities about Native culture within the local churches.

We greatly appreciated the Order of Elders hosting Kaitlin Curtice as the speaker this year and would recommend her book, Native: Identity, Belonging and Re-discovering God as a must read. Another recommended read is An Indigenous Peoples' History of the US by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz.

Let us hear the words from Kaitlin Curtice, "For the world to survive, for true justice to take place among us, decolonization must be a goal. We must fight against systems of colonial settler oppression—systems like toxic patriarchy and capitalist greed that give no care to the land—and we must do it together for the sake of all of us, telling stories in those spaces. Decolonization is not just for the oppressed, it is a gift for all of us" (159). May we continue to work together to make that happen.

400.18 - Committee on the Status and Role of Women

Happy Birthday COSROW, Status and Role of Women living our faith for fifty years (April 1972). The General Commission on the Status and Role of Women and the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries have been calling the United Methodist Church to live the Gospel story. How? We live and act the ways of mercy, compassion, love, and justice so that the lives of women and girls will be transformed into lives of wholeness.

Our ministry and mission is to bring creation out of chaos, freedom from oppression, redemption from brokenness, reconciliation from division, resurrection from deadly ways of being. The biblical story comes alive in our actions and our living. We will continue to raise awareness.

400.19 - Director of Connectional Ministries 2022 Historic Report

The work of the Director of Connectional Ministries (DCM) is defined in the United Methodist Book of Discipline. It includes stewarding the vision of the annual conference, including the development, clarification, interpretation, and embodiment of the vision and serving as leader of the continuous process of transformation and renewal necessary for the conference to be faithful to our Christian identity in a changing world. Ensuring alignment of the total resources of the conference to its vision. And ensuring the connections among the local, district, annual conference, and general church ministries for the purpose of networking, resourcing, and communicating their shared ministry.

I have served as DCM for 5 years during which we launched a new coordinating structure, faced the uncertainty and fallout of General Conference 2019, journeyed through a pandemic, transitioned from a compliment of fulltime program staff to a ½ time director, shifted from 6 districts to five and moved to the leadership of interim Bishop John L. Hopkins.

Little did I know what was in store when Bishop Sally Dyck asked me to take on the role temporarily while new structures were developed.

I begin by celebrating the phenomenal support of our churches and Conference Council on Finance and Administration as we paid our 2021 General Church Apportionments in full. These funds are used to advance the work of Christ and the kingdom across the globe and serve as a living witness of our connectional nature. We receive back more than we can contribute as our congregations benefit from the work of the general agencies in resourcing, training, mission presence, disaster response and even local grants.

Since writing the 2021 historic report last spring we have hosted two ordination services and two annual conference sessions. We have navigated the changing landscape of our denomination. Our Events Coordinator, Laura Lopez coordinated 68 events with participation of 7,675 people over the course of 12 months. Our communications staff led by Communications Director, Anne Marie Gerhardt said goodbye to Diane Strzelecki last March and welcomed Lisa Smith as our Communications Specialist in the fall. Together they provide us with weekly e-news, bi-weekly district e-news, monthly Reporters, a constantly updated website, videos and special announcements, while also tending to the communications needs of over 50 committees, taskforces, conference staff, district interests and groups in our conference. They produced over 200 touch points for telling our story during the last 12 months while also using social media to convey our work. Our NIC Reporter and the NIC Today news briefing video from the 2021 annual conference won communications awards. Of note, more recently we produced a new Apportionments interpretation tool found in the February 2022 Reporter and on the conference website.

I am grateful for the commitment and talents of these staff and all those who help to make the connections between our identity as United Methodists and the work of our local congregations and their communities.

400.21 - HIV/AIDS Task Force

Our mission and ministry is to educate, inspire, advocate, and provide spiritual support to those infected and affected by HIV/AIDS, affirming that all individuals living with HIV and AIDS should be treated with dignity and respect.

We affirm the responsibility of the Church to minister to and with these individuals and their families regardless of how the disease was contracted. We urge the church to be actively involved in the prevention of the spread of AIDS by providing educational opportunities to the congregation and the community. The Church should be available to provide counseling to the affected individuals and their families.

No person deserves to be stigmatized. When stigma happens within the church, HIV/AIDS persons and their families are further victimized. We are all created in the image of God. We are all God's children

March 11, 2021 Response from President Biden: President Biden signed The American Rescue Plan Act that includes $3.5 billion to The Global Fund to fight AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria -$250 million for the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief to mitigate pandemic impact Acts on Global HIV control efforts, and to prevent, prepare for, and respond to Coronavirus in developing countries.

We, as a Task Force, will continue to share information and keep the local churches, district, and the conference aware of the National Awareness Days of HIV/AIDS and World AIDS Day, which was first observed on December 1, 1988 as an International Day dedicated to raising awareness of The AIDS Pandemic caused by the spread of HIV Infection and remembering those who have died of the disease.

400.22 - Justice for our Neighbors (JFON) Historical Report

Northern Illinois Justice for Our Neighbors serves immigrant neighbors throughout Northern Illinois with free high quality immigration legal services, engages in education and advocacy and creates cross cultural communities. During the pandemic NIJFON continued to serve the areas of Chicago, Aurora, Rockford, Crystal Lake and Buffalo Grove with its services remotely and most recently with small in-person and hybrid (in-person and virtual) events.

NIJFON's work became critical for our clients as immigrants and people of color were affected disproportionately by the ongoing pandemic. NIJFON continued to open and close cases for current clients, opened 21 new cases for Afghan families for humanitarian parole in September of 2021 to respond to the immigration emergency in Afghanistan. The NIJFON legal team continued to support every single client with court representation when the courts were open and helped clients with re-scheduling of their cases as the pandemic has caused huge delays in the immigration processes further delaying client cases and their justice in court. NIJFON also provided “Know Your Rights” and citizenship classes via zoom, as well as rose to the occasion to provide additional resources to immigrant communities during the pandemic.

NIJFON provided over 2,000 immigrant families that were excluded from stimulus funding with economic support through the Immigrant Family Support Program with our partner from the Illinois Coalition of Immigrant and Refugee Rights (ICIRR). NIJFON realized that it was unjust for immigrants to be excluded from stimulus support during the pandemic when immigrants and people of color have been the hardest hit by the pandemic and the ones that are the city and state frontline workers. Seeing NIJFON clients and family members struggling through the pandemic and reaching out for help, NIJFON decided to provide these much-needed resources along with our legal services and education and advocacy efforts. NIJFON also provided families that applied for the program with additional resources such as legal immigration referrals, housing assistance and legal housing referrals, COVID-19 resources like testing and vaccination site assistance, worker rights workshops and many more needed workshops and resources.

All these services were provided by staff and volunteers from our 5 clinic sites. Our clinic sites have re-engaged with support programs as well as providing workshops and resources needed in the local communities that we serve. Together with our partners and volunteers we are committed and re-committed to our vision of a world where immigrants, asylum seekers and refugees are welcomed supported and live without fear.

400.23 - Lay Servant Ministries 2021 Historical Report

Lay Servant Ministries is alive and well in the Northern Illinois Conference! How we do our ministry has changed but doing our ministry continues. The Conference Committee continued to meet regularly via ZOOM and District Committees continued to meet, plan for lay academies and support the certification process.

As the Conference reorganized into five districts, Lay Servant Ministries worked to mirror that structure. The movement of churches from one district to another meant that members of district committees, even district directors and deans were shuffled. The district committees were for the most part able to move on smoothly with one exception where the replacement members of the committee and leaders need to be recruited.

The districts have been committed to holding Lay Academies and continue our ministry of education and leadership development. Each district has been flexible in their planning while listening to laity within their districts. Some of the districts have only offered virtual sessions, some have offered a combination of virtual and in-person at different times. Some districts hope to be able to hold virtual and in-person simultaneously in the future. We have come to realize that virtual offerings are here to stay and meet the needs of some of our laity.

It's important that the process of bringing new members of the laity into lay servant ministries continues as the Basic course is offered. Additionally, members of the laity are able to move along their journey because districts continue to offer courses that follow the Certified Lay Servant and Certified Lay Speaker curriculum. Additional advanced courses are offered to address the areas of individual devotional life, leadership development, and stewardship. We are working to offer courses in Spanish so more laity can participate in Lay Academies and become better leaders in their local congregations. We're looking forward to new courses being offered so members of our laity can proceed with the continuous learning advocated by John Wesley.

2021 was the year for one of our Certified Lay Ministers and three of our Certified Lay Speakers to be recertified. We also had an initial certification of one Certified Lay Minister. Six Certified Lay Ministers are serving congregations and eleven Certified Lay Ministers are serving in various leadership, congregational care and outreach ministries.

We made plans to offer Informational Sessions regarding Certified Lay Ministers. Helping members of the laity to know about Certified Lay Ministry is the first step in helping some members of the laity take the next step in their journey to answer God's call to go deeper into their ministry.

The Northern Illinois Conference and Lay Servant Ministries will continue to hear God's call for the laity to be in ministry as knowledgeable leaders in their local churches, communities and across the conference.

400.24 - Outdoor and Retreat Ministries

The Outdoor & Retreat Ministries reopened both Camp sites in June 2021 following the government shutdowns of 2020.

This was only possible due to the dedication and commitment of staff who donated 9 months of their lives (July 2020 – March 2021), and FUMC Downers Grove, Roscoe UMC and Cedarbrook Boys and Girls Camps who all donated time, money, labor and materials to enable both sites to reopen.

Both sites looked and felt different under the restrictive COVID guidelines, but as one pastor stated—“Praise God, we're at camp!”

Reynoldswood provided three weeks of NIC Summer Camp programming through J.O.Y., Woodland and Total Camp, and hosted Cedarbrook's Boys Week and Girls Week Summer Camps.

Reynoldswood also renewed the partnership with the Dixon YMCA to host 11 weeks of Summer Day Camp in 2021, and is continuing that successful partnership through 2022.

Wesley Woods hosted two weeks of Camp S.O.A.R.—Special Outdoor Adaptive Recreation—for youth on the autistic spectrum, one week of Family Camp, one week of Buffalo Grave Stake Girls Camp, three weeks of various family reunions, several weekend reunions, and FUMC Downers Grove's annual week of Summer Camp.

The annual Ethiopian-American Kids Camp Weekend converted to an all-day Saturday picnic with waterfront activities to alleviate their own participants' COVID concerns about staying overnight.

Chicago area Slavic churches hosted their annual Outdoor Worship – Baptism in the Lake – Potluck Picnic.

From 2019 – 2021 Wesley Woods also expanded its boat slips from six to eighteen—ensuring Wesley Woods' solid financial footing.

Wesley Woods has already picked up two new guest group camps for 2022.

Staff, Board and Guests are all excited that the NIC Trustees approved the expenditure of monies to install a pool liner and deck membrane for the Camp Reynoldswood Swimming Pool. Supply chain issues and weather prevented installation last fall, but we anticipate resolving those issues this spring and opening the swimming pool this summer.

To lessen the financial impacts of the continuing COVID fears, staff again agreed to being laid-off November 16 through March 31, but this year the Conference has paid each of us the equivalent of unemployment insurance in exchange for us working about 3 hours per day. This has enabled us to maintain a basic level of security and to maintain basic communications with guest groups.

We are excited to have corrected several physical plant issues during the lockdowns and to expand our outdoor ministry to transform and nurture guests and neighbors into principled and passionate Christian Disciples in 2022.

400.25 - NIC Chapter of PAUMCS

National PAUMCS

The Professional Administrators of The United Methodist Connectional Structure (PAUMCS, <https://paumcs.org>) is a national United Methodist organization that focuses on the unique ministry of those who work in a United Methodist church office, be it in the local church, district, conference, episcopal or general agency. The mission of the Professional Administrators of the United Methodist Connectional Structure is to provide administrative professionals a supportive base for unity and fellowship and to promote individual growth, professional development, continuing education, and spiritual enrichment. PAUMCS members provide essential administrative support that brings organization and continuity to their ministry. United Methodist church administrators are the critical support throughout the denomination and are the vital link for the connection.

Under the authority & guidance of the General Council of Finance and Administration (GCFA), PAUMCS provides outstanding advanced professional training and enrichment for United Methodist church administrators through the PAUMCS Certification Institute and National PAUMCS Annual Conferences. (§807.19 UM Discipline 2016)

There are currently 14 National PAUMCS members from the NIC PAUMCS, nine of whom have completed the Certification program, and three of whom have completed the Advanced Certification program. The 2022 PAUMCS Conference “Refresh, Renew, Restore” took place in person at Lake Junaluska, NC from April 21-23.

Northern Illinois Conference Chapter of PAUMCS

The membership of the Northern Illinois Conference Chapter of PAUMCS (NIC PAUMCS) consists of all secretaries, administrative assistants and staff, paid and unpaid, who serve in a Northern Illinois Conference church, district, conference, episcopal or general agency. The program and budget are administered by the NIC PAUMCS Steering Team, who are chapter members. There is no chapter dues; programs are provided through event registration fees and donations.

Because of the ups and downs of the pandemic this year, the NIC PAUMCS has continued to regularly meet together for an hour via Zoom every month to receive training and to share our insights around topics that are relevant to our work & ministry in the church office. Topics covered during this Annual Conference year were “Being the Church this Summer,” “How Spiritual Gifts Impact Being the Church,” “Getting Ready for Church Conferences,” “Records Retention ~ Should it stay or should it go?” “Preparing for the Holidays with Care,” “A Time to Breathe Retreat,” “Statistical Reports & Lay Leadership Portal,” “Building Blocks of Church Administrative Series: Staff Meetings,” “Building Blocks of Church Administration Series: Partnering with your Pastor,” and “Building Blocks of Church Administration Series: Working with Difficult People.”

We hope to be able to meet together in person next year, however meeting once a month via zoom has been an instrumental way for us to consistently meet our mission of providing “a supportive base for unity and fellowship and to promote individual growth, professional development, continuing education, and spiritual enrichment.”

Respectfully submitted, NIC Chapter Steering Team

400.26 - Program Ministries

The vision of the Northern Illinois Conference is “making and supporting vital Christians in vital congregations that engage with their communities and the world for peace, justice and mercy.”

Program Ministries in the conference were restructured in 2021 and are divided into three primary areas: Vital Congregations Ministries, Discipleship Ministries and Justice and Mercy Ministries. These umbrella areas are represented at the conference Shepherding Team table by connectors, persons who bring the interest of the work to the larger body. Since the inception of the Shepherding Team our connectors have been Mary Rawlinson, Meg Park and Laura Wilson Underwood. I am grateful for their pioneering spirit as we navigated a new vision for this work. They have labored and learned in setting program budgets and sharing oversight for our conference grants. With the 2022 conference year, new leadership will take on these roles and our learning from the first season will help us continue to serve faithfully.

The conference budget and our energies reflect the tangible ways we support our strategic goals, established in 2019 focused on Discipleship, Anti-Racism and Vital Congregations. These goals are at the heart of our efforts. We could not have done all that we have in these areas without the efforts of committed co-chairs and task-force members. Behind all this thoughtful, energetic work is our Project Manager, Amania Drane. Amania has been a powerhouse giving framework and context to the efforts while also connecting us to the wider United Methodist community. We would not have made the strides we celebrate without her leadership. Reports from these groups can be found elsewhere in this historic section of the journal.

Among the hardest hit areas of ministry during the pandemic is our camping program. Closed early in the crisis and only minimally functioning in 2021 our camp staff and facilities have suffered. We are blessed with some missional hearts as our Camping Director, Jeff Casey and his crew give of themselves even when we were not able to provide financial support. Work is needed to rebuild and reinvigorate the camping properties and ministries.

There continues to be keen interest in continuous learning from the laity and clergy of the Northern Illinois Conference. Much of the leadership development for clergy is addressed through the programs of Congregational Development and Redevelopment reported elsewhere in these historic reports. The Board of Laity has developed a strong tradition through the laity convocation and each year a faithful following of laity attend this event. In addition, the Lay Servant Ministries Board and chairperson Peggy Hansen have equipped countless leaders in our churches. This group has successfully led us into the new world of Certified Lay Ministers.

This year our five districts hosted leadership training events with phenomenal participation. The energy and eagerness to “make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world” is alive and well in our annual conference. Events managed through the conference office included 7,675 participants even in a pandemic year.

I am grateful for the vision, energy and faith of all those who are part of our program ministries.

400.27 - Program Ministries (Council for Older Adult Ministries - OAM)

The OAM Council refrained from in-person meetings and engagements during the pandemic. In the meantime, the Council contacted conference-related senior care institutions (Bethany Methodist Communities, Chicago Methodist Senior Services, Oak Crest Retirement, and Wesley Willows) for the resumption of the Golden Cross Sunday Offering program in 2022. OAM has traditionally granted scholarships to deserving workers in these institutions. A smaller executive committee did meet before the end of the year to map out related activities for the coming year. The Council continues to make its presence and objectives known to constituents by email and the Internet. The NIC OAM Facebook Page was active all the time as a forum for information and reference on older adults. The Discipleship Ministries (GBOD) in Nashville and the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries (UMA) have maintained communication with NIC through OAM.

Document: 400.28a - Conference Treasurer Historical Report

Constraints on worship and local church ministries continued with the pandemic into 2021. We have heard multiple stories of local churches overcoming substantial hurdles to remain in ministry. The experience includes financial stress for churches in every context. The stress compounds the experience of the first year of the pandemic in 2020 and the institutional shock of the 2019 Special Session of the General Conference.

Remarkable, then, was the apportionment performance for the conference, which increased to $5,202,637. A strong improvement of 12% from 2020. And while we are grateful for the improvement, apportionment collections for the conference are still nearly $1 million below norms of 2015 and before. We respond with gratefulness to our local churches for their faithfulness and continue to approach spending with the green eyeshade of practicality. Spending in 2021 was well below budgeted amounts, largely caused by COVID’s impact upon programming and plans. We also did not fill staff vacancies when they opened and the camp staff was furloughed over the winter months for the first time.

The strong apportionment collections and reduced spending meant the Northern Illinois Conference was one of 7 conferences able to pay 100% of the general church apportionment for 2021. It has been a long time since this was a possibility for us and CCFA is thrilled and immensely proud to reach this milestone even as we face multiple hardships in every local setting. We were able to achieve this goal without using funds from a second federal grant from the Paycheck Protection Program nor were any reserves used for operations of the conference or payment of general church apportionments.

The Red Door Fund created by an April 2013 Special Session of the annual conference has continued with no deficiencies and no delinquencies. The original agreement with Wintrust was for 7 years. By mutual agreement, in 2019 we negotiated a 10-year extension to the arrangement. The new arrangement eliminated interest rate risk to the program. We continue to reduce the loan owed to Wintrust more quickly than scheduled.

The property insurance program, because of reduced claims, ended the year with significant revenue to meet all costs. Revenue for the clergy benefits programs increased in 2021, relative to 2019.

The Conference is making significant contributions to the pre-82 defined benefit pension program, $1,041,057 in 2021 and we will make another contribution of $1,725,021 in 2022. There is no contribution due in 2023. We are forecasted to be 98% funded after the December 2022 payment. Funds are being drawn from the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits reserves, which we forecast will be depleted by 2023. Should market instability cause a loss in assets, the undesignated Conference reserves will need to be used in 2024. Wespath has proposed changes to the pension program for elders which will require us to adapt how we assess local churches for pension and provides an opportunity to rebuild the reserve for potential future obligations without an increase in costs to local churches. Wespath has approved the Conference’s benefit funding plan as documented on the attached.

Again, the Northern Illinois Conference received an unqualified approval of our annual audit. The complete audit is part of this report.

We are blessed with a talented and church-loving Treasurer's staff. I am thankful for the opportunity of serving as Conference Treasurer and apologize broadly to all who are still waiting on a return phone call.

400.28c - Treasurer Historical Report - Wespath Approval of Conference Benefits

This funding plan incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the plan sponsor's obligations and funding of the benefits provided to clergy and laity, as noted below.

It is understood by the signees that defined benefit plan liabilities [Pre-82 Plan, Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and Clergy Retirement Security Program Defined Benefit (CRSP DB) and other sponsored defined benefit plans] continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the plan sponsor still has a liability (obligation) and potential future contribution due to the plan.

All portfolios are broadly diversified among major asset classes and all sectors of the economy but in different proportions to reflect each fund’s objectives. The Foundation retains SouthCoI Advisors, LLC as its investment consultant. The investment opportunities available through the Foundation offer churches and UMC-related organizations professionally managed, well-diversified accounts, invested according to the guidelines for socially responsible investing outlined in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church. In addition to screening out objectionable companies, the Foundation also screens in companies that rate more highly than their peers in the areas of Environmental, Social, and Governance, always optimizing asset allocation and performance.

The investment policies of the Foundation provide for a disciplined approach and to meet a variety of investment objectives. Net of all fees, the returns of the three fund models are (up to the most recent reportable month, as of this historical report, March 31, 2022):

As of March 31, 2022, the Foundation had approximately $94.5 million under management through nearly 700 accounts, owned by 120 local churches and several agencies and organizations. More than 200 of the accounts benefit several dozens of annuitants, trust income beneficiaries, and the charitable interests of donor advised funds.

Since 1999 the Foundation has provided several grants each year, totaling more than $1,000,000.

The Foundation continues to participate in Dollars for Scholars (DFS), operated by the United Methodist Higher Education Foundation. DFS matches support from a student’s church, UMHEF, participating United Methodist-related schools, and participating Conference Foundations. By participating in this scholarship program, the Foundation completes the matching of some local church scholarships to magnify $1000 into $4000.

The Foundation also participated in the Excellence in Clergy Leadership Scholarship, operated by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. If an applicant receives matches from all five partners, they can receive $12,500; the Foundation pledges to match up to five recipients for $2500 each.

In the fall of 2021 and spring of 2022, the Foundation sponsored two “Cultivating the Craft of Asking” cohorts. Each cohort participated in five live interactive online workshops to equip pastoral and church leaders for the craft of cultivating financial support for mission and ministry. The cohorts raised tens of thousands of dollars for ministry and hundreds of thousands for capital campaigns.

Starting in 2022, the Foundation began sponsoring a “Fresh Expressions” field education cohort of five Garrett-Evangelical students to receive $4500 each. Field education is a critical component of the students’ seminary degree requirements. Fresh Expressions church communities are filled with people who would not ordinarily find themselves in a traditional church setting.

400.30 - United Methodist Women Historical Report 2021

In 2020, the United Methodist Women in the Northern Illinois Conference experienced personal and organizational challenges. The excitement of new mission ideas and programming seemed lost before the first quarter ended. Yet, they persisted in learning about virtual meetings and reassessed their goals for 2021.

- On January 23, 2021, the Assistant Dean and committee opened the year with a one-day Winter Mission. The morning session began with Emily Jones, Executive for Racial Justice United Methodist Women, Inc, and Kristin J. Carothers, Ph.D. leading “Faith and the Prison Pipeline: Understanding and Interpreting the School-to-Prison Pipeline.” The afternoon discussion platforms included excerpts from «Faith Talks» and «response podcasts.»
- Several women across Northern Illinois joined sisters in the Illinois Great Rivers Conference (IGRC) to participate in the National Climate Justice Federal Legislative Day on April 14, 2021. Christina Krost, IGRC Vice President, was instrumental in organizing meetings with Senators Tammy Duckworth and Dick Durbin, and NIC women initiated meetings with their respective House Representatives.
- In May, the Spiritual Growth Coordinator invited us to “Celebrate and Participate” by sharing our spiritual journeys and diversity through word, art, dance, and music. Elgin District Superintendent Darneather Murph-Heath closed the afternoon by leading the Love Feast.
- Over one hundred women participated in our July Summer Mission (virtual) weekend. Friday night began with Bible Study and worship, ending with Rev Harriet Cross, FUMC of Wilmington, IL, leading the Love Feast. Saturday’s classes were Pushout: The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools (led by Audrey Sherman & Leah Ostwald); Bearing Witness in the Kin-dom: Living into the Church’s Moral Witness through Radical Discipleship (English, led by Judith Siaba; Korean, led by Rev. Young-Mee Park, Hinsdale UMC; Spanish, led by Rosa Villarreal); Becoming Peacemakers in a Culture of Violence, a study for youth ages 12-17 (led by Diana Davis); and Responding to Violence, a study for children ages 5-11 (led by Rev. Harriett Cross). With the assistance of both Language Coordinators, courses were offered in three languages (English, Korean, and Spanish).
- The virtual Annual Celebration and Meeting, “Leaning on the Everlasting Arms: Listening, Transforming, Reaching Out,” was held on October 23, 2021. Bishop Hopkins offered morning greetings, and the speaker was Rev. Megan Dean Tobola, Lead Pastor of Wesley UMC in Naperville. Nichea Ver Veer Guy, Michigan Conference and National Racial Justice Charter Support Team member highlighted the Charter for Racial Justice. JAM (Jesus And Me), children’s choir from St. Andrew UMC in Carol Stream, provided music. During the business meeting, the body voted to go from six to five districts and make appropriate name changes. Each of the current districts shared a photo montage of memories, after which former National Director Marta Rodriguez installed 2022 Conference and District Officers. Those completing elected terms were honored with special recognition certificates and pins. Rev. Norval Brown, Cary UMC, ended the meeting with a short worship service and Love Feast.

Since the United Methodist Women is an autonomous organization (as of 2012), the officers and members chose to follow the Northern Illinois Conference District Realignment design for local churches. Therefore, all-district names and official business commenced on January 1, 2022.

May our mission, advocacy, and service continue for years to come!

400.31 - Africa University

You are the light of the world. A city on top of a hill can't be hidden. —Matthew 5:14 (CEB)

This year, The United Methodist Church marks 30 years of vibrant, transformative ministry through Africa University (AU). Thank you, Northern Illinois Conference, for your faithfulness and generosity in bringing the dream of Africa University to life. In celebrating its 30th anniversary, Africa University is honoring the past and looking to the future, while remaining true to its mission as the cornerstone ministry for United Methodist-related leadership development in Africa.

Like the year that preceded it, 2021 affirmed that God's grace is sufficient in all circumstances. As the year unfolded, the coronavirus pandemic claimed more lives, restricted travel, and damaged livelihoods. Unable to be together on campus, the students, faculty, and staff grieved, pivoted, supported, and encouraged each other, and persevered.

Africa University found new opportunities for missional engagement in 2021. The year's highlights include:

- Effective online-only teaching, learning and student assessment: About 99 percent of students participated in online learning. Enrollment held steady at 3,060 students and more than 500 graduates from 24 African countries were awarded degrees in July 2021.
- The installation of AU's fifth Chancellor: Bishop Gaspar João Domingos of the Western Angola Episcopal Area was elected Chancellor following the death of Bishop John K. Yambasu of Sierra Leone.
- Research and community service:
 - AU researchers received US$2 million in funding for regional initiatives to eradicate malaria, tuberculosis, and other communicable diseases. Africa University established a Malaria Institute to support efforts to eradicate malaria.
 - AU's students and graduates led, and showed their love of neighbor, with initiatives to feed hungry families, care for the environment, and improve the quality of life of legally blind parents and their children.
 - AU received the 2021 Jairos Jiri Humanitarian Award by the Government of Zimbabwe for its pandemic impact mitigation efforts.

Africa University is grateful to the Northern Illinois Conference for investing 100 percent of its budget commitment to the Africa University Fund (AUF) in 2021. Thank you for ensuring access to a life-changing higher education experience for Africa University students.

AU is part of the Northern Illinois Conference's story of restoring hope, equipping, and sending forth young leaders to shape an abundant life for themselves and for the communities they serve.

Thank you, Northern Illinois Conference, for letting your light shine for young women and men who would otherwise be left on the sidelines. "A city on top of a hill can't be hidden." Similarly, AU's current students and its more than 10,000 graduates to date are that metaphor made real. The Northern Illinois Conference walks alongside these young people as they hone their abilities, live fully into their purpose, and join in the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

400.33 - Candler School of Theology

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has lived into our mission, educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. This year, as we leaned into this critical work and continued to adapt to a world changed by the coronavirus pandemic, we imagined new possibilities for students who are called by God to pursue serious theological study and preparation for ministry. For some, opening avenues to graduate theological education requires moving financial obstacles, and for others, geography or family responsibilities may be the barriers. Candler is committed to assisting students in removing these barriers and opening new pathways to ministry.

An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Methodist value of ecumenical openness, enthusiastically welcoming students from 43 denominations, with 45% of MDiv students coming from the Wesleyan tradition. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 466 from 16 countries and 38 states, 45% persons of color (U.S.), and a median age of 28 among MDivs. This diversity is a blessing, enriching our students and our larger community and providing a "learning laboratory" for ministry in the 21st century—ministry that reaches across difference, works to resolve injustice, and embodies Christ's love in and among us.

Candler offers six single degrees (MDiv, MTS, MRL MRPL, ThM, DMin) and ten dual degrees. Our DMin is 90% online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while earning their degrees. Its high 87% completion rate illustrates both the quality of our students and Candler's commitment to their success. This year, we increased online offerings in other degrees as well. Now students can complete the Master of Religion and Public Life completely online; the Master of Religious Leadership with concentrations in Youth Ministry, Justice, Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation, or Wesleyan Leadership and Heritage in a hybrid format; and MDiv students can complete core classes online. Plus, our new Remote Teaching Parish (RTP) program allows MDiv students who have jobs in ecclesial settings far from our Atlanta campus to take core classes online and complete their contextual education requirements at their place of ministry, participating in mentor-led online groups with other RTP students.

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid is a top priority. In 2020-2021, we awarded more than $6.8 million in financial aid, with 100% of MDiv and 98.5% of all students receiving support. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, MRL, and ThM students who are enrolled part-time or more receive a scholarship covering at least 50% of tuition for the length of their program.

Hundreds of laity and theology students alike have joined in classes and events offered through The Candler Foundry, our innovative program to make theological education accessible to all. Through short and semester-length courses taught by Candler faculty, videos and discussion guides to spark conversation in groups or one-on-one, and online panel discussions, those who want to delve more deeply into theology and the Bible have the chance to do just that. View the latest offerings at candlerfoundry.emory.edu.

Associate Dean of Methodist Studies the Rev. Dr. Anne Burkholder will retire from Candler at the end of the 2021-22 academic year. We are grateful to God for her energetic and skillful leadership in this vital area as she strengthened the connection between our students and conferences throughout the UMC, mentoring them as they discerned their call and navigated the ordination process.

Candler's ability to fulfill our mission to provide the church with the faithful and creative leaders it needs depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this essential ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

400.34 - Drew University Theological School

In spring and fall of 2021, Drew Theological School began returning to its Madison, New Jersey, campus for some classes, meetings, and worship. As with many churches, in person events were held in spaces equipped for live-streaming or Zoom participation. The shift to remote learning during COVID-19 pandemic thus significantly expanded our online course offerings and accessible community events. Now, a number of students in Drew's masters programs will progress through their programs in U.S. and global locations far from New Jersey. This year, we welcomed 150 new students, again the largest class in a decade, and have a current enrollment of 376 students.

Drew cultivates pastors, preachers, deacons, activists, teachers, and thought leaders who are taking their place as the next generation of faith leaders and change agents. Diversity is a hallmark of our student body, including theological, vocational, age, and especially racial and national diversity both international—Asian, African, and South American and U.S.—black, white, Latinx, and Asian American—students. Our student body is truly global, with 35% of students from 21 different countries. For the first time in its history, Drew has an African student association, initiated by Drew Theological School students from 14 African countries, that is already contributing richly to the Drew community both on campus and online. We have welcomed new faculty in Latinx ministries and world Christianity. We have also seen an increase in United Methodist students particularly interested in the school's Gospel-inspired traditions of social justice advocacy and widely inclusive ministry. We are proud that many United Methodist Global Fellows have recently chosen to continue their journey in ministry at Drew. Our UMC graduates are serving in Greater New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, and New York conferences as well as conferences across the country.

The faculty is committed to continuing to develop the curriculum in ways that take seriously the wide range of lived experience and calls to ministry of the students that gather in our global classrooms. All degree programs at the Theological School include interdisciplinary courses that demand out-of-the-box thinking, apprenticeship training that addresses real-world issues, and modes of learning that promote adaptability and innovation. Our MDiv and MATM degrees include a required gateway year, vocational pathways, and experiential learning that develops and deepens adaptive leadership skills. The curriculum features a team-designed and taught interdisciplinary sequence of core courses reflecting the integration of the theological disciplines and practices characteristic of the life of faith. The faculty have also articulated shared values that are infused across the teaching and learning at Drew: a commitment to anti-racism; gender and sexual-identity equality; eco-sustainability and environmental justice; and interfaith understanding and cooperation.

400.35 - Duke Divinity School Historical Report

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, the Irene and William McCutchen Associate Professor of Theology and Reconciliation and director of the Center for Reconciliation, began his two-year term as the dean of Duke Divinity School (DDS) on July 1. Colón-Emeric has been a member of the faculty since 2008. An ordained elder in the North Carolina Annual Conference, he directs the Central American Methodist Course of Study and the Peru Theological Initiative and serves on the United Methodist Committee on Faith and Order.

A new partnership with North Carolina Wesleyan College enables qualified undergraduates to take courses at DDS beginning in 2022. With the Duke Accelerated Pastoral Formation Program, funded by the Kern Family Foundation, select undergraduates can begin coursework toward Duke's Hybrid M.Div. or Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.) degree while completing their baccalaureate degree. DDS launched the Asian House of Studies under the leadership of Sangwoo Kim, senior director of the Methodist House of Studies, and Jung Choi, senior director of Wesleyan Formation Initiatives.

Three new certificates were approved this year. The Certificate in Methodist/Wesleyan Studies is aimed at pan-Methodist/Wesleyan students to engage in robust training in Wesleyan theology and spiritual practice. In the Certificate in Latinx Studies, students will hone skills for ministry while becoming part of a learning community that is committed to and seeks to learn from Hispanic/Latinx traditions and cultures. The Certificate in Worship is designed to prepare students to engage in practical formation and theoretical reflection on worship in Christian congregations.

DDS announced 12 full-tuition fellowships supporting incoming residential M.Div. students who pursue a certificate in Black Church Studies or Latinx Studies. The Fellowships also provides mentoring opportunities and up to $24,000 in stipend support and internships.

The Office of Wesleyan Engagement announced the "Rediscovering the Heart of Methodism" a missional initiative with the support of the Kern Family Foundation. It seeks to nurture leadership within the Wesleyan tradition as a constructive response to a turbulent ecclesial landscape.

Supported by a gift from the Duke Endowment, DDS launched "To Heal the Wounded Soul", a joint project of the Office of Black Church Studies and the Clergy Health Initiative to strengthen Carolina Wesleyan pastors who are Black, Indigenous, or people of color, including from the AME, AME Zion, CME, and UMC churches.

DDS welcomed the largest incoming class in school history, with 259 new students. The M.Div. program welcomed 133 students, including 52 Hybrid M.Div. students. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) welcomed 36 students, the Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) gained 33, and the M.A. gained 17. The Master of Theology (Th.M.) enrolled 12 students, and the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) seven.

DDS hired three new faculty members in 2021. Polly Ha is an Associate Professor of the History of Christianity. Ronald K. Rittgers is the Chair in Lutheran Studies and Professor of the History of Christianity. Daniel Castelo is the William Kellon Quick Professor of Theology and Methodist Studies.

400.36 - Saint Paul School of Theology

Educating tomorrow's leaders by offering on-campus, online, and hybrid learning courses at a FLEXible schedule, Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. Grounded in the academic study of faith and ministry, theology is practiced in a traditional classroom and a contextual curriculum.

As the global pandemic continues to bring challenges to our daily lives, Saint Paul School of Theology began the 2021-2022 academic year, again offering students an option to attend courses via Zoom or on-campus while maintaining safety protocols. Our weekly chapel service continues to be available online, allowing staff and students to come together as one institution where all are invited to create a sacred atmosphere from wherever they are.

This year, we have had many faculty and staff changes. After many years of tremendous service to students and the Seminary, Dr. James Brandt and Dr. Hal Knight announced retirement plans effective at the end of the 2021-2022 academic year. In addition, Dr. Jeanne Hoeft will step down from her role as Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean at the end of the academic year but will continue as faculty. New additions to Saint Paul include Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, Assistant Professor of Ethics, Church and Society; Dr. Tiffany Nagel Monroe, Executive Director of the Oklahoma Campus; Dr. Lucas Endicott, COS School Regional Director; and Rabbi Michael Zedek, Rabbi-in-Residence.

Saint Paul welcomed 45 new students for the 2021-2022 academic year. New student enrollment for the Fall semester increased by 44% (34 new students), with an overall increase for the year of 73%. Enrollment remained strong for the MDiv program with promising growth in our newly designed MATS and MACM programs. Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educated 228 individual students, 49 of which were new students, with approximately 550 registrations and offering a total of 50 courses. Serving 32 Conferences, 121 Full Time and 106 Part-Time Licensed Local Pastors comprised these registrations.

Our aim has always been to utilize technology as a conduit to bring faculty and students together regardless of whether they are on-campus or joining remotely through Zoom. All our classrooms began upgrades in Fall 2021 with offerings from Neat. Each smaller classroom added a 65" neat.board, a self-contained screen that functions as a full Zoom room, as well as an electronic whiteboard. We implemented neat.bars in other classrooms that connect to our classrooms' existing screens. We are currently implementing neat.bar pros, just released at the end of 2021, in each of our large classrooms. At Saint Paul School of Theology, we have always tried to be pioneers with distance-learning technologies.

Saint Paul School of Theology is blessed to be your partner in ministry and help those seeking to discover more and answer the call. May we continue to live into the call of Jesus Christ to be faithful witnesses for healing in these unsettled times and for generations to come.

400.37 - United Theological Seminary

For the past 150 years, United Theological Seminary has educated men and women for Christian ministry within the historic traditions of the United Brethren, Evangelical United Brethren and United Methodist churches. On October 11, 1871, United Theological Seminary, then Union Biblical Seminary, held its first classes in Dayton, Ohio. From a starting class of 11 students, the seminary has grown to 488 students in its most recent academic year,* representing 39 denominations, 11 countries, and 39 states. Today's seminary serves a diverse student body that is 53% African American.

On October 10, 2021, the seminary celebrated its 150th anniversary and burned the mortgage on its current campus facilities, freeing up $400,000 annually to support student scholarships.

In 2021, United received a grant of $1 million from Lilly Endowment Inc.'s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative to expand the seminary's Houses of Study, which offer specialized master's tracks to equip students for the unique ministry needs of the communities, movements and denominations they serve. The seminary has introduced six Houses of Study, currently enrolling for 2022-23:

- Fresh Expressions, directed by Dr. Michael Beck;
- Mosaix, in partnership with Mosaix Global Network and directed by Rev. Chip Freed;
- Black United Methodist, directed by Dr. Vance Ross;
- Hispanic, 100% in Spanish for Spanish-speaking leaders, directed by Dr. Jorge Ochoa;
- Global Pentecostal, directed by Dr. Mark Chironna;
- Global Wesleyan, directed by Rev. Gregory Stover.

Because United believes so passionately in this initiative, the seminary has dedicated additional resources to offer half-tuition scholarships for inaugural students in its Houses of Study programs.

United also introduced the Academic Dean's Scholarship, which provides 50% tuition for the duration of a master's degree program, and the Presidential Scholarship, awarding up to $5,000 per year to new students.

In honor of United's 150th anniversary year, a generous donor gifted $2 million to help graduating students reduce their educational debt. Each graduate in the 2021-22 academic year will receive up to $20,000 toward student debt from theological and previous academic studies.

As United looks forward to the next 150 years with gratitude and anticipation, the seminary remains committed to the preparation of faithful and fruitful Christian leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
Chicago, Illinois

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects the consolidated financial position of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church at December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Conference and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Conference's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

ACCOUNTING TECHNOLOGY ADVISORY

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but it is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Conference's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2021 and 2020

1. NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Northern Illinois Conference United Methodist Church Insurance Association, and the Red Door Fund, NFP (collectively, the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is an incorporated nonprofit organization, which represents United Methodist congregations located in the northern third of the State of Illinois. The Conference was organized for Christian, religious, church, benevolent, and charitable purposes. The Conference operates two camps, Reynoldswood and Wesley Woods that are open year round to host program retreats for churches and other youth groups. The financial aspects of the Conference are governed by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (the Council); a board elected by the Conference membership. The function of the Council is to develop, maintain, and administer the fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Conference.

The Conference purchases several group insurance policies to provide property and liability coverage to local churches. The Northern Illinois Conference United Methodist Church Insurance Association (NICUM) program is steered by a self-electing committee including at least three Conference trustees.

The Red Door Fund, NFP was incorporated with a Conference Council selected by the Conference's Council and the Conference's Trustees. The Red Door Fund, NFP holds mortgage notes receivable from the Conference's local churches funded by a note to Wintrust Bank. The note is secured by mortgages on the Conference's property and pledges of the Conference investment accounts.

Numerous United Methodist and United Methodist related organizations which have some affiliation with the Conference are not reflected in these consolidated financial statements. These organizations are separate legal entities and are governed by their own Boards of Directors.

A summary of the Conference's program services are described below:

Cabinet Support - Consists of conference leadership in charge of providing support, setting rules and guidelines, and helping reach financial and membership goals for local churches throughout the Conference.

Miscellaneous Ministry - Support for various boards and committees within the Conference who work towards creating inclusive, diverse, and stable ministries throughout the Conference.

General Church - The Conference contributes to the ministry of the global church through payment of apportionments administered by the General Council on Finance and Administration.

Voluntary Offerings - Various offerings provided to those who ask for support with small needs such as food, rent, and various small, one-time fees.

Martin Keagy Rural Ministry - Fund setup to support rural ministries throughout the Conference.

Outdoor and Retreat Ministries - Operates as both an NIC camp that provides summer camp for youth and young adults throughout northern Illinois.

Ministerial Education Activities - Continuing education and seminary scholarships awarded by the Board of Ordained Ministry to Northern Illinois clergy in accordance with Book of Discipline provisions for the Ministerial Education Fund.

Board of Pension Activities - Health, pension, and disability programs for enrolled active and retired clergy of the Conference.

NICUM Insurance Activities - Related corporation contracting for group property and liability insurance which is extended to participating NIC churches at a premium.

Conference Administration - Used to fund the day-to-day operations of the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General Basis of Accounting

The consolidated financial statements of the Conference have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less when acquired. The Conference maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts at financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The amount of uninsured cash amounted to $4,754,595 and $4,157,413 as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively. The Conference has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable from churches are stated at the amount billed to member churches. Accounts receivable - other are primarily due from churches and are stated at the amount invoiced. The Conference provides an allowance for doubtful accounts, which is equal to all amounts over 365 days past due.

Notes Receivable

Notes receivable are carried at the outstanding principal balance plus accrued interest receivable. Interest income is recognized monthly and continues to accrue over the life of the loan. The allowance for credit losses is estimated based upon historical losses and existing economic conditions. Notes receivable are considered past due after three consecutive monthly principal payments are missed. Notes receivable are evaluated for impairment based upon payment history, economic conditions, and communications between management of the Conference and the debtors. Interest continues to accrue on impaired loans, with cash receipts being recorded first to interest, then to principal. Uncollectible notes receivable are charged off when management determines that all reasonable collection efforts have been exhausted.

Investments

Money market funds and certificates of deposit are stated at cost. Investments in mutual fund securities are reported at their fair values in the consolidated statement of financial position. Pooled investment funds are valued using an estimated net asset value (NAV). Investment return is reported net in the consolidated statement of activities and consists of interest and dividend income, realized and unrealized gains and losses, less external and direct internal investment expenses. Investment return is reflected in the consolidated statement of activities as income without donor restrictions, or income with donor restrictions based upon the existence and nature of any donor restrictions.

Beneficial Interest in Real Estate

The Conference received a beneficial interest in real estate, which is considered another investment. The beneficial interest was initially valued at fair value on the date the real estate interest was contributed, and is subsequently valued at fair value. The donor is responsible for executory costs of the real estate during the donor's lifetime, and the residence cannot be sold during the donor's lifetime. No obligation has been recorded for the donor's use of the real estate during the donor's lifetime as the amount is immaterial.

Property and Equipment

Conference policy requires that all furniture and equipment over $1,500 be capitalized. Depreciation for equipment, furniture, and fixtures is computed using the straight-line method over five to seven years. Buildings and leasehold improvements are depreciated over 30 years using the straight-line method of depreciation. Motor vehicle are depreciated over five years using the straight-line method of depreciation. Property and equipment is recorded at cost, if purchased, or at fair value on the date of gift, if received as a contribution.

Property Held for Sale

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (USGAAP) requires that long-lived assets to be sold be classified as "held for sale" in the period in which certain criteria are met, such as the estimated timeframe in which the assets are expected to be sold. As a result, depreciation is not recorded on an asset deemed to be held for sale, and it is recorded in the financial statements at the lower of its carrying value or fair value less cost to sell.

Net Assets

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor restrictions. From net assets without donor restrictions, the Conference Council on Finance and Administration has created designations or a quasi-endowment.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions - Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision of state law. The Conference is not classified as a private foundation.

Fair Value Measurements

USGAAP establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework uses a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. USGAAP requires the Conference to maximize the use of observable inputs when measuring fair value. The hierarchy describes three levels of inputs, which are as follows:

- Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in inactive markets; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs.

In many cases, a valuation technique used to measure fair value includes inputs from more than one level of the fair value hierarchy. The lowest level of significant input determines the placement of the entire fair value measurement in the hierarchy. The categorization of an investment within the hierarchy reflects the relative ability to observe the fair value measure and does not necessarily correspond to the perceived risk of that investment.

If an investment that is measured using net asset value (NAV) has a readily determinable fair value (that is, it can be traded at the measurement date at its published NAV), it is included in Level 1 of the hierarchy. Otherwise, investments measured using NAVs are not included in Level 1, 2, or 3, but are separately reported.

Valuation Techniques

The following is a description of the valuation techniques used for assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis. There have been no changes to the techniques used during the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Mutual funds: Valued at the closing quoted price in an active market.

Pooled investments: Valued at NAV, as reported by the fund managers. These funds do not trade in active markets. However, generally the unit price is based on quoted market prices of the underlying assets owned, divided by the number of outstanding units.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Interest rate swap: Pricing models utilize a series of market inputs to determine the present value of future cash flows, with adjustments, as required for credit and liquidity risk.

Beneficial interest in real estate: Valued by appraisal every five years, and during interim years, valued by adjusting the previous appraisal by an index for this type of real estate.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with USGAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Apportionments

Apportionments represent each member church's contributions to support ordained leaders, mission and evangelism, and reconnecting the connection. Apportionments revenue is recognized in the period the contributions are received.

Contributions

Gifts of cash and other assets received without donor stipulations are reported as revenue and net assets without donor restrictions. Gifts received with a donor stipulation that limits their use are reported as restricted revenue and net assets with donor restrictions. When a donor stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Gifts of land, buildings, equipment, and other long-lived assets are reported as revenue and net assets without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how such assets must be used, in which case the gifts are reported as restricted revenue and net assets with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations for the time long-lived assets must be held, expirations of restrictions resulting in reclassification of net assets with donor restrictions as net assets without donor restrictions are reported when the long-lived assets are placed in service.

Donated Property

Property from closed churches within the Northern Illinois Methodist Church Conference is donated to the Conference per their bylaws and reported at the estimated fair value.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Revenue Recognition

The Conference recognizes revenue from exchange transaction in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09. Revenue from Contracts with Customers, as amended. ASU No. 2014-09 applies to exchange transactions with customers that are bound by contracts or similar arrangements and establishes a performance obligation approach to revenue recognition. The Conference records the following exchange transaction revenue in its consolidated statements of activities for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020:

Property insurance revenue: The Conference provides general liability and property insurance to the churches. The Conference enters into a group policy for all necessary coverages, and then allocates the costs of the packages to all participating local churches in a manner which seeks to replicate costs to the group covering that specific local church. The churches are billed on a quarterly basis and based on an allocation of the Conference's costs. The bills are sent at the beginning of the quarter in which the coverage relates to and are due by the end of that period. Revenue is recognized over time as the churches simultaneously receive and consume the services provided by the Conference. The Conference uses the time elapsed method to measure progress. No advance and deposits (contract liabilities) were received prior to year end.

Health insurance and pension revenue: The Conference rules require all clergy enroll in health and pension benefits that local churches support. The performance obligation is providing health and clergy pensions for churches within the Conference. The health insurance billings are determined based on the number of covered individuals, category of employment for covered individuals, and the type of coverage. The pension billings are determined based on the compensation of each clergy person appointed to the local church (16% of compensation). As part of the monthly billings, the Conference records the revenue and related receivable. The bills are sent at the beginning of the month in which the coverage/service is provided and due by the end of the same month for pension and health benefits. Revenue is recognized over time as performance obligations are satisfied. The Conference uses the time elapsed method to measure progress. No advance and deposits (contract liabilities) were received prior to year end.

Other-Camp Fees: Churches reserve the camps owned by the Conference's Outdoor and Retreat Ministries (ORM) to be used for retreats. ORM sells merchandise and provides lodging, food, and general programs at the camp. ORM provides the paying churches with the camp to use along with the food and supplies necessary. The price is the cost to rent the camp along with the costs of food and supplies used. Reservations from churches for the camps are done up a year in advance and include a refundable deposit component. Revenue related to the programs at the camp and food services are recognized over the passage of time for the programs. Revenue for the merchandise is recognized at the point in time when control transfers to the customer, which is at the point of sale.

Contract Balances

The timing of revenue recognition, billings and cash collections results in billed accounts receivable (contract assets) and unearned revenue (contract liabilities) on the statements of financial position. Contract liabilities are reflected as deferred revenue in the statements of financial position and are recognized as the performance obligations are met.

The opening balances for contract assets (accounts receivable) from contracts with customers at the beginning of the year were $1,027,026 at January 1, 2021 and $1,405,874 at January 1, 2020.

There were no opening balances for contract liabilities from contracts with customers.

Significant Judgments

Significant judgments include recognition of revenue over time.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of supporting the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Indirect expenses related to rent, depreciation, and utilities have been allocated among the categories based on square footage used by each department. Other indirect expenses such as postage, printing, and office supplies have been allocated 25% to the categories and 75% to administration based on time and effort.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), to increase the transparency and comparability about leases among entities. The new guidance requires lessees to recognize a lease liability and a corresponding lease asset for virtually all lease contracts and requires additional disclosures about leasing arrangements. ASU No. 2016-02, as amended by ASU No. 2020-05, is effective for nonpublic entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. ASU No. 2016-02 originally specified a modified retrospective transition method which requires the entity to initially apply the new leases standard at the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements. In July 2018, FASB issued ASU No. 2018-11, Leases (Topic 842): Targeted Improvements, providing a second, optional transition method which allows the entity to apply the new standard at the adoption date and recognize a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of net assets in the period of adoption. The Conference is currently assessing the impacts of this new standard, including the two optional transition methods.

In September 2020, FASB issued ASU No. 2020-07, Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets (Topic 958), to increase the transparency of contributed nonfinancial assets for not-for-profit entities through enhancements to presentation and disclosure. A not-for-profit will be required to present contributed nonfinancial assets as a separate line item in the statement of activities, apart from contributions of cash or other financial assets. The standard also requires a not-for-profit to disclose contributed nonfinancial assets recognized within the statement of activities, disaggregated by category that depicts the type of nonfinancial assets. For each category of contributed nonfinancial assets recognized, the standard requires a not-for-profit to disclose additional qualitative information and policies regarding monetization or utilization of contributed nonfinancial assets; information about any donor-imposed restrictions; valuation techniques and inputs; and the principal market (or most advantageous market) used to arrive at a fair value measure if it is a market in which the recipient not-for-profit is prohibited by a donor-imposed restriction from selling or using the contributed nonfinancial assets. ASU No. 2020-07 is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2021 with early adoption permitted. The Conference is currently assessing the impacts of this new standard.

3. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference strives to maintain liquid financial assets sufficient to cover 90 days of general expenditures.

The following table reflects the Conference's financial assets as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, reduced by amounts that are not available to meet general expenditures within one year of the consolidated statement of financial position date due to external donor restrictions and internal board designations. Amounts not available include board-designated endowments that have been set aside for various purposes. In the event the need arises to utilize the board-designated funds for liquidity purposes, the reserves could be drawn upon through board resolution, and these funds would become available for operational needs.

3. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY (Continued)

The Conference's financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the consolidated statement of financial position date, are as follows:

	$ 13,287,804	$ 9,477,809
FINANCIAL ASSETS AND LIQUIDITY RESOURCES AVAILABLE WITHIN ONE YEAR

As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. Additionally, although the Conference does not intend to spend from its board-designated endowment other than amounts appropriated for general expenditure as part of its annual budget approval and appropriation process, amounts from its board-designated endowment could be made available if necessary. However, as discussed in Note 7, substantially all the Conference's financial assets are pledged as collateral under its mortgage payable.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference loans funds to churches over terms between 7 and 30 years with interest rates ranging from 4.6% to 6.0%. The purpose of these loans is to provide church mortgages on more favorable terms. Additionally, the Conference has two notes receivable to unrelated parties with a balance of $453,481 and $469,703, at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE (Continued)

All of the notes receivable are secured and are due as follows:

The Conference's credit quality indicators are performing and nonperforming. Performing loans are those with one or more payments made during the fiscal year. Nonperforming loans are those with no payments made during the fiscal year. The Conference considers all notes receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. Each church is evaluated for impairment individually. All churches and unrelated party notes are considered performing and current as of December 31, 2021 and 2020.

The future maturities of the term loan payable at December 31, 2021 are as follows:

Years Ending December 31,	Amount
2022	$ 661,827
2023	695,898

Thereafter	9,880,831
TOTAL	$ 13,548,636

The Conference's mortgage agreement includes certain restrictive covenants related to certain financial ratios. As part of these covenants the Conference shall have expendable cash and investments subject to a first priority perfected lien in favor of the lender of greater than $12,000,000 at all times outstanding. At December 31, 2021 and 2020, management believes they are in compliance with all covenants.

Interest charged to operations for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 was $150,318 and $751,898, respectively.

8. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT - INTEREST RATE SWAP

Effective May 18, 2018, the Conference entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a financial institution, with a notional amount of $7,000,000. The purpose of the agreement is to minimize the variability of cash flows related to interest payments on the term loan above. The agreement terminates on May 18, 2028. Under this agreement, the Conference receives interest from the counterparty at LIBOR plus 1.75% and pays interest at a fixed rate of 4.99%.

Effective May 18, 2018, the Conference entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a financial institution, with a notional amount of $8,000,000. The purpose of the agreement is to minimize the variability of cash flows related to interest payments on the term loan above. The agreement terminates on May 18, 2028. Under this agreement, the Conference receives interest from the counterparty at a floating rate of LIBOR plus 1.75%, with a cap strike rate of 5.25%, and pays a fixed transaction fee of $365,000.

Under the agreement, the Conference pays or receives the net interest amount monthly, with the settlements included in interest expense on the consolidated statement of functional expense. The agreements are recorded at fair value with subsequent changes in fair value included in other revenues or expenses.

8. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT - INTEREST RATE SWAP (Continued)

The fair value of the liability for the Conference's interest rate swap agreements is measured using Level 2 inputs, as described in Note 2, determined by pricing models maintained by the counterparty to the swap agreements. The pricing models utilize a series of market inputs to determine the present value of future cash flows, with adjustments, as required for credit and liquidity risk. The change in fair market value of the interest rate swap agreement was recorded as an unrealized gain of $318,102 for the year ended December 31, 2021 and an unrealized loss of $194,602 for the year ended December 31, 2020.

9. GUARANTEED LOANS

The Conference is contingently liable for guarantees of a loan made by the United Methodist Development Corporation to member churches totaling $494,391 as of December 31, 2021. The loan has an interest rate of 4.75% and a maturity date of December 1, 2034. Under the terms of the guarantee, the Conference is required to have in reserve a minimum of three months of loan payments for the guaranteed loan. The amount of the required reserve at December 31, 2021 and 2020 is $5,919 and $5,952, respectively.

Under the agreements with the member church, the Conference is able to recover any losses from the assets of the member churches

In relation to these guarantees, the following is summarized unaudited financial data for the member church as of December 31, 2021 and 2020:

10. PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM

The PPP, established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act), and as amended by the Paycheck Protection Program Flexibility Act of 2020 (the PPP Flexibility Act), provides for loans to qualifying businesses for amounts up to 2.5 times of the average monthly payroll expenses of the qualifying business. The loans and accrued interest are forgivable as long as the borrower uses the loan proceeds during the covered period for eligible purposes, including payroll, benefits, rent and utilities, spends a minimum amount of the loan proceeds for payroll costs, and maintains its payroll levels. Up to 100% of a loan is forgiven. The forgiveness amount will be reduced if the organization terminates employees or reduces salaries during the covered period. The unforgiven portion of PPP loans issued under the CARES Act is payable over two years at an interest rate of 1%, with a deferral of payments for the first six months.

As of December 31, 2020, other revenue reported on the consolidated statement of activities consists of loan proceeds in the amount of $1,009,627 under the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) received April 12, 2020. The loan forgiveness application was formally approved during 2020.

During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Conference applied for and was approved for a $1,810,287 loan under the PPP (second draw) created as part of the relief efforts related to COVID-19 and administered by the SBA. The promissory note is dated February 11, 2021. The loan accrues interest at 1% and matures five years from date of approval. The Conference is eligible for loan forgiveness of up to 100% of the loan, upon meeting certain requirements.

As of December 31, 2021, conditions were met to recognize the forgiveness of the loan. The amount of revenue recognized of $1,810,287 is included in other revenue in the consolidated statement of activities.

Total endowment	1,035,049	947,373
TOTAL NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS	$ 1,849,494	$ 1,747,279

13. ENDOWMENT

The Conference's endowment consists of an individual fund established by donors to provide annual funding to support country parishes. The endowment also includes certain net assets without donor restrictions that have been designated for endowment by the Conference Council. As required by USGAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Conference Council has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the historic dollar value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions and retains in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the endowment, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is classified as net assets with donor restrictions until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA.

13. ENDOWMENT (Continued)

The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. The endowment assets are invested in accordance with predetermined asset allocation and performance benchmarks. To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference's spending policy provides that only the income from endowments may be used according to donor-imposed restrictions. The Conference considers a fund to be "underwater" if the fair value of the fund is less than the sum of (a) original value of initial and subsequent gift amounts donated to the fund and (b) any accumulations to the fund that are required to be maintained in perpetuity in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument. The Conference has adopted a policy to not spend from "underwater" endowments unless directed otherwise by the donor.

The portion of other revenue that represents the exchange component has been included in the table above. Other revenue reported in the consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets includes revenue not related to contracts with customers and has been excluded from the table above.

The Conference has determined that the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by the following factors: participation of the Conference's camps.

15. POSTRETIREMENT HEALTH PLAN

The Conference sponsors a postretirement health care plan for all Conference employees and participating clergy that meet eligibility requirements.

During the years ended 2021 and 2020, total health benefits owed at year end were $950,985 and $968,541, respectively.

The Conference received actuarial valuations of postretirement medical benefits as of December 31, 2021. This report was prepared by MWM Consulting Group.

The Conference establishes Health Reimbursement Accounts (HRA) and tax free savings accounts for each clergy family (whether individual or couple). Retirees and spouses may draw funds from the accounts for health premiums, out-of-pocket expenses, and miscellaneous health care expenses. The HRAs are funded annually by the Conference at the rate of $100 per year of service (up to 40 years); an equal amount for the clergy person and the spouse. Retirees may select the Medicare supplement plan of their choice.

The payments per retiree are fixed amounts; therefore, changes in inflation assumptions do not change the valuation. The valuation is calculated at a 2.87% discount rate and assumes 100% of eligible retirees and spouses will participate.

The following sets forth the plan's funded status reconciled with the obligation recognized on the consolidated statement of financial position at December 31, 2021 and 2020:

Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation as of December 31, 2021 and 2020 was as follows:

Retired participants	$ 12,846,792	$ 13,439,196

The United Methodist Clergy Fund (the Clergy Fund) is a separately incorporated related organization charged to monitor the investment portfolio of the Clergy Fund which can be distributed to the clergy retirement programs of the Conference. The Clergy Fund's Board makes an annual decision on the amount of funds to distribute to the Conference's postretirement health plan, $1,400,000 was transferred in 2021 and 2020, respectively. Current policy is to disburse the income or gain of the portfolio. The net present value of the amount available to distribute to the Conference is $21,565,035 and $23,235,701 at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively, on the statement of financial position. The postretirement health benefits paid by the Conference in 2021 and 2020 were $1,538,157 and $1,481,619, respectively.

17. PENSION PLAN

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in the multi-employer defined benefit program of all U.S. annual conferences managed by the Wespath and controlled by plan documents enacted by the quadrennial General Conference of the UMC. Assets contributed by any conference may be used to provide benefits to clergy of any participating conference. Should an annual conference make contributions less than the total liability of their participants the underfunded obligations are borne by the surviving annual conferences. A decision to withdraw from the plans is in violation of The Discipline (by-laws of the church) and would cause an immediate suspension to the benefits of the Conference's clergy. Across all plans and all employees, the liabilities are funded at approximately 107% on a funder basis.

While there is a single fund for funding the defined benefits of retirees for all annual conferences, the method to calculate the value of benefits earned varies by year of service: before 1982, between 1982 and 2006, and after 2006. Each annual conference contributes according to the actuarial present value of benefits earned by clergy for service during those periods. The administrator of the plan, Wespath, annually calculates liabilities and expected contributions for each annual conference based upon demographic and market changes relative to previous year's reports.

The 2021 contribution for defined benefit plans is calculated from the demographics and assets on January 1, 2019. In the pre-82 plan, there are 558 beneficiaries, 30 are not yet retired. In the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) program there are 909 annuitants, 369 not yet in pay status. As of January 1, 2019, in the Clergy Retirement Security Program defined benefit component (CRSP-DB) there are 603 vested participants, 175 are in pay status.

The Conference's participation in these plans by EIN/Plan Number, if applicable, is:

Pension Fund	EIN/Plan Number	Pension Protection Act Zone Status 2018	Pension Protection Act Zone Status 2019	FIP/RP Status Pending/Implemented	Conference's Contributions	Surcharge Imposed
Pre-82	32-1899999	Green	Green	No	$ 1,041,057	No
CRSP-DB	52-5599999	Green	Green	No	1,523,664	No
MPP	92-3499999	Green	Green	No	-	No

Unless otherwise noted, the most recent pension protection act zone status available in 2021 is for the plans' year end at January 1, 2020. The zone status is based on information that the Conference received from the plans' and is certified by the plans' actuary. Among other factors, plans in the red zone are less than 65% funded, plans in the yellow zone are between 65%-80% funded, and plans in the green zone are more than 80% funded. The FIP/RP Status Pending/Implemented column indicates plans for which a financial improvement plan (FIP) or rehabilitation plan (RP) is either pending or has been implemented.

18. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The United Methodist Foundation of Northern Illinois Conference, Inc. (the Foundation) is an Illinois not-for-profit corporation whose purpose is to give financial assistance and to provide investment management and administrative services to churches and religious, charitable, and educational philanthropies and institutions related to, or affiliated with the Conference.

The Conference advances a certain portion of the Foundation's operating costs and is subsequently reimbursed by the Foundation. The amount due from the Foundation at December 31, 2021 and 2020 was $4,245 and $4,263, respectively.

Additionally, approximately 97% and 98% of all receivables are due from related parties, including member churches, in 2021 and 2020 and approximately 70% and 71% of revenue is received from related parties, including member churches in 2021 and 2020, respectively.

19. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Beginning around March 2020, the Covid-19 virus has been declared a global pandemic as it continues to spread rapidly. Business continuity, including supply chains and consumer demand across a broad range industries and countries could be severely impacted for month or beyond as governments and their citizens take significant and unprecedented measures to mitigate the consequences of the pandemic. Management is carefully monitoring the situation and evaluating its options during this time. No adjustments have been made to these consolidated financial statements as a result of this uncertainty.

Document: 650.01

Name: Minimum Salaries for Full-Time Clergy

Author(s): CCFA Task Force on Equitable Compensation

Legislation Section Assignment: Section 2 - Concurrence

Approved via Consent Calendar in Plenary 4 on June 9, 2022 (see pg 28-29)

ACTION:

- 1) Minimum salaries for full-time clergy appointed in the NIC will be as follows, showing an increase of 3% for the next fiscal year:

YEAR OF INITIAL APPOINTMENT (minimum salary set at the beginning of a new appointment, typically July 1)
	2017 ($34,200)	2018 ($34,450)	2019 ($34,800)	2020 ($35,300)	2021 ($36,360)	2022 ($36,360)	2023 ($37,500)
Passed in:
2017 for FY 2018	$34,542
2018 for FY 2019	$34,887	$34,795
2019 for FY 2020	$35,375	$35,282	$35,287
2020 for FY 2021	$36,437	$36,341	$36,346	$36,359
Proposed in 2022 for FY 2023	$37,530	$37,431	$37,436	$37,449	$37,450	$37,450

Chart interpretation: Each year, a minimum salary is set for new appointments. This salary amount is listed in the first row, beneath the year the new appointment is made (which typically begins July 1.) A minimum salary is also set for appointments made in previous years. The number listed in the column beneath each year indicates the minimum salary for the pastor appointed to that charge each fiscal year (which typically begins January 1.) Numbers in bold print in the bottom row are the minimum salaries recommended to the Annual Conference in 2022.

- 2) Local churches are to provide at a minimum of $5,500* for accountable reimbursements for their appointed pastor. This covers costs related to travel, continuing education, and other expenses incurred in the course of providing pastoral ministry. Information about accountable reimbursements can be found at: Accountable Reimbursement Policy Q&A
*This year, the recommendation is to increase this amount from $5,000 to $5,500 to take into account rising fuel costs.

RATIONALE:

While the cost of living adjustment (COLA) established by the SSA for 2022 is 5.9%, CCFA is recommending an increase in minimum required salaries of 3%, with the following comments:

- A portion of the COLA is due to rising energy/utility costs; a good portion of these costs are already largely assumed by churches as they provide both utility-covered parsonages to clergy and reimbursement for travel expenses. (see Action point 2 for details).
- The NIC took steps in 2020 to increase the minimum required salary to more closely match the average salary in the North Central Jurisdiction (approving an increase of 3%). In addition, health insurance premiums continue to be fully covered by the local churches at a yearly cost of $19,200. This benefit helps to make the overall compensation package of full-time clergy in the NIC more equitable to other conferences in the NCJ.
- Together with base compensation, church-paid health insurance premiums, accountable reimbursements, and church-paid pension contributions, the total minimum compensation package for full-time clergy is $68,200. In addition, churches provide housing through utility-covered parsonages or cash housing allowances, which completes the compensation package. This total has become increasingly difficult for un-yoked churches to maintain full-time clergy. The NIC seeks to maintain as many full-time appointments as possible to fulfill the guarantee of a full-time appointment for our commissioned and ordained elders. As a result, we may continue to see an increase in multiple-point charges for full-time clergy to serve.

The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, partnering with Wespath recommends the following policies for clergy and other eligible participants enrolled in welfare, health and pension benefits.

I. Health Insurance

The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that the Annual Conference establish the following policies and procedures for administration of the Conference Health Care Program, effective January 1, 2023.

A. Mandatory Coverage

1. The following categories of employees are mandated to participate in the Annual Conference health insurance program. In all cases, the spouses, and dependents (such as children) of eligible employees may enroll in the health plan at the election of the participant.

CATEGORY	Discipline 2016
Elder in full connection (including those from another Methodist denomination and those from another conference) appointed to full-time service to a conference local church or campus ministry	338.1, 346.1, .2, & .3
Associate member appointed to full-time service	321
Provisional Members on elder track appointed to full-time local church service	326.2
A full-time local pastor who is under Episcopal appointment to a charge located in the conference	318.1

2. Elders appointed to disability status prior to age 65 will be covered under the conference plan until they are eligible for Medicare or for Social Security disability at the cost of the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. At age 65 from a premium payment standpoint, each will be treated as retired pastors and subject to the HRA guidelines explained in Section D of this Resolution.

B. Release from Mandatory Coverage – THE PILOT PROGRAM

1. Clergy members may waive mandatory coverage only with the consent of the Conference Board of Pensions when enrolled in an Affordable Care Act plan, Medicare, Tricare, CHAMPUS, or on a plan provided by a spouse's employer. The objective of allowing Churches to opt out of HealthFlex is to provide a means to help Churches lower the cost of medical insurance and be able to maintain the promised medical benefit to NIC pastors. To elect this option the Churches agree to the following:
 - a) Agree to pay the monthly HealthCare premium established by the Conference Board of Pensions.
 - b) Each quarter the Churches will receive a rebate of one month's premium of the HealthCare premium.
 - c) The clergy person will receive a reimbursement check from the conference equal to the amount of the alternative coverage and an estimate of the taxes owed for the amount. The maximum amount the Conference Board of Pensions will provide in cash is $1,000 per month to support clergy to enroll with an alternative carrier and to help pay for additional personal taxes. The amount provided by the Conference is considered as taxable cash compensation.
 - d) If Churches fail to make premium payments the Conference holds the right to discontinue the cash support provided to the Pastors.

C. Local Church and Extension Ministry Coverage Options

1. A local church or extension ministry may elect health insurance in the conference plan available to participants in the following categories who meet the required eligibility criteria:

Category	Discipline 2016	Premium Billed to
Ordained elder appointed to extension ministries within the connectional structure (other than a unit of the conference or general agency), within an ecumenical agency, within a GBHEM endorsed extension ministry or within a special ministry outside the connectional structure	344.1a(3), 344.1a(4), 344.1b, 344.1d	Salary Paying Unit
Ordained elder from another denomination (other than UMC) appointed to half-time or more service to a Conference local church or a unit of the Conference	346.2, 346.3, 338.2, 346.1	Salary Paying Unit
Provisional, Associate or full clergy member granted voluntary leave of absence not to exceed 1 year	354.1, 354.2	Participant

Elder of the Annual Conference granted Medical leave from an appointment with an NIC local church or within the connectional structure for up to one year.	357	Board of Pensions

A Provisional member on the Deacon track appointed to serve on a full time basis to an NIC congregation or to the conference.	326.1	Salary Paying Unit
75% of eligible Lay Employees of a local church in the conference normally scheduled to work at least 30 hours per week inclusive of a calendar year		Salary Paying Unit

2. In accord with Illinois law, state recognized civil union partners of lay or clergy employees are eligible for coverage in a manner similar to spouses.
3. The decision to offer coverage is made by the salary paying unit. The choice to accept the offer of coverage shall be made by the participant. The salary paying unit may elect to offer health insurance to one or all categories of persons listed above in Section C. 1. The salary paying unit must make health insurance available to and will be billed for all persons within any specific category employed with the agency or local church. Failure to make prompt payment results in termination of the participant in the plan.
4. Each salary paying unit must execute annually a sub-adoption agreement with the annual conference, should they desire to offer health coverage to persons in these categories.

5. These categories of persons are also eligible for coverage:

Category	Billed for Active's Premium
Surviving spouse or dependent children enrolled in the health plan at time of a participant's death for a period of up to one year	Participant pay 25%, Salary Paying Unit (or Board of Pensions) 75%
Divorced spouse enrolled in the plan at time of divorce for 2 years or in accordance with State and Federal law or court order	Divorced Spouse

D. Retirement Health Administration –

1. For 2023, the Conference extends a program of support for some retired clergy persons in continued clergy relationship to the Conference. The program commitment is for one year only and is a nonvested benefit to certain clergy retirees of the annual conference. To qualify, the retired clergy person must be a member of the Conference on January 1, 2023, or be a dependent of a current clergy member or surviving spouse of a clergy person in good standing at the time of death.
2. Clergy persons enrolled in the health plan or participating in the pilot program (Section B, above), at Mandatory Retirement (Discipline paragraph 357.1), Early Retirement (Discipline paragraph 357.2b), Full Retirement (Discipline Paragraph 357.2c), or Involuntary Retirement (Discipline paragraph 357.3) may be eligible for health benefits in retirement through the conference plan if such enrollment or participation is for the continuous five years prior to retirement. No clergy member retiring under the “20-year rule” (Discipline paragraph 357.2a) is eligible for retiree health coverage.
3. A clergy spouse (or surviving spouse after death of an active member) enrolled in the health plan 5 consecutive years before retirement or enrolled when first eligible for coverage (when prior to participant's retirement) is eligible for coverage after retirement. The family status of the participant cannot change during retirement, except in cases of adoption, childbirth or death. Participants electing to not participate in retirement health plan at time of retirement may not elect to enroll at a later time.
4. Upon retirement the annual conference shall establish a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) for the household in the retiree's name. Participants and their spouses who meet the retiree eligibility rules may use the funds in the HRA to pay for medical expenses including premiums, co-pays, deductibles, dental services, medical services, coinsurance, etc. Like a savings account, the funds do not need to be expended by the end of the calendar year and balances roll forward when unused.
5. For 2023, the annual conference will provide a benefit equal to $100 per year of ministerial service. This benefit also extends to the Pastor's spouse. This amount is subject to change based on the needs and circumstances of the Conference and/or participants.
6. Only the first 40 years of service shall be tabulated when determining the amount of benefit. In the case of clergy couples, the clergy member with the highest number of years of service, up to the cap of 40, shall determine the benefit amount.

7. Ministerial service years are determined by the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. Only years served under appointment to Northern Illinois Conference local churches or connectional structure are considered in the HRA calculation. Special exceptions may be made based on approval by NIC Board of Pensions. Any counting of service years earned by service to non-Northern Illinois Conference appointments recognized prior will not be recognized effective January 1, 2022 or after.
8. The Conference at the discretion of their Board of Pension has the right to change or modify the retiree benefit and or contributions at any time. The annual conference does not make a commitment to additional funding in future years.
9. Full Time Lay Conference employees of the annual conference with 5 continuous years of coverage before retirement will have a contribution equal to $100 per year of service to the annual conference deposited in their HRA annually. Eligibility for the HRA is contingent on a participant's enrollment in Medicare B and engagement with the Conference's selected provider.
10. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits engages Via Benefits to aid clergy retirees aged 65 and above in selection of suitable Medicare supplement coverage and to act as a patient advocate when necessary. To receive the HRA benefit eligible participants must enroll through the Via Benefits program and be enrolled in Medicare B. Clergy who retire prior to 65 and meet the eligibility rules will have the HRA equivalent deducted from the cost of their conference provided medical coverage until they reach Medicare eligibility, enroll in Medicare B and enroll in Supplemental programs through Via Benefits. Retired clergy will be responsible for costs of coverage in excess of that HRA amount.

E. Active Health Administration

1. Monthly premiums are billed to each charge or salary-paying unit at rates established by the Conference Board of Pensions. Premiums are due the first of each month. Accounts 90 days in arrears are subject to termination as explained in the arrearage policy approved by the Board and the NIC Cabinet. This policy describes the efforts that will be made by the Conference office and the Cabinet to work with Churches that are more than 90 days in arrears. If all efforts to receive payment or develop a payment plan have been exhausted, then termination of coverage may be the final option. Notification of accounts in arrears will be provided to the District Superintendent, the pastor, the local church PPRC chair, and the local church treasurer prior to termination.
2. If a participant enrolls in one of the HealthFlex Exchange programs that require a payroll deduction to the Conference and those deductions are not made the Conference can have the participant placed in a plan that does not require a payroll deduction.
3. Churches should care that tax reporting is correctly administered for all payroll deductions around health insurance provisions.
4. Active participants are able to make choices in the provision of their coverage through the enrollment period, as made available through Healthflex administration.

Problem resolution and inquiries regarding coverage should be directed to the HealthFlex Team at Wespath 1-800-851-2201.

II. Pension Programs

A. Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Eligibility. The General Conference of the United Methodist Church established the CRSP as the primary pension program for United Methodist clergy in 2007. Mandatory participation is required when both 1 and 2 are met:

1. The clergy member relationship to the conference is as a:
 - a. Commissioned Members (Deacon or Elder)
 - b. Elders in Full Connection
 - c. Members of Other Conferences appointed in the Northern Illinois Conference (paragraph 346.1 appointments)
 - d. Full Time Local Pastors
 - e. Deacons in Full Connection
 - f. Members of other denomination, appointed to service in an NIC local church if no other pension is provided by their denomination.
2. The clergy member is under Episcopal appointment half-time or more to the following service types:
 - a. to local churches in the Northern Illinois Conference
 - b. to the Conference (staff or Cabinet)
 - c. to a Conference controlled entity (such as a campus ministry or ORM)
 - d. to Incapacity leave with CPP benefits
3. In order to waive participation, a half-time or more appointed clergy member must sign a waiver form at time of appointment. Please note that persons assigned, but not appointed are not eligible in the program.
4. Local churches are encouraged to enroll as a plan sponsor of UMPIP and to make employer contributions into the accounts of clergy appointed quarter-time.

B. Clergy Retirement Security Program.

1. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The Comprehensive Protection Plan is the primary death and disability benefit for enrolled clergy. The billing rate for CPP will be established by the Conference office. Appointments with compensation less than full time and those that were considered under special arrangements will be covered and billed based on rates established by UMLifeOptions.
2. CRSP – Defined Contribution
 - a. The CRSP pension program includes a defined contribution component. Each clergy member will have 2% of plan compensation deposited in an individual account at the Wespath. All contributions into the account are invested and the enrolled clergy member receives the appreciated value of the account upon retirement.
 - b. Clergy persons are encouraged to contribute 1% of their plan compensation into their UMPIP account as a salary deduction. The annual conference will match the first 1% of UMPIP contributions paid into the participants CRSP-DC account.
3. CRSP – Defined Benefit program. With the defined benefit component each enrolled clergy member will receive a monthly cash benefit from the plan upon retirement. Funds collected from local churches are used for annual contributions made by the conference will be invested by Wespath so that the NIC obligation can be met. A portion of defined benefit funding may accrue to a reserve fund for funding future variation in market results and other benefits to retirees and future retirees.

C. Billing Methods. The Annual Conference will invoice local churches monthly 16% (3% (CPP) + 3% (CRSP DC) + 10% (CRSP DB) based on clergy plan compensation required for support of the CRSP and CPP programs. Currently, churches are being billed 16% of clergy plan compensation. Increases may be necessary in the future.

D. Pre-82 Defined Benefit Past Service Rate for 2021

1. The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that the annual pension rate for service prior to 1982, effective January 1, 2023, be $605 per service year, an increase of 0% from 2022. Surviving spouses shall be supported at the rate of 85% of participant pension benefit amounts. Special grants will be provided as identified in Section F.

E. Excludable Housing allowance for retired clergy. In accordance with the Private Ruling Letter from the Internal Revenue Service, the Northern Illinois Conference Annual Conference Session reaffirms the limits to housing allowance exclusion for retired and disabled clergy found in the Standing Rules, at Section IV. C. 1, which states: Disabled clergy have the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as do the retired clergy and, thus, this Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for disabled ordained or local pastors who are members of this Conference.

An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired clergy, or 100% of the disability payments received by a disabled clergy, is designated as rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or local pastor of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Northern Illinois Conference at the time of retirement or disability.

F. Special Grants

1. Beginning in 2020 Northern Illinois Conference Session the Board of Pensions approved grants for participants meeting the following eligibility criteria:
 - a. Members of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference who retired from an appointment in the conference;
 - b. Who have at least 15 years of service prior to 1982 compensated at the Past Service Rate (excludes those at the DBSM rate); and,
 - c. Who have less than 10 years of service to Northern Illinois Conference appointments served while enrolled in the MPP program.
 1. For 1/1/2023 the amount provided to eligible participants will be $700 times their pre-82 years of service calculated at the PSR. This amount will remain in place until otherwise changed by the Board of Pensions
 2. The Conference Board of Pensions also recommends that a special grant be made to James W. French for his 3.5 years of service with this Annual Conference from June 1, 1978 through December 31, 1981. We recommend for the year commencing July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2023, a grant of $140.95 monthly be paid based on the present pension rate, but actuarially reduced since payments are starting prior to full retirement age.

III. Group Life Insurance

The Conference Board of Pensions enrolls in the UMLifeOptions program. Every eligible retired clergy person will be enrolled in the plan with a benefit of $5,000 at no cost to the participant. Active clergy persons have $10,000 in coverage at the NIC expense when an application is filed during the open enrollment period. Coverage beyond this amount is at the cost of the participant and will be billed directly from UMLifeOptions.

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church joins the United Methodist General Board of Church and Society, as well as numerous other Christian denominations and organizations, in endorsing H.R. 2590, Defending the Human Rights of Palestinian Children and Families Living Under Israeli Military Occupation Act; and

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church

- calls upon all clergy and laity of the Conference to educate themselves about the plight of Palestinian children and families living under Israeli military occupation and the reasons for Christians to oppose U.S. funds being used to detain, torture, and imprison Palestinian children in military detention, to subject Palestinian families to widespread home evictions and demolitions, and to annex Palestinian territory; and
- encourages all clergy and laity of the Conference to write, call, or meet with their legislators in Congress, to urge their Representative to co-sponsor H. R. 2590 and to urge their Senators to introduce, co-sponsor, and support a companion bill to H. R. 2590; and,
- directs the Conference Secretary to write to all legislators representing the region of the Conference in the U.S. Congress, informing them that the Conference has endorsed H.R. 2590 and that the Conference urges them to co-sponsor and support H.R. 2590 in the House of Representatives or to introduce, co-sponsor, and support a companion bill in the Senate. A full copy of this resolution should be provided with that correspondence.

RATIONALE:

In April 2021, Rep. Betty McCollum (MN-4) legislation to the U.S. Congress: H.R. 2590, the Defending the Human Rights of Palestinian Children and Families Living Under Israeli Military Occupation Act.¹

The United Methodist General Board of Church and Society has joined over 170 human rights and faith-based organizations in endorsing H.R. 2590.

This bill “seeks to promote justice, equality and human rights for Palestinian children and families by prohibiting Israeli authorities from using U.S. taxpayer funds to detain and torture Palestinian children, demolish and seize Palestinian homes, and further annex Palestinian Land in the occupied West Bank,” in violation of international law.²

2. Defense for Children International–Palestine (DCIP) No Way To Treat A Child campaign: <http://nwtac.dci-palestine.org/>

Israel is the only country in the world that systematically prosecutes children in military courts, where each year approximately 700 Palestinian children enter the abusive Israeli military detention system that a UNICEF report has described as “widespread, systemic, and institutionalized”, where children as young as twelve have been subjected to arrest and imprisonment, are often held and interrogated for hours or days with no attorney and without the presence or knowledge of their parents, and where a large majority of these children report severe physical and emotional abuse during their detention.³

United Methodists have repeatedly adopted resolutions and endorsed measures to protect the rights of Palestinian children, at both the general church and annual Conference levels.

Legislation Section Assignment: Section 5 - Concurrence

Approved via Consent Calendar in Plenary 4 on June 9, 2022 (see pg 28-29)

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference affirms “A Call to Grace” (please see complete text below, www.acalltoGrace.com), written by a grassroots movement and released November 1, 2021. In support of this affirmation the Northern Illinois Annual Conference:

- directs its bishop, the Cabinet, and clergy to provide the resources and support for congregational discernment as described in “A Call to Grace”; and,
- directs the Conference Secretary to sign “A Call to Grace” on its behalf.

RATIONALE:

As the writers posited, “that continued delay in making decisions about the future of The United Methodist Church hurts our mission and is especially harmful to our central conference and LGBTQIA+ siblings who are caught up in this conflict.” The Body of Christ is best served by honoring how people are called to be in ministry. The North Central Jurisdiction, at its Special Session November 10-11, 2021, affirmed “A Call to Grace” with 80.5% in support.

A CALL TO GRACE

“For everything, there is a season.” Ecclesiastes 3:1

We recognize that COVID 19 continues to spread globally and that many throughout our global connection continue to suffer from the inequitable distribution of vaccines. Given the safety considerations that result from this tragedy, it appears likely that the General Conference, scheduled for August-September 2022, may be postponed again.

As the writer of Ecclesiastes notes, “For everything there is a season,” and the season for waiting on General Conference legislative solutions as the only way forward has passed. We recognize that continued delay in making decisions about the future of The United Methodist Church hurts our mission and is especially harmful to our central conference and LGBTQIA+ siblings who are caught up in this conflict. Therefore:

3. United Methodists for Kairos Response (UMKR) resource: Palestinian Children & the Israeli Occupation: https://www.kairosresponse.org/quick_facts_series.html

- We call the church to a pastoral response to the anxiety generated by having to delay decisions that impact peoples' lives and ministries.
- We call on bishops and annual conferences to develop resources to assist local churches in discerning their future, including resources on how to have difficult conversations in ways that reduce harm.
- Honoring the expressed desire of some churches and church leaders to leave The United Methodist Church and participate in other denominations, we call bishops and annual conferences to use existing disciplinary authority to find grace-filled ways for these leaders and churches to follow their call now, allowing them to take their church property with them where appropriate.
- We further call upon churches and leaders who wish to leave and join other denominations to engage their bishops in dialogue about how they can realize their hoped-for future.
- In this time of great transition, we call on our episcopal leaders to continue a grace-filled approach and hold in abeyance any complaints related to ministry with LGBTQIA+ persons and matters concerning the future direction of the church.

Those who have decided to remain in The United Methodist Church wish to begin doing the work now of envisioning the future UMC. To be able to do that requires the ability to graciously release others to their own future. As our Book of Discipline notes, "We make disciples as we... send persons into the world to live lovingly and justly as servants of Christ by healing the sick, feeding the hungry, caring for the stranger, freeing the oppressed, being and becoming a compassionate caring presence and working to develop social structures that are consistent with the gospel." (Paragraph 122)

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference affirms "A Narrative for the Continuing United Methodist Church" (please see complete text below), released by the Council of Bishops on November 4, 2021.

RATIONALE:

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference experiences ministry in all the ways described below and believes it will be most fruitful if it can continue to do so. The North Central Jurisdiction, at its Special Session November 10-11, 2021, affirmed "A Narrative for the Continuing United Methodist Church" with 80.9% in support.

A Narrative for the Continuing United Methodist Church

United Methodists all over the globe are liturgical, contemporary, charismatic, social activists, urban, suburban, small town, rural and much more. We are children, youth, young adults, senior adults, new Christians, and mature Christians. We are present on four continents, in more than 45 countries, and we comprise an unknown number of cultures and languages. We are a holy communion of different races, ethnicities, cultures, and perspectives united by the Holy Spirit, driven by the mission of Christ, and bearing the good news of an unmerited grace that changes lives and transforms communities.

Christ's prayer for our unity and command to gather all to the table, to make space for one another, appreciate one another, and look for Christ in each other, prohibit us from creating individual tables only for those who think, act, look, and perceive the world like we do. We cannot be a church that fractures its identity and commitment to Christ by aligning itself with political parties. We cannot be a traditional church or a progressive church or a centrist church. We cannot be a gay or straight church. Our churches must be more than echo chambers made in our own image arguing with each other while neglecting our central purpose. This is the way of the world.

Instead, we must be one people, rooted in scripture, centered in Christ, serving in love and united in the essentials. It is hard work. It is sacred work. It is the ministry of reconciliation that Christ gave to each of us. Our best witness is to love each other as Christ loves us, to show the world the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit to bind us together despite our differences. This is living out the gospel.

We are a church:

- Confident in what God has done in Christ Jesus for all humankind
- Committed to personal and social salvation/transformation
- Courageous in dismantling the powers of racism, tribalism, and colonialism

All of our members, clergy, local churches, and annual conferences will continue to have a home in the future United Methodist Church, whether they consider themselves liberal, evangelical, progressive, traditionalist, middle of the road, conservative, centrist, or something else. We hold on to our Wesleyan heritage that "the living core of the Christian faith is revealed in Scripture, illuminated by tradition, vivified in personal experience, and confirmed by reason".

We are longing for a United Methodist Church that will move towards new forms of being a connectional church, a General Conference focused on global essentials, and an empowerment of regions for contextually relevant forms of living our common mission mandate. Deeply rooted in the Doctrinal Standards of the UMC, we pledge to exercise our episcopal role in ways that enable as many United Methodists, lay and clergy, as are willing to remain in the UMC and – together – to continue in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. And, because we are part of the Church Universal, we seek to be united visibly and in ministries with other parts of the Body of Christ in God's mission for the human family and creation.

We are committed to strengthening every local church, where the word is preached and Christ is offered, and where the table is set before all who hunger and thirst for righteousness, confident in the prayer we have learned to say and share:

- Make us one with Christ—this is faithfulness.
- Make us one with each other—this is unity.
- Make us one in ministry to all the world—this is fruitfulness.

This is the United Methodist Church we love and serve!

Approved via Consent Calendar in Plenary 4 on June 9, 2022 (see pg 28-29)

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference affirms Covenant to Build Beloved Community written and passed by the North Central Jurisdictional Conference. The Northern Illinois Annual Conference:

- recommends that local congregations use Covenant to Build BeLoved Community in ways that are contextually appropriate;
- receives the challenge of using annual conference resources in ways that counters racism in the world and within our conference and churches;
- encourages the Bishop and Cabinet to continue to be intentional in their support of clergy and churches that are cross-cultural appointments to ensure their success and strengthen the vitality of our conference; and,
- affirms sending the Commission on Religion and Race and Anti-Racism Task Force to the Jurisdictional gathering that Covenant to Build BeLoved Community creates.

RATIONALE:

At its Special Session November 10-11, 2021, the North Central Jurisdiction passed Covenant to Build BeLoved Community (see complete text below) with 80.8% of voting delegates. This is an aspirational covenant casting a vision for what the future of the United Methodist Church can look like as we live together in relationship with one another. By affirming Covenant to Build BeLoved Community, we are agreeing to participate with the other annual conferences of the North Central Jurisdiction to create a United Methodist Church that is the work of dismantling racism, welcoming all to the table of Christ, and building a community together that lives into the scriptural call to “draw near with a genuine heart with the certainty that our faith gives us, since our hearts are sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies are washed with pure water. Let’s hold on to the confession of our hope without wavering, because the one who made the promise is reliable. And let us consider each other carefully for the purpose of sparking love and good deeds. Don’t stop meeting together with other believers, which some people have gotten into the habit of doing. Instead, encourage each other, especially as you see the day drawing near.” (Hebrews 10: 22-25)

Covenant to Build BeLoved Community

United Methodism is at a crucial inflection point – facing the challenges of a global pandemic, racial injustice, impacts of climate change, denominational decline, and interdenominational strife. More than ever, we need to lean into the call of Hebrews 10:22-25 (CEB): “Therefore, let’s draw near with a genuine heart with the certainty that our faith gives us, since our hearts are sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies are washed with pure water. Let’s hold on to the confession of our hope without wavering, because the one who made the promise is reliable. And let us consider each other carefully for the purpose of sparking love and good deeds. Don’t stop meeting together with other believers, which some people have gotten into the habit of doing. Instead, encourage each other, especially as you see the day drawing near.” As the North Central Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church (NCJ), we covenant to Build BeLoved Community.

Baptism is the foundation of the BeLoved Community, as through it we are called into a covenantal relationship with God, with each other, and with all of God’s creation. It is in the spirit of this covenantal relationship that we affirm our baptismal vows ...

Do you renounce the spiritual forces of wickedness, reject the evil powers of this world, and repent of your sin?

We do. We confess our need for God’s grace as we struggle to renounce and reject the spiritual forces and evil powers of colonialism, racism, sexism, classism, and heterosexism. We apologize for the ways the NCJ has and continues to harm people who live in other parts of the world, Black, Indigenous, and other People of Color (BIPOC), people who live in poverty, and LGBTQIA+ people.

Now is the moment to repent of these sins and turn toward the future to which God is calling the NCJ.

Do you accept the freedom and power God gives you to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves?

We do. We pray for God’s freedom and power to resist colonialism and racism in all the forms they present themselves.

We stand in solidarity with ongoing efforts of many, who have worked tirelessly to end racism. We recognize this is a journey; that the work of ending racism is ongoing because it is a way of being - as the body of Christ. All of our work as a Church should be done in an anti-racist manner.

We request the NCJ Bishops of Color convene all BIPOC delegates to discuss how to begin to address the trauma in communities of color.

We request that the Mission Council, in conjunction with the NCJ College of Bishops, develop an exercise for the NCJ delegates to engage in a conversation during the next session of the NCJ that seeks to understand the impact of white supremacy and Christian nationalism/white nationalism within The United Methodist Church.

We request the Mission Council evaluate their budget and demonstrate, and report at the next Jurisdictional Conference, how the budget incorporates anti-racism work and healing institutional trauma.

The Mission Council must designate sufficient NCJ funds for the purpose of convening Conference Commissions on Religion and Race and Annual Conference antiracism task force representatives in 2022 to operationalize and share a report at the next Jurisdictional Conference:

- A racial analysis of: local church's total budgets, clergy salaries, new church starts/revitalizations, church closures, Conference staff, board, task force and committee members, and delegates to GC/JC.
- Alignment of Annual Conference budget with antiracism work, creation of whistleblower policies, on-going training and support for cross racial/cross cultural appointments, prioritization of new church starts and congregational revitalization in communities of color, resources to support the recruitment and development for leaders of color (lay and clergy) and developing programs for youth/young adults of color.

Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Savior, put your whole trust in his grace, and promise to serve him as your Lord, in union with the Church which Christ has opened to people of all ages, nations, and races?

We do. We also affirm Christ has opened the Church to people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. All people are of sacred worth.

LGBTQIA+ clergy and laity are a gift to the Church. We implore all in the NCJ to do no harm and to create a culture in which abundance and diversity can be celebrated and lived. Therefore, we urge all members of the NCJ to avoid pursuing charges for LGBTQIA+ clergy and allies, and request our episcopal leaders dismiss charges related to LGBTQIA+ identity or officiating same gender weddings. Because we are all beloved children of God, we, in the NCJ, implore all our conference leaders, boards and agencies, to bring no harm to LGBTQIA+ people. We will not restrict God's calling based solely on a candidate's sexual orientation or gender identity. We commit to doing good by pursuing healing and reconciliation with all who have experienced harm and exclusion related to sexual orientation and gender identity.

We request the Mission Council in conjunction with the NCJ College of Bishops develop an exercise for the NCJ delegates to engage in conversation to understand the impact of homophobia, transphobia and heterosexism within United Methodist Churches during the next meeting of the jurisdiction.

According to the grace given to you, will you remain faithful members of Christ's holy Church and serve as Christ's representatives in the world?

We will. We who will remain and continue to be faithful members of The United Methodist Church, commit to leading the NCJ through this difficult moment. We remain committed to our continuing call to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world and by sharing and living the Gospel.

We value episcopal leadership and commit to electing bishops as soon as possible. If and only if the 2020 General Conference, currently scheduled for August 29-September 6, 2022, is postponed or canceled, and the regular session of the jurisdictional conference is subsequently proposed to be postponed or canceled, this special session of the NCJ Conference authorizes the duly elected heads of the conference delegations and the NCJ College of Bishops to work together to call a special session of the jurisdictional conference for November 2-5, 2022, the time currently scheduled for the regular session of the jurisdictional conference, for the purpose of the election of bishops, acting on nominations for jurisdictional committees and general agencies, budgeting and other necessary matters.

We encourage conferences and local churches to strive for reconciliation and understanding. However, some congregations and clergy may feel called to a different future in the faith. We respect our siblings who depart and desire to do no harm as we anticipate cooperative ecumenical efforts in the future. We grieve each separation. NCJ annual conferences should use existing disciplinary and conference provisions to accommodate local congregations and clergy seeking disaffiliation.

We stand in solidarity with United Methodists around the world who long for a world-wide contextual and regional denominational structure.

We call on the NCJ College of Bishops and Mission Council to immediately begin working with other Jurisdictions, Central Conferences, and the Connectional Table to make regional equity and contextualization a reality. We fully support polity changes, such as the Christmas Covenant or Connectional Table's US Regional Conference proposals, that will lead to regional equity and contextualization.

We recommend Annual Conferences engage in conversations about regional equity and contextualization.

Covenanting to Build the BeLoved Community, we look to 2024 with promise. We pledge ourselves to God's call upon our lives, to each other, and to the future of The United Methodist Church.

With God's help we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround each other with a community of love and forgiveness, that we may grow in our trust of God, and be found faithful in our service to others. We will pray for each other, that we may be true disciples who walk in the way that leads to life.

Name: Help Us Find Our Shawnee Children

Authors: Shawnee Tribe, Ben Barnes, Tribal Chief, Thomas Rawlinson, member of Shawnee Tribe; NIC Church and Society, Elisa Gatz, chair; NIC MFSA Luis F. Reyes and Elisa Gatz, co-chairs; NIC RMN Alka Lyall, Luis F. Reyes, and Elisa Gatz, co-facilitators

Legislation Section Assignment: Section 1 - Concurrence

ACTION:

- The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church acknowledges the harm done to the Shawnee people at the Shawnee Methodist Mission and Indian Manual Labor School.
- The conference, individually and collectively, pledge its support in finding the remains of the missing Indigenous children. This may include a time of prayer and remembrance and an education of the history of Indian Boarding Schools in local congregations. It also calls on the UMC to acknowledge their part in this history, repent to the Shawnee people, and be open participants in the search for these missing children.
- Furthermore, the NIC will sponsor similar legislation supporting the Shawnee people's search for their missing children at the 2024 General Conference.

RATIONALE:

The Shawnee Methodist Mission and Indian Manual Labor School operated in Kansas from 1830-1870, near present-day Fairway. As with other mission schools such as the Kamloops Indian Mission School in British Columbia, Native children were taken from their parents and forced into a system that has been called "cultural genocide." The discovery last year of hundreds of unmarked graves at Kamloops has forced an international reckoning of the role churches played in such atrocities.

In the words of Tribal Chief Ben Barnes, "It was here that the Methodists running the mission forced young Shawnee children to work as field hands and manual laborers. In the windowless attics of the still-standing dormitory, you can see where our children were forced to sleep and carved messages left behind on the rafters. During our research, we discovered that parents arrived at the school to check in on their children, only to learn right then they had died. We are concerned because there is no cemetery at the Shawnee Indian Mission. We do not know where these children of ours have been buried."

In 2012, the UMC initiated the Acts of Repentance. The Council of Bishops statement begins:

"As the Council of Bishops, we are here to repent and express remorse for the church's past conduct in its relationships with Native and indigenous peoples in all the places where we have extended the mission of the church for over two hundred years. We are here to commit ourselves to addressing the wrong and asking for the forgiveness of those who have been wronged by failing them so profoundly. We confess to God, acknowledging our guilt, resolving to cease the harm, pledging ourselves to live differently, reversing the damage that has been done through our participation in violence, maltreatment and neglect of Native and indigenous peoples so that we may bring about healing and restoration to all."

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church affirms that apartheid is antithetical to the Gospel message and that we recognize and oppose Israeli apartheid as we strive to "resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves," and

The Conference calls on the U.S. government to condition U.S. funding to Israel upon Israel's willingness to dismantle its apartheid system and implement all the rights due to Palestinians under international law, and

The Conference urges all United Methodist clergy and laity to listen to the voices of Palestinians regarding their situation, by meeting with them in their homeland, by seeking opportunities to hear from them at online events, and through the study of the Palestinian Christians' landmark 2020 document entitled "Cry for Hope: A Call for Decisive Action."

RATIONALE:

In most of the region between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea, Israel is the sole governing power, and, in the remainder, Israel maintains primary control over Palestinians' lives. Israeli authorities have demonstrated a clear intent to maintain domination over Palestinians by enacting a system of laws and policies that grant full self-determination exclusively to Jewish Israelis and enforce systematic oppression of Palestinians, which is the essence of an apartheid system.

Apartheid is named as a "crime against humanity" under international law and the primary features of apartheid include:

- codifying into law a preferred group of people and giving that group preferential
- access to resources, benefits and services,
- segregating the population into geographic areas based on identity, and
- establishing laws and policies designed to suppress opposition to the regime and enforcing domination through arbitrary imprisonment, torture, cruel and inhumane treatment, and other violations of human rights.

Israel has seized more than three-quarters of the land of its Palestinian citizens and continues their dispossession today, and Palestinians in the OPT have lived under Israeli military law for generations without any protected civil rights.

If apartheid is to be opposed and abolished, it is essential for the international community to recognize and name apartheid where it exists. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that United Methodists “commend and encourage the self-awareness of all racial and ethnic groups and oppressed people that leads them to demand their just and equal rights as members of society,” and furthermore “call the Church to challenge any hierarchy of cultures or identities.”

- The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church condemns the use of Christian symbols and prayers by the attackers on the U.S. Congress at the Capitol on January 6, 2021. We invite our clergy and lay leaders to condemn that attack, as well as any future attacks.
- The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church disavows the lies spread about the 2020 Presidential Election that incited the mob carrying Christian symbols to violently attack Congress while it was certifying the Electoral College votes on January 6, 2021. We assert that the election of President Biden was free, fair, and legal.
- We call upon our pastors and lay leaders to lead studies of Christian nationalism using resources including Christian nationalism fuses Christian and American identities so as to dishonor both the Christian faith and America's constitutional democracy. We understand that Christian nationalism often overlaps white supremacy, patriarchy, heteronormativity, authoritarianism, and militarism. RATIONALE:

Members of the Northern Illinois Conference were horrified at the assault on the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021. We were dismayed by the use of Christian symbols during the violent attack on the Congress. The sight of the cross, the Christian flag, “Jesus Saves” signs, and a “Jesus 2020” flag modeled on the Trump campaign flag – along with the prayers professing a belief in God empowering the insurrectionists onto victory – abused Christianity. We became more aware of the dangerous ideology of Christian nationalism.

Our United Methodist faith compels us to recognize that Christian nationalism fuses Christian and American identities so as to dishonor both the Christian faith and America’s constitutional democracy. We understand that Christian nationalism often overlaps white supremacy, patriarchy, heteronormativity, authoritarianism, and militarism. We believe that no religion, including Christianity, should be privileged by government policies. “The United Methodist Church has for many years supported the separation of church and state.” (UM Social Principles)

We must stand up to and speak out against Christian nationalism, especially when it inspires acts of violence and intimidation – including vandalism, bomb threats, arson, hate crimes, and attacks on houses of worship – against religious communities at home and abroad.

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church declares its opposition to any theology or biblical interpretation that would justify denying or violating the human rights of Palestinians and other religious and ethnic minorities in Israel/Palestine.

The Northern Illinois Conference calls on its bishop to establish a task force to explore and identify the biblical and theological reasons for opposing Israel’s treatment of the Palestinian people and to submit a report to the 2023 annual conference session which shall include recommendations for actions the Conference should take in light of those findings.

RATIONALE:

Many Christians adhere to the theology of Christian Zionism, believing that the modern state of Israel is a continuation of biblical Israel and a fulfillment of biblical prophecy and that “it is the responsibility of Christians to support the State of Israel and its policies.”¹

The New Testament does not prophesy a modern Israeli state controlled by any single group of people, but does envision a time when Christ will have eliminated “the dividing wall of hostility” between Jews and Gentiles (Ephesians 2:14).

A statement endorsed by thirteen bishops and patriarchs of Palestinian Christian churches says that Western Christians have attached “biblical and theological legitimacy to the infringement of our rights” and calls on their fellow Christians to “deepen their reflection on the Word of God and to rectify their interpretations” and avoid “any use of the Bible to legitimize or support political options and positions that are based upon injustice.”²

1. www.christianzionism.org

2. The Kairos Palestine Document – Paragraphs 2.3.3 and 2.4 https://www.kairosresponse.org/kairos_palestine_document.html

For decades, the United Methodist Church has opposed Israel's treatment of the Palestinian people, including: "the continued military occupation of the West Bank, Gaza, and East Jerusalem, the confiscation of Palestinian land and water resources, the destruction of Palestinian homes, the continued building of illegal Jewish settlements, and any vision of a 'Greater Israel' that includes the occupied territories and the whole of Jerusalem and its surroundings."¹

Christian Zionism is having a significant and dangerous impact on U.S. policy regarding Israel, by obstructing efforts to achieve a just peace and promoting U.S. acceptance of unjust treatment of Palestinians, and the Israeli government is increasingly reliant on Christians in the United States who adhere to this theology for political support.²

ACTION:

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church recognizes, supports, and celebrates the leadership of our Central Conferences in the creation of the Christmas Covenant (please see www.christmascovenant.com) and endorses its legislative language, including the creation of a U.S. Regional Conference along with the Central Conferences as Regional Conferences.

RATIONALE:

The Christmas Covenant legislation was written primarily by United Methodists from Africa, Europe and the Philippines. In February, 2020, it was passed by the Philippines Annual Conference - Cavite and submitted to the next General Conference. The Connectional Table (CT) affirms the Christmas Covenant as an "expression of the CT's commitment to institutional equity and to dismantling historic, systemic colonialism." (CT press release, Nov. 3, 2020) It calls on The United Methodist Church to structure itself into Regions, with local autonomy, to address issues particular to their own unique contexts, at the same time, continuing its structure as a global connection. This allows us to address common global issues and give cross-regional help to each region so that we may be more effective in dealing with the unique challenges that we face in our own regions of the world.

Name: Resolution for Korea's Peace

Legislation Section Assignment: Section 3 - Concurrence

Approved via Consent Calendar in Plenary 4 on June 9, 2022 (see pg 28-29)

ACTION:

1. The Northern Illinois Annual Conference pray for Korea's peace as part of worship, Bible Study, or special presentation during the 184th annual conference in 2023 on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the armistice of the Korean War.
2. The Bishop of the Northern Illinois Conference appoint a committee to work on this prayer time during the 2023 annual conference and on educational and spiritual formation resources for the congregations and individuals to use.
3. The Northern Illinois Conference encourage all local churches to consider taking a moment in worship to pray for peace in Korea, preferably around the 70th anniversary of the armistice of the Korean War.

RATIONALE:

Christians affirm Christ is our peace, as widely witnessed in the New Testament including the following passage: "For he [Christ] is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us" (Ephesians 2:14).

The year 2023 marks the 70th anniversary of the armistice of the Korean War in 1953. The political and military tensions have continued since then, threatening peace on the Korean peninsula as well as threatening global peace.

The Korean War, which started on June 25, 1950 and lasted for three years, was an international war fought on the Korean peninsula, involving military forces from China, the Soviet Union, the United States, and United Nations (UN) Forces. An estimated 3 million civilians and combatants lost their lives in the war, with countless others injured in body and spirit. The descendants of those killed, survivors, veterans, the injured, and war refugees and orphans now live all over the world, bearing the pain of the war.

The armistice treaty of the Korean War on July 27, 1953 served as a military ceasefire and resulted in the division of Korea into two: North Korea (Democratic People's Republic of Korea) and South Korea (Republic of Korea). North and South Koreans share one language, common history, and cultural heritage. Since the national division in 1953, civilian communication or visits have not been allowed. During these years, husband and wives were separated. Parents and children were pulled apart. People in both North and South Korea have lived under the threat of war, political demonization of each other, and the pain of family separation.

The United States forces still are stationed in South Korea. The peace of Korea is not only a concern of the Korean people. It involves U.S. army (militarily); surrounding nations (geo-politically); and many other nations in this increasingly globalized world community. An escalation of tension in Korea can affect global peace. At the same time, a more peaceful situation in Korea can expand a sense of wellbeing for others.

Praying for peace is an important part of Christian discipleship. Specific prayer requests for Korea's peace may include the following:

- Praying for replacing the armistice treaty with a peace treaty
- Praying for peace and reconciliation for Korea's separated families and their descendants
- Praying for the descendants of those who were killed in the Korean War, those who were injured in the Korean War and still live with the wounds from the war, and all who were affected by the Korean War
- Praying for transforming the demilitarized zone into a peace park
- Praying for the peaceful reunification of the two Koreas
- Praying for the world community to work for greater peace in the world; and

Christ calls us to be peacemakers. Our prayers for peace will connect us with all who yearn for peace in Korea and in the world.

Name: Separation Resolution for Local Church -- Clear, Transparent, Fair, and Collaborative: Guidelines for Congregations Considering Leaving the Northern Illinois Annual Conference

Author(s): Scott Field

Legislation Section Assignment: Section 4

- Non-Concurrence - Not voted or approved

RESOLVED:

That the 2022 Session of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference (NIC), out of respect for one another, a desire to do no harm, and a commitment to allow congregations and their members grace and space freely to consider their options for the future, encourages all officials and entities of the Annual Conference to be governed by the following principles, policies and processes when engaging congregations considering withdrawal from the NIC to join "one of the other denominations repre-resented in the Pan-Methodist Commission or ... another evangelical denomination" (Book of Discipline, paragraph 2548.2), or to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church "for reasons of conscience regarding a change in the requirements and provision of The Book of Discipline related to the practice of homosexuality or the ordination or marriage of self-avowed practicing homosexual persons as resolved and adopted by the 2019 General Conference, or the actions or inactions of its annual conference related to these issues which follow" (Paragraph 2553):

1. Congregations considering their relationship with the NIC shall undertake a deliberate and intentional process of informed, prayerful discernment.
2. Congregations joining one of the denominations represented in the Pan-Methodist Commission or another evangelical church may, at their sole discretion, choose to withdraw for purposes of transfer under the provisions of Paragraph 2548.2.
3. Congregations disaffiliating to an independent status shall be required to use the provisions of Paragraph 2553. All churches, regardless of their theological position, should be permitted to disaffiliate pursuant to Paragraph 2553 so long as they meet the requirements of Paragraph 2553.
4. Any required support for unfunded pension liability shall be based on Wespath calculations of the aggregate unfunded liability of the Annual Conference. The formula for the proportion of the aggregate liability allocated to particular congregations shall be determined by the appropriate group within the NIC. Actuarial reports, financial statements, audit reports, and calculations supporting both the aggregate amount of unfunded pension liability as determined by Wespath as well as the NIC formula for apportioning the aggregate amount of unfunded pension liability to local churches shall be provided to all churches.
5. Northern Illinois Annual Conference officials and entities are encouraged to abide by the following guidelines in administering Paragraph 2548.2:
 - a. Any allocation, exchange of property, or comity agreement shall include the following requirements. No additional sums, "exit fees", or penalties shall be required.
 - i. The local church retains all its assets and liabilities.
 - ii. The local church shall repay previously documented loans from the Annual Conference.
 - iii. The local church shall either remain under Wespath and carry its unfunded pension liability forward with it or owe the Northern Illinois Conference for the local church's proportional share of the unfunded liability. The liability shall include unfunded obligations related to The United Methodist Church's pre-1982 pension plan, the Ministerial Pension Plan, and/or the Clergy Retirement Security Program. Actuarial reports and financial statements from Wespath documenting any unfunded liability shall be provided to departing churches. This liability may be satisfied by direct payment to the NIC before the effective date of withdrawal, by partial payments over time until the liability is fulfilled, or a promissory note approved by the conference chancellor or another attorney retained by the Conference in the sum of the withdrawal liability.
 - iv. The local church shall be current in its apportionment payments to the NIC for the current year.
 - v. No additional sums will be required to obtain release of all the congregation's property and assets from the trust clause.
 - b. The local church shall make the decision about its future relationship with the NIC at a church conference duly called according to the provisions of The Book of Discipline. The Church Council (or its equivalent) shall determine whether a simple majority or a two-thirds super majority shall be required for approval of a motion to separate from the NIC. If the motion is to disaffiliate to an independent status, a two-third majority will be required per paragraph 2553 of the Book of Discipline.

- c. The district superintendent shall approve the request of the Church Council (or its equivalent) for a church conference and shall preside or choose another elder to preside at a church conference to take place no later than sixty days after the request is made.
6. Matters pertaining to the role of the currently appointed or assigned pastoral leadership, as well as any other church staff, will be addressed in the withdrawal agreement. Further, professing members of the withdrawing church who desire to continue in a United Methodist congregation shall have the option of transferring membership to another United Methodist congregation congruent with paragraphs 229 and paragraph 2549.2 of the Book of Discipline.
7. A written agreement detailing the requirements of departure and, in the case of withdrawal to align with another eligible denomination, the reception of the congregation into its new denomination, is to be signed by the NIC, the local congregation, and, if applicable, the receiving denomination after review by the NIC chancellor or attorney retained by the NIC for this purpose.
8. All agreements for separation are undertaken with the consent of the presiding bishop and shall be presented to the Annual Conference at a regular or specially called session for final approval. Any congregations seeking disaffiliation under paragraph 2553 must complete the process by December 31, 2023, per the requirements of that section of the Book of Discipline. The process for withdrawal to align with another eligible denomination under paragraph 2548.2 will have no time limit imposed or implied.

RATIONALE:

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church contains two options for congregations choosing to separate from the United Methodist Church: 1) Paragraph 2548.2 relating to release of the trust clause for a local congregation to join a church “represented in the Pan-Methodist Commission or another evangelical denomination;” or 2) Paragraph 2553 which grants the limited right, until December 31, 2023, for United Methodist congregations to disaffiliate for reasons of conscience over the practice of ordination or marriage of self-avowed practicing homosexuals; and

The Protocol for Reconciliation and Grace through Separation and its legislation submitted to the now postponed 2020 General Conference offers a proposal to restructure the United Methodist Church by separation as a means to resolve our differences, allowing each part of the Church to remain true to its theological understanding, while recognizing the dignity, equality, integrity, and respect for every person; and

The Covenant to Build BeLoved Community, adopted by the North Central Jurisdictional Conference (November 2021) and affirmed by the NIC General and Jurisdictional Conference delegation states,

We encourage conferences and local churches to strive for reconciliation and understanding. However, some congregations and clergy may feel called to a different future in the faith. We respect our siblings who depart and desire to do no harm as we anticipate cooperative ecumenical efforts in the future. We grieve each separation. NCJ annual conferences should use existing disciplinary and conference provisions to accommodate local congregations and clergy seeking disaffiliation. (<https://www.ncjumc.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/NCJ-Covenant-to-Build-BeLoved-Community-1.pdf>)

The prolonged delay of General Conference, and uncertainty whether the Protocol will be enacted, as well as limited information about requirements in the Northern Illinois Annual Conference for congregations desiring to disaffiliate or withdraw for purpose of transfer contributes to anxiety, loss of trust, and distraction in our local churches.

Clear guidance by Annual Conference action regarding the separation process and expected requirements will reduce anxiety, allow for open, peaceable, and informed consideration by local churches, their pastors, and NIC leaders, and empower local churches to make better decisions about their futures if and when they choose to do so.

Approved via Consent Calendar in Plenary 4 on June 9, 2022 (see pg 28-29)

ACTION:

1. Calls upon its clergy, lay leaders, and members to educate themselves about the plight of immigrants, asylum seekers, and refugees attempting to enter this country and particularly here in the Northern Illinois conference.
2. Urges its clergy, lay leaders, and members to consider ways to support Justice for Our Neighbors and other advocacy and support groups such as Interfaith Immigration Coalition, Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights, and CLASP, whose missions are to offer free high-quality legal services to low-income immigrants, asylum seekers, and refugees; to engage in education and advocacy efforts; and, to provide hospitality and needed childcare, and other related necessary services to aid them in feeling welcomed and supported.
4. Urges its clergy, lay leaders, and church members, on their own behalf to contact (write, call, or meet) their State Representatives and Senators to urge them to co-sponsor HB 0025 and SB 3144 respectively, the Immigration Right to Counsel Act.
5. Directs the Conference Secretary [or other appropriate Conference rep] to write our State legislators to vote for and support the Immigrant Right to Counsel Act, and advocate for better state laws to promote the health, welfare and security of immigrants.
6. Urges its clergy, lay leaders, and members to continue to call upon our U.S. representatives, to continue to pursue more and better decisions to care for the health, welfare, and security of immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers, such as the recent decision to terminate the federal law, Title 42, which was misused to block migrants from seeking asylum at our southern borders and elsewhere in the U.S.

RATIONALE:

United Methodists, at the conference and General Conference level, have consistently passed resolutions and endorsed measures to protect the rights of immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers.¹

We are grateful that, Justice For Our Neighbors (JFON), was created initiated by the General Board of Global Ministries in 1999 to help serve thousands of immigrants across the United States. . The JFON network effectively provides services to our community here within the Northern Ill. Conference, and also is a strong forum for advocacy on behalf of immigrant rights. See, nijfon.org. We appreciate the work of JFON and other organizations to advocate on the state level for passage of a state law providing immigrants rights to counsel.

On the Federal level, we note with joy that the Interfaith Immigration Coalition has released a statement in support of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), announced plans to terminate Title 42 by May 23. The public health order, first invoked by the Trump administration and continued by the Biden administration, has been misused for over two years to block migrants from seeking asylum at the U.S. southern border under the guise of protecting public health. Title 42 has resulted in approximately 1.7 million expulsions of asylum seekers back to harm, which has disproportionately impacted Black migrants. Over 10,000 documented incidents of kidnapping, torture, rape, and other violent attacks against vulnerable migrants have been reported since the start of the Biden administration due to Title 42. This is indeed a great step in support of the rights of asylum seekers and refugees, and we also know that more is required of faith communities to support the advocacy and humanitarian work of JFON, Interfaith Immigration Coalition, [should we include CLASP?] and comparable organizations

We are called to these actions because as Jesus said “I was a stranger and you welcomed me.” Matthew 25:35B; and “do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.” Hebrews 13:2; “When an alien resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the alien.” Leviticus 19:33.

Legislation Section Assignment: Section 1

Concurrence as amended - see underline below

Approved via Consent Calendar in Plenary 4 on June 9, 2022 (see pg 28-29)

Action:

1. Calls upon its clergy and laity to support the right to engage in nonviolent resistance including the use of boycotts and divestments.
2. Urges its clergy and laity to educate themselves about the damage anti-BDS (boycott, divestment & sanctions) laws have done to free speech rights and other nonviolent actions.
3. Urges its clergy and laity ,to consider the dangers posed by an Illinois statute that penalizes companies for engaging in actions critical of Israel, even when those actions are taken out of concern for human rights.
4. Urges its clergy and laity, on their own behalf to contact (write, call, or meet) their State Representatives and Senators to urge them to review Illinois’ anti-BDS (boycott, divestment & sanctions) law and proposed U.S. legislation and consider whether these efforts to protect the State of Israel justify the chilling of and actual infringement on free speech, and chilling the efforts of companies to comply with international law and human rights.

Rationale:

In 2005, after years of occupation and oppression, Palestinian civil society issued an urgent cry to the international community to use boycott divestment and sanctions (“BDS”) actions until Israel: 1) provides equal rights to Palestinian/Israeli citizens inside Israel, 2) recognizes the right of return for Palestinian refugees, and 3) ends the occupation of Palestine.

In recent years, this Palestinian-led movement has garnered international support from churches – including the United Methodist and Presbyterian churches - universities and other institutions as it seeks to apply economic pressure on Israel over its treatment of Palestinians.

United Methodists, at both Annual and General conference levels, have consistently passed resolutions and endorsed measures to protect the rights of Palestinians. The NIC was the first US conference to pass a divestment resolution in 2006.

On May 3, 2012, the UMC passed the resolution “Opposition to Israeli Settlements in Palestinian Land,” calling for a boycott of all products produced in Israel’s illegal settlements on Palestinian land. The GC also asked “all companies that profit from and/or support settlements through their business activities to examine these and stop any business that contributes to serious violations of international law, promotes systemic discrimination or otherwise supports ongoing military occupation.”

The UMC Resolution foreshadowed the 2014 U.N. Human Rights Council’s resolution urging businesses to avoid supporting the establishment and maintenance of Israeli settlements in the occupied Palestinian Territories.

Since then, at both State (including Illinois) and Federal levels, there have been massive efforts aimed at suppressing criticism of Israel through the use of boycott or divestment initiatives (see, <https://palestinelegal.org/righttoboycott>). These efforts are disturbing given that over 30 years ago, the Supreme Court held that boycotts are a form of free speech protected by the First Amendment (NAACP v. Claiborne Hardware), such laws have been declared unconstitutional by Federal courts (see <https://www.aclu.org/letter/aclu-letter-opposing-revised-version-israel-anti-boycott-act>).

Laws that seek to punish companies for engaging acts perceived as critical of the State, or to cease profiting from or supporting the illegal settlements, go too far. Efforts to silence, infringe, or simply to chill First Amendment free speech rights, including bills that target the use of boycotts or divestment for social justice issues, regardless of whether to support the rights of Palestinians to life with dignity, freedom of movement, and basic human rights, or for other social justice issues, are inappropriate and must not be condoned.

Illinois’ anti-BDS statute permits a seven-member board to determine that a company is “boycotting” Israel and/or “any territory controlled by Israel,” and place that company on the prohibited investment list. In just the past few years, this Board has invoked the statute threaten Air BnB, Ben and Jerry’s, Air Canada.

703-01 SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND ABUSE

(Passed in Plenary on June 10, 1997)

WHEREAS, the 1996 Annual Conference charged the Bishop's Task Force on Sexual Harassment to bring a policy statement to the 1997 Annual Conference, which would incorporate the actions of the 1996 General Conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the policy of the Northern Illinois Conference:

The United Methodist Church of the Northern Illinois Conference stands in opposition to the sins of sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct and will not tolerate or condone these behaviors. The Northern Illinois Conference bears affirmative covenant responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, which is free of harassment and encourages mutual respect, equality with one another and kinship in Christ. Affiliation with The United Methodist Church (whether in positions of licensed, commissioned, certified, consecrated, ordained or diaconal ministry, volunteer leadership, lay ministry, or lay employment) not only implies, but also requires a high standard of behavior consistent with the gospel. Every complaint of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct shall be diligently pursued according to the 1996 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

In this context the primary concern of the Northern Illinois Conference is the protection of and care for all persons, as well as the achievement of justice and reconciliation of all parties whenever possible. The Body of Christ is best healed when protection, justice, remedial action and reconciliation can occur.

The United Methodist Church has found sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship to be incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing, and took action at the 1996 General Conference to continue the church's efforts to eliminate sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct in the denomination and its institutions.

"All human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. From the beginning, God intended us to live out our equality in relation with one another. Yet, in our human brokenness, we have given greater value and power to men than to women. Jesus was sent into this world that we might experience whole relationships with one another and with God. 'There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus'." (Galatians 3:28 RSV; The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, TN: The United Methodist Publishing House, 1996, p. 481).

Sexual Harassment, sexual abuse, and sexual misconduct are violations of an individual's integrity and of the covenant relationship intended by God. In the creation stories and in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, we affirm that we are created in the image and likeness of God. To harass or abuse another person sexually is to deny that value. Sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Any expression of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual misconduct is a sin against God and other persons.

There is no simple, all-inclusive definition of sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual misconduct. Often the definitions may overlap and a particular form of behavior may fall within two or more of the prohibitions. Further, the following definitions are illustrative guidelines and do not attempt to serve as definitive legal conclusions, to cover all possible situations or to limit or preempt any subject matter ultimately governed by The Book of Discipline or within the purview of the General Conference and the Judicial Council.

Sexual misconduct occurs when a person in a ministerial role of leadership engages in a broad variety of sexual contacts or sexualized behaviors with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, etc. (adult, teenager, or child) within the ministerial relationship. Sexual misconduct includes sexual harassment, sexual abuse, and any form of criminal sexual misconduct.

Sexual harassment may be defined, according to the 1996 Book of Resolutions, as an "unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical that is perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue." Particularly where there exists a differential in power and authority between the participants or special vulnerability of the victim, sexual harassment may include the development or attempted development of a sexual or romantic relationship between a person in a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) and a person with whom he or she has a ministerial relationship, whether or not there is apparent consent from the individual. The Book of Resolutions goes on to state that "sexual harassment also includes the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender." (The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, TN: The United Methodist Publishing House, 1996, p. 482.)

Sexual abuse may be defined as a sexual invasion of the body and/or mind by force or other coercive means. Sexual abuse may be rape, sexual assault, incest, indecent exposure, statutory rape, involuntary or ostensibly voluntary sexual intercourse with a child, promotion of prostitution, pornography with children, fondling, indecent assault, and aggravated indecent assault. Sexual abuse is also an internal assault, a deliberate violation of emotional integrity, a hostile, degrading act of violence. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person in a ministerial role of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer. It is an abuse of power through sexual harassment, sexual contact or sexual activity in which the person violates the free choice or abuses the vulnerability of another person for whom he or she is responsible (adult, teen or child), or allows or causes that person to engage in sexual behavior.

703-02 HOUSING COVENANT

(Passed as amended in Plenary on June 7, 1999)

WHEREAS, the Clergy Compensation Task Force has been charged with the responsibility of addressing issues related to equity in clergy compensation, and

WHEREAS, a study done by the Task Force revealed a great inconsistency in clergy housing provisions and conditions, and

WHEREAS, the study also disclosed a lack of understanding of minimum housing standards, as well as responsibilities for upkeep and maintenance,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the following housing covenant be approved as a document to be used annually by each church of the Northern Illinois Conference:

HOUSING COVENANT BETWEEN PASTOR _____ AND _____ UNITED METHODIST CHURCH IN NORTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

A parsonage is a dwelling place provided by the church for the use and occupancy of the pastors of the United Methodist Church who may be entitled to occupy the same by appointment every year. The justification of this option is that it is the backbone of our denomination's appointment system. The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the ministerial family as the property of the church and by the congregation as the private home of the ministerial family. The property is on loan. The pastor and family are entrusted with the care of the home for the duration of the pastoral appointment. To be less than Christian stewards of this "trust" decreases the effectiveness of the Christian ministry. The Staff/Parish Relations Committee is the advocate for the parsonage family, and it is their responsibility to see that this covenant is followed. The Board of Trustees has the responsibility for the upkeep and general maintenance of the property, and it is responsible for its renovations and good maintenance.

A housing allowance is another option for the pastor and the church if both parties and the cabinet are in agreement. If a housing allowance is the option both parties choose, the amount shall be in a reasonable arrangement reflecting the average housing in the community and within an easy commute of the charge.

In this option, the pastor is the one who should take care of his/her property.

If a parsonage is provided, the parsonage family shall care for and maintain the property and be financially responsible for damage done by pets, personal equipment or tools, and/or family life-style except for the reasonable wear and tear. In addition, the following points are made as means of clarification:

Any damage done by pets is considered more than normal wear and tear.

If any life-style choices such as smoking, pets, etc. affect the condition or health environment of the parsonage, the pastor must pay for thorough professional cleaning prior to the new pastor's arrival.

Good housekeeping is the responsibility of the pastor.

It is the responsibility of the Trustees to keep a record of the parsonage and its equipment. It should include such things as a history of the parsonage, decorating and renovation dates, electrical circuits, guarantees, date and place of purchases, repairs, upgrading, and whom to call for service. It is the responsibility of both the pastor and the trustees to keep these records updated.

At the parsonage it is desirable to have a phone list for emergency service and maintenance/operation manuals for parsonage appliances and equipment. Again, it is the responsibility of both the pastor and the Trustees to keep these records updated. Before emergencies occur, it is essential that the Staff/Parish Relations Committee, the Trustees, and the pastor agree on who is to act when major problems happen. When authority is granted, the responsible party can act. Therefore, the following guidelines are to be used:

Emergencies that need to be dealt with on an immediate basis should be handled according to the repair service list already approved by the Trustees.

Non-emergency items of concern and repair should be brought for consideration or action to the Trustees at a regular or special meeting.

If unclear situations arise, the Book of Discipline and the latest Journal and Year Book of Northern Illinois Conference will be referenced.

The parsonage is to be inspected at least annually and at a time of each change of pastors to ascertain what items of routine maintenance and decorating need attention. The parsonage committee or trustees should plan and work to see that reasonable amounts are included in each annual budget to attend to these matters. An Annual Local Church Parsonage Report is to be made every year at the charge conference and submitted to the district superintendent.

and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual misconduct, including sexual abuse and sexual harassment, occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership or authority, including pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, lay member or other position of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, pastor, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (Book of Discipline 1611). It also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. This may also be the case with laity having leadership roles invested with authority or influence. Similarly, sexual and gender harassment are usually understood as exploitation of power relationships rather than as exclusively sexual or gender issues.

Sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission.

_____ United Methodist Church prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong, and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the _____ United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of these sins and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated mediation. In all other instances, the conduct must be reported immediately to at least one of these people: the chair or another member of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, the pastor, another UMC pastor, a district superintendent, or the Bishop. If the conduct involves a clergy person, it must be reported to the clergy person's supervisor, district superintendent or the Bishop. Furthermore, the provisions of Paragraph 359, 413 and Paragraphs 2701-2706 of the Book of Discipline (2000) shall determine the procedure. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Book of Discipline and this Policy, the former shall govern.

The _____ United Methodist Church will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to anyone of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations will be subject to discipline.

While the United Methodist Church cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information about the complaint only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Anyone who has any questions or concerns about this policy or the issues addressed is encouraged to air those questions or concerns to the PPRC or _____.

703-04 NORTHERN ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST BASIC POLICY STATEMENT ON SEXUAL AND GENDER HARASSMENT AND MISCONDUCT OF SEXUAL NATURE

(Passed in Plenary on Saturday afternoon, June 8, 2002)

WHEREAS, it is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in matters of sexual misconduct by both laity and/or clergy,

WHEREAS, Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church is incompatible with Biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing,

WHEREAS, the Church needs to be a place where one is respected and free from any misconduct of sexual nature,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Basic Policy of the Northern Illinois Conference on Misconduct of a Sexual Nature.

The Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist denomination affirms The 2000 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice, and healing. The 2000 Book of Discipline, Par. 2702.3, also recognizes that sexual misconduct and sexual harassment may constitute chargeable offenses by lay person as well. In accordance with The 2000 Book of Discipline, 161F, all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual misconduct, including sexual abuse and sexual harassment, occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership or authority, including pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, lay member or other position of leadership engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, pastor, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (Book of Discipline 1611). It also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. This may also be the case with laity having leadership roles invested with authority or influence. Similarly, sexual and gender harassment are usually understood as exploitation of power relationships rather than as exclusively sexual or gender issues.

Sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission. Northern Illinois Annual Conference prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong, and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with The Book of Discipline. Further, the Northern Illinois Annual Conference bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of these sins and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated mediation. In all other instances, the conduct must be reported immediately to at least one of these people: the chair or another member of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, the pastor, another UMC pastor, a district superintendent, or the Bishop. If the conduct involves a clergy person, it must be reported to the clergy person's supervisor, district superintendent or the Bishop.

Furthermore, the provisions of Paragraph 359, 413 and Paragraphs 2701-2706 of the Book of Discipline (2000) shall determine the procedure. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Book of Discipline and this Policy, the former shall govern.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to anyone of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations will be subject to discipline.

While the Northern Illinois Annual Conference cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information about the complaint only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Anyone who has any questions or concerns about this policy or the issues addressed is encouraged to air those questions or concerns to Commission on Status and Role of Women.

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference commits itself to:

- Seek justice in all cases of sexual misconduct;
- Emphasize reconciliation and resolution as the continuing goal of this process;
- Provide trained individuals to serve as advocates and/or support persons for all aggrieved parties including the complainant, respondent and congregation involved;
- Provide a program of ongoing education and training for local congregations on the nature and scope of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct;
- Provide series of ongoing training sessions for clergy, conference staff and volunteers which will promote proactive measures designed to lower the risk of sexual misconduct on the part of these individuals;
- The wide dissemination of this policy along with additional materials, which will aid in the understanding of the roles and process outlined in the Book of Discipline.

The Commission on Status and Role of Women

703-05 RACIAL HARASSMENT

(Passed as amended in Plenary on Saturday, November 15, 2003)

WHEREAS, harassment (for example race, color, national, cultural or ethnic origin) results in loss of self-esteem for the victim, and is a violation and breakdown in the sense of community within the church; and

WHEREAS, racial harassment is both a moral and ethical concern and illegal under state and federal law; and

WHEREAS, under our United Methodist Discipline, racial harassment is also a chargeable offense for both clergy and laity; and

WHEREAS, the policy and the procedures which follow are intended to insure that the churches and other agencies of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church have a clear understanding of the definition of racial harassment and of the fact that racial harassment, as well as other forms of harassment, are not permitted among us;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the following statement be adopted as the Basic Policy of the Northern Illinois Conference on Racial Harassment, including the additional advisory procedures designed to improve our ability to respond effectively to complaints of this nature.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to laity, clergy, and lay employees of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference for the prevention and remediation of racial harassment. The existence of a policy, including procedures for complaints, will act as a deterrent to inappropriate behavior.

THEOLOGICAL BASIS

“The first two chapters of the Book of Genesis describe the ‘creative genius of God.’ Psalm 24 ‘reaffirms the relationship between God and all of God’s creatures and the divinity of God.’ Yet, in spite of humanity’s common legacy as God’s descendants, we have consistently established differences among God’s children because of race... [engaging] in verbal exchanges and behavioral demonstrations which have rejected the sacredness of all persons. When [a] prejudicial and/or racist attitude is expressed in a behavior that is focused specifically in the abuse, humiliations and defamation of persons because of their race or ethnicity, it has become racial harassment.” (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: 2000, #157, “Racial Harassment,” p. 393) As we seek to dismantle the racism and cultural biases in our structure, policies, and practices, we will also continue to work to create an environment in which all people are respected and welcomed. “For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.” (I Corinthians 12:12) “If one member suffers, all suffer together with it, if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.” (I Corinthians 12:26)

DEFINITION

The General Conference of 1992 defines the following conditions as racial harassment:

1. Abusive and/or derogatory language that in a subtle or overt manner belittles, humiliates, impugns, or defames a person or a group of persons based on racial and ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics;
 2. A behavior (individual, group, or institutional) which abuses, belittles, humiliates, defames, or demeans a person or a group of persons based on racial or ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics;
 3. Documentation, printed or visual, which abuses, belittles, humiliates, defames, or demeans a person or a group of persons based on racial or ethnic traits, heritage, and characteristics.
- (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: 2000, #157, “Racial Harassment,” p. 393)

The Northern Illinois Annual Conference will not tolerate any acts or communications that belittle, humiliate, impugn or defame an individual or group on the basis of his/her/their racial or ethnic traits, heritage, or characteristics. We prohibit behaviors that contribute to the creation of a racially hostile and offensive church or work environment marked by one or more characteristics of the definition quoted above. This environment is manifested when words or actions directed toward a group, or an individual of a particular race or ethnic origin, are unwelcome and seriously and pervasively abusive, belittling, humiliating, defamatory or demeaning to the victims.

These prohibitions against racial harassment apply to any person within the Northern Illinois Annual Conference, whether laity, clergy, or staff. The offended person may be another individual in the church, a recipient of the church’s services, a staff member, or a community member. The prohibitions may apply at any place or time.

While all persons are expected to take part in maintaining an environment safe and free from racial harassment, each supervisor, pastor, and congregational leader is responsible for taking steps to create such an environment. This responsibility is also intended to cover any racial harassment complaints lodged against third-party providers of services to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference or individuals involved in business relationships with the Conference. Those who have knowledge of incidents involving substantiated racial harassment and fail to respond appropriately also are in violation of this policy.

PROCEDURES

- I. In any event, the procedures outlined in 359 and 2702, number 1 (clergy) and 2703, number 3 (laity) of the 2000 Book of Discipline, and other relevant sections, may be pursued by either of the parties. The following procedures are supplementary in nature and do not, in any way, supercede the tenets of the Book of Discipline. In the event of any inconsistency, the Book of Discipline shall govern.]
- II. If you are racially harassed:
 - a. State firmly and clearly to the harasser that this behavior is unwelcome and you want it to stop. It may be helpful to take another person with you for support. This action, in some cases will resolve the issue.
 - b. Keep a journal which documents all incidents of suspected racial harassment including dates, times, and descriptions of the incidents. Record the names of any witnesses to the harassment. Keep copies of all written materials you complete in reference to the harassment. If you receive any written letters, cards, or memos of a harassing nature, keep them and note the date and how the material was received (mailed to your home, left on your desk, etc.)
 - c. If the issue cannot be resolved through personal confrontation, you may: (1) inform your Staff-Parish Relations Committee, your pastor, the District Superintendent, your immediate supervisor, or other such person or group as may be appropriate in the particular case at hand. Keep copies of all correspondence. Remember that the church supports an environment free from racial antagonism and that the above named persons are committed to helping you; (2) present your situation to the Chairperson of the Committee on Religion and Race of the Northern Illinois Conference.
- III. If you are accused of racial harassment:
 - a. Try talking with the individual who is making the complaint against you with the permission of him or her directly or through a third party. Try to reach a solution. Document the agreement and actions taken.
 - b. If the issue cannot be resolved through personal dialogue, you may: (1) inform one of the above named persons or groups depending on which is appropriate; (2) present the situation to the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race.

 - b. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the annual conference adopt the policy set forth above.
2. That a Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team be formed. (Some ideas/possibilities for the Team's purpose are: conduct anti-racism training events, disseminate the conference policy, and provide intervention.)
3. That the current members of the Commission on Religion and Race serve as the Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team.
4. That the Racial Harassment Prevention/Response Team shall be the leadership entity under this policy, but its role is consultative and facilitative rather than judicial. Any matter involving a formal complaint or a chargeable offense shall be exclusively the province of responsible church authorities under the Judicial Administration and fair process provisions of the Book of Discipline.
5. That the Bishop appoint additional members to the Team in consultation with groups in the conference which deal with issues of racial justice.
6. That the Cabinet of Northern Illinois Conference plans, develops, and implements a program designed to address issues of race and racism in local congregations where cross-racial appointments are situated; this program should assist clergy, lay leadership, and congregations as they create supportive and healthy settings in which ministry can thrive.
7. That this policy be made available in the Korean and Spanish and other significant language groups represented in the Conference.

703-06 CHILD AND YOUTH ABUSE AND PREVENTION POLICY

(Passed on Second Consent Calendar in Plenary on June 9, 2005)

Introduction

WHEREAS, the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. In April, 1996, adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of child sexual abuse in the church. The adopted resolution includes the following statement:

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child... welcomes me." (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matthew 18:6). Our Christian faith calls us to offer both hospitality and protection to the little ones, the children. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that "...children must be protected from economic, physical, and sexual exploitation, and abuse."

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children. Child sexual abuse, exploitation and ritual abuse (ritual abuse refers to abusive acts committed as part of ceremonies or rites; ritual abusers are often related to cults, or pretend to be) occur in churches, both large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing. Most annual conferences can cite specific incidents of child sexual abuse and exploitation in their churches. Virtually every congregation has among its members adult survivors of early sexual trauma.

Such incidents are devastating to all who are involved: the children, the family, the local church and its leaders. Increasingly, churches are torn apart by legal, emotional, and monetary consequences of litigation following allegations of abuse.

God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe & strong.

Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church 1996,
 pages 384-386

SECTION II ANNUAL, GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE ELECTIONS

A. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church requires the membership of an Annual Conference session have equal lay and clergy members seated on the voting floor. Each Annual Conference is required to create a formula to ensure that for every clergy, including appointed deacons, there be a lay member. For The Northern Illinois Annual Conference, this Section II, A in the Standing Rules outlines how that equalization will occur.
2. By the United Methodist Constitution:
 - a. Clergy Membership includes elders and deacons in full connection, provisional members, associate members and local pastors under appointment.
 - b. Lay Membership of professing lay members elected by the charge, diaconal ministers, active deaconesses and home missionaries under appointment. Additionally, there is a list of conference offices which if held by a lay person makes that lay person a member of the Annual Conference.
 - c. Lay members should have been members of The United Methodist Church for two years preceding their election and active in The United Methodist Church for four years preceding their election. (Ref: Section VI, Paragraph 32, Article I of the Constitution of the United Methodist Church)
3. Local Church/Charge
 - a. For every clergy appointed to a local church there is a lay member elected.
 - b. Where there are multiple charges one lay member is to be elected for each church in the charge.
 - c. An additional lay member shall be added for each of the following reported church professing membership milestones:
 - Add one additional Lay Member if the church's membership is 200-399.

These membership milestones are determined through the most recent membership report provided to the Annual Conference through the church's statistical filing.

If there is still a gap between Lay Members and Clergy Members in the voting membership of the NICUMC, the difference will be comprised of District Representatives nominated by the District Superintendents. These persons cannot already be a voting member of the NICUMC per any other category or 'by virtue of office' position, but must adhere to the requirement of being a member of The United Methodist Church for at least two years. Each District Superintendent will turn in their District's nominations (based on a percentage of the total that is needed) to the Credentials Committee by March 15 of the same year as that year's Annual Conference. The slate of District Representatives will be elected at the start of each Annual Conference session in the procedural voting.

4. Equalization: If equalization is not achieved through these steps, by September 1 of the immediately completed Annual Conference year, the Annual Conference Credentials Committee will divide the remaining required lay members equally between the districts. Those individuals shall be selected by the District Superintendent and District Lay Leader in a means of the district's choosing. Those selected will be reported to the Annual Conference Credentials Committee no later than January 15 of the next Annual Conference year. Special attention by the District Superintendents and District Lay Leader should be given for the inclusion of youth and young adults and to the racial/ethnicity of their districts. Individuals holding offices included in the equalization cannot be utilized for this purpose.

This roster will constitute the committee's initial certification of all members for the ensuing Conference session.
 - d. Any late changes to the lay member representation must be made in writing to the Credentials Committee at the site of the Annual Conference. This only applies to changes in duly elected lay members or their alternates. No Lay Member may be credentialed for more than one category. The furnishings allowance shall be established to include all anticipated allowable expenses related to the operation of and the furnishing and equipping of a home. amount shall be excluded from gross income for income tax purposes to the extent it is actually used for such expenses. The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from the clergy's gross income is based on IRS Section 107, and is limited to the lesser of the following three criteria:

- i. The amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the clergy's employer or other appropriate body
 - ii. The amount actually expended by the clergy to provide his or her housing, or
 - iii. The legally determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided.
- b. Retired clergy serving a church are not eligible for an additional housing allowance while serving under assignment or supply as their pension income is designated for housing purposes.

5. Housing Relocation Expenses: The Conference Council on Finance and Administration is responsible for establishing, administering, interpreting, and reviewing policies and procedures in support of the relocation by clergy households serving the Northern Illinois Annual Conference local churches. 5. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired clergy, or 100% of the payments received by a clergy on Medical leave, is designated as rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained pastor of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Northern Illinois Conference at the time of retirement or when granted medical leave status..
6. The pension or disability payment in which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or medical leave payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained pastor from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the clergy to perform services related to the ministry and who to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pensions or disabled minister's benefits.

7. The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a clergy's gross income is limited to the lesser of

- e. Termination. Since deacons are not guaranteed a place of employment in the Church special attention shall be given to termination procedures that allow time for seeking another service appointment. Section 2. Registered Office and Registered Agent: The corporation shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Illinois a registered office and a registered agent, whose office is identical with each registered office, as required by the Illinois General Not-for-Profit Corporation Act. The registered office may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office in the State of Illinois, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Trustees.

Article II Members

Section 1. Class of Members: The corporation shall have one class of members consisting of those persons designated as Clergy Members (as defined by the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church) who are on appointment to Charges within the boundaries of Northern Illinois Annual Conference or who are serving elsewhere by appointment of the presiding Bishop and those persons designated as Lay Members who, from time to time, are elected to Northern Illinois Conference by the Charges of the conference and those additional Lay Members as provided by Paragraph 32, Article I of the Constitution of The United Methodist Church by virtue of office or for purposes of equalizing lay and clergy membership as shall from time to time be provided for by the Standing Rules of the Conference. The qualifications and rights of members shall be as, from time to time, designated in the Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

Section 2. Voting Rights: Each member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the membership; provided, however, only Clergy Members may vote on measures concerning the granting or validation of local pastor's license, ordination, reception into full conference clergy membership or any question concerning the character and official conduct of ordained clergy; and, provided further, that Clergy and Lay Members shall vote separately in elections of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences and in other matters, if so provided by the Discipline of The United Methodist Church. determine. The assistant treasurers and assistant secretaries, in general, shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to them by the treasurer/director of administrative services or the secretary or by the Annual Conference.

Vacancies and Removal: In the event a vacancy shall occur in the interim of the annual sessions, the office shall be filled as follows: (1) The Board of Trustees shall elect a new vice president (president of the Trustees) or assistant vice president (vice president of the Trustees). (2) The Bishop, after consultation with the district superintendents, shall appoint a person as secretary or statistician to serve until the next session of the Conference. (3) If a vacancy shall occur in the office of treasurer/director of administrative services, the Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Bishop, shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the Conference. Vacancies filled at the session of the Conference shall be for the unexpired term of the Conference officers.

Article V Board of Trustees

Number, Tenure and Qualifications: The number of trustees shall be twelve (12), and it is recommended that one third be clergy, one third lay men and one third lay women, provided that each district shall have at least one representative, with care being taken to ensure representative inclusiveness (Paragraphs 2512 and 610.5). Trustees shall be elected in classes at the annual session of the conference for a term of four (4) years (or until their successors are elected).

Section 3. Ex-Officio Members: The secretary and the treasurer/director of Administrative services of the Annual Conference shall serve ex officio, without a right to vote, as secretary and treasurer of the Board of Trustees; provided, however, nothing herein shall preclude the election of these officers as voting members of the Board of Trustees, pursuant to Section 2 of this Article. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall likewise serve ex officio on the Board of Trustees without the right to vote.

Section 4. Regular Meetings: Within four weeks of the close of each Annual Conference, the Board shall hold its regular annual meeting to elect officers. The District Superintendent assigned to the Board of Trustees shall convene the meeting.

Section 6. Notice: Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be given at least five (5) days previous thereto by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail or telegram to each trustee at the address of such trustee as shown by the records of the corporation. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope as addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any trustee may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a trustee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a trustee attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or duly called special meeting of the board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specifically required by law or by these by-laws.

Section 7. Quorum: The members of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference Board of Trustees present and voting at any duly announced meeting shall constitute a quorum, providing that at least 5 trustees be present as a quorum at a trustee meeting.

Section 8. Manner of Acting: The act of a majority of the trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees, unless that act of a greater number is required by law or by these by-laws.

Section 9. Vacancies: Vacancies occurring between sessions of an annual conference shall be filled as follows: Upon nomination by the conference committee on nominations, the district superintendents shall, by majority vote, elect a trustee to serve until the next annual meeting of the trustees. Vacancies shall be filled by the annual conference for the unexpired term. (Paragraph 2512.2)

Section 10. Informal Action by Trustees: Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of trustees, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of trustees, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the trustees.

Section 11. Officers of the Board of Trustees:

(a) At the annual meeting, the Board of Trustees shall elect a president and a vice president, whose duties shall be those normally associated with such positions and with such additional duties as, from time to time, are assigned by the trustees. These officers shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees, and the vice president shall preside in the absence of the president. Any vacancies occurring in these offices shall be filled by the Board of Trustees at a duly called special meeting or annual meeting.

(b) The secretary and the treasurer/director of administrative services of the corporation shall serve ex officio as secretary and treasurer of the Board of Trustees as provided in Article IV, provided, however, should either of these persons be serving as elected members of the Board of Trustees, they shall be ineligible for the office of president or vice president.

Section 2. Said newly formed corporation shall exist for the sole purposes of being the legal entity to dispose of its existing property, and any other property to which its predecessor religious corporation may become entitled, as the rightful successor to any gift and/or bequest or other transfer made to such discontinued church.

Section 3. All proceeds of property sales and all gifts and/or bequests received by a corporation established under the provisions of this Article shall remain the property of the Annual Conference in accordance with the Discipline.

Limitation on By-Laws: In the event any provision of these by-laws shall not be in compliance with the Constitution and Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the provisions of the Discipline shall prevail, to the extent consistent with the law of Illinois, and this document shall be considered as amended from time to time where necessary for compliance with the Discipline.

Article XV Corporate Limitations

This corporation shall be responsible for the authorized acts of the corporate officers and agents and the authorized activities of conference agencies shall be deemed to be the acts of the corporation. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any local Charge, or any board, committee, council or agency affiliated with a local Charge, or any separate related religious or non-profit institution, or any trustee, officer or agent thereof, to contract for or in any way bind the corporation or render it liable for any act or omission of such Charge, board, committee, council, agency or institution

Article XVI Incorporated Conference-Related and Affiliated Institutions

A number of religious, educational and non-profit incorporated institutions participate directly or indirectly in the work and service of The United Methodist Church within the boundaries of the Annual Conference and are related in varying degrees to the Annual Conference, some being under the control thereof and others being autonomous while in close consultative and connectional relation. Their respective relationships to the Northern Illinois Annual Conference shall be as set forth in their articles of incorporation, by-laws and applicable provisions of the Discipline. All such incorporated institutions shall be solely responsible for their own acts, omissions, contracts and undertakings.

The nomination and election of the directors or trustees of said incorporated related and affiliated institutions shall be as provided in their respective articles of incorporation and by-laws as well as by the Discipline.

Article XVII Standing Rules

Article XVIII Indemnification of Officers, Directors, Trustees and Key Staff

The corporation also shall indemnify any of the foregoing for damages, fines, judgments, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, and appeals therefrom, except in relation to matters as to which any such officer, director, trustee or key staff member shall be adjudged in any action, suit or proceeding to be liable for willful misconduct in the performance of duties, such officer, director, trustee or staff member shall reimburse the corporation for all attorney's fees and costs expended by it, or which it has been obligated to spend, as a part of the defense of such officer, director, trustee, or key staff member.

Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the person has met the applicable standard of conduct and that indemnification is otherwise lawful and proper. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Trustees of the Northern Illinois Annual Conference (hereinafter called "the Board") by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of members not parties to such claim, action, suit or proceedings, or, if such a quorum cannot be convened, or even if convened, cannot or does not act for any reason, by special independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

The Board may authorize and direct that insurance be purchased and maintained on behalf of any person who is, was, or may be entitled to be indemnified hereunder against any liability asserted against and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of status as such, whether or not the institution would provide indemnity against such liability under the provisions hereof.

CLERGY SERVICE RECORDS

This roll and record have been carefully prepared according to the NIC database records. If there are errors, please notify your District office in writing. This record is not to be considered the basis for calculating official years of service; such information is accurately and officially kept by the Board of Pensions. No pastoral service before the date of admission on probation is recorded; lay pastor appointments are omitted. The year mentioned is the year the appointment was made. Since addresses appear in the Clergy Directory, they are not reproduced here.

MEMOIRS

June 23, 1936 – August 6, 2021

Richard “Dick” Boyer graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1958, with a bachelor’s degree in Chemical Engineering. On September 5, 1959, he married Carolyn Landes, the love of his life for 62 years. He worked for DuPont in Wilmington, DE, for two years, then was called to serve the Lord. Dick received a Master’s Degree in New Testament from Wesley Seminary in Washington, D.C., and earned his Ph.D. in Pastoral Psychology and Counseling from Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary and Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. He was an ordained United Methodist Minister. While in seminary, he served a three-church charge, commuted to Washington, D.C. from Maryland, helped care for his three young children, and received an academic scholarship.

Dick pastored Methodist churches in Maryland and Illinois from 1960 through 1981, serving Bethel UMC and St. Stephens UMC in Chicago, Roscoe UMC, and Wilmette UMC. He directed church-related pastoral counseling centers in Ohio and Oklahoma for 25 years. He loved serving in the parish. Even when he had full-time jobs starting and directing pastoral counseling centers, he served as interim pastor. Upon his retirement and move to Virginia, Rev. Boyer served Mountain Grove UMC and Huntersville UMC.

Dick had a beautiful voice and enjoyed singing in church and community choral groups. He played the cornet and performed as a soloist and in duets and played Taps at services for military personnel. Dr. Boyer wrote a book about the apostle Paul entitled, “Treasure in an Earthen Vessel”.

LEO CONSTANTINO

May 14, 1935 – August 10, 2021

Leo Constantino spent his youthful days in the UCCP Ellinwood Malate Church. Leo graduated from Union Theological Seminary. He then received a scholarship to attend Austin Presbyterian Seminary in Dallas, Texas. In 1961, Leo married Normal Barrantes in the Austin Presbyterian Church. Opportunities opened in Chicago and they moved to Chicago in 1962. Leo was the librarian at the Evangelical Theological Seminary (ETS) of the Evangelical United Brethren Church (EUB) in Naperville. Leo attended the University of Chicago for his Bachelor of Divinity Degree and would later expand his ministerial reach in church institutions and local congregations in the area.

Leo arrived in Chicago when the Filipino community was beginning to show growth following the national debate on U.S. immigration policies. It was the Chicago Federation of Churches that encouraged and supported ethnic groups to build religious communities to care for themselves and each other. Leo joined in welcoming and offering services to new arrivals and old-timers. Leo remembers getting together regularly with other Filipino pastors (Abel Amago, Arturo Capuli, and Salvador Capuli) to keep the Filipino dream alive. Leo would have something to do in most church organizing activities into the early 70s. He was instrumental in the creation of the Philippine-American College of Clergy (PACC) in 1971.

When Leo was received in The United Methodist Church by way of his affiliation with the EUB, he transitioned to the staff of the Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Library (merger of ETS and Garrett Seminary) in Evanston as reference librarian. Moving on, he was appointed by the bishop in 1980 to serve the United Church of the Medical Center (UCMC) as the Methodist pastor. Next to the Chicago Temple in the loop, UCMC was popular among Filipino protestants. After a stint as Assistant General Secretary of the General Board of Pension of the UMC, he served other churches in Northern Illinois Conference (NIC) of the UMC. He was also a delegate to General Conference.

Leo advocated for the recognition of clergy from the Philippines as equal among those in the dominant culture. Leo joined other national leaders with similar struggles and that led the birth of the Asian Caucus in the UMC and the whole UMC. All these resulted in the eventual creation of the National Association of Filipino American United Methodists (NAFAUM) of which he served as its president in 1997-1999. His passion for justice and peace issues was not confined in the U.S. Leo had visited the Philippines on mission trips several times to advocate for the helpless. He taught the learnings from those trips in UM mission schools. He led a fight to hold UTS and PCU to be true to agreed principles. He was active in Habitat for Humanity and Gawad Kalinga at one time.

LINDA LOU ELLER

May 14, 1933 – December 19, 2020

Linda Lou Eller was born in Flint Michigan. Linda graduated from Albion College in Michigan and then traveled to Madison, Wis, where she met and married her husband Bruce in 1957. After some early work in the YWCA, a full life of raising three children, and volunteer work for the United Methodist Church in the Chicago area, Linda felt her calling to more thoroughly do God's work.

Lisa was ordained in 1977, as one of several in the second wave of female ministers in the Methodist Church. She served in various locations in the Northern Illinois Conference, including Lindenhurst, Ingleside, Arlington Heights, Rockford, and Lanark, Ill. Linda retired "retired" in 1996 to the family home in Raymond, CO, but was still active in the church - filling in as guest pastor at the Allenspark Community Church on occasion. Linda continued her mother and grandmother's tradition of becoming highly involved in working with the Hilltop Guild, also in Allenspark. Linda moved with her husband to live with their son in Monument, CO in 2018, and then to the Medallion care center in Colorado Springs shortly thereafter. She was greatly loved by the staff and fellow residents, and even continued her ministry there through assisting the facility Chaplain with a Bible study class.

JUDITH M. GIESE

Judith M. Giese was born in Berwyn Illinois on October 15, 1953. The family attended the Brookfield Methodist church near their home. Judy attended elementary school in Brookfield and graduated from Lyons Township High School in La Grange. She went to North Central College and completed an education degree. She helped at her local church with the youth groups during special events; cross country skiing, overnight church campouts.

In 1989, Pastor Judy completed the Master of Divinity at Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston. She became an ordained Elder in the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist church. The 1st charge was United Methodist churches; Clearing & Ashburn in southwest Chicago. Her first rural appointment was 6 years at the Plano United Methodist Church. She served from July 1, 2001-2013, at Malta & Northwest Malta Churches. While at Malta she helped host the Annual Day in the Country at the Malta community. Chicago churches were invited to visit farms and learn about where their food was grown. Pastor Judy boarded a paint horse at a farm on the tour. Pastor Judy was appointed to Red Oak (Bureau) & Wyanet Methodist churches until her medical leave October 2017.

ROLAND CHARLES HARKLEROAD

January 31, 1950 – May 29, 2021

Roland Charles Harkleroad was a Navy brat turned a man of the cloth.

Roland was born in 1950 while his father was serving in the Navy. He graduated from Randolph-Henry High School in Virginia and studied at the University of Virginia before enlisting in the Navy. He earned an associate degree from Chapman College while on shore duty.

In 1970, Roland married his wife, Stewart, and together they had 3 children. During the first 8 years of their marriage, he was stationed on the USS Berkeley destroyer. Following the Navy, he worked for various enterprises including Rockwell-Collings, Kreuger Crane Systems, Motorola, and Woodward-Governor.

After their move to Rockford, Roland and Stewart became active members of the Harlem United Methodist Church. Roland taught Adult Sunday School, attended church meetings, and later became interested in lay speaking. Through his volunteering, he discovered he liked giving sermons and helping people. He became a local pastor in 2003.

Roland served at both Shirland and Owen Center United Methodist Churches. He helped walk Owen Center UMC through the closing and selling of the church. He continued to minister to people working as a chaplain at Mercy Hospital in Rockford.

When Roland wasn't working, he liked to read, watch TV, play sudoku, go to the movies, fish, and go to sporting events. He found immense joy in helping people.

December 17, 1927 - May 31, 2021

Edward L. Heyer was born in 1927 on his family farm, just in time for the depression. He was raised by his widowed father, learning the art of subsistence farming. After graduating from high school, he farmed with his father for three years, before matriculating at Aurora and then Naperville College. While at Aurora College, he felt nudged toward the ministry and began to prepare himself for a calling he had not previously imagined. He graduated from Evangelical Theological Seminary with a Master of Theology degree and began a life of service in the ministry.

He and Jane Williams were married in 1957. Ed, Jane and family voyaged into Mission work, first in Zimbabwe, where two of their four children were born, and then on to Sierra Leone and Liberia. Ed taught secondary school and then taught at a seminary. He discovered that the problems of subsistence farming are universal and the skills he had learned while farming with his father were valued wherever he served. Another tenet he learned from his father: “never give something for nothing” conflicted with his inherent compassion, when, in every country in which he served, hordes of impoverished African men came to plead for school fees. Ed solved this conundrum by buying scores of watches that didn’t work from the school fee supplicants.

After Mission work, Ed served as Pastor with the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church serving in Seneca, Winfield, Joliet, and Sheridan. His parishioners came to treasure him for his tact, discretion, and compassion.

He retired back to the family farm, where he raised beef cattle in that subsistence farming method he knew so well. He also served as pastor of the Triumph United Methodist Church and on the Conference Board of Global Missions.

BRUCE C. JANES

October 27, 1929 - April 19, 2022

Bruce Janes was born in Adair County Kentucky and was raised on a small farm. Drafted before he completed high school, he served as a cook’s assistant in World War II, arriving in Germany shortly after the liberation of the country.

Responding to the call into the ministry, Bruce attended Lindsey Wilson Junior College and earned his undergraduate degree at Union College in KY. He then continued his studies at Asbury Seminary and Chandler School of Theology at Emory University. At a conference for church leaders, Bruce met Mozelle McCormick, then a Director of Christian Education in Georgia. Their relationship blossomed and they were married on Dec. 26, 1953, forming a permanent ministry partnership.

In 1954, he was appointed as full-time pastor in Burnside Kentucky. He served two more appointments in Kentucky before moving to the Northern Illinois Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1960. He faithfully served in the communities where he was appointed—West Pullman (Chicago), Lake Villa, Milledgeville, Orangeville/Afolkey, Prophetstown. Even once he was “officially” retired, he remained active, serving as interim pastor at Dakota/Rock Grove UMC and St. Paul Church of Epleyanna (Davis) and as visitation pastor for Freeport’s Faith UMC. Within the Freeport community, he frequently conducted chapel services at nursing homes and senior residential facilities.

Beyond the church, Bruce’s passions included gardening and missions work. The produce from his gardens fed his family and many others. His passion for missions found him participating in work camps at Red Bird Mission in Kentucky, volunteering at Freeport Area Church Co-Op and cheerfully walking in fundraisers for RAMP, CROP and other charities. He enjoyed sharing nature’s bounty, God’s blessings, a good laugh and Christian fellowship.

JOSEPH T. KIM

August 12, 1965 - March 3, 2021

Rev. Kim started serving in Ministry in 2006 and became a full time Elder with the United Methodist Church in 2012. He served at Good Shepherd Korean Presbyterian Church, Korean Presbyterian Church of San Diego, Korean United Methodist Church of South Suburban Chicago, Fenton United Methodist Church, First United Methodist Church of Lockport and Aldersgate United Methodist Church.

Joseph was uniquely intelligent and had a gift for academia and writing. He was a man of few words, but the ones he offered would always be profound; exactly the ones you needed to hear in that moment. He was a faithful husband to his wife, Jennifer. He taught his children, Lydia and Nathan, to be passionate and leave this world a better place than they found it. They will live the rest of their lives with the goal of honoring his legacy.

He was a true example of God's love to everyone he came in contact with. He cherished books, music and his family most of all.

EVARISTO LOAIZA

October 25, 1924 – February 13, 2022

Evaristo Loaiza was born on October 25 in Cali Colombia in 1924. From an early age he got up early and worked on the family farm alongside his father. Tidying up cows and reaping crops was the beginning of a disciplined and hard-working life. But Evaristo wanted to leave the estate and study. A lover of learning, he defied his father and saved to leave the countryside and go to the city and seek other opportunities. He did not go in search of riches, but with a humble heart, he went in search of another purpose. He entered the Colegio Americana and it was during this stage of his life that he learned about the gospel. Years later he came to the USA, and the divine call to ministry became clearer. He found Lilia and they got married. In the Methodist church he stood out as a leader with the pastor. He decided to enter Garrett Seminary and by the end of the 70s he already had his pastoral position.

As a pastor, Evaristo rejoiced when he saw others draw near to Jesus and salvation. His goal was to shepherd a community of believers and for them to feel united as a family. He handed out food from the church pantry, prayed and brought musical specials to the nursing home, led home Bible studies, youth rallies and retreats, summer school and gave gifts to the children. His time pastoring the church was non-stop work but always a labor of love. Like every pastor there are always victories and storms. A great storm came when his dear wife Lilia passed away at the age of 67. He still remained true to the call to serve, seeking ways to serve the church with every person he met. In his last hours, He was able to say goodbye next to His two daughters with peace and joy in his heart. The Lord called him to his heavenly abode on Sunday, February 13, 2022.

He was ordained to the ministry of the gospel by the United Church of Christ in the Philippines, Southern Tagalog Annual Conference on August 10, 1969. He grew up on his parents' dairy farm in Polo, and received his BA from Cornell College (Iowa), M.Div from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, and M.A. in Religion from Northwestern University. He was ordained in the Northern Illinois Conference, UMC, in 1955. Mason married art and preschool teacher Antoinette DiCuia of New York in 1958, and they had three children.

He began his career as associate minister at Morgan Park UMC, and was later resident chaplain at Berkshire Farm for Boys and the Illinois Industrial School. JOHN FRANKLIN SMITH
SEPTEMBER 8, 1929 – AUGUST 5, 2020

John Franklin Smith, was born in Wood River, Ill. The son of Leonard and Lucy (Phipps) Smith, John married Elizabeth Esther Haworth on August 7, 1953. They had five children, Rev. J. Michael Smith (Illinois Great Rivers Conference, UMC), James P. Smith, Rev. J. Steven Smith (Illinois Great Rivers Conference, UMC), Jay L. Smith, and Debi Smith Gomez.

After graduating from Wood River High School, John entered the army. He was grateful to be a witness to history, serving at one point in General Douglas MacArthur's honor guard in post-war Japan. After his discharge, John felt the call to ministry and enrolled in North Central College for his college degree, then Evangelical Seminary in Naperville for his Divinity degree. While in college he served Symerton E.U.B. church (1956-1959) and while in seminary the Pierce E.U.B. church (between Hinckley and Maple Park, 1959-1963). Upon completion of seminary, he was appointed to Dalton City and Casner (1963-1966). Between 1966-1968 he was part of an experimental larger parish composed of E.U.B. churches and Methodist churches in anticipation of the 1968 denominational merger. Those 5 churches were located in Rock Grove, Rock City, Dakota, and Davis. He was then sent to the East Jordan Church (north of Sterling) in 1968. Trinity Church in Sterling was added to his charge in 1970. He served those churches until 1976, when he was appointed to South Elgin Community Church, (1976-1985). His last appointment before retiring was the Sugar Grove Church (1985-1994). He served numerous churches in both the Northern Illinois Conference and the Illinois Great Rivers Conference in his retirement, preaching and visiting.

John was well liked for his outgoing personality and his quick hospitality, especially with those who didn't feel comfortable in church. His personal creed as a pastor was unconditional love for everyone within reach of his care. He was quick to listen, eager to help, and generous with empathy. He had unflinching courage to stay with people who were going through life's worst tragedies.

For many years, John and Esther were active leaders in Marriage Encounter United Methodist. They were a presenting couple for more than three decades in ME weekends throughout the country. John especially enjoyed doing weddings in his ministry, and his last two, #400 and #401 were for his granddaughters Scarlette and Alison in 2015.

After his retirement, John and Esther lived in Elgin, Illinois, after she too retired from a career as an elementary teacher. Both of them served as substitute teachers in their retirement. They also travelled extensively throughout the United States, China, and Europe.

THOMAS J WALKER

During his ministry, Thomas J Walker served Ottawa Street UMC, (Joliet), Sandwich UMC, Gary Memorial UMC (Wheaton,), Hazel Crest UMC, Belvidere UMC, and retiring after 10 years from First UMC (Elgin) in 2001. He received degrees from DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana, Drew University, Madison, NJ, and a Doctor of Ministry from Chicago Theological Seminary.

Over the years, youth and adults would recall life-changing experiences as Tom led church camps (Reynolds Wood, Wesley Woods) or mission trips to Red Bird, Henderson, Asheville, Inner city Chicago, South Bend, and Espanola, NM.

Tom will be remembered for his use of his spiritual gifts of preaching and teaching God's Word. He devoted many hours each week in study, writing first drafts on paper with pen, and then to a printed copy. When he preached, Pastor Tom came down from the pulpit to be closer to his congregation and never referred to his manuscript. Congregants often commented it was as if he had been at our kitchen table and heard our conversation. In over 1400 sermons in 40 years of ministry, his sermons always were personal, relevant, and Spirit-filled.

Tom's study and library were his source of joy and comfort. He worked from a desk made for him as a youth by his skilled woodworker grandfather. By today's standards, the desk is too out-of-date, too small for scattered papers and open books, not convenient for computer or printer, but the desk's stress marks are (in themselves) evidence of Tom's devotion to his calling as a student, pastor, scholar, lover of the written word, and searcher for God's truth. Tom would often amaze friends and family by quoting an author he read long before, and he could recall its location in his library and the page it could be found; the same for locating Scripture. When he taught classes in 'spiritual growth', a book list was available that he, himself, read and found helpful. Especially after retirement, Study Group participants looked to Tom for a next book to study; more than not, he had a good one to recommend.

As husband, father, pastor, friend, Tom will be remembered for his love for his family, friends and congregations, his devotion to his growing faith, his in-depth conversations with youth, his teaching spiritual formation groups that called for additional chairs to be added to the meeting room, and his generous support for the ministries of the Church and for those forgotten in our world.
